1 TO THE STOCKHOLDERS

 General American Investors

The U.S. stock market was down 37.1% for the year ended December 31, 2008, as measured by our benchmark, the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index (including income). General American Investors' net asset value (NAV) per Common Share (assuming reinvestment of all dividends) decreased 43.0%. The return to our Common Stockholders was negative by 48.2% because the discount at which our shares traded to their NAV widened to 17.5% at this year end from 8.9% a year ago.

In order to provide a more comprehensive presentation of our performance, return on NAV has been added to the table that follows. Stockholder return reflects widening in the discount to NAV to the very high end of its historic range, and may not fully illustrate that over many years General American has produced superior investment results.

Years	(Market Value)	NAV Return	S&P 500
3	-13.0%	-11.6%	-8.5%
5	-3.4	-2.4	-2.3
10	3.0	3.3	-1.5
20	11.8	11.3	8.4
30	14.2	13.5	11.0
40	10.4	11.3	9.0
50	10.4	11.0	9.2

Last year, the world economy ended a remarkable half-decade of strong growth and robust profitability in dramatic fashion. As the credit crisis, whose origins lay in inflated real estate prices that were fueled by easy money and lax lending standards, played out, liquidity evaporated. The concept of decoupling was thus discredited as virtually all markets-major, emerging and commodity-became correlated and plunged precipitously. It was the worst market for U.S. equities in seven decades, with most of the damage occurring in the fourth quarter. The recession, hinted at earlier in the year, was well entrenched by year's end, while relentlessly bleak economic reports reflected accelerating lay-offs and continuing declines in house prices, with one in ten mortgages at least a month in arrears or in foreclosure. Credit problems, which manifested first in housing, before spreading to autos and retail, seem likely to reach other sectors of the global economy as the new year unfolds.

In the short-run, consumer demand, for durables in particular, appears to be sated and consequently savings are on the rise. While the benefits of increased saving, which include the provision of funds for productivity-enhancing research and development, and an improved trade balance, may seem obvious, they run into the paradox of thrift. That is to say, the benefits tend to be long-term and are offset by more severe economic contraction in the short-term as consumers retrench. Since the demand for American exports is likely to remain constrained, increased government spending appears to be a logical response to this problem, with emphasis on defense and infrastructure. The former must be requisitioned from U.S. manufacturers, by law, and the latter is mostly supplied by domestic producers of cement and structural steel, et.al.

Government intervention in the financial system, initially piecemeal but more comprehensive of late, is beginning to have a thawing effect on the markets. Improvement is notably visible in those areas receiving state support, such as the interbank money and top rated commercial paper markets. Although banks remain reluctant lenders in the face of still mounting loan losses, and the path back to normalization is almost certain to be long and bumpy, easier financial conditions are likely to stabilize economic activity. Once the financial markets are functioning normally, confidence should slowly return. Massive monetary easing and the stimulating effect of declining energy costs should enable the recovery of the global economy.

Credit creation may not return to boom-year levels and it may well remain more of a Wal-Mart world than one favoring aspirational goods and services. But we've owned Wal-Mart for twenty-five years and the experience has been salutary. In general, stocks typically bottom before the economy does, since money is created faster than the economy's ability to employ it. Investors then use the excess liquidity to seek high returns by purchasing riskier assets like equities. With the yield on the S&P 500 currently more than 100 basis points, or 1%, above that on ten-year Treasury bonds for the first time since 1962, equity markets may have discounted the preponderance of bad news. Our portfolio continues to feature companies with strong financial characteristics, reasonable earnings visibility and powerful positions in their respective industries. We retain abundant cash reserves and look forward to their selective employment as opportunities present themselves.

The share repurchase program, a part of our ongoing effort to maximize NAV, continues. In 2008, the Company purchased 102,047 of its Common Shares on the open market at an average discount to NAV of 19.8%. The Board of Directors has authorized repurchases of Common Shares when they are trading at a discount to NAV in excess of 8%.

