On July 6, 2017, Belden Inc. ( "Belden" ) completed its previously announced issuance and sale of 450 million aggregate principal amount of 3.375% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027 (the "Notes" ). The Notes were issued pursuant to an indenture dated as of July 6, 2017 (the "Indenture" ), by and among Belden, the subsidiary guarantors named therein, Deutsche Trustee Company Limited, as Trustee, Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, as Principal Paying Agent, and Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A., as Transfer Agent and Registrar. The Notes were issued at par in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act" ) and will be resold within the United States to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A and outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes will mature on July 15, 2027 and rank equal in right of payment with Belden's existing and future senior subordinated debt, and are subordinated to all of Belden's and the subsidiary guarantors' senior debt, including Belden's revolving credit facility. Belden's obligations under the Notes are jointly and severally guaranteed by all of Belden's current and future domestic subsidiaries that guarantee the borrowings under its revolving credit facility.

Interest on the Notes accrues at a rate of 3.375% per annum and is payable semi-annually in arrears on January 15 and July 15 of each year, beginning on January 15, 2018, to the holders of record on the immediately preceding January 1 and July 1.

Belden will have the option to redeem all or a portion of the Notes at any time on or after July 15, 2022 at specified redemption prices plus accrued interest on the notes to the date of redemption. At any time prior to July 15, 2022, Belden may also redeem all or a part of the Notes at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, in addition to a specified applicable premium. At any time before July 15, 2020, Belden may also redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at a redemption price of 103.375% of the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption, with the proceeds of certain equity offerings.

Upon the occurrence of a change in control (as defined in the Indenture), each holder of the Notes may require Belden to repurchase all or a portion of such holder's Notes in cash at a price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, thereon to the date of repurchase.

The Indenture contains covenants that limit, among other things, Belden's and certain of its subsidiaries' ability to (1) incur additional debt, (2) pay dividends or make other distributions on, redeem or repurchase capital stock, or make investments or other restricted payments, (3) enter into transactions with affiliates, (4) dispose of assets or issue stock of restricted subsidiaries, (5) create liens on assets securing certain indebtedness, or (6) effect a consolidation or merger or sell all, or substantially all, of its assets. These covenants are subject to a number of important exceptions and qualifications. Further, during any such time when the Notes are rated investment grade by each of Moody's Investors Service, Inc. and S&P Global Ratings and no Default (as defined in the Indenture) has occurred and is continuing, certain of the covenants will be suspended with respect to the Notes.

The Indenture provides for customary events of default (subject in certain cases to customary grace and cure periods), which include nonpayment, breach of covenants in the Indenture, payment defaults or acceleration of other indebtedness, a failure to pay certain judgments and certain events of bankruptcy and insolvency. Generally, if an event of default occurs, the Trustee or holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may declare the principal of and accrued but unpaid interest, including additional interest, on all the Notes to be due and payable.

The foregoing description of the Indenture is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete copy of the Indenture, including the forms of the Note and Notation of Guarantee included therein as Exhibits A and D, respectively, which is filed as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information provided under Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K regarding the Notes and the Indenture is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.03.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On July 6, 2017, Belden issued a press release announcing the final results of its previously announced tender offer to purchase any and all of its outstanding 5.5% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2022 (the 2022 Notes ), which commenced on June 27, 2017 and expired at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on July 5, 2017 (the Expiration Time ). Belden announced that it had received tenders from holders of $581,143,000 aggregate principal amount, representing 83.02% of the aggregate principal outstanding, of the 2022 Notes as of the Expiration Time, which did not include $2,156,000 aggregate principal amount of the 2022 Notes that remained subject to guaranteed delivery procedures as of the Expiration Time, of which $156,000 aggregate principal amount was validly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to such guaranteed delivery procedures. Belden subsequently accepted for purchase all of the 2022 Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn, including the $156,000 aggregate principal amount that was validly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to guaranteed delivery procedures.

On July 6, 2017, Belden also issued a notice of redemption with respect to all of its outstanding 2022 Notes not tendered in the tender offer. The redemption is scheduled to occur on August 7, 2017. The redemption price will be a make-whole redemption price calculated in accordance with the indenture governing the 2022 Notes, based on specified treasury rates that will be determined prior to the redemption date.
