PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS REORGANIZATION PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Fellow Shareholder:

On behalf of the board of directors, we are pleased to invite you to the 2002 annual meeting of shareholders of Hawaiian Airlines, Inc. The meeting will be held on August 23, 2002 at 10:00 a.m., Hawaii standard time, in the Regency Room at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, 2259 Kalakaua Avenue, Honolulu, Hawaii. Parking in the adjoining Sheraton Waikiki facility will be validated.

At the annual meeting, in addition to electing 11 directors, you will be asked to consider and vote on a proposal to reorganize our company into a holding company structure under which our present company will become a subsidiary of a new Delaware corporation named Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. and you will become a shareholder of this new Delaware holding company. We refer to this proposal in the proxy statement/prospectus as the "reorganization proposal." You will also be asked to approve two related proposals. One is to approve the provision in the amended by-laws of the new holding company that allows only the board of directors and the chairman to call a special meeting of shareholders, which we refer to as the "governance proposal." The other is to grant our management the discretionary authority to adjourn the annual meeting in accordance with our amended by-laws to a later date so that additional proxies in favor of the reorganization proposal may be solicited, which we refer to as the "adjournment proposal."

Upon completion of the reorganization, our present company will remain a Hawaii corporation, and our current business, operations and management will remain the same. Implementing the holding company structure, however, will provide us with strategic, operational and financing flexibility, and incorporating the new holding company in Delaware will allow us to take advantage of the flexibility, predictability and responsiveness that Delaware corporate law provides.

The reorganization proposal involves the merger of Hawaiian Airlines, Inc., a Hawaii corporation, which we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus as "Hawaiian," with another Hawaii corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation, which we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus as "Hawaiian Holdings." In the reorganization, your existing shares of Hawaiian stock will be converted automatically into shares of Hawaiian Holdings stock. You will own the same number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock as you now own of Hawaiian common stock, and your shares will represent the same ownership percentage of Hawaiian Holdings as you have of Hawaiian. In addition, the reorganization will generally be tax-free for Hawaiian shareholders. As a shareholder of a public Delaware corporation, however, you will have different rights than as a shareholder of a Hawaii corporation. These differences are summarized in this proxy statement/prospectus.

We expect the shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock to trade under the ticker symbol "HA" on the American Stock Exchange (AMEX) and the Pacific Exchange (PSE). Shares of Hawaiian common stock are currently traded under the "HA" symbol on these exchanges. On July 23, 2002, the closing price per Hawaiian share was $2.68. On May 2, 2002, the last trading day before the announcement of the reorganization proposal, the closing price per Hawaiian share was $3.15.

In order to implement the reorganization proposal, we need shareholders to adopt and approve the related merger agreement and the governance proposal. Our board of directors has carefully considered the reorganization proposal, the governance proposal and the related transactions described in this proxy statement/prospectus and believes that they are advisable, fair to and in the best interest of our shareholders, and recommends that you vote FOR the reorganization proposal and the governance proposal. Whether or not you plan to attend your annual meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card to us (if you are a record holder) or the appropriate financial institution (if you hold your shares through a broker or other institution) or by voting by telephone.

If you need special assistance at the annual meeting because of a disability, please contact Ms. Audrey Yuh, Investor Relations, Hawaiian Airlines, Inc., P.O. Box 30008, Honolulu, Hawaii 96820.

Your board of directors and management look forward to greeting those of you who are able to attend the annual meeting. For additional information about Hawaiian, please see the enclosed 2001 annual report and the quarterly report for the first quarter of 2002. The accompanying notice of meeting and proxy statement/prospectus provide specific information about the annual meeting and explain the various proposals. Please read these materials carefully. In particular, you should consider the discussion of risk factors beginning on page 8 before voting on the reorganization and governance proposals.

Thank you for your continued support and interest in Hawaiian.

Chairman of the Board of Directors,
Chief Executive Officer and President

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

To be held on August 23, 2002

To the Shareholders of Hawaiian Airlines, Inc.:

On August 23, 2002, Hawaiian Airlines, Inc. will hold the annual meeting of its shareholders at 10:00 a.m., Hawaii standard time, in the Regency Room at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, 2259 Kalakaua Avenue, Honolulu, Hawaii. Parking in the adjoining Sheraton Waikiki facility will be validated.

We fixed the close of business on July 9, 2002 as the record date for shareholders entitled to vote at the annual meeting or any adjournment of the meeting. In order to be admitted to the meeting, shareholders holding stock in brokerage accounts will need to bring a copy of a brokerage statement reflecting stock ownership on the record date.

At the annual meeting, we will do the following:

1. Elect 11 directors;
2. Consider and vote upon a proposal, which we refer to as the "reorganization proposal," to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 2, 2002, by and among Hawaiian Holdings, Inc., HA Sub Inc. and Hawaiian Airlines, Inc., which agreement is included in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I;
- 3.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Consider and vote upon a proposal, which we refer to as the "governance proposal," to approve the provision in the amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. that allows only the board of directors and the chairman to call a special meeting of shareholders;

Consider and vote upon a proposal, which we refer to as the "adjournment proposal," to grant our management the discretionary authority to adjourn the annual meeting in accordance with our amended by-laws to a later date so that additional proxies in favor of the reorganization proposal may be solicited; and 5.

Conduct any other business which may properly come before the annual meeting or any adjournment or adjournments of the annual meeting.

The election of the 11 director nominees requires a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares of our common and special preferred stock entitled to vote in the election at the meeting, voting as a single voting group.

The approval of the reorganization proposal requires the affirmative vote of:

75% of the outstanding shares of our common and special preferred stock, voting as a single voting group; and a majority of the outstanding shares of our special preferred stock represented at the meeting, voting as a separate voting group.

The approval of the governance and adjournment proposals each requires the affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of the shares of our common and special preferred stock entitled to vote at the meeting and present in person or by proxy, voting as a single voting group.

Airline Investors Partnership, L.P., our controlling shareholder (which we refer to as "AIP"), owned approximately 50.9% of the outstanding shares of our common and special preferred stock and a majority of the outstanding shares of our special preferred stock on the record date. AIP has informed us that it intends to vote its shares in favor of the 11 director nominees and each of the other proposals. Therefore, the election of the 11 director nominees and the approval of the governance and adjournment proposals are ensured. The voting of all of AIP's shares of special preferred stock in favor of the reorganization proposal will assure the necessary vote for the approval of the separate voting group comprised of the holders of special preferred stock. The voting of AIP's shares of common stock in favor of the reorganization proposal is insufficient to ensure that the 75% voting requirement will be satisfied.

It is important that you vote your shares on the reorganization proposal. If you do not return the proxy or vote at the meeting, the effect will be the same as a vote against the reorganization proposal. Whether or not you plan on attending the annual meeting, please read carefully the proxy statement/prospectus appearing on the following pages and then complete, sign and date the proxy card and return it in the enclosed prepaid envelope or follow the instructions contained on the proxy card for voting by telephone.

Shareholders as of the record date are entitled to assert dissenters' rights under Part XIV of Chapter 414 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes with respect to the reorganization proposal. A copy of Part XIV is attached as Appendix XI to the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. A summary of the dissenters' rights of shareholders, and of the procedural steps that must be strictly followed by shareholders wishing to perfect and pursue their dissenters' rights, is set forth in the proxy statement/prospectus under "Proposal Two: The Reorganization Rights of Dissenting Shareholders."

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Lyn Flanigan Anzai
Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

Markets and Market Prices	7
Certain Financial Information	7
RISK FACTORS	8
We may not obtain the expected benefits of our reorganization into a holding company structure.	8
As a holding company, Hawaiian Holdings will be totally dependent on dividends from its operating subsidiaries to pay dividends and other obligations.	8
As with Hawaiian, anti-takeover provisions in Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws and in the existing stockholders agreement to which Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC will become parties may delay or prevent a third party acquisition of Hawaiian Holdings, which could decrease the value of its common stock.	8
As a shareholder of a Delaware corporation, your rights after the reorganization will be different from, and may be less favorable than, your current rights as a shareholder of a Hawaii corporation. Because AIP LLC will initially control a majority of the outstanding Hawaiian Holdings stock and six of the 11 Hawaiian Holdings board seats as AIP did with Hawaiian, the significance of the voting rights of the minority shareholders in Hawaiian Holdings will be limited in a similar manner as in Hawaiian.	9
As with Hawaiian, shares eligible for future sale could impact the price of Hawaiian Holdings common stock.	10
The proposed reorganization into a holding company structure may result in substantial direct and indirect costs whether or not completed.	11
The exercise of dissenters' rights in respect of a significant number of shares of Hawaiian stock would increase the cash requirements of the reorganization and could harm our financial condition.	11

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

In this proxy statement/prospectus, the terms "we," "us" or "our" refer to Hawaiian Holdings, Inc., the new Delaware corporation, and Hawaiian Airlines, Inc., the current Hawaii corporation (which will become a subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. upon completion of the proposed reorganization), when the distinction between the two companies is not important to the discussion. When the distinction between the two companies is important to the discussion, we use the term "Hawaiian Holdings" to refer to Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. and "Hawaiian" to refer to Hawaiian Airlines, Inc.