In December 2008, the Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of 1 million outstanding shares of its 5.95% Cumulative Preferred Stock when the shares are trading at a market price below the liquidation price of $25.00 per share. In 2008, the Company purchased 15,300 of its Preferred Shares at an average price of $21.12 per share.

Information about the Company, including our investment objectives, operating policies and procedures, investment results, record of dividend payments, financial reports and press releases, etc., is available on our website, which can be accessed at www.generalamericaninvestors.com.

"Total return on $10,000 investment for 20 years ended December 31, 2008"

The investment return for a Common Stockholder of General American Investors (GAM) over the 20 years ended December 31, 2008 is shown in the table below and in the accompanying chart. The return based on GAM's net asset value (NAV) per Common Share in comparison to the change in the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index (S&P 500) is also displayed. Each illustration assumes an investment of $10,000 at the beginning of 1989.

STOCKHOLDER RETURN is the return a Common Stockholder of GAM would have achieved assuming reinvestment of all dividends and distributions at the actual reinvestment price and of all cash dividends at the average (mean between high and low) market price on the ex-dividend date.

NET ASSET VALUE (NAV) RETURN is the return on shares of the Company's Common Stock based on the NAV per share, including the reinvestment of all dividends and distributions at the reinvestment prices indicated above.

STANDARD & POOR'S 500 RETURN is the time-weighted total rate of return on this widely-recognized, unmanaged index which is a measure of general stock market performance, including dividend income.

Past performance reported below may not be indicative of future results.

14 NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

General American Investors

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

General American Investors Company, Inc. (the "Company"), established in 1927, is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a closed-end, diversified management investment company. It is internally managed by its officers under the direction of the Board of Directors.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

a. SECURITY VALUATION Securities traded on a national securities exchange are valued at the last reported sales price on the last business day of the period. Securities reported on the NASDAQ national market are valued at the official closing price on that day. Listed and NASDAQ securities for which no sales are reported on that day and other securities traded in the over-the-counter market are valued at the last bid price (asked price for options written) on the valuation date. Securities traded primarily in foreign markets are generally valued at the preceding closing price of such securities on their respective exchanges or markets. If, after the close of the foreign market, conditions change significantly, the price of certain foreign securities may be adjusted to reflect fair value as of the time of the valuation of the portfolio. Investments in money market funds are valued at their net asset value.

b. OPTIONS The Company may purchase and write (sell) put and call options. The risk associated with purchasing an option is that the Company pays a premium whether or not the option is exercised. Additionally, the Company bears the risk of loss of the premium and a change in market value should the counterparty not perform under the contract. Put and call options purchased are accounted for in the same manner as portfolio securities. Premiums received from writing options that expire unexercised are treated by the Company on the expiration date as realized gains from investments. The difference between the premium received and the amount paid on effecting a closing purchase transaction, including brokerage commissions, is also treated as a realized gain, or, if the premium is less than the amount paid for the closing purchase transaction, as a realized loss. If a call option is exercised, the premium is added to the proceeds from the sale of the underlying security in determining whether the Company has realized a gain or loss. If a put option is exercised, the premium reduces the cost basis for the securities purchased by the Company. The Company as writer of an option bears the market risk of an unfavorable change in the price of the security underlying the written option.

c. FEDERAL INCOME TAXES The Company's policy is to fulfill the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute substantially all taxable income to its stockholders. Accordingly, no provision for Federal income taxes is required.

The Company is subject to the provisions of FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainties in Income Taxes (FIN 48). As of and during the period ended December 31, 2008, the Company did not have any liabilities for any unrecognized tax positions. The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax positions as income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. During the period, the Company did not incur any interest or penalties.

d. INDEMNIFICATIONS In the ordinary course of business, the Company enters into contracts that contain a variety of indemnifications. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown. However, the Company has not had prior claims or losses pursuant to these indemnification provisions and expects the risk of loss thereunder to be remote.

e. OTHER As customary in the investment company industry, securities transactions are recorded as of the trade date. Dividend income and distributions to stockholders are recorded as of the ex-dividend dates. Interest income, adjusted for amortization of discount and premium on investments, is earned from settlement date and is recognized on the accrual basis. Cost of short-term investments represents amortized cost.

