Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 18, 2015, Allison Transmission, Inc. (Allison), a wholly owned subsidiary of Allison Transmission Holdings, Inc. (the Company), commenced a cash tender offer to purchase any and all of its outstanding 7.125% Senior Notes due 2019 (the notes). In connection with the tender offer, Allison is soliciting consents to certain proposed amendments to the indenture (the Indenture) governing the notes to eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants, certain events of default and related provisions contained in the Indenture and the notes (such offer and consent solicitation being referred to herein as the Offer). Holders may not tender their notes without delivering consents or deliver consents without tendering their notes. A copy of the press release is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with the Offer, Allison expects to enter into a bank financing consisting of a $470 million first lien senior secured term loan facility (the Bank Financing) under the Company s existing credit agreement, dated August 7, 2007. The Company will receive the proceeds from the Bank Financing to purchase any and all of the notes tendered in the Offer and pay the consent payment, accrued interest and related expenses, and, at Allison s option, redeem the notes or satisfy and discharge the Indenture. The Offer is conditioned upon, among other things, the completion of the Bank Financing and no assurance can be given that the Bank Financing will be completed.

This report is neither an offer to purchase nor a solicitation of an offer to sell or a solicitation of consents with respect to the notes or any other securities. The Offer is not being made to holders of notes in any jurisdiction in which the making or acceptance thereof would not be in compliance with the securities, blue sky or other laws of such jurisdiction. None of Allison, the Company, the dealer manager and solicitation agent or the depositary and information agent makes any recommendations as to whether holders should tender their notes pursuant to the Offer. Holders must make their own decisions as to whether to tender notes, and, if so, the principal amount of notes to tender.

This current report contains forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact contained in this current report are forward-looking statements, including all statements regarding future financial results. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as may, will, should, expect, plans, project, anticipate, believe, estimate, predict, intend, forecast, could, potential, continue terms or other similar terms or phrases. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve known and unknown risks. Factors which may cause the actual results to differ materially from those anticipated at the time the forward-looking statements are made include, but are not limited to: risks related to the Company s substantial indebtedness; the Company s participation in markets that are competitive; the highly cyclical industries in which certain of the Company s end users operate; the failure of markets outside North America to increase adoption of fully-automatic transmissions; the concentration of the Company s net sales in the Company s top five customers and the loss of any one of these; future reductions or changes in government subsidies for hybrid vehicles, U.S. defense spending; general economic and industry conditions; the discovery of defects in the Company s products, resulting in delays in new model launches, recall campaigns and/or increased warranty costs and reduction in future sales or damage to the Company s brand and reputation; the Company s ability to prepare for, respond to and successfully achieve the Company s objectives relating to technological and market developments and changing customer needs; risks associated with the Company s international operations; labor strikes, work stoppages or similar labor disputes, which could significantly disrupt the Company s operations or those of the Company s principal customers; and other risks and uncertainties associated with the Company s business described in the Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. Although the Company believes the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, the Company can give no assurance that the expectations will be attained or that any deviation will not be material. All information is as of the date of this current report, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to conform the statement to actual results or changes in expectations.
