By using a shelf registration statement, the selling stockholder may from time to time offer and sell shares of our common stock in one or more offerings.

In this prospectus supplement, we provide you with specific information about the terms of this offering and updates with respect to information contained in the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. The accompanying prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference, provides more general information, some of which may not apply to this offering. As permitted by the rules and regulations of the SEC, the registration statement, of which this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus form a part, includes additional information not contained in this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus. You should carefully read this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus together with the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus before buying any shares of our common stock in this offering.

Unless the context otherwise indicates, the terms we, us, our, Delek and the Company refer to Delek US Holdings, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries. Terms used, but not defined, in this prospectus supplement shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the accompanying prospectus.

We are responsible for the information included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus or any free writing prospectus prepared by us. None of the Company, the selling stockholder or the underwriters has authorized anyone to provide information or represent anything other than that contained, or incorporated by reference, in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus or any free writing prospectus prepared by us. Please see Selling Stockholder on page S-12.

Recent Developments

Common Stock Repurchase Program

On March 13, 2014, we announced that our Board of Directors had authorized a $50.0 million common stock repurchase program (the 2014 Repurchase Program). The repurchases are intended to be implemented through open market transactions or in privately negotiated transactions, in accordance with applicable securities laws. The timing, price, and size of repurchases will be made at the discretion of management and will depend upon prevailing market prices, general economic and market conditions and other considerations. The 2014 Repurchase Program does not obligate us to acquire any particular amount of stock, and the authorization under the 2014 Repurchase Program will expire on December 31, 2014.

Dividend

On May 6, 2014, our Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.15 per share, payable on June 17, 2014 to stockholders of record on May 27, 2014.

Haynesville Spill

On April 25, 2014, a release of an estimated 300 to 400 barrels of crude oil occurred from a gathering line of Delek Logistics Partners, LP, one of our subsidiaries (Delek Logistics), near Haynesville, Louisiana. Some of the oil flowed into a section of a nearby dry ravine, but no significant environmental or public impacts have been identified. Emergency cleanup operations were coordinated with Louisiana and federal officials and concluded on May 7, 2014. Site maintenance, and remediation, if determined to be necessary, may continue for several months or longer. Based on current information available to us, we do not believe the total costs associated with this event, including any fines or penalties and net of partial insurance reimbursement, will have a material adverse effect upon our business, financial condition or results of operations.

MAPCO Refinancing

On May 6, 2014, one of our subsidiaries, MAPCO Express, Inc. (MAPCO Express), refinanced its $200.0 million revolving credit facility (MAPCO Revolver) by entering into a Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement with Fifth Third Bank as Administrative Agent and a syndicate of lenders (the Successor MAPCO Revolver). The Successor MAPCO Revolver amends and restates the principal terms and conditions of the existing MAPCO Revolver to, among other things, extend the maturity date of the MAPCO Revolver to May 6, 2019, modify certain financial and non-financial covenants, and effect certain changes to the interest rate pricing grid and fees. The Successor MAPCO Revolver includes (i) a $160.0 million revolving credit facility, which includes a $10.0 million sublimit for swing line loans and a $40.0 million sublimit for letters of credit, and (ii) an accordion feature that permits an increase in such revolving credit facility by up to $50.0 million, subject to additional lender commitments. Borrowings under the Successor MAPCO Revolver are secured by (i) substantially all the assets of MAPCO Express and its subsidiaries, subject to certain exemptions and limitations, (ii) all of our shares in MAPCO Express, and (iii) a limited guaranty provided by us of up to $50.0 million in obligations.

Dividend Policy In November 2012, our Board of Directors announced its intention to pay a regular quarterly cash dividend of $0.10 per share of our common stock beginning in the fourth quarter of 2012; and, in May 2013, our Board of Directors increased the regular quarterly cash dividend to $0.15 per share of our common stock, beginning in the second quarter of 2013. On March 13, 2014, our Board of Directors authorized a special dividend of $0.10 per share, which was paid on April 24, 2014 to stockholders of record on April 3, 2014. As of the date hereof, we intend to continue to pay regular quarterly cash dividends on our common stock at the annual rate of $0.60 per share. The declaration and payment of future regular and/or special dividends to holders of our common stock will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend upon many factors, including our financial condition, earnings, legal requirements, restrictions in our debt agreements and other factors that our Board of Directors deems relevant.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves risks. You should carefully consider the information included in this prospectus supplement, together with the other information in, or incorporated by reference into, this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, prior to making a decision to purchase shares of our common stock. You should carefully consider the risks, uncertainties and assumptions described in our annual, quarterly and current reports, including those identified in our 2013 Annual Report and in other documents that we subsequently file with the SEC that update, supplement or supersede such information, which documents are incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement.

