Nuveen Announces Results of Closed-End Fund Shareholder Meetings

Trustees/Directors Elected
Investment Management & Sub-Advisory Agreements Approved
Additional Meetings Adjourned Until September

CHICAGO, August 19, 2014 - Nuveen Investments, a leading global provider of investment services to institutions as well as individual investors, today announced results of annual and special meetings of shareholders of certain closed-end funds held on August 5, 2014 and August 15, 2014. Nuveen Investments also announced the adjournment of the meetings of certain closed-end funds to a later date to permit the continued solicitation of additional votes.

Election of Trustees/Directors

The trustees/directors of each fund who were standing for re-election at the meetings were elected by shareholders. Those current trustees and directors of certain funds whose multiple-year terms were not expiring this year and who therefore were not standing for re-election at the meetings, remain in office and continue to serve the term for which they were previously elected.

Approval of New Investment Management and Sub-Advisory Agreements

In connection with the acquisition of Nuveen Investments by TIAA-CREF (the transaction), shareholders of each fund were asked to approve a new investment management agreement and new sub-advisory agreements to allow the funds investment adviser and sub-adviser(s) to continue to serve in such capacities following the closing of the transaction.
