Table of Contents*Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 1, 2007, CorVel Corporation (the Company) entered into a Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement) and an unsecured Revolving Line of Credit Note (the Note) with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (Wells Fargo), pursuant to which the Company established a $10.0 million revolving credit facility (the Credit Facility) for general working capital requirements. While there are no outstanding revolving loans at this time, the Company expects that letters of credit in the aggregate amount of $5.785 million will be issued under a letter of credit sub-limit. Such letters of credit, however, will not reduce the amount of borrowings available to the Company under the Credit Facility. Borrowings under the Credit Facility may be made from time to time until maturity on September 1, 2008, as the Company deems necessary or appropriate. The Credit Facility bears interest either, as selected by the Company, at a fluctuating rate per annum equal to the prime rate in effect from time to time or at a fixed rate per annum equal to LIBOR plus 1.25%, and is subject to acceleration upon the occurrence of certain events of default. After the maturity date or upon acceleration of the Note, the Note shall bear interest until paid in full at an increased rate per annum equal to 2% above the then-existing interest rate.

In addition to containing affirmative covenants, the Credit Agreement also includes negative covenants that, without Wells Fargo's approval, limit the Company's ability to: (a) use the Credit Facility for purposes other than general working capital; (b) mortgage, pledge, grant or permit to exist a lien upon, all or any portion of the Company's assets, except for certain permitted liens; (c) merge into or consolidate with any other entity unless the Company is the surviving entity and remains in compliance with the Credit Agreement; (d) engage in any material business not reasonably related to the Company's present business; (e) sell, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or a substantial or material portion of the Company's assets except in the ordinary course of its business, or except for up to 15% of its assets in any fiscal year for fair consideration; and (f) acquire all or substantially all of the assets of any other person or entity, except where (i) the business, division or operating units acquired are for use, or the person acquired is engaged, in businesses reasonably related to the businesses conducted by the Company at the time of the acquisition, (ii) immediately before and after giving effect to the acquisition, no event of default exists, (iii) the aggregate consideration to be paid by the Company in connection with the acquisition (or any series of related acquisitions) is less than $40,000,000 and all acquisitions after August 1, 2007 is less than $100,000,000, (iv) the board of directors or similar governing body of the acquired person has approved such acquisition and such person shall not have announced that it will oppose such acquisition or shall not have commenced any action which alleges that such acquisition will violate any applicable law, and (v) if the acquisition is structured as a merger, the Company is the surviving entity.

The Credit Agreement also includes default provisions based upon (a) a failure to pay principal, interest or other amounts within 5 days after the date due under the Credit Agreement; (b) any financial statement or certificate, or any representation or warranty, made by the Company under the Credit Agreement being incorrect, false or misleading in any material respect; (c) an uncured failure to perform or comply with other obligations to Wells Fargo; (d) a default under certain third-party agreements; (e) the filing of certain notices of judgment lien, the recording of certain abstracts of judgment, the service of certain notices of levy and/or writs of attachment or execution, or the entry of certain judgments; (f) insolvency, the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or liquidator, the general failure to pay debts as they become due, making a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, a voluntary petition for bankruptcy, or an involuntary petition for bankruptcy not dismissed within 30 days; (g) the dissolution or liquidation of the Company; and (h) any change in ownership of an aggregate of 25% or more of the common stock of the Company in a single or in affiliated transactions.

The foregoing is a summary of the material terms of the Credit Agreement and the Note. Such summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement and the Note, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.16 and 10.17 and are incorporated herein by reference.