Risks Relating to this Offering and Our Common Stock

Future sales of our shares could depress the market price of our common stock.

Except as described in the section entitled "Underwriting," we are not restricted from issuing additional common stock, including securities that are convertible into or exchangeable for, or that represent the right to receive, common stock. The market price of our common stock could decline as a result of sales of shares of our common stock made after this offering or the perception that such sales could occur, and these sales, or the possibility that these sales may occur, could make it more difficult for us to sell equity securities in the future at a time and at a price that we deem appropriate. In the future, we may issue our common stock in connection with investments or acquisitions. The amount of such common stock issued could constitute a material portion of our then outstanding common stock.

Additional issuances of equity securities would dilute the ownership of our existing stockholders and could reduce our earnings per share.

We may issue equity securities in the future in connection with capital raisings, acquisitions, strategic transactions or for other purposes. To the extent we issue a substantial number of additional equity securities, the ownership of our existing stockholders would be diluted and our earnings per share could be reduced.

The price of our common stock may fluctuate significantly, and you could lose all or part of your investment.

The market price of our common stock may be influenced by many factors, some of which are beyond our control, including:

our quarterly or annual earnings or those of other companies in our industry;

our ability to pay future dividends as frequently and in the amounts described herein;

changes in accounting standards, policies, guidance, interpretations or principles;

general economic and stock market conditions;

the failure of securities analysts to cover our common stock or changes in financial estimates by analysts;

future sales of our common stock;

announcements by us or our competitors of significant contracts or acquisitions;

Edgar Filing: Delek US Holdings, Inc. - Form 424B7

sales of common stock by us, our senior officers or our affiliates; and the other factors discussed in these Risk Factors and Item 1A, Risk Factors, and Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, of our 2013 Annual Report.

In recent years, the stock market has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations. This volatility has had a significant impact on the market price of securities issued by many companies, including companies in our industry. The changes often occur without any apparent regard to the operating performance of these companies. The price of our common stock could fluctuate based upon factors that have little or nothing to do with our company, and these fluctuations could materially reduce our stock price. In addition, recent distress in the credit and financial markets resulted in extreme volatility in trading prices of securities and diminished liquidity, and we cannot assure you that our liquidity will not be affected by changes in the financial markets and the global economy. In the past, some companies that have experienced volatile market prices for their securities have been subject to securities class action suits filed against them. The filing of a lawsuit against us, regardless of the outcome, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations, as it could result in substantial legal costs and a diversion of our management's attention and resources.

USE OF PROCEEDS

All of the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus supplement will be sold by the selling stockholder. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of shares by the selling stockholder.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary of our capital stock is a description of our capital stock pursuant to our second amended and restated certificate of incorporation and second amended and restated bylaws, which we refer to as our certificate of incorporation and bylaws, respectively. This information does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the terms of our certificate of incorporation, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on August 8, 2013 and incorporated herein by reference, our bylaws, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to our Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on March 20, 2013 and incorporated herein by reference, and the provisions of applicable Delaware law, the state in which we are incorporated.

Our authorized capital stock consists of 120,000,000 shares, of which 110,000,000 shares are common stock, par value $0.01 per share, 59,351,215 shares of which were issued and outstanding, and 1,000,000 shares of which were held as treasury shares, as of May 8, 2014, and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, none of which are issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

Holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders and do not have cumulative voting rights in connection with the election of directors. Accordingly, holders of a majority of the shares of common stock entitled to vote in any election of directors may elect all of the directors standing for election.

Subject to any preferential rights of our preferred stock the outstanding, holders of common stock are entitled to receive any dividends that may be declared by our Board of Directors out of legally available funds. In the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, holders of common stock will be entitled to receive proportionately any of our assets remaining after the payment of liabilities and any preferential rights of our preferred stock then outstanding.

