Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 28, 2004, NIKE, Inc. and each of its NIKE Brand Presidents,

Edgar Filing: NIKE INC - Form 8-K

Mark G. Parker and Charles D. Denson, agreed to amend their existing Covenant Not to Compete and Non-Disclosure Agreements dated October 6, 1994 and March 26, 2001, respectively.

The following descriptions of each of the amended Covenant Not to Compete and Non-Disclosure Agreements briefly summarizes the terms and conditions that are material to us and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreements, which are filed as exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 to this current report on Form 8-K.

The amended agreement between the Company and Mark G. Parker contains a covenant not to compete that extends for two years following the termination of his employment with the Company. The amended agreement provides that if Mr. Parker voluntarily resigns prior to December 31, 2006 or after December 31, 2007, the Company will make monthly payments to him during the two-year noncompetition period in an amount equal to 1/24th of his then current annual salary and target performance bonus ("Annual Nike Income"). The agreement provides further that if Mr. Parker's employment is terminated by the Company or if he voluntarily resigns after December 31, 2006 but before December 31, 2007, the Company will make monthly payments to him during the two-year noncompetition period in an amount equal to 1/12th of his then current Annual Nike Income. If Mr. Parker is terminated without cause, the parties may mutually agree to waive the covenant not to compete, and if Mr. Parker is terminated for cause, the Company may unilaterally waive the covenant. If the covenant is waived, the Company will not be required to make the payments described above for the months as to which the waiver applies.

The amended agreement between the Company and Charles D. Denson is similar to the agreement with Mr. Parker and extends for two years following the termination of his employment with the Company. The amended agreement provides that if Mr. Denson voluntarily resigns prior to December 31, 2006 or after December 31, 2007, the Company will make monthly payments to him during the two-year noncompetition period in an amount equal to 1/24th of his then current annual salary and target performance bonus ("Annual Nike Income"). The agreement provides further that if his employment is terminated by the Company or if he voluntarily resigns after December 31, 2006 but before December 31, 2007, the Company will make monthly payments to him during the two-year noncompetition period in an amount equal to 1/12th of his then current Annual Nike Income. If Mr. Denson is terminated without cause, the parties may mutually agree to waive the covenant not to compete, and if Mr. Denson is terminated for cause, the Company may unilaterally waive the covenant. If the covenant is waived, the Company will not be required to make the payments described above for the months as to which the waiver applies.