Q: When is the annual meeting? What are the matters being considered?

A: Our annual meeting will be held on August 23, 2002 at 10:00 a.m., Hawaii standard time, in the Regency Room at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, 2259 Kalakaua Avenue, Honolulu, Hawaii. At the meeting, shareholders will be asked to elect 11 directors, to approve the merger agreement relating to the reorganization proposal, the governance proposal and the adjournment proposal, and to act on any other business that may properly come before the meeting. Approval of the governance proposal is a condition to completion of the reorganization. The other matters are independent of each other. We do not know of any matters other than those described above that may come before the meeting. Our management will also report on our performance during the past year and respond to appropriate questions from shareholders.

Q: What is the reorganization proposal?

A: We are asking you to approve a merger agreement that would result in our reorganization into a Delaware holding company structure. Under the merger agreement, Hawaiian, a Hawaii corporation, will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and the current shareholders of Hawaiian will become shareholders of Hawaiian Holdings with the same number and percentage of shares. The merger agreement, which sets forth the plan of merger and is the primary legal document that governs the merger, is attached as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus. You are encouraged to read the merger agreement carefully.

Q: Why are you forming a Delaware holding company?

A: We are forming a holding company:

to take advantage of the benefits of Delaware corporate law;

to provide us with greater strategic, business and administrative flexibility, which may allow us to acquire or form other businesses, if and when appropriate and feasible, that may be owned and operated by us, but which could be separate from our airline business; and to enable us, if and when appropriate, to issue debt and equity at different corporate levels.

To review the reasons for our reorganization in greater detail, see "Proposal Two: The Reorganization Reasons for the Reorganization; Recommendation of Our Board."

Q:

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

What will happen to my stock?

A:

In the reorganization, your shares of common and special preferred stock will automatically convert into the same number of shares of common stock of Hawaiian Holdings. As a result, you will become a shareholder of Hawaiian Holdings and will own the same number and percentage of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock that you now own of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock. We expect the Hawaiian Holdings common stock will be listed on the AMEX and the PSE under the symbol "HA."

As part of the reorganization, Hawaiian Holdings will issue the same number of shares of its special preferred stock with substantially the same rights as the Hawaiian special preferred stock to the current holders.

Q:

How will being a Hawaiian Holdings shareholder be different from being a Hawaiian shareholder?

A:

After the reorganization, you will own the same number and percentage of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock that you now own of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock. However, you will own shares of a holding company that owns our airline business, instead of owning our airline business directly. In addition, as a shareholder of Hawaiian Holdings, your rights will be governed by Delaware corporate law and the charter documents of the Delaware corporation. These rights are different from, and may be more or less favorable to you depending on the circumstances than, the rights that you currently have as a shareholder of a Hawaii corporation. For more information, see "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock," "Description of Hawaiian Capital Stock" and "Comparative Rights of Holders of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock and Hawaiian Capital Stock."

Q:

Will the management or the business of the company change as a result of the reorganization?

A:

No. The management and business of our company will remain the same after the reorganization.

Q:

Will I have to turn in my stock certificates?

A:

No. Do not turn in your stock certificates. We will not require you to exchange your stock certificates as a result of the reorganization. After the reorganization, your Hawaiian common and special preferred stock certificates will represent the same number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock.

Q:

Does formation of a holding company affect my federal income taxes?

A:

The proposed reorganization will be a tax-free transaction under federal income tax laws. We expect that you will not recognize any gain or loss for federal income tax purposes upon your receipt of Hawaiian Holdings stock in exchange for your shares of Hawaiian stock in the reorganization. The tax consequences to you will depend on your own situation. You should consult your own tax advisors concerning the specific tax consequences of the reorganization to you, including any foreign, state, or local tax consequences of the reorganization. For further information, see "Proposal Two: The Reorganization Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences."

Q:

How will the reorganization be treated for accounting purposes?

A:

For accounting purposes, our reorganization into a holding company structure will be treated as a merger of entities under common control. The accounting treatment for such events is similar to the former "pooling of interests method." Accordingly, the financial position and results of operations of Hawaiian will be included in the consolidated financial statements of Hawaiian Holdings on the same basis as currently presented.

Q:

What is the governance proposal?

A:

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

In this proposal, we are asking you to approve the provision in the amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings that allows only the board of directors and the chairman to call a special meeting of shareholders. Approval of the governance proposal is a condition to completion of the reorganization.

Q:

Who are the 11 director nominees?

A:

The nominating committee of our board of directors has recommended John W. Adams, Gregory S. Anderson, Todd G. Cole, Robert G. Coe, Joseph P. Hoar, Reno F. Morella, Samson Poomaihealani, Edward Z. Safady, Sharon L. Soper, Thomas J. Trzanowski and William M. Weisfield for election to our board of directors. These nominees have a broad range of relevant experience and are the current members of your board of directors. If they are elected, these directors will also serve as the initial directors of Hawaiian Holdings after the completion of the reorganization.

Q:

What is the adjournment proposal?

A:

In this proposal, we are asking you to authorize our management, if necessary, to adjourn the annual meeting, and any later adjournments, in accordance with our amended by-laws to a later date so that additional proxies in favor of the reorganization proposal may be solicited. Prior to any adjournment, we will ask our shareholders to vote upon the election of the 11 director nominees and the governance and adjournment proposals at the annual meeting, but not the reorganization proposal. We will also allow our management to present their report on our performance in 2001 and to answer appropriate questions from our shareholders.

Q:

Who is entitled to attend and vote at the meeting?

A:

Any holder of record of Hawaiian common or special preferred stock at the close of business on July 9, 2002, the record date, is entitled to attend and vote at the meeting. On the record date, we had 27,814,143 shares of common stock and seven shares of special preferred stock outstanding.

On the election of directors and the reorganization, governance and adjournment proposals, the holders of our common and special preferred stock will vote together as a single voting group.

On the reorganization proposal, the holders of our special preferred stock will also vote as a separate voting group.

Q:

What will constitute a quorum at the meeting?

A:

Holders of a majority of our common and special preferred stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote on the record date must be present at the meeting, either in person or by proxy, to establish a quorum. Proxies that we receive that are marked "withhold" or "abstain" will be considered present at the meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum.

Q:

How do I vote?

A:

After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should vote your shares by following the instructions contained in this proxy statement/prospectus and the proxy card included with it, so that your shares may be represented at the annual meeting.

The board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the 11 director nominees identified in this proxy statement/prospectus, the reorganization proposal (including approval of the merger agreement), the governance proposal and the adjournment proposal.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Q: Do I need to attend the annual meeting in person?

A: No. It is not necessary for you to attend the meeting to vote your shares, although we invite you to attend.

Q: May I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: You may change your vote at any time before your shares are voted at the annual meeting. This proxy statement/prospectus contains instructions on how to change your vote. If you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change those instructions.

Q: If my shares are held in "street name" by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: On the election of directors, your broker may vote your shares even if you do not provide your broker with instructions on how to vote.

On the reorganization, governance and adjournment proposals, however, your broker will vote your shares only if you provide your broker with instructions on how to vote. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares, following the directions provided by your broker. If you fail to instruct your broker on the reorganization proposal, your shares will not be voted and will have the same effect as voting against this proposal. If you fail to instruct your broker on either the governance or adjournment proposal, your shares will not be voted and will have the same effect as voting against the applicable proposal, but only if your shares are otherwise considered present at the meeting.

Q: If I tendered my shares in the recently completed tender offer, will I be able to vote any of those shares?

A: You will be able to vote only those shares that you own on the record date. You will continue to own shares that you tendered, but which we have not accepted for payment under the tender offer. Shares that we purchased in the tender offer will be considered authorized but unissued shares and therefore will not be entitled to vote at the annual meeting.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal?