Holders of our common stock have no preemptive, subscription, redemption, conversion or sinking fund rights. The outstanding shares of our common stock are validly issued and fully paid. All shares of common stock have equal rights and preferences. The rights, preferences and privileges of the holders of our common stock are subject to and may be adversely affected by the rights of holders of shares of any series of our preferred stock that we may designate and issue in the future.

Preferred Stock

Our Board of Directors may, from time to time, authorize the issuance of one or more classes or series of preferred stock without stockholder approval. Though we have no current intention to issue any shares of preferred stock, our certificate of incorporation permits us to issue up to 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. Subject to the provisions of our certificate of incorporation and limitations prescribed by law, our Board of Directors is authorized to adopt resolutions to issue shares, establish the number of shares constituting any series, provide or change the voting powers, if any, determine designations, preferences and relative rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions on shares of our preferred stock, including dividend rights, redemption rights, conversion rights and liquidation preferences, in each case without any action or vote by our stockholders.

The issuance of preferred stock may adversely affect the rights of our common stockholders by, among other things:

restricting dividends on the common stock;

diluting the voting power of the common stock;

impairing the liquidation rights of the common stock; or delaying or preventing a change in control without further action by the stockholders.

Table of Contents

As a result of these or other factors, the issuance of preferred stock could have an adverse impact on the market price of our common stock.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Provisions of Our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain provisions that could make it more difficult to acquire control of the Company by means of a tender offer, open market purchases, a proxy contest or otherwise. A description of these provisions is set forth below.

Preferred Stock

We believe that the availability of the preferred stock under our certificate of incorporation provides us with flexibility in addressing corporate issues that may arise. Having these authorized shares available for issuance will allow us to issue shares of preferred stock without the expense and delay of a special meeting of stockholders. The authorized shares of preferred stock, as well as shares of common stock, will be available for issuance without further action by our stockholders, unless action is required by applicable law or the rules of any stock exchange on which our securities may be listed. The Board of Directors has the power, subject to applicable law, to issue one or more series of preferred stock that could, depending on the terms of any such series, impede the completion of a merger, tender offer or other takeover attempt that some, or a majority, of the stockholders might believe to be in their best interests or in which stockholders might receive a premium for their shares over the prevailing market price of our then outstanding capital stock.

Advance Notice Procedure

Our bylaws provide an advance procedure for stockholders to nominate director candidates for election or to bring business before an annual meeting of stockholders. Only persons nominated by, or at the direction of, our Board of Directors or by a stockholder who has given proper and timely notice to our secretary prior to the meeting, will be eligible for election as a director. In addition, any proposed business other than the nomination of persons for election to our Board of Directors must constitute a proper matter for stockholder action pursuant to the notice of meeting delivered to us. For such notice to be timely, it must be received by our secretary not less than 90 nor more than 120 calendar days prior to the date our proxy statement was released to stockholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting (or if the date of the annual meeting is advanced more than 30 calendar days or delayed by more than 30 calendar days from the anniversary date of the previous year's annual meeting, not earlier than 90 calendar days prior to such meeting and not later than 10 calendar days after public disclosure of the date of such meeting is first made by the Company). These advance notice provisions may have the effect of precluding the conduct of certain business at a meeting if the proper procedures are not followed or may discourage or deter a potential acquirer from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect its own slate of directors or otherwise attempt to obtain control of the Company.

Special Meetings of Stockholders; No Action on Written Consent

Our bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders may be called only by our chairman of the board, president or by our secretary upon written request of a majority of our Board of Directors. In addition, our certificate of incorporation provides that no action may be taken by stockholders except at an annual or special meeting of stockholders and expressly prohibits action by written consent in lieu of a meeting. These provisions make it more difficult for stockholders to take action opposed by our Board of Directors.

Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws Amendments

Our certificate of incorporation requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the voting power of our capital stock in order to amend certain of its provisions, including any provisions concerning (i) the amendment of the bylaws, (ii) the limitations of liability of directors, (iii) indemnification of directors and officers, (iv) the purchase and maintenance of insurance by the Company on behalf of any director, officer, employee or agent thereof, (v) the removal of any director or the entire Board of Directors, and (vi) the percentage of votes represented by capital stock required to approve certain amendments to the certificate of incorporation. These voting requirements will make it more difficult for stockholders to make changes in the certificate of incorporation that would be designed to facilitate the exercise of control over the Company. In addition, the requirement of approval by at least a 66 2/3% stockholder vote will enable the holders of a minority of the voting securities of the Company to prevent the holders of a majority or more of such securities from amending such provisions.

In addition, the certificate of incorporation provides that stockholders may only adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws by the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of our outstanding voting stock. In contrast, our certificate of incorporation grants the Board of Directors the authority to adopt, alter, amend or repeal any and all of the bylaws of the Company without the approval of stockholders.

Size of the Board of Directors; Removal; Filling of Vacancies

Our bylaws provide that our Board of Directors shall consist of not less than three and not more than fifteen persons, with the exact number fixed from time to time by the majority vote of the entire Board of Directors. Our certificate of incorporation allows our stockholders to remove any director, or the entire Board of Directors, with or without cause, upon the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of our outstanding voting stock. In addition, our certificate of incorporation provides that any vacancy on the Board of Directors, including one created by an increase in the number of directors, may be filled only by a majority of the directors then in office (even if less than a quorum), or by a sole remaining director. As a result of these provisions, our stockholders cannot (i) increase the size of the Board of Directors without amending the bylaws, (ii) remove any director, or the entire Board of Directors, without the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of our outstanding voting stock, or (iii) fill newly created directorships without amending the certificate of incorporation.

Limitation on Liability and Indemnification Matters

Our certificate of incorporation limits the liability of directors to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. The effect of these provisions is to eliminate the rights of our Company and our stockholders, through stockholders' derivative suits on behalf of our Company, to recover monetary damages against a director for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, including breaches resulting from grossly negligent behavior. However, exculpation does not apply if the directors breached their duty of loyalty to us or our stockholders, acted in bad faith, knowingly or intentionally violated the law, authorized illegal dividends or redemptions (as described under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL)) or derived an improper benefit from their actions as directors. Our certificate of incorporation further provides that if the DGCL is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of the directors will be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, as amended. In addition, our bylaws provide that we will indemnify our directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law.

We have entered into separate indemnification agreements with each of our directors and executive officers that may be broader than the specific indemnification provisions contained in the DGCL. These indemnification agreements require us, among other things, to indemnify our directors and officers against liabilities that may arise by reason of their status or service as directors or officers.

In addition, our certificate of incorporation authorizes us to maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance to provide our directors and officers with insurance coverage for losses arising from claims based on breaches of duty, negligence, errors and other wrongful acts.

These provisions may also have the effect of reducing the likelihood of derivative litigation against directors and officers, even though such an action, if successful, might otherwise benefit us and our stockholders. In addition, the stockholders' investment may be adversely affected to the extent we pay the costs of settlement and damage awards against directors and officers pursuant to these indemnification provisions and/or separate indemnification agreements.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Delaware Law

We are a Delaware corporation that is subject to Section 203 of the DGCL. Section 203 provides that, subject to certain exceptions specified in the law, an interested stockholder of a Delaware corporation shall not engage in any business combination with the corporation for a three-year period following the time that the stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless:

prior to such time, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;

upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced (excluding specified shares); or on or subsequent to such time, the business combination is approved by the board of directors of the corporation and authorized at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, and not by written consent, upon the affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting stock not owned by the interested stockholder.

Generally, a business combination includes a merger, asset or stock sale or other transaction resulting in a financial benefit to the interested stockholder. Except as otherwise specified in Section 203, an interested stockholder is defined to include:

any person that is the owner of 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation, or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and was the owner of 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation at any time within three years immediately prior to the date of determination; and the affiliates and associates of any such person.

