(“TD”), pursuant to which the Company will sell to TD its Nordstrom-branded Visa and private label consumer credit receivables, excluding receivables related to the Company’s employee accounts and corporate accounts, for a purchase price equal to the gross value of those receivables as of closing. The Purchase Agreement contemplates that TD Bank U.S. Holding Company will guaranty TD’s obligations to the Company, and also contains customary representations, warranties, covenants, termination provisions and indemnification obligations of the parties. In addition, the Purchase Agreement conditions the closing of the sale on the satisfaction of certain conditions, including the receipt of all necessary governmental and regulatory approvals. A copy of the Purchase Agreement will be filed with the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ending August 1, 2015.

The Program Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, covenants, termination provisions and indemnification obligations of the parties. The Program Agreement carries a term of seven years, subject to extension, and provides the Company with an option to purchase Program Agreement assets following the expiration of the Term or other termination of the Agreement.