A: For the election of directors, the nominees who receive the most votes will be elected no matter how many votes are cast. Therefore, if you do not vote for a particular nominee, or if you withhold authority for one or all of the nominees, your vote will not count either for or against the nominee.

For the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the required vote is:

the affirmative vote of holders of 75% of all issued and outstanding shares of our common and special preferred stock, voting together as a single voting group; and the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of our special preferred stock represented at the meeting, voting separately.

Therefore, if you abstain or otherwise do not vote on the reorganization proposal, it will have the effect of a vote against this proposal.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

For the governance and adjournment proposals, the required vote is the affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of the shares of our common and special preferred stock entitled to vote at the meeting and present in person or by proxy, voting as a single voting group. Therefore, if you abstain or otherwise do not vote on either the governance or adjournment proposal, it will have the effect of a vote against the applicable proposal, but only if your shares are otherwise considered present at the meeting.

Q: What percentage of the outstanding shares do directors and executive officers hold?

A: On July 9, 2002, directors, executive officers and their affiliates beneficially owned:

52.92% of the outstanding shares of our common stock; and 57.14% of our special preferred stock.

Airline Investors Partnership, L.P., our majority shareholder (which we refer to as "AIP"), and an affiliate of John W. Adams, the chairman of our board of directors and our chief executive officer and president, has informed us that it intends to vote its 14,159,403 shares of our common stock and the four shares of our Series B special preferred stock in favor of the 11 director nominees and each of the other proposals. Therefore, the election of the 11 director nominees and the approval of the governance and adjournment proposals are ensured. In addition, the approval of the reorganization proposal by the holders of our special preferred stock, voting separately, is guaranteed. AIP's share holdings, however, are insufficient to ensure that the 75% voting requirement will be satisfied.

Q: If the shareholders approve the reorganization, when will it occur?

A: Because we have already obtained the necessary licenses and consent from the FCC, we plan to complete the reorganization immediately after obtaining shareholder approval.

Q: Do I have dissenters' (or appraisal) rights?

A: Yes. Holders of Hawaiian common stock have dissenters' rights under Hawaii law as a result of the reorganization if they do not vote in favor of the reorganization proposal and if they comply with other requirements of Hawaii law. You should read carefully the explanation of these rights under "Proposal Two: The Reorganization Rights of Dissenting Shareholders.

Q: Whom do I contact if I have questions about the annual meeting or the reorganization proposal?

SUMMARY OF THE REORGANIZATION PROPOSAL

This summary highlights key aspects of the reorganization proposal, including the merger agreement and related transactions, that are described in greater detail elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. It does not contain all of the information that may be important to you. To better understand the reorganization proposal, and for a more complete description of the legal terms of the merger agreement and the related transactions, you should read this entire document carefully, including the Annexes, and the additional documents to which we refer you. You can find information with respect to these additional documents in "Where You Can Find More Information."

The Principal Parties (Page 65)

Hawaiian Airlines, Inc.

3375 Koapaka Street, Suite G350
Honolulu, Hawaii 96819-1869
Telephone: (808) 835-3700

Founded in 1929 as Inter-Island Airways, Hawaiian Airlines, Inc. or Hawaiian, is the first and largest Hawaii-based airline. From Honolulu, Hawaiian provides scheduled and charter air transportation of passengers, cargo and mail among the islands of Hawaii and between Hawaii and seven Western U.S. gateway cities and two destinations in the South Pacific. The nation's 12th-largest carrier, it is also the second-largest provider of transpacific air service between the U.S. mainland and Hawaii. Hawaiian had revenue of approximately $607 million in 2000 and $612 million in 2001, had net losses of approximately $18.6 million in 2000 and net income of approximately $5.1 million in 2001 and had approximately 3,069 employees as of December 31, 2001.

Hawaiian Holdings, Inc.

3375 Koapaka Street, Suite G350
Honolulu, Hawaii 96819-1869
Telephone: (808) 835-3700

Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. or "Hawaiian Holdings," was formed as a wholly owned subsidiary of Hawaiian in order to effect the reorganization. Prior to the reorganization, Hawaiian Holdings will have no assets or operations other than incident to its formation. After the reorganization, Hawaiian will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings, and the shareholders of Hawaiian will be the shareholders of Hawaiian Holdings.

What You Will Receive in the Reorganization (Page 23)

In the reorganization, each outstanding whole share of common and special preferred stock of Hawaiian, other than shares owned by AIP, Inc., will convert automatically into one share of common stock of Hawaiian Holdings.

In addition, each of the outstanding options to purchase shares of Hawaiian common stock, if not exercised before the completion of the reorganization, will become options to acquire, at the same exercise price, an identical number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock. Each pilot employee of Hawaiian eligible to receive an allocation under the Hawaiian pilots' 401(k) plan of shares of Hawaiian common stock will become eligible to receive an allocation under the Hawaiian pilots' 401(k) plan of an identical number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock. On the record date, there were outstanding options to purchase approximately 2,998,000 shares of Hawaiian common stock and up to 652,436 shares of Hawaiian common stock eligible to be issued to our pilot employees under the Hawaiian pilots' 401(k) plan in accordance with the 2001 pilots' stock agreement.

Conditions to Completion of the Reorganization

The completion of the reorganization depends on the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including, but not limited to, the following:

approval of the merger agreement by Hawaiian's shareholders;

the completion of the related transactions relating to the restructuring of AIP; receipt by Hawaiian of a legal opinion to the effect that the reorganization will constitute a tax-free transaction under section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code; absence of any law or order that has a material adverse effect on Hawaiian or any legal prohibition or restraint that would prevent completion of the reorganization or any pending legal proceeding that seeks one of these results;

absence of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement relating to the shares of Hawaiian Holdings to be issued in the reorganization; receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and licenses and third party consents; and receipt of approval for listing on the AMEX and the PSE of the shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock to be issued in the reorganization.

Regulatory Requirements

The completion of the reorganization is subject to obtaining regulatory reviews, licenses and approvals. The FCC has granted to us the licenses and consent that are necessary to complete the reorganization.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

We may terminate the merger agreement, even after adoption by our shareholders, if our board of directors determines to do so.

Related Transactions

In connection with the reorganization, AIP will be restructured into a newly formed entity called AIP LLC. As part of the reorganization, Hawaiian Holdings will enter into several agreements with AIP LLC to replicate Hawaiian's existing arrangements with AIP. Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC will enter into a registration rights agreement granting AIP LLC substantially the same rights to have its shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock registered for resale that AIP has with its shares of Hawaiian common stock. In addition, Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC will become parties to the existing stockholders agreement among Hawaiian, AIP and the three labor unions with board nomination rights, obligating AIP LLC to the same governance arrangements with respect to Hawaiian Holdings as AIP has Hawaiian.

Markets and Market Prices

Hawaiian Holdings common stock is not currently traded on any stock exchange. Hawaiian common stock is traded under the symbol "HA" on the AMEX and the PSE, and we expect Hawaiian Holdings common stock to trade on these exchanges under the same symbol. On May 2, 2002, the last trading day before the public announcement of the proposed reorganization, the closing price per share of Hawaiian common stock was $3.15. On July 23, 2002, the most recent trading day for which prices were available prior to the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price per share of Hawaiian common stock was $2.68.

Certain Financial Information

We have not included complete pro forma financial comparative per share information concerning Hawaiian that gives effect to the reorganization because, immediately after the completion of the reorganization, the consolidated financial statements of Hawaiian Holdings will be substantially the same as Hawaiian's financial statements immediately prior to the reorganization, and the reorganization will result in the conversion of each share of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock into the right to receive one share of Hawaiian Holdings common stock. In addition, we have not provided financial statements of Hawaiian Holdings because, prior to the reorganization, it will have no assets, liabilities or operations other than incident to its formation.

RISK FACTORS

In considering whether to vote in favor of the reorganization proposal, you should consider all of the information we have included in this proxy statement/prospectus, including its annexes, and all of the information included in the documents we have incorporated by reference, including the 2001 annual report to shareholders and the quarterly report on Form 10-Q/A for the quarter ended March 31, 2002. In addition, you should pay particular attention to the risks described below.

We may not obtain the expected benefits of our reorganization into a holding company structure.

We believe our reorganization into a holding company structure will provide us with benefits in the future. These expected benefits may not be obtained if market conditions or other circumstances prevent us from taking advantage of the strategic, business and financing flexibility that it affords us. As a result, we will incur the costs of the holding company structure without realizing the possible benefits. In addition, the holding company structure may not be successful in insulating the liabilities of our subsidiaries from each other or from Hawaiian Holdings. We or our future subsidiaries may be liable for the liabilities of one another, particularly if we do not observe corporate formalities or adequately capitalize ourselves or our future subsidiaries.