Under some circumstances, Section 203 makes it more difficult for a person who would be an interested stockholder to effect various business combinations with a corporation for a three-year period. The provisions of Section 203 may encourage any entity interested in acquiring our Company to negotiate in advance with our Board of Directors because the stockholder approval requirement would be avoided if our Board of Directors approves either the business combination or the transaction that results in such entity becoming an interested stockholder. These provisions also may make it more difficult to accomplish transactions involving our Company that our stockholders may otherwise deem to be in their best interests.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL TAX CONSIDERATIONS TO NON-U.S. HOLDERS

This section summarizes the material U.S. federal income and estate tax considerations related to the ownership and disposition of our common stock by Non-U.S. Holders, as defined below. This section does not address all aspects of taxation that may be relevant to particular Non-U.S. Holders in light of their personal investment or tax circumstances, or to certain Non-U.S. Holders that are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws. Moreover, this summary assumes that Non-U.S. Holders hold our common stock as a capital asset for U.S. federal income tax purposes, which generally means property held for investment. The statements in this section are based on the current U.S. federal income tax laws, including the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), the regulations promulgated by the U.S. Treasury Department (Treasury Regulations), rulings and other administrative interpretations and practices of the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS), and judicial decisions, all as currently in effect, and all of which are subject to differing interpretations or to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion is for general purposes only and is not tax advice. We cannot assure you that new laws, interpretations of law, or court decisions, any of which may take effect retroactively, will not cause any statement in this section to be inaccurate.

As used in this discussion, the term Non-U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of our common stock that is an individual, corporation, estate or trust that is not a U.S. person. For purposes of this summary, the term U.S. person means a person that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (including any entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States, any of its states or the District of Columbia;

an estate whose income is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or any trust if (1) a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (2) it has a valid election in place to be treated as a U.S. person.

If a partnership, entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes (a partnership) holds our common stock, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of an owner of the partnership generally will depend on the status of the owner and the activities of the partnership. If you are an owner of a partnership holding our common stock, you are urged to consult your tax advisor regarding the consequences of the ownership and disposition of our common stock by the partnership.

Prospective purchasers of our common stock are urged to consult their own tax advisors with respect to the application of U.S. federal income and estate tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax considerations arising under other U.S. federal tax laws (such as U.S. federal gift tax laws) or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

Distributions on Common Stock

If we distribute cash or other property to beneficial owners of our common stock, such distributions generally will constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent attributable to our current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. If the amount of any distribution exceeds our current and accumulated earnings and profits, such excess first will be treated as a tax-free return of capital to the extent of the Non-U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in our common stock, and thereafter will be treated as described under Dispositions of Common Stock below.

Any distributions paid to a Non-U.S. Holder that are treated as dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that are not effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States generally will be subject to withholding at a rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty. To claim the benefit of a reduced withholding rate under an applicable income tax treaty, a Non-U.S. Holder generally (i) will be required to complete IRS Form W-8BEN (or other applicable form) and certify under penalties of perjury that it is not a U.S. person and is eligible for the benefits of the applicable tax treaty or (ii) will be required to satisfy the relevant certification requirements of the applicable Treasury Regulations, if our common stock is held through certain foreign intermediaries. A Non-U.S. Holder eligible for a reduced rate of withholding of U.S. federal income tax pursuant to an income tax treaty may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under an applicable income tax treaty and the manner of claiming the benefits of such treaty (including, without limitation, the need to obtain a U.S. taxpayer identification number).

Any distributions paid to a Non-U.S. Holder that are treated as dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that are effectively connected with a Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States) are subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the U.S. federal income tax rates generally applicable to U.S. persons and are not subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax, provided that the Non-U.S. Holder establishes an exemption from such withholding by complying with certain certification and disclosure requirements. Any such dividends received by a Non-U.S. Holder that is treated as a foreign corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a 30% rate, or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty.

Dispositions of Common Stock

Any gain recognized by a Non-U.S. Holder on a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of our common stock generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless:

the gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business of the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States);

the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of such sale, exchange or other taxable disposition, and certain other conditions are met; or we are or have been a United States real property holding corporation, orUSRPHC, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the Non-U.S. Holder is not eligible for an exemption under an applicable income tax treaty or otherwise, as described below.

A Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at the rates generally applicable to U.S. persons on any gain that is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business of the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States), and any such Non-U.S. Holder will be required to file a U.S. federal income tax return. Any gain of a corporate Non-U.S. Holder that is described in the first bullet above may also be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a 30% rate, or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty.

