Effective December 7, 2016, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Community Health Systems, Inc. (the Company) approved the amendment and restatement of the Company's By-laws (the By-laws). The amendments include the implementation of new proxy access rights for eligible stockholders, as well as a number of amendments to update the bylaws for changes in law and practice and clarifications and reformatting.

Article II, Section 15 has been added to the By-laws to permit a stockholder, or a group of up to 20 stockholders, owning 3% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock continuously for at least three years to nominate and include in the Company's proxy materials for its annual meeting of stockholders nominees for election to the Company's Board of Directors constituting up to the greater of two individuals or 20% of the number of Directors currently serving on the Company's Board, provided that the stockholder(s) and the nominee(s) satisfy the requirements specified in the By-laws.

The updating provisions which have been added include provisions addressing virtual meetings, the ability of the Company to set two record dates for meetings (one for notice and one for voting), the use of householding and the electronic delivery of proxy materials, including the posting of proxy materials on an electronic network with a separate notice of such posting. Additional provisions were added as to the role of inspectors of election and the conduct of stockholder meetings.

The advance notice provisions in Article II, Section 12 and Section 13 of the By-laws have been amended to add customary provisions for additional information to be provided on matters such as arrangements with third parties or between the nominee and the proponent, information that the Company reasonably requests as to a nominee's independence and/or qualifications, any interest of the proponent in the business being proposed, and the delivery by the nominee of a completed informational questionnaire, and acknowledgement of the Company's policies as well as disclosure of any existing voting commitment or compensation arrangements.

The record date provisions in Article V, Section 7 of the By-laws have been amended to provide that stockholders seeking to act by written consent must first request the Company's Board to set a record date for such consents (which the Board must do within 10 days, and which record date shall be no more than 10 days later than the Board action) and to permit a prompt ministerial review of the validity of the consents received.