As a holding company, Hawaiian Holdings will be totally dependent on dividends from its operating subsidiaries to pay dividends and other obligations.

After the completion of the reorganization, Hawaiian Holdings will be a holding company with no business operations of its own. Its only significant asset will be the outstanding capital stock of its subsidiaries, which will initially be Hawaiian only. As a result, it will rely on payments from Hawaiian or any subsidiaries that it may form in the future to meet its obligations. We currently expect that a significant portion of the earnings and cash flow of Hawaiian, which will become Hawaiian Holdings' wholly owned subsidiary, will be retained and used by it in its operations, including to service any debt obligations it may have now or in the future. Additionally, subsidiaries may be restricted in their ability to pay cash dividends or to make other distributions to Hawaiian Holdings, which may limit the payment of cash dividends or other distributions to the holders of Hawaiian Holdings common stock. Future credit facilities and other future debt obligations of Hawaiian Holdings, as well as statutory provisions, may limit the ability of Hawaiian Holdings and its subsidiaries to pay dividends.

As with Hawaiian, anti-takeover provisions in Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws and in the existing stockholders agreement to which Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC will become parties may delay or prevent a third party acquisition of Hawaiian Holdings, which could decrease the value of its common stock.

The restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings and the existing stockholders agreement to which Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC will become parties upon completion of the reorganization contain provisions that could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire us without the consent of our board of directors and principal shareholder. Many of these provisions are based on similar provisions that currently are contained in Hawaiian's articles of incorporation and by-laws. These provisions will:

limit the business at special meetings to the purpose stated in the notice of the meeting;

establish advance notice requirements for submitting nominations for election to the board of directors and for proposing matters that can be acted upon by shareholders at a meeting, except that the amount of advance notice required will be extended to 90 days, as opposed to 30 days; authorize the issuance of "blank check" preferred stock, which is preferred stock with voting or other rights or preferences that could impede a takeover attempt and that the board of directors can create and issue without prior stockholder approval; fix the number of directors on the board of directors at 11;

give AIP LLC and the three unions represented on Hawaiian's board effective control over who occupies each of the 11 board seats; and require holders of at least two-thirds of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares of our voting stock to amend specified provisions of our restated certificate of incorporation including those that may have anti-takeover effects.

In addition, the Transportation Act prohibits non-U.S. citizens from owning more than 25% of the voting interest of a U.S. air carrier or having control of a U.S. air carrier, and the certificate of incorporation of Hawaiian Holdings will contain provisions substantially the same as those currently in Hawaiian's articles of incorporation and by-laws that prohibit non-U.S. citizens from owning more than 25% of the voting stock. We believe that, upon completion of the reorganization, non-U.S. citizens will hold less than 1% of Hawaiian Holdings' voting stock. This foreign ownership restriction will limit the ability of a non-U.S. citizen to acquire a controlling block of Hawaiian Holdings common stock.

The restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings will contain additional provisions not contained in the articles of incorporation and by-laws of Hawaiian that may delay or prevent third party takeovers. These provisions will:

subject to approval of the governance proposal, permit only Hawaiian Holdings' board of directors and chairman to call special meetings of shareholders; and prohibit shareholder action by written consent, as permitted by Delaware law.

Although we believe all of these provisions will make a higher third-party bid more likely by requiring potential acquirors to negotiate with the board of directors, these provisions will apply even if an initial offer may be considered beneficial to some shareholders. For more information, see "Proposal Three: The Governance Proposal," "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock" and "Comparative Rights of Holders of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock and Hawaiian Capital Stock."

As a shareholder of a Delaware corporation, your rights after the reorganization will be different from, and may be less favorable than, your current rights as a shareholder of a Hawaii corporation.

After the completion of the reorganization, you will become a shareholder of a public company incorporated in the State Delaware instead of the State of Hawaii. As a result, your rights as a shareholder will be governed by Delaware corporate law as opposed to Hawaii corporate law. Because they are separate bodies of law, Delaware corporate law will be different from Hawaii corporate law. Although many of these differences will not have a significant impact on the rights of shareholders, some of these differences may be more or less favorable to shareholders. Some of the differences between Delaware and Hawaii corporate law that may be less favorable to shareholders after the completion of the reorganization include the following:

under Delaware corporate law, fewer corporate transactions give rise to dissenters' rights than under Hawaii corporate law;

as permitted by Delaware corporate law, shareholders of Hawaiian Holdings will not have the right, subject to approval of the governance proposal, to call a special meeting of shareholders, as opposed to Hawaii corporate law, which gives holders of 10% of the voting shares the right to call a special meeting;

as permitted by Delaware corporate law, shareholders will not have the right to act by written consent, as permitted by Hawaii corporate law; and under Delaware corporate law, a merger, sale of all or substantially all of our assets or other extraordinary transaction requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares, as opposed to the required vote of 75% of Hawaiian's outstanding shares under Hawaii law.

These differences may limit the significance of your rights as a shareholder in these contexts. For a discussion of these and other differences between Delaware and Hawaii corporate law, see "Proposal Three: The Governance Proposal," "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock," "Description of Hawaiian Capital Stock" and "Comparative Rights of Holders of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock and Hawaiian Capital Stock."

Because AIP LLC will initially control a majority of the outstanding Hawaiian Holdings stock and six of the 11 Hawaiian Holdings board seats as AIP did with Hawaiian, the significance of the voting rights of the minority shareholders in Hawaiian Holdings will be limited in a similar manner as in Hawaiian.

AIP is the beneficial owner of approximately 50.9% of Hawaiian common stock and four of the seven shares of Hawaiian special preferred stock. John W. Adams, currently the chairman of Hawaiian's board of directors and the chief executive officer and president of Hawaiian, is the sole shareholder of the general partner of AIP and controls the voting of AIP's shares of Hawaiian stock. Hawaiian's amended by-laws give AIP the right to nominate six of our 11 directors until AIP ceases to own at least 35% of our common stock. In addition, through its share ownership, AIP has the power to prevent any shareholder action from being approved if it does not vote in favor of the proposed action. After the reorganization, AIP LLC will own the same number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings stock as AIP currently owns of Hawaiian stock with the same ownership percentage of Hawaiian Holdings as AIP has of Hawaiian, and Mr. Adams will be the sole managing member of AIP LLC. AIP LLC and Mr. Adams will therefore continue to have a controlling role in the outcome of all matters to be decided by our shareholders, including the election of directors and significant corporate transactions. These control rights, as well as other provisions in the organizational documents of Hawaiian Holdings, will minimize the significance of the voting rights of other holders of Hawaiian Holdings stock. See "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock," "Description of Hawaiian Capital Stock" and "Comparative Rights of Holders of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock and Hawaiian Capital Stock."

As with Hawaiian, shares eligible for future sale could impact the price of Hawaiian Holdings common stock.

The price of our common stock may be subject to significant fluctuation in the future, including as a result of the availability of shares for future sale. Substantially all of the outstanding shares of our common stock, other than shares held by our officers, directors and other affiliates, are freely tradable. Shares of our common stock held by our affiliates are subject to limitations on the number of shares that may be sold unless the sale of the shares is registered or is exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

Under a registration rights agreement that will be entered into at the time the reorganization is completed, AIP LLC will have registration rights for the shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock it holds that are substantially the same as the current registration rights of AIP. AIP LLC will have the right, on up to two occasions, to require us to register all or any portion of its shares under the Securities Act, at our expense. In addition, if we register any other shares of our common stock for public sale under the Securities Act at any time prior to the tenth anniversary of the reorganization, AIP LLC will have the right to include its shares in the registration.

In addition, as of July 9, 2002, there were up to 2,998,000 shares of Hawaiian common stock reserved for issuance pursuant to the options granted under our 1994 Stock Option Plan, the 1996 Stock Incentive Plan and the 1996 Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan. We were also obligated to issue, as of July 9, 2002, up to 652,436 shares of Hawaiian common stock to our pilots under Hawaiian's pilots' 401(k) plan in accordance with the Stock Allocation Agreement, dated May 2001, between Hawaiian and its pilots represented by ALPA (which we refer to as the 2001 pilots' stock agreement). As of July 9, 2002, our various 401(k) plans held an aggregate of approximately 7.5% of the outstanding shares of our common stock. Under the merger agreement, Hawaiian Holdings will assume the three existing Hawaiian stock option plans and the 2001 pilots' stock agreement. As a result, the outstanding options to acquire Hawaiian common stock will become options to acquire the same number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock, and Hawaiian Holdings will issue the same number of shares of its common stock in the aggregate to the pilots under the 2001 pilots' stock agreement in each case, on substantially the same terms as currently in existence. Sales of these shares, depending on the volume, could adversely affect the trading prices of our common stock and, after the completion of the reorganization.

