Annual General Meeting of Credit Suisse Group AG:

All proposals put forward by the Board of Directors approved

Zurich, April 30, 2010 At today's Annual General Meeting of Credit Suisse Group AG in Zurich, shareholders approved all of the proposals put forward by the Board of Directors. In particular, they approved the re-election of four members of the Board of Directors whose terms of office expired today. Two candidates – Jassim Bin Hamad J. Al Thani and Robert H. Benmosche – were newly elected to the Board of Directors. Furthermore, shareholders approved the payment of an increased cash dividend of CHF 2.00 per share for the financial year 2009. They also voted in favor of amendments to the Articles of Association and approved the 2009 Compensation Report.

The following candidates were re-elected to the Board of Directors for a further term of three years: Noreen Doyle, Aziz R. D. Syriani, David W. Syz, and Peter F. Weibel. The two candidates newly elected to the Board of Directors are: Jassim Bin Hamad J. Al Thani, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Qatar Islamic Bank, and Robert H. Benmosche, President and CEO of American International Group, Inc. (AIG), New York. Mr Benmosche previously served on the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG from 2002 to August 2009.

Cash Dividend

Shareholders approved the payment of an increased cash dividend of CHF 2.00 per registered share for the financial year 2009. The dividend will be paid on May 7, 2010.

Amendment to the Articles of Association

Shareholders approved the changes to the Articles of Association in line with the new Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act (FISA) that entered into effect on January 1, 2010. Credit Suisse Group AG's registered shares will now be regarded as uncertificated stock and managed as intermediated securities, in accordance with the latest practices among Swiss listed companies.

2009 Compensation Report

In a consultative vote, shareholders accepted the 2009 Compensation Report by a majority of 66.2% of votes.

All voting results and the speeches by Hans-Ulrich Doerig, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Brady W. Dougan, CEO, are available in English and German at: www.credit-suisse.com/aggm

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends” and “plans” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
 - market and interest rate fluctuations;
 - the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of a continued US or global economic downturn in 2009 and beyond;
 - the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration of subprime and other real estate markets;
 - further adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of structured credit products or other credit-related exposures or of monoline insurers;
 - the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
 - the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
 - political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;

- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
 - operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;
 - the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
 - competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
 - the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
 - the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
 - the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
 - technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
 - the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
 - the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and other cost targets; and
 - our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the information set forth in our Form 20-F Item 3 – Key Information – Risk Factors.
