ITEM 1. SYSTEM COMPANIES AND INVESTMENT THEREIN AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2002 (continued)

29. From 1997 through 2002, Dominion established five subsidiary capital trusts that sold trust preferred securities that represented preferred beneficial interests and 97 percent beneficial ownership in the assets held by the capital trusts. In exchange for the funds realized from the sale of the trust preferred securities and common securities that represent the remaining 3 percent beneficial ownership interest in the assets held by the capital trust, Dominion issued various junior subordinated debt instruments. The junior subordinated debt instruments constitute 100 percent of each capital trust's assets. In 2002, Virginia Power redeemed $139 million of junior subordinated debt instruments held by Virginia Power Capital Trust I.

* The maturity date, subject to certain conditions, may be extended for up to an additional 10 years from date of original maturity.

30. Stock has been issued, but company has not been capitalized.

ITEM 2. ACQUISITIONS OR SALES OF UTILITY ASSETS

There were no acquisitions or sales of utility assets by system companies, which involved consideration of more than $1 million during the period of January 1, 2002 through December 31, 2002.

ITEM 3. ISSUE, SALE, PLEDGE, GUARANTEE OR ASSUMPTION OF SYSTEM SECURITIES

As of December 31, 2002, Dominion maintained two separate indemnity agreements with two separate surety companies. The indemnity agreements represented total outstanding obligations of approximately $120 million.

CNG has issued guarantees to the states of Louisiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia to maintain worker's compensation self-insurance status for certain subsidiaries operating in those states.

Dominion Energy has also issued a guaranty to the state of Connecticut to maintain worker's compensation self-insurance status for a subsidiary operating in that state.

All of the above transactions are exempt pursuant to Rule 45(b)(6).

During 2002, CNG purchased $100 million of common securities in its energy-related subsidiary Dominion Products and Services, Inc. pursuant to Rule 58.

The above do not include issuances or guarantees of system company securities which have been authorized by Commission order under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and which have been reported in certificates filed pursuant to Rule 24 and Rule 52 for the year 2002.

1. Except as noted, all securities redeemed or retired have been cancelled.
2. Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.
3. During 2002, Dominion redeemed $450 million of remarketable senior notes. In a direct exchange, Dominion completed the redemption by issuing $520 million of senior notes. The principal amount of the senior notes was determined by an exchange ratio that was based upon the fair value of the remarketable senior notes.
4. During 2002, Virginia Power redeemed $200 million of mortgage bonds. Virginia Power completed the redemption by issuing $650 million of senior notes. The redemption included a direct exchange of senior notes for $117 million of the mortgage bonds. The Company used the remaining cash proceeds from the issuance of the senior notes to redeem the remaining $83 million of the mortgage bonds and for general corporate purposes, including the repayment of other debt.