The proposed reorganization into a holding company structure may result in substantial direct and indirect costs whether or not completed.

The reorganization may result in substantial direct costs. These costs and expenses are expected to consist primarily of attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, filing fees and financial printing expenses and will be substantially incurred prior to the vote of our shareholders. The reorganization may also result in certain indirect costs by diverting the attention of our management and employees from our business and resulting in increased administrative costs and expenses. These administrative costs and expenses will include keeping separate records and in some cases making separate regulatory filings for each of Hawaiian Holdings and our subsidiaries.

The exercise of dissenters' rights in respect of a significant number of shares of Hawaiian stock would increase the cash requirements of the reorganization and could harm our financial condition.

Under Hawaii law, shareholders of Hawaiian who oppose the reorganization may exercise dissenters' rights to require us to purchase their shares at their "fair value" if the reorganization is completed. If shareholders exercise these dissenters' rights in respect of a significant number of shares and comply with all the applicable requirements of Hawaii law, we may be required to expend a significant amount of funds to purchase these shares, which would reduce our liquidity and may harm our financial condition. Those shareholders who exercise dissenters' rights may not receive consideration until some period of time after the reorganization is completed, and they may have to incur out-of-pocket costs in connection with appraisal proceedings. See "Proposal Two: The Reorganization Rights of Dissenting Shareholders" and Annex IV.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus contains forward-looking statements with respect to the reorganization and the related transactions and our financial condition, results of operations, objectives, future performance and business, which we believe are covered by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In addition, oral statements made from time to time by our representatives may also be covered by this Act. Statements in this proxy statement/prospectus and the oral statements referred to above that are not historical facts are "forward-looking statements" for the purpose of the safe harbor provided by Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Forward-looking statements include:

statements regarding the potential benefits and effects of the reorganization and related transactions; statements regarding our objectives and expectations of our board of directors with respect to future operations; statements regarding future economic performance; statements relating to the assumptions underlying performance; and statements relating to the estimated size of relevant markets.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

When used in this proxy statement/prospectus, the words "anticipates," "believes," "expects," "intends," "estimates," "plans," and similar expressions as they relate to us or our management are intended to identify these forward-looking statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to us or any person acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained in this section. We do not undertake any obligation to release publicly any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this document or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, except as may be required under applicable securities laws or as set forth in the registration statement on Form S-4 that contains this proxy statement/prospectus.

In making any of these statements, the expectations are believed to be based on reasonable assumptions. However, there are numerous risks, uncertainties and important factors, most of which are difficult to predict and are generally beyond our control that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements. These include:

those discussed or identified in this proxy statement/prospectus or from time to time in our public filings with the SEC; specific risks or uncertainties associated with our expectations with respect to:

the timing, completion or tax status of the reorganization;

strategic decisions of management;

the successful completion and integration of acquisitions that complement and expand our business capabilities; and the availability of future sources of financing.

Further discussion of many of these factors is presented under "Risk Factors" and in the documents we have incorporated by reference, including the 2001 annual report to shareholders and the quarterly report on Form 10-Q/A for the quarter ended March 31, 2002 being delivered with this proxy statement/prospectus. Our actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, forward-looking statements. Accordingly, we cannot assure that any of the events anticipated by forward-looking statements will occur, or if they do, what impact they will have on our results of operations and our financial condition.

ANNUAL MEETING OF HAWAIIAN SHAREHOLDERS

Our board of directors is soliciting proxies from the holders of our common and special preferred stock for use at the annual meeting of our shareholders and at any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. This proxy statement/prospectus, together with the form of proxy, is expected to be first mailed to holders of our common and special preferred stock on or about July 26, 2002.

Date, Time and Place of the Annual Meeting

The date, time and place of the annual meeting of our shareholders is as follows:

Date of the Meeting	August 23, 2002
Time of the Meeting	10:00 a.m., Hawaii standard time
Place of the Meeting	Regency Room at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, 2259 Kalakaua Avenue Honolulu, Hawaii

Attendance at the annual meeting will be limited to:

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

shareholders of record;

beneficial owners of our common stock entitled to vote at the meeting having evidence of ownership; authorized representatives of absent shareholders; and invited guests of management.

If you own shares of our common stock in the name of a bank, brokerage firm or other holder of record, you must show proof of ownership. This may be in the form of a letter from the holder of record or a recent statement from the bank or broker showing your ownership of our common stock on the record date. Any person claiming to be an authorized representative of a shareholder must produce written evidence of the authorization.

Shareholder Votes to be Held at the Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of our shareholders will be held to:

1. Elect 11 directors;
2. Consider and vote on a proposal to adopt and approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 2, 2002, by and among Hawaiian Holdings, Inc., HA Sub Inc. and Hawaiian Airlines, Inc., which agreement is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I;
3. Consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the provision in the amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. that allows only the board of directors and the chairman to call a special meeting of shareholders;
4. Consider and vote upon a proposal to grant our management the discretionary authority to adjourn the annual meeting in accordance with our amended by-laws to a later date so that additional proxies in favor of the reorganization proposal may be solicited; and
5. Conduct any other business which may properly come before the annual meeting or any adjournment or adjournments of the annual meeting.

We do not expect that any matters other than the reorganization proposal, the governance proposal and the adjournment proposal and the election of 11 directors will be raised at the annual meeting. Under our amended by-laws, a shareholder may not present any proposed business at an annual meeting unless the shareholder gives written notice of the proposed business not more than 60 nor less than 30 days before the meeting, which in the case of the annual meeting scheduled for August 23, 2002, would be after June 24, 2002 but before July 24, 2002. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, we have not received notice of any proposed business from any stockholder. If, however, other matters are properly raised at the meeting, giving due effect to any requirements of law or our restated articles of incorporation or amended by-laws with respect to notice, the persons named as proxies will vote in their discretion.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares

We fixed the close of business on July 9, 2002 as the record date for the annual meeting. Only holders of record of shares of our common and special preferred stock on the record date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting. On the record date, there were

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

27,814,143 shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the annual meeting, held by approximately 1,009 shareholders of record. Additionally, there were seven shares of our special preferred stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the annual meeting, held by four shareholders of record. Of those shares of our common and special preferred stock, 15,250,653, or approximately 52.92%, were beneficially owned by our directors and officers and their affiliates.

Vote and Quorum Requirements; Voting Commitment of AIP

Holders of our common and special preferred stock are entitled to one vote per share. Votes cast by these holders will be counted to determine whether the reorganization proposal has been approved by the affirmative votes of:

holders of 75% of all issued and outstanding shares of our common and special preferred stock, voting together as a single voting group; and holders of a majority of the shares of our special preferred stock represented at the meeting, voting as a separate voting group.

The election of the director nominees requires a plurality of the votes cast by the shares of our common and special voting stock entitled to vote in the election at the meeting, voting as a single voting group.

The approval of the governance and adjournment proposals each requires the affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of the shares of our common and special preferred stock entitled to vote at the meeting and present in person or by proxy, voting as a single voting group.

AIP, our majority shareholder and an affiliate of John W. Adams, the chairman of our board of directors and our chief executive officer and president, has informed us that it intends to vote the shares of our common and special preferred stock beneficially owned by it in favor of the 11 director nominees and each of the other proposals. As of the record date, AIP beneficially owned approximately 50.9% of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock and four of the seven shares of our special preferred stock. Therefore, the election of the 11 director nominees and the approval of the governance and adjournment proposals are ensured. The voting of all of AIP's shares in favor of the reorganization proposal will assure the necessary vote for the approval of the separate voting group comprised of the holders of special preferred stock. The voting of AIP's shares of Hawaiian common stock in favor of the reorganization proposal, however, is insufficient to ensure that the 75% voting requirement will be satisfied.