An individual Non-U.S. Holder who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of our common stock, generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a flat rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on any gain recognized on the sale, exchange or other disposition of our common stock if certain conditions are met, which may be offset by certain U.S.-source capital losses (even though such individual is not considered a resident of the United States) during the taxable year of disposition.

A U.S. corporation generally constitutes a USRPHC if the fair market value of its U.S. real property interests equals or exceeds 50% of the sum of the fair market value of its worldwide real property interests plus its other assets used or held for use in a trade or business. Because we own a significant amount of real property, including retail fuel and convenience stores, we may be, or may become, a USRPHC. The determination of whether we are a USRPHC is fact specific and depends on the composition of our assets. If our common stock continues to be regularly traded on an established securities market, as defined by applicable Treasury Regulations, a Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to such gain if the Non-U.S. Holder held, actually or constructively (by application of certain attribution rules), at all times during the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date of disposition or the Non-U.S. Holder's holding period for the common stock, 5% or less of our common stock. Our common stock currently is listed on the NYSE and we believe that, for as long as our common stock continues to be so listed, our common stock will be treated as regularly traded on an established securities market. If a Non-U.S. Holder held more than 5% of our common stock at any time during the relevant period and if we are a USRPHC at any time during the relevant period, such Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to tax on the net gain derived from a taxable disposition of our common stock at the U.S. federal income tax rates generally applicable to a U.S. person. Non-U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential applicability of these rules as well as any income tax treaty in their particular circumstances.

U.S. Federal Estate Tax

Any shares of our common stock that are owned or treated as owned by an individual who is not a citizen or resident (as defined for U.S. federal estate tax purposes) of the United States at the time of death will be includible in the individual's gross estate for U.S. federal estate tax purposes, unless an applicable estate tax treaty provides otherwise, and therefore may be subject to U.S. federal estate tax.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

We generally must report annually to the IRS and to each Non-U.S. Holder of our common stock the amount of dividends paid to such Non-U.S. Holder on our common stock and the tax, if any, withheld with respect to those dividends. Copies of the information returns reporting those dividends and withholding also may be made available to the tax authorities in the country in which the Non-U.S. Holder is a resident under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty. In addition, information reporting generally is required with respect to the proceeds from sales and other dispositions of our common stock to or through the U.S. office (and in certain cases, the foreign office) of a broker, unless the Non-U.S. Holder establishes that it is not a U.S. person.

Under some circumstances, Treasury Regulations may require backup withholding of U.S. federal income tax, currently at a rate of 28%, on dividends and gross proceeds with respect to our common stock. A Non-U.S. Holder generally may eliminate the requirement for information reporting (other than with respect to dividends, as described above) and backup withholding by providing certification of its foreign status, under penalties of perjury, on a duly executed applicable IRS Form W-8 or by otherwise establishing an exemption. Notwithstanding the foregoing, backup withholding and information reporting may apply if the payor has actual knowledge, or reason to know, that a beneficial owner is a U.S. person. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the amount of any backup withholding will be allowed as a credit against a Non-U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, and may entitle such Non-U.S. Holder to a refund, provided that certain required information is timely furnished to the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of backup withholding and the availability of, and procedure for, obtaining an exemption from backup withholding in their particular circumstances.

FATCA Withholding

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) imposes a federal withholding tax on certain types of payments made to foreign financial institutions and certain other non-U.S. entities unless certain due diligence, reporting, withholding, and certification obligation requirements are satisfied. FATCA generally imposes a federal withholding tax at a rate of 30% on dividends on, and gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of, our common stock if paid to a foreign entity unless either (i) the foreign entity is a foreign financial institution that undertakes certain due diligence, reporting, withholding, and certification obligations, or in the case of a foreign financial institution that is a resident in a jurisdiction that has entered into an intergovernmental agreement to implement FATCA, the entity complies with the diligence and reporting requirements of such agreement, (ii) the foreign entity is not a foreign financial institution and identifies certain of its U.S. investors, or (iii) the foreign entity otherwise is excepted under FATCA. Under delayed effective dates provided for in the Treasury Regulations, such required withholding will not begin until July 1, 2014 with respect to dividends on our common stock, and January 1, 2017 with respect to gross proceeds from a sale or other disposition of our common stock.