2. CAPITAL STOCK AND DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTIONS

The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 50,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $1.00 par value, and 10,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, $1.00 par value. With respect to the Common Stock, 31,980,872 shares were issued and outstanding; 8,000,000 Preferred Shares were originally issued and 7,984,700 were outstanding on December 31, 2008.

On September 24, 2003, the Company issued and sold 8,000,000 shares of its 5.95% Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series B in an underwritten offering. The Preferred Shares were noncallable for the 5 year period ended September 24, 2008 and have a liquidation preference of $25.00 per share plus an amount equal to accumulated and unpaid dividends to the date of redemption. On December 10, 2008, the Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of 1 million Preferred Shares in the open market at prices below $25.00 per share. A total of 15,300 Preferred Shares were repurchased at an average cost per share of $21.12 during the year ended December 31, 2008. The average discount of $3.88 per Preferred Share, $59,398 in the aggregate, was credited to additional paid-in capital of the Common Stock.

The Company is required to allocate distributions from long-term capital gains and other types of income proportionately among holders of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock. To the extent that dividends on the shares of Preferred Stock are not paid from long-term capital gains, they will be paid from ordinary income or net short-term capital gains or will represent a return of capital.

2. CAPITAL STOCK AND DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTIONS - (Continued from previous page.)

Under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Company is required to maintain asset coverage of at least 200% of the Preferred Stock. In addition, pursuant to the Rating Agency Guidelines, the Company is required to maintain a certain discounted asset coverage for its portfolio that equals or exceeds the Basic Maintenance Amount under the guidelines established by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. The Company has met these requirements since the issuance of the Preferred Stock. If the Company fails to meet these requirements in the future and does not cure such failure, the Company may be required to redeem, in whole or in part, shares of Preferred Stock at a redemption price of $25.00 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not earned or declared). In addition, the Company's failure to meet the foregoing asset coverage requirements could restrict its ability to pay dividends on shares of Common Stock and could lead to sales of portfolio securities at inopportune times.

The holders of Preferred Stock have voting rights equivalent to those of the holders of Common Stock (one vote per share) and, generally, vote together with the holders of Common Stock as a single class.

At all times, holders of Preferred Stock will elect two members to the Company's Board of Directors and the holders of Preferred and Common Stock, voting as a single class, will elect the remaining directors. If the Company fails to pay dividends on the Preferred Stock in an amount equal to two full years' dividends, the holders of Preferred Stock will have the right to elect a majority of the directors. In addition, the Investment Company Act of 1940 requires that approval of the holders of a majority of any outstanding Preferred Shares, voting separately as a class, would be required to (a) adopt any plan of reorganization that would adversely affect the Preferred Stock and (b) take any action requiring a vote of security holders, including, among other things, changes in the Company's subclassification as a closed-end investment company or changes in its fundamental investment policies.

The Company classifies its Preferred Stock pursuant to the requirements of EITF D-98, Classification and Measurement of Redeemable Securities, which requires that preferred stock for which its redemption is outside of the company's control should be presented outside of net assets in the statement of assets and liabilities.

Transactions in Common Stock during 2008 and 2007 were as follows:

In June 2007, the Company entered into an operating lease agreement for office space which expires in February 2018 and provides for future rental payments in the aggregate amount of approximately $10,755,000, net of construction credits. The Company has the option to renew the lease after February 2018 for five years at market rates. Rental expense approximated $988,000 for the year ended December 31, 2008. ### 8. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Effective January 1, 2008, the Company adopted FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 157 "Fair Value Measurements." Various data inputs are used in determining the value of the Company's investments. These inputs are summarized in a hierarchy consisting of the three broad levels listed below:

Level 1 - quoted prices in active markets for identical securities (including money market funds which are valued using amortized cost and which transact at net asset value, typically $1 per share),

Level 2 - other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, credit risk, etc.), and

Level 3 - significant unobservable inputs (including the Company's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments).

