Post Holdings Announces Proposed Concurrent Offerings of Senior Notes and Common Stock

St. Louis, Missouri - August 10, 2015 - Post Holdings, Inc. (NYSE:POST) (the “Company” or “Post”) today announced it intends to commence a private offering to eligible purchasers, subject to market and other conditions, of $600 million in aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2024 and $600 million in aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2025 (collectively, the “Notes”). The Notes will be unsecured unsubordinated obligations of the Company and will be guaranteed by the Company’s domestic subsidiaries.

Post also announced it intends to commence an underwritten public offering, subject to market and other conditions, of $275.0 million of its common stock. The specific number of shares the Company will issue in the offering will be such number of shares of its common stock as will result in gross proceeds from the offering of $275.0 million. The Company expects to grant the underwriters for the common stock offering a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 15% of the number of shares of common stock issued.

The Notes offering and the common stock offering are being conducted as separate offerings. Neither offering is contingent upon the other. The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the proposed offerings to repay a portion of its secured term loan outstanding under its credit agreement, to pay related fees and expenses and for general corporate purposes, which could include, among other things, financing potential future acquisition opportunities, working capital and capital expenditures. The final terms and amounts of the common stock and the Notes are subject to market and other conditions, and may be materially different than expectations.

Barclays Capital Inc., Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Nomura Securities International, Inc., BMO Capital Markets Corp., Goldman, Sachs & Co. and SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. are serving as book-running managers for the senior notes offering. J.P. Morgan LLC and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. are serving as co-managers for the senior notes offering.

Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Barclays Capital Inc., Nomura Securities International, Inc., BMO Capital Markets Corp., Goldman, Sachs & Co. and SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. are serving as book-running managers for the common stock offering. Rabo Securities USA, Inc., Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated, and UBS Securities LLC are serving as co-managers for the common stock offering. Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC and Barclays Capital Inc. will serve as representatives of the underwriters for the common stock offering.

The Notes and the related subsidiary guarantees are being offered in the United States to qualified institutional buyers in an offering exempt from registration pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and to persons outside the United States in compliance with Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes and the related subsidiary guarantees have not been registered under the Securities Act, or any state securities laws, and unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

The common stock is being offered by the Company pursuant to an effective Form S-3 shelf registration statement (including a base prospectus) previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on March 10, 2014 and amended on May 19, 2014. Before you invest, you should read the prospectus in the registration statement, the related prospectus supplement and the other documents that Post has filed with the SEC for more complete information about Post and this offering. You may obtain the preliminary prospectus supplement for the offering, the registration statement and the other documents for free by visiting EDGAR on the SEC’s website located at www.sec.gov.
