PART III

NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company's Form 10-K for 2008 could not be filed within the prescribed time period because, in February 2009 as part of its year-end audit process, the Company concluded that its methodology for determining the timing of recognizing revenues for one of its online offerings (webcasts) was improper. The Company initiated a process for reviewing the period over which it has historically recognized revenue from its webcast offerings. As disclosed in its February 12, 2009 Press Release, the Company had been recognizing the majority of the revenue in the month in which the webcast occurred. The Company has concluded that the webcast revenues should have been recognized ratably over the period in which the webcasts were available on the websites of the Company and its partners, and is changing its revenue recognition policy accordingly.

In addition, as part of the process, the Company has retained a third party to assist the Company in reviewing the timing of recognizing revenues for additional online offerings covering all periods to be reported in the 2008 Form 10 - K. The Company is working to determine whether it is necessary to restate its financial statements for any prior period as a result of changes to its revenue recognition policies with respect to webcasts, as well as certain other online offerings.

Edgar Filing: TechTarget Inc - Form NT 10-K

Due to the reasons described above, the Registrant could not have timely filed the Form 10-K without unreasonable effort or expense, and the Form 10-K will be filed no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date.
