Officer of the Company from April 2002 to July 2003. From February 2001 to April 2002, Mr. Pond was President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. From 1996 to 1998, Mr. Pond served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Arvin Industries, Inc. (a leading manufacturer of automotive emission and ride control systems) and from 1993 to 1996 as President and Chief Executive Officer of Arvin.

At the request of the Company's lenders under its bank credit agreement and as a condition to a loan extension under the agreement, on August 29, 2003, the Company entered into a retention agreement with Mr. Pond and two other executive officers as an inducement to them to remain with the Company until a transaction is completed that either refinances the outstanding loans under the credit agreement or results in the sale of substantially all of the Company's assets. The agreement provides that upon the occurrence of such an event and the satisfaction of certain conditions, the executives participate in a transaction incentive pool, the aggregate amount of which is equal to the sum of $1.6 million plus an additional payment that could range from 0.1% to 0.78% of the transaction proceeds. This agreement terminates upon completion of a transaction or January 1, 2007, whichever occurs first. The Company made payments under this agreement to the other two executives in connection with the completion of sales of assets of the Company's Flow Control and Aluminum Components businesses, but Mr. Pond elected not to receive any payment in connection with these sales.