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The following is a summary of the inputs used to value the Company's net assets as of December 31, 2008:

Valuation Inputs	Investments in Securities
Level 1 - Quoted prices	$864,727,176

ITEM 7. DISCLOSURE OF PROXY VOTING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR CLOSED-END MANAGEMENT INVESTMENT COMPANIES.

General American Investors Company, Inc.

PROXY VOTING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

General American Investors Company, Inc. (the "Company") is uniquely structured as an internally managed closed-end investment company. Our research efforts, including the receipt and analysis of proxy material, are focused on the securities in the Company's portfolio, as well as alternative investment opportunities. We vote proxies relating to our portfolio securities in the best long-term interests of the Company.

Our investment approach stresses fundamental security analysis, which includes an evaluation of the integrity, as well as the effectiveness of management personnel. In proxy material, we review management proposals and management recommendations relating to shareholder proposals in order to, among other things, gain assurance that management's positions are consistent with its integrity and the long-term interests of the company. We generally find this to be the case and, accordingly, give significant weight to the views of management when we vote proxies.

Proposals that may have an impact on the rights or privileges of the securities held by the Company would be reviewed very carefully. The explanation for a negative impact could justify the proposal; however, if such justification were not present, we would vote against a significant reduction in the rights or privileges associated with any of our holdings.

Proposals relating to corporate governance matters are reviewed on a case-by-case basis. When they involve changes in the state of incorporation, mergers or other restructuring, we would, if necessary, complete our review of the rationale for the proposal by contacting company representatives and, with few exceptions, vote in favor of management's recommendations. Proposals relating to anti-takeover provisions, such as staggered boards, poison pills and supermajorities could be more problematic. They would be considered in light of our assessment of the capability of current management, the duration of the proposal, the negative impact it might have on the attractiveness of the company to future "investors," among other factors. We can envision circumstances under which we would vote against an anti-takeover provision.

Generally, we would vote with management on proposals relating to changes to the company's capital structure, including increases and decreases of capital and issuances of preferred stock; however, we would review the facts and circumstances associated with each proposal before finalizing our decision.

Well-structured stock option plans and management compensation programs are essential for companies to attract and retain high caliber management personnel. We generally vote in favor of proposals relating to these issues; however, there could be an occasion on which we viewed such a proposal as over reaching on the part of management or having the potential for excessive dilution when we would vote against the proposal.

Corporations should act in a responsible manner toward their employees, the communities in which they are located, the customers they serve and the world at large. We have observed that most stockholder proposals relating to social issues focus on a narrow issue and the corporate position set forth in the proxy material provides a well-considered response demonstrating an appropriate and responsible action or position. Accordingly, we generally support management recommendations on these types of proposals; however, we would consider each proposal on a case-by-case basis.

We take voting proxies of securities held in our portfolio very seriously. As indicated above, it is an integral part of the analytical process at General American Investors. Each proposal and any competing interests are reviewed carefully on a case-by-case basis. Generally, we support and vote in accordance with the recommendations of management; however, the overriding basis for the votes we cast is the best long-term interests of the Company.

Item 8. PORTFOLIO MANAGERS OF CLOSED-END MANAGEMENT INVESTMENT COMPANIES.

As of December 31, 2008 and the date of this filing, Mr. Spencer Davidson, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, serves as the Portfolio Manager of the registrant and is responsible for its day-to-day management. He has served in this capacity since 1995. Mr. Davidson does not provide such services for any other registered investment companies, pooled investment vehicles, or other accounts. For performing such responsibilities, Mr. Davidson receives cash compensation in the form of a fixed salary and an annual performance bonus. The annual performance bonus is principally based upon the absolute performance of the registrant and its relative performance to a closed-end management investment company peer group (comprised of core equity funds) and the S&P 500 Index. Performance is evaluated in December by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the members of which are independent and consult with the full Board of Directors), based upon the registrant's net asset value return and total investment return during the twelve months ended October 31. Additional consideration is given to performance during the subsequent intervening period and to market compensation data provided by a noted industry compensation consulting firm. Mr. Davidson beneficially owns in excess of $1 million of the registrant's outstanding equity securities.