In the adjournment proposal, we are asking you to authorize our management, if necessary, to adjourn the annual meeting, and any later adjourned session of the annual meeting, in accordance with our amended by-laws, to a later date so that additional proxies in favor of the reorganization proposal may be solicited. Under our amended by-laws, the presiding officer at the annual meeting may, subject to applicable law, adjourn the meeting, even though a quorum is present, if the number of shares voted in favor or against the reorganization proposal by the time of the scheduled meeting is insufficient to either approve or disapprove it. Approval of the adjournment proposal would permit the presiding officer under these circumstances to adjourn the annual meeting, and any adjourned session of the annual meeting, to a later date so that the additional time could be used to solicit additional proxies in favor of the reorganization proposal, including the solicitation of proxies from shareholders that have previously voted against the reorganization proposal. Prior to any such adjournment, we will ask our shareholders to vote upon the election of the 11 director nominees and the governance and adjournment proposals at the annual meeting, but not the reorganization proposal. We will also allow our management to present their report on our performance in 2001 and to answer appropriate questions from our shareholders.

Under our amended by-laws, a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum at the annual meeting. In addition, holders of a majority of the shares of special preferred stock, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum for purposes of the vote required of the separate voting group.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be considered present at the annual meeting for the purpose of all quorum calculations. However, because approval of the reorganization proposal requires approval by holders of 75% of all issued and outstanding shares of our common and special preferred stock, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a negative vote on this proposal. In addition, because approval of the governance and adjournment proposals each requires the affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of the shares of our common and special preferred stock present in person or by proxy at the meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a negative vote on the applicable proposal, but only if your shares are otherwise considered present at the meeting. Shares that we purchased pursuant to our recent tender offer and stock repurchase program will be neither entitled to vote at the annual meeting nor considered present at the annual meeting for the purpose of quorum calculations.

Voting Procedures

If you hold shares in your own name as a shareholder of record on the record date, you may vote the shares so held by:

signing, dating and mailing (in the envelope provided) the enclosed proxy card, or by granting a written proxy to another person authorizing that person to attend the meeting and vote your shares;

following the instructions contained in the enclosed proxy card for voting by telephone; or attending the annual meeting and voting in person.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held of record in street name, such as in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you have the right to instruct the holder of record how to vote your shares.

Proxies

Completed Proxies. If you sign, complete and return your proxy card or you vote by telephone by following the instructions on the proxy card and we receive the proxy card or your vote prior to or at the annual meeting, your proxy will be voted as you instructed.

Proxies Without Instructions. If you sign and return a proxy card but do not provide instructions as to your vote, your proxy will be voted FOR the reorganization proposal, the governance proposal, the adjournment proposal and the election of the directors nominated by our board of directors or in the discretion of our board of directors on other matters that properly come before the meeting.

Broker Instructions. Under applicable stock exchange rules, brokers who hold our common stock in street name for customers who are the beneficial owners of those shares may not give a proxy to vote those shares on the reorganization, governance or adjournment proposals without specific instructions from those customers. If you do not instruct your broker on how to vote your shares on any of these proposals, a proxy submitted by your broker will be a non-vote as to your shares. This will have the same effect as a vote against the reorganization proposal whether or not your shares are considered present at the meeting, and against the governance or adjournment proposal, as the case may be, but only if your shares are otherwise considered present at the meeting.

Revocability of Proxies. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to its use. In order to revoke your proxy, you must deliver to our corporate secretary prior to the meeting a signed notice of revocation or a later dated proxy changing your vote, or you may follow the instructions on the enclosed proxy card for revoking or changing your vote by telephone. Alternatively, you may choose to attend the annual meeting and vote in person. However, simply attending the meeting will not in itself constitute the revocation of your proxy if you do not cast a vote at that time.

Costs of Solicitation. We will pay the expense of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus. Proxies will be solicited through the mail and by telephone and directly by our officers, directors and regular employees not specifically employed for this purpose, without additional compensation. We will reimburse banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses in forwarding these proxy materials to their principals.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

We have engaged Mellon Investor Services LLC to represent us in connection with the solicitations of proxies and will pay Mellon a customary fee for its services and reimburse its expenses.

Please do not send your stock certificates with your proxy card. We will not require you to exchange your certificates of Hawaiian common or special preferred stock for Hawaiian Holdings common stock as a result of the reorganization. After the reorganization, your Hawaiian stock certificates will represent the same number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings stock. Hawaiian Holdings stock certificates will be issued upon any future transfer of your shares after the reorganization.

PROPOSAL ONE: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the annual meeting, 11 directors are to be elected with each director to serve until the next annual meeting or until his or her successor is elected and qualified. Shareholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. Each director nominee has consented to being named in this proxy statement/prospectus and to serve if elected, and we have no reason to believe that any of those persons nominated will not be available to serve as a director. However, if such a situation should arise, the accompanying proxy will be voted for the election of such other person as our board of directors may recommend.

The nominating committee of our board of directors has nominated and our board of directors has recommended the following 11 nominees for election as our directors:

John W. Adams, Gregory S. Anderson, Todd G. Cole, Robert G. Coe, Joseph P. Hoar, Reno F. Morella, Samson Poomaihealani, Edward Z. Safady, Sharon L. Soper, Thomas J. Trzanowski and William M. Weisfield.

The nominees have been identified as nominees in accordance with the provisions of our amended by-laws described under "Management, Executive Compensation and Certain Related Party Transactions Directors and Executive Officers" as follows:

AIP Identified Directors:	Messrs. Anderson, Coe, Hoar, Safady, Trzanowski and Weisfield
IAM Identified Director:	Mr. Poomaihealani
AFA Identified Director:	Ms. Soper
ALPA Identified Director:	Mr. Morella
Nominated Senior Management Director:	Mr. Adams
Nominated Outside Director:	Mr. Cole

The nominees have a wide and valuable range of judgment and experience from such diverse fields as air transportation, banking, real property development, investment banking, international strategic planning and business development and law. Certain information about the nominees follows:

John W. Adams. Mr. Adams has been the chairman of our board of directors and of our executive committee since February 1996. Mr. Adams assumed the additional positions of chief executive officer and president on May 17, 2002. He has been president of Smith Management LLC, a private investment firm, since 1984. In February 2002, he became a member of the board of directors of Sun Healthcare Group, Inc., a health care company, and he serves as chairman of its executive committee. He was a member of the board of directors of Harvard Industries, Inc. from October 1994 until November 1998, and was chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Harvard Industries from February 1997 until November 1998. Harvard Industries filed for protection under Chapter 11 under the Bankruptcy Code in May 1997 and emerged from Chapter 11 protection in November 1998. He served on the board of directors of Servico, Inc., a lodging ownership and management company, from April 1994 until August 1997, being chairman of the board from December 1995 until he resigned from the board. Mr. Adams was chairman of the board of directors of Regency Health Services, Inc., a health care services company, from July 1994 until October 1997. Mr. Adams is 58 years old.

Gregory S. Anderson. Mr. Anderson is nominated for election as a director in 2002. Since 1998, Mr. Anderson has been president and chief executive officer of Quality Care Solutions Inc. (QCSI), an Arizona corporation that is a leading provider of healthcare payer software solutions. From 1985 to 1998, Mr. Anderson was general manager of El Dorado Investment Company, Arizona's largest venture capital company. From 1993 to 1998, he was also a partner in Sundance Venture Partners, an affiliate of El Dorado. Prior to El Dorado, he was a vice president of First Interstate Bank. Mr. Anderson has served on numerous boards of both public and private companies. PROPOSAL TWO: THE REORGANIZATION

This section of the proxy statement/prospectus describes the reorganization proposal. Although we believe that the description in this section covers the material terms of the reorganization proposal, this summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. The summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement provided below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which we have attached as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus and which we incorporate by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. You should carefully read the entire proxy statement/prospectus and the merger agreement for a more complete understanding of the reorganization proposal. Your approval of the reorganization proposal will constitute approval of the merger agreement, the reorganization, the restated certificate of incorporation of Hawaiian Holdings and the amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings (except for the provision in the amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings covered by the governance proposal).

Reasons for the Reorganization; Recommendation of our Board

At the April 26, 2002 meeting of the board of directors, the Hawaiian board unanimously concluded that the reorganization is advisable, determined that the terms of the merger agreement are fair to and in the best interest of Hawaiian and its shareholders and adopted and approved the merger agreement.

