

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 19, 2019, BorgWarner Inc. (the “Company”) announced the appointment of Kevin A. Nowlan to the position of Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer effective April 1, 2019. Since January 1, 2019, Thomas J. McGill has been serving in the role of interim Chief Financial Officer, succeeding Ronald T. Hundzinski.

Mr. Nowlan, 46, has served as Senior Vice President and President, Trailer, Components and Chief Financial Officer of Meritor, Inc., an automotive supplier, since March 2018; Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Meritor, Inc. from May 2013 until March 2018; Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Meritor, Inc. from February 2013 until April 2013; Vice President and Controller of Meritor, Inc. from 2010 until 2013; and Vice President and Treasurer of Meritor, Inc. from 2009 until his appointment as Vice President and Controller. From 2008 until 2009, he served as Vice President and Assistant Treasurer of Meritor, Inc. and from 2007 until 2008, he served as Vice President of Shared Services of Meritor, Inc. Prior to joining Meritor, Mr. Nowlan worked in various roles at GMAC and General Motors Corporation from 1995 to 2007.

In connection with his appointment, the Company entered into an offer letter agreement with Mr. Nowlan. The offer letter provides that Mr. Nowlan will receive a base salary of $725,000 per year. The offer letter also provides that he will be entitled to the following, all of which are consistent with the Company’s practices for his position: (a) eligibility for an annual cash bonus under the Company’s Management Incentive Plan with a target award opportunity equal to 90% of his base salary, pro-rated for 2019, (b) an annual perquisite allowance of $35,000 per year, (c) participation in the Company’s 2018 Stock Incentive Plan, and for 2020, he will receive an award with a grant date value of $1.813 million, two-thirds of which will be in the form of performance shares and one-third of which will be in the form of time-vesting restricted stock, and (d) participation in the Company’s welfare and retirement benefit plans, including the Retirement Savings Excess Plan, in accordance with the terms of such plans. In addition, to compensate Mr. Nowlan for forfeitures of certain incentive compensation awards upon leaving his prior employer, the Company will grant him an award of time-vesting restricted stock units with a grant date value of $3.9 million that will vest over three years and pay him a $500,000 cash bonus following the 30-day anniversary of his hire date. The offer letter also provides that Mr. Nowlan will receive 24 months’ base salary continuation as severance in the event that the Company terminates his employment without cause within two years of his hire date and that he will receive the Company’s form change of control employment agreement for senior executives, which provides for severance benefits equal to two times the sum of his base salary and annual bonus if his employment is terminated under certain circumstances in connection with a change in control.

The Company also announced that Mr. McGill will succeed Anthony D. Hensel, the Company’s current Vice President & Controller, as the Company’s principal accounting officer when Mr. McGill becomes Vice President & Controller, with responsibility for Accounting, Tax and Enterprise Risk Management, effective April 1, 2019. Mr. Hensel will transition to the role of Vice President of Special Projects effective the same date.
