Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On July 27, 2006, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Old National Bancorp (the "Company") approved an amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation (which is to be submitted to the Company's shareholders for their consideration and approval at the 2007 annual meeting) a proposal to remove the staggered terms of the Company's board of directors and provide for the annual election of directors.

On July 27, 2006, the Board also amended Section 13 of Article V of the Company's By-laws, effective immediately, to increase the mandatory retirement age for directors of the Company from 70 to 72. Pursuant to revised Section 13 of Article V of the Company's By-laws, a director of the Company shall not qualify to serve as such effective as of the end of the term during which he becomes 72 years of age.

A copy of the Company's By-laws, as amended, is filed as Exhibit 3.1 hereto.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On July 31, 2006, the Company issued a press release announcing that the Board enhanced the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines ("Guidelines") by implementing a majority vote standard for director elections. Pursuant to the revised Guidelines, any director nominee who receives a greater number of votes "withheld" from his or her election than votes "for" his or her election shall tender his or her resignation to the Chairman of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will then make a recommendation to the Board as to whether to accept such director's resignation. Such director is not permitted to participate in the Committee's recommendation or the Board's decision regarding such resignation.

A copy of the press release is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