During the course of its deliberations, our board consulted with management and outside legal counsel and considered a number of positive factors, including the following:

Predictability, Flexibility and Responsiveness of Delaware Law to Corporate Needs. For many years, Delaware has followed a policy of encouraging incorporation in that state and has adopted comprehensive, modern and flexible corporate laws, which are updated regularly to meet changing business needs. As a result of this deliberate policy to provide a hospitable climate for corporate development, many major public corporations have chosen Delaware for their domicile. In addition, the Delaware courts have developed considerable expertise in dealing with corporate issues relating to public companies. Thus, a substantial body of case law has developed construing Delaware corporate law and establishing legal principles and policies regarding publicly-held Delaware corporations. We believe that, for these reasons, Delaware law will provide greater legal predictability with respect to our corporate legal matters than we have under Hawaii law. We will, however, continue to operate the airline business as a Hawaii corporation and a subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings. Hawaiian Holdings will be the public company. We believe that Delaware law will provide greater efficiency, predictability and flexibility in our public company's legal affairs than is presently available under Hawaii law.

Attractiveness of Delaware Law to Directors and Officers. We believe that organizing our company under Delaware law will enhance our ability to attract and retain qualified directors and officers. The corporate law of Delaware, including its extensive body of case law, offers directors and officers of public companies more certainty and stability. Under Delaware law the parameters of director and officer liability are more clearly defined and better understood than under Hawaii law. To date, we have not experienced difficulty in retaining directors or officers, but directors of public companies are exposed to significant potential liability. Thus, we believe that providing the benefits afforded directors by Delaware law will enable us to compete more effectively with other public companies in the recruitment of talented and experienced directors and officers. At the same time, we believe that Delaware law regarding corporate fiduciary duties provides appropriate protection for our shareholders from possible abuses by directors and officers. In addition, under Delaware law, directors' personal liability cannot be eliminated for:

acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful repurchases or redemptions of stock, or any transactions from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Additional Benefits of Using a Holding Company Structure. We believe that reincorporating in Delaware is more appropriately accomplished by creating a holding company in Delaware. A direct reincorporation in Delaware without the creation of a holding company structure would have required Hawaiian to merge into a new Delaware corporation, as a result of which Hawaiian could not continue as a Hawaii corporation. In addition, the direct incorporation method had the disadvantage of requiring a substantially greater number of consents from third parties because it would have required the new Delaware corporation to assume all the rights and obligations of Hawaiian. By preserving the corporate existence of Hawaiian after the reorganization, we would avoid the potentially costly and burdensome process of obtaining these consents.

Possible Future Strategic and Business Flexibility of a Holding Company Structure. We believe the holding company structure could facilitate future expansion of our business by providing a more flexible structure for acquiring other businesses or entering into joint ventures while continuing to keep the operations and risks of the airline business separate. While we have no current plans to make any acquisitions or enter into any joint ventures, we may do so in the future. In addition, if the cash generated over time by our airline business were determined by our board to be greater than the amount necessary for the operation or capital needs of the airline, this cash could be transferred to a separate corporate entity owned by the holding company and invested as our board believes to be appropriate. The risk that the liabilities of the airline business and the businesses, if any, that may be operated in the future by separate subsidiaries would be attributed to each other may be reduced by implementing the holding company structure. In addition, this opportunity to separate businesses, if and when appropriate, could allow us to segregate the airline business from other businesses that are not subject to the same regulations applicable to airlines.

Possible Future Financing Flexibility of a Holding Company Structure. We believe that a holding company structure may be beneficial to shareholders in the future because it would permit the use of financing techniques that are more readily available to companies that hold a variety of diversified businesses under one corporate umbrella, without any impact on our capital structure. For example: Hawaiian Holdings, in addition to receiving dividends, as and when permitted, from Hawaiian and other future subsidiaries, if any, would be able to obtain funds through its own debt or equity financings; Hawaiian would be able to obtain funds through its own financings, which may include the issuance of debt or equity securities, and other entities within the holding company organization may obtain funds from Hawaiian Holdings, other affiliates or their own outside financings. However, we have no current plans to seek additional financing that would utilize this flexibility at this time.

In addition to the positive factors described above, our board also considered the following potential negative factors associated with the reorganization proposal.

Increased Costs and Expenses Associated with Implementing the Reorganization Proposal and Administering a Holding Company Structure. The reorganization may result in substantial direct costs. These costs and expenses are expected to consist primarily of attorney's fees, accountants' fees, filing fees and financial printing expenses and will be substantially incurred prior to the vote of our shareholders. The reorganization may also result in certain indirect costs by diverting the attention of our management and employees from our business and resulting in increased administrative costs and expenses. These administrative costs and expenses will include keeping separate records and in some cases making separate regulatory filings for each of Hawaiian Holdings and our subsidiaries.

Local Reaction to Incorporating the Holding Company in Delaware. Because the reorganization proposal contemplates incorporating the public holding company outside of the State of Hawaii, our board considered whether local politicians and residents would react unfavorably to the reorganization. However, as the airline operating company would remain a Hawaii corporation under the reorganization proposal, we believe that any negative reaction in the State of Hawaii to the reorganization proposal would not be substantial.

After careful consideration, our board of directors has unanimously determined that the terms of the merger agreement and the reorganization are advisable and in the best interest of our shareholders and has adopted the merger agreement and approved the reorganization proposal. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our shareholders vote "FOR" adoption of the merger agreement.

Reorganization Procedure

Hawaiian currently owns all of Hawaiian Holdings' issued and outstanding common stock, and Hawaiian Holdings currently owns all of the common stock of the two subsidiaries that it formed for purposes of completing the proposed reorganization. Following the approval of the merger agreement by the Hawaiian shareholders and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions specified in the merger agreement (which are described below), the following steps in the reorganization will occur.

In connection with the reorganization, AIP is being restructured into a limited liability company called AIP LLC. John W. Adams, the chairman of our board of directors and our chief executive officer and president, will control AIP LLC just as he does AIP. As part of the AIP restructuring, Hawaiian Holdings will acquire and own, indirectly through a subsidiary, all of the shares of Hawaiian common stock that were previously held by AIP through a merger of this subsidiary and an affiliate of AIP (which we refer to as the "AIP merger"). In exchange, AIP LLC will receive the same number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock that AIP owns of Hawaiian common stock.

After the completion of the AIP restructuring, a subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings will merge with and into Hawaiian. As a result of this merger:

Hawaiian will be the surviving corporation, and the separate corporate existence of this subsidiary will cease.

Each outstanding share of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock (together with the preferred stock purchase rights attached to those shares), other than shares owned by Hawaiian Holdings' subsidiary (which will remain outstanding), will automatically convert into one share of Hawaiian Holdings common stock, as described below, and the current shareholders of Hawaiian (other than AIP) will become, along with AIP LLC, the shareholders of Hawaiian Holdings.

Hawaiian Holdings will own all of Hawaiian's common stock, either directly through this merger or indirectly through the AIP restructuring, and each share of Hawaiian Holdings common stock now held by Hawaiian will be cancelled.

In addition, in order to replicate the existing board nomination rights, Hawaiian Holdings will issue four shares of its Series A special preferred stock to AIP LLC, one share of its Series B special preferred stock to IAM, one share of its Series C special preferred stock to AFA and one share of its Series D special preferred stock to ALPA.

The result of the reorganization will be that your current company, Hawaiian, will become a subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings, and you will own Hawaiian Holdings common stock, instead of Hawaiian common or special preferred stock. The certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings will be amended and restated upon completion of this merger, and Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation and amended by-laws will be replaced by the merged subsidiary's articles of incorporation and by-laws. A copy of the form of the Hawaiian Holdings restated certificate of incorporation is included as Annex II to this proxy statement/prospectus and a copy of the form of the Hawaiian Holdings amended by-laws is included as Annex III to this proxy statement/prospectus. For more information regarding your rights as a shareholder before and after the reorganization, see "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock," "Description of Hawaiian Capital Stock" and "Comparative Rights of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock and Hawaiian Capital Stock."

In all other respects, the company will remain the same. The current directors and officers of Hawaiian will continue as directors and officers of Hawaiian Holdings and Hawaiian. In addition, our airline business and operations will remain the same.

What Hawaiian Shareholders Will Receive in the Reorganization

Each share of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock (together with the preferred stock purchase rights attached to those shares), other than those held by dissenting holders or by Hawaiian Holdings' subsidiary as a result of the AIP restructuring, will convert into one share of Hawaiian Holdings common stock. After the completion of the reorganization, you will own the same number and percentage of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock as you currently own of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock.

