Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 9, 2018, Lowe's Companies, Inc. (the Company) announced a new leadership structure. As part of the Company's new leadership structure, the Chief Operating Officer and Chief Customer Officer positions have been eliminated, and responsibilities formerly under these roles will be assumed by other senior leadership roles that will report directly to Marvin R. Ellison, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. Effective November 6, 2018, after a transition period, Michael P. McDermott, the current Chief Customer Officer, plans to leave the Company. The Company also announced that Richard D. Maltzbarger, the current Chief Operating Officer, will be leaving the Company, effective immediately.

On July 9, 2018, the Company and Mr. McDermott entered into a retention agreement (the Retention Agreement). Pursuant to the Retention Agreement, it is intended that Mr. McDermott will continue to serve as an executive of the Company during a transition period ending on November 6, 2018, and will continue at his current rate of compensation. If Mr. McDermott remains actively employed through the transition period and performs his duties to the reasonable expectations of the Company, he will (i) receive severance in the gross amount of eighteen (18) months of salary at his last rate of pay, payable in twelve (12) equal installments; (ii) be eligible for participation in the Company's annual incentive award program with respect to 2018 on a pro-rata basis and (iii) receive outplacement services for a duration to be determined by the Company in its discretion. To be eligible to receive the severance benefits described above, Mr. McDermott will be required to execute a release and separation agreement (the Release and Separation Agreement), which contains a general release and waiver of claims and certain restrictive covenants regarding non-competition, non-solicitation of employees, suppliers, customers and developers and non-disparagement. The severance benefits under the Release and Separation Agreement are subject to forfeiture and/or repayment in the event of Mr. McDermott's breach of the release and waiver of claims or restrictive covenants contained in the Release and Separation Agreement.

The foregoing summary of Mr. McDermott's Retention Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by the Retention Agreement, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the current fiscal quarter.