If withholding is required under FATCA on a payment with respect to our common stock, a Non-U.S. Holder that otherwise would not be subject to withholding (or that otherwise would be entitled to a reduced rate of withholding) generally will be required to seek a refund or credit from the IRS to obtain the benefit of such exemption or reduction (provided that such benefit is available). Non-U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the effect of FATCA on an investment in our common stock.

Prospective purchasers of our common stock are urged to consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences to them of the ownership and disposition of our common stock, including the tax consequences under state, local, estate, foreign and other tax laws and the possible effects of changes in U.S. federal tax laws or other tax laws.

After the offering, the representative may change the offering price and other selling terms. Sales of shares made outside of the United States may be made by affiliates of the underwriters. The selling stockholder will pay the fees of Burai-Kovács & Partners Attorneys at Law, Budapest, Hungary, which will pass upon certain matters for the selling stockholder, and all underwriting discounts and commissions.

Option to Purchase Additional Shares

The selling stockholder has granted the underwriters an option exercisable for 30 days after the date of this prospectus supplement to purchase, in whole or in part, up to an aggregate of 1,380,000 shares at the public offering price less underwriting discounts and commissions. This option may be exercised if the underwriters sell more than 9,200,000 shares in connection with this offering. To the extent that this option is exercised, each underwriter will be obligated, subject to certain conditions, to purchase its pro rata portion of these additional shares based on the underwriter's percentage underwriting commitment in the offering as indicated in the table at the beginning of this Underwriting section.

Lock-Up Agreements

We and the selling stockholder have agreed not to sell or transfer any shares of our common stock or securities convertible into, exchangeable for, exercisable for, or repayable with shares of our common stock, for 90 days (with respect to us) and until December 31, 2014 (with respect to the selling stockholder) after the date of this prospectus supplement without first obtaining the written consent of Barclays Capital Inc. Specifically, we and the selling stockholder have agreed not to, directly or indirectly:

offer, pledge, sell or contract to sell any common stock;

sell any option or contract to purchase any common stock;

purchase any option or contract to sell any common stock;

grant any option, right or warrant for the sale of any common stock; otherwise dispose of or transfer any common stock;

request or demand that we file a registration statement related to the common stock; or enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, the economic consequence of ownership of any common stock whether any such swap or transaction is to be settled by delivery of common stock or other securities, in cash or otherwise.

The restrictions described in the immediately preceding paragraph do not apply to:

issuances of common stock upon the exercise of an option or warrant or the conversion of a security outstanding on the date hereof;

any common stock issued or options to purchase common stock granted pursuant to any of our employee benefit plans or the filing of a registration statement in respect thereof;

any common stock issued pursuant to any non-employee director stock plan or dividend reinvestment plan of the Company or the filing of a registration statement in respect thereof;

transfers of common stock by the selling stockholder with respect to which (i) the underwriters receive a signed lock-up agreement for the balance of the selling stockholder's lock-up period from each donee, trustee, distributee, or transferee, as the case may be, (ii) such transfers are not required to be reported with the SEC on Form 4 in accordance with Section 16 of the Exchange Act and (iii) the selling stockholder does not otherwise voluntarily effect any public filing or report regarding such transfers; and sales by the selling stockholder of common stock purchased on the open market following the offering if (i) such sales are not required to be reported in any public report or filing with the SEC or otherwise and (ii) the selling stockholder does not otherwise voluntarily effect any public filing or report regarding such sales.

This lock-up provision applies to common stock and to securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or repayable with common stock. It also applies to common stock owned now or acquired later by the selling stockholder or for which the selling stockholder later acquires the power of disposition.

Indemnification

We have agreed to indemnify the several underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and to contribute to payments that the underwriters may be required to make for these liabilities. The selling stockholder has also agreed that it will indemnify the several underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and to contribute payments that the underwriters may be required to make for these liabilities, in each case as set forth in the underwriting agreement up to the gross proceeds received by the selling stockholder from this offering.

