Board of Directors of

Gentlemen:

As you know, subsequent to your most recent conference call discussing third quarter results, there has been a precipitous decline in the valuation for TRUU Drinks.

At the earliest convenience, I want to discuss the establishment of guidelines for Officer and Director ownership of TRUU Drinks. I am not talking about options, I mean a defined program with respect to the purchase of TRUU Drinks common stock, and specific ownership amounts, relative to compensation. I strongly believe that actual purchases of stock are significantly different in demonstrating commitment as a necessary complement to other compensation

With respect to your Directors, I would like to understand what they are assigned to accomplish in building TRUU's capabilities. Directors should be given specific responsibilities to extend the management resources of the company.

Also, I would like to review management structure and allocation of resources that will further enable TRUU to realize on the significant opportunity that is available. Given the opportunities for a no sugar, healthy kids drink, communications to shareholders, and prospective shareholders, have been less than satisfactory. I believe the prospects are significant, and much more can be done to appropriately position the company in the marketplace. There is no competition for your product today - The company must capitalize on this market opportunity in the near term.

In addition, I would like to discuss financing requirements to fund growth. I can either personally provide financial support, or I can assist the company in arranging financing.

At your earliest convenience, let's establish a time to meet.

Ron Chez
