On March 1, 2012, Mr. David Bell, Chief Operating Officer of Allied World Assurance Company Holdings, AG (the Company), resigned to pursue other interests in Montana. Mr. Bell will remain with the Company until May 1, 2012 in order to provide assistance during the transition period.

Effective as of March 1, 2012, Mr. John J. McElroy was promoted to Chief Operating Officer of the Company. In this role, he will oversee the Company's operations and administration, information technology, ceded reinsurance and new product development on a global basis. Further biographical and other information about Mr. McElroy is contained in the Company's preliminary proxy statement for its 2012 Annual Shareholder Meeting, which was filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on March 5, 2012 (the Proxy Statement). The indemnification agreement will also provide that the Company will indemnify Mr. McElroy against claims arising out of his service to the Company to the fullest extent allowed under Swiss law (except in certain limited circumstances). The indemnification agreement will be on substantially the same terms and conditions as the indemnification agreements that the Company has entered into with its directors and other executive officers.
