COMMAND NAMES NEW CFO

Lagrangeville, New York  April 19 , 2004  Command Security Corporation (OTCBB:CMMD) announced today that Gordon Robinett has been named CFO to replace Graeme Halder. Mr. Halder had been CFO for over three years and has decided to return to the UK.

Mr. William C. Vassell, Command's Chairman and CEO said, "Graeme has provided Command with valuable service during his tenure with the company. He has helped to streamline and strengthen our financial reporting and internal controls. I am sorry to lose Graeme but can understand his interest in returning to the UK".

Mr. Vassell added, "I am very pleased that Gordon Robinett has agreed to rejoin the Company in a position he held a number of years ago. During the period he was with the Company he provided strong financial guidance while the Company experienced substantial growth. I look forward to working with Gordon again".