Stabilization, Short Positions and Penalty Bids

The representative may engage in stabilizing transactions, short sales and purchases to cover positions created by short sales, and penalty bids or purchases for the purpose of pegging, fixing or maintaining the price of the common stock, in accordance with Regulation M under the Exchange Act:

Stabilizing transactions permit bids to purchase the underlying security so long as the stabilizing bids do not exceed a specified maximum.

A short position involves a sale by the underwriters of shares in excess of the number of shares the underwriters are obligated to purchase in the offering, which creates the syndicate short position. This short position may be either a covered short position or a naked short position. In a covered short position, the number of shares involved in the sales made by the underwriters in excess of the number of shares they are obligated to purchase is not greater than the number of shares that they may purchase by exercising their option to purchase additional shares. In a naked short position, the number of shares involved is greater than the number of shares in their option to purchase additional shares. The underwriters may close out any short position by either exercising their option to purchase additional shares and/or purchasing shares in the open market. In determining the source of shares to close out the short position, the underwriters will consider, among other things, the price of shares available for purchase in the open market as compared to the price at which they may purchase shares through their option to purchase additional shares. A naked short position is more likely to be created if the underwriters are concerned that there could be downward pressure on the price of the shares in the open market after pricing that could adversely affect investors who purchase in the offering.

Syndicate covering transactions involve purchases of the common stock in the open market after the distribution has been completed in order to cover syndicate short positions.

Penalty bids permit the representative to reclaim a selling concession from a syndicate member when the common stock originally sold by the syndicate member is purchased in a stabilizing or syndicate covering transaction to cover syndicate short positions. These stabilizing transactions, syndicate covering transactions and penalty bids may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of our common stock or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the common stock. As a result, the price of the common stock may be higher than the price that might otherwise exist in the open market. These transactions may be effected on the NYSE or otherwise and, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

Neither we nor any of the underwriters make any representation or prediction as to the direction or magnitude of any effect that the transactions described above may have on the price of the common stock. In addition, neither we nor any of the underwriters make any representation that the representative will engage in these stabilizing transactions or that any transaction, once commenced, will not be discontinued without notice.

We will set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement a description of the common stock that may be offered pursuant to this prospectus.

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

We are registering the shares of our common stock in order to permit the selling stockholder to offer the shares for resale from time to time. The table below sets forth certain information known to us, based upon written representations from the selling stockholder, with respect to the beneficial ownership of our shares of common stock held by the selling stockholder as of May 5, 2014.

These sales may be effected in transactions, which may involve crosses or block transactions:

a combination of any such methods of sale; and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

If the selling stockholder effects such transactions by selling shares of our common stock to or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholder or commissions from purchasers of the shares of our common stock for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal (which discounts, concessions or commissions as to particular underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved). In connection with sales of the shares of our common stock or otherwise, the selling stockholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, which may in turn engage in short sales of the shares of our common stock in the course of hedging in positions they assume. The selling stockholder may also sell shares of our common stock short and deliver shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus to close out short positions and to return borrowed shares in connection with such short sales. The selling stockholder may also loan or pledge shares of our common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell such shares.

The selling stockholder may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of our common stock owned by it and, if it defaults in the performance of its secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of our common stock from time to time pursuant to this prospectus or any amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act, amending, if necessary, our disclosure with respect to the selling stockholder to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus. The selling stockholder also may transfer and donate the shares of our common stock in other circumstances in which case the transferees, donees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

Under the securities laws of some states, the shares of our common stock may be sold in such states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the shares of our common stock may not be sold unless such shares have been registered or qualified for sale in such state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is complied with.

There can be no assurance that the selling stockholder will sell any or all of the shares of our common stock registered pursuant to the shelf registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part.

The selling stockholder and any other person participating in such distribution will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including, without limitation, Regulation M of the Exchange Act, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares of our common stock by the selling stockholder and any other participating person. Regulation M may also restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the shares of our common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of our common stock. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the shares of our common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of our common stock.

We and the selling stockholder may enter agreements under which underwriters, dealers and agents who participate in the distribution of our common stock may be entitled to indemnification by us and/or the selling stockholder against various liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and to contribution with respect to payments which the underwriters, dealers or agents may be required to make.

Once sold under the shelf registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part, the shares of our common stock will be freely tradable in the hands of persons other than our affiliates.
