PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

League Data signs 10-year outsourcing contract with CGI valued at CDN$80 million

Halifax, Nova Scotia, December 11, 2002 Halifax-based credit union leader, League Data and CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB) today announced the signing of a 10-year contract for outsourcing services valued at CDN$80 million. The memorandum of understanding was previously announced on May 7, 2002.

CGI will manage League Data's current banking environment as well as build a new browser-based front-end solution. To do so, CGI will acquire intellectual property for the solution from League Data. Together, the firms will bring to the Atlantic credit unions emerging technologies and solutions such as loan origination, customer relationship management and Internet banking.

As part of the Agreement, 53 League Data employees located in Halifax will join CGI's operations in Atlantic Canada, as part of the CGI North American business unit serving credit unions. CGI provides services to over 2,300 credit unions making it one of the largest providers of consulting, integration and operational services to the industry across North America. CGI employs close to 150 professionals in Atlantic Canada.

About League Data

League Data was incorporated in 1975 and currently provides information technology services to 70 credit unions at 145 locations throughout Atlantic Canada on the system represented by 320,000 members with over one million deposits and loan accounts. In addition to League Data's multifaceted financial banking system, it offers a broad spectrum of services and applications such as telephone banking, a loan origination package, adhoc reporting system and automated teller machines.