Hawaiian Stock Options and Other Rights to Receive Hawaiian Stock

Each of the outstanding options to acquire shares of Hawaiian common stock in the aggregate will become options to acquire, on the same terms and conditions as before the reorganization, an identical number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock. There were outstanding options to acquire 2,998,000 shares of Hawaiian common stock on the record date.

Each employee of Hawaiian eligible to receive an allocation of shares of Hawaiian common stock not yet issued under the Hawaiian pilots' 401(k) plan in accordance with the 2001 pilots' stock agreement will become eligible over the time period specified in the 2001 pilots' stock agreement to receive, on the same terms and conditions as before the reorganization, an allocation of an identical number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock. On the record date, there were up to 652,436 shares of Hawaiian common stock eligible for issuance under the agreement.

Exchange of Stock Certificates

In the reorganization, your shares of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock (together with the preferred stock rights attaching to the shares of common stock), other than shares held by Hawaiian Holdings' subsidiary as a result of the AIP restructuring will be converted automatically into shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock. Your certificates of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock will represent, from and after the reorganization, an equal number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock, and no action with regard to stock certificates will be required on your part. We expect to send you a notice after the reorganization is completed specifying this and other relevant information.

Conditions to Reorganization

We will complete the reorganization only if each of the following conditions is satisfied or waived:

the merger agreement has been duly approved by the affirmative votes required of the shareholders of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock;

the AIP restructuring has been completed;

we have received a legal opinion to the effect that the reorganization will constitute a tax-free transaction under section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code;

the absence of any law, temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction, writ or other order that has a material adverse effect on us or has the effect of making the reorganization illegal or otherwise prohibiting completion of the reorganization or any judicial or administrative proceeding that continues to be pending seeking any such result;

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement relating to the shares of Hawaiian Holdings to be issued in the reorganization is in existence;

all required regulatory and private third party consents and notifications have been obtained or made; and the Hawaiian Holdings common stock has been authorized for listing on the AMEX and the PSE.

Effectiveness of Reorganization

The reorganization will become effective on the date we file articles of merger with the State of Hawaii. We will file the articles when the conditions to the reorganization described above have been satisfied or waived. We expect that we will file the articles as soon as practicable following the annual meeting.

Termination of Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the reorganization (even after adoption by our shareholders) by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the directors then serving on the board of directors of each of Hawaiian Holdings and Hawaiian.

Amendment of Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be amended at any time prior to the completion of the reorganization (even after adoption by our shareholders) by our board of directors, so long as any amendment does not change the amount or kind of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock that you will receive or otherwise change any terms of the reorganization proposal to the detriment of our shareholders.

Related Transactions

Registration Rights Agreement. At the time the reorganization is completed, Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC will enter into a registration rights agreement containing terms and conditions that are substantially the same as the existing registration rights agreement between Hawaiian and AIP. The registration rights agreement will require Hawaiian Holdings at its expense to register all or a portion of the shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock held by AIP LLC. Under the registration rights agreement, AIP LLC will have the right, at its request, to require Hawaiian Holdings to register these shares for resale on up to two occasions, subject to specified limitations. In addition, AIP LLC will have the right to have these shares registered for resale at any time Hawaiian Holdings seeks to register any of its shares of common stock prior to February 1, 2006, subject to specified limitations. For more information about the new registration rights agreement, see "Where You Can Find More Information."

Stockholders Agreement. At the time the reorganization is completed, Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC will become parties to the existing stockholders agreement among Hawaiian, AIP and the three unions with board nomination rights. As parties, Hawaiian Holdings will assume all the rights and obligations of Hawaiian under the existing stockholders agreement, and AIP LLC will assume all the rights and obligations of AIP under the existing stockholders agreement. The existing stockholders agreement and the consequences of Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC becoming parties to it are summarized under "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock Special Preferred Stock and Related Provisions Nomination of Members of the Board." For more information about the new stockholders agreement, see "Where You Can Find More Information."

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion, which is based on the opinion of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison, counsel to Hawaiian, summarizes the material United States federal income tax consequences of the reorganization to you. However, this discussion does not address all aspects of taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your personal investment or tax circumstances or to persons that are subject to special treatment under the federal income tax laws. In particular, this discussion deals only with shareholders that hold Hawaiian common stock or Hawaiian special preferred stock as capital assets within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In addition, this discussion does not address the tax treatment of special classes of shareholders, such as banks, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, broker-dealers, persons holding Hawaiian stock as part of a hedging or conversion transaction or as part of a "straddle," U.S. expatriates, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax, foreign corporations, foreign partnerships, foreign estates or trusts and persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States. This discussion may not be applicable to holders who acquired Hawaiian stock pursuant to the exercise of options or warrants or otherwise as compensation. Furthermore, this discussion does not address any state, local or foreign tax considerations. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences of the reorganization, including the applicable federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences to you of the reorganization.

This discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, applicable Department of Treasury regulations, judicial authority, and administrative rulings and practice, all as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, as well as representations as to factual matters made by, among others, Hawaiian Holdings and Hawaiian. Future legislative, judicial, or administrative changes or interpretations, or the failure of any such factual representation to be true, correct and complete in all material respects, may adversely affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions described in this document. Any such changes or interpretations could be applied retroactively and could affect the tax consequences of the reorganization to you. Neither Hawaiian Holdings nor Hawaiian is currently aware of any facts or circumstances that would cause any representations made by it to Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison to be untrue or incorrect in any material respect.

The material federal income tax consequences of the AIP merger and the merger, which we refer to in this section as the "reorganization," will be as follows:

The reorganization will constitute a tax-free transaction under section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code;

No gain or loss will be recognized by Hawaiian Holdings or either of its subsidiaries or Hawaiian as a result of the reorganization;

No gain or loss will be recognized by you upon your receipt of Hawaiian Holdings common stock solely in exchange for your Hawaiian stock;

The aggregate tax basis of the shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock that you receive in exchange for your Hawaiian stock in the reorganization will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of your Hawaiian stock exchanged;

The holding period for shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock that you receive in the reorganization will include the holding period of your Hawaiian stock exchanged; and

If you exercise dissenters' rights, you generally will recognize taxable capital gain or loss measured by the difference between the amount of cash you received and your tax basis in the shares of Hawaiian stock you exchanged.

The obligation of Hawaiian to complete the reorganization is conditioned upon, among other things, Hawaiian's receipt of an opinion from Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison that the reorganization will constitute a tax-free transaction under section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code. The opinion of counsel will be based in part upon representations, made as of the effective time of the reorganization, by Hawaiian Holdings and Hawaiian, which counsel will assume to be true, correct and complete. If the representations are inaccurate, the opinion of counsel could be adversely affected. Neither Hawaiian Holdings nor Hawaiian has requested or will request a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to whether the reorganization qualifies as a tax-free transaction under section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code. The opinion of counsel will not be binding upon the Internal Revenue Service or any court.

You may be required to attach a statement to your tax returns for the taxable year in which the reorganization is completed that contains information such as your tax basis in the Hawaiian stock surrendered and a description of the Hawaiian Holdings common stock received in the reorganization.

Anticipated Accounting Treatment

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

For accounting purposes, our reorganization into a holding company structure will be treated as a merger of entities under common control. The accounting treatment for such events is similar to the former "pooling of interests method." Accordingly, the financial position and results of operations of Hawaiian will be included in the consolidated financial statements of Hawaiian Holdings on the same basis as currently presented.

Regulatory Requirements

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has the authority, under the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, to issue, modify and renew and revoke radio licenses; to regulate the equipment used; to promulgate or modify rules for the operation of radio facilities; and to impose penalties for violations. Hawaiian is authorized to operate under Parts 87 and 90 of the FCC's rules and holds Industrial/Business Radio, Aviation Auxiliary Group and Aircraft (or Fleet) Licenses from the FCC for radio facilities that it operates and requires for the conduct of its business. Prior to completion of the reorganization, we will need to obtain a new Aircraft (or Fleet) License from the FCC and obtain FCC consent for transfer of control of our other FCC licenses to reflect control through Hawaiian Holdings. These applications were granted by the FCC on June 27 and July 8, 2002, respectively.

Listings of Hawaiian Holdings Common Stock on the American Stock Exchange and the Pacific Exchange; De-listing and De-registration of Hawaiian Common Stock

The completion of the reorganization is conditioned on the listing of the shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock issuable in the reorganization (and any other shares to be reserved for issuance in connection with the reorganization) on the American Stock Exchange and Pacific Exchange, subject only to official notice of issuance. We expect that the Hawaiian Holdings common stock will trade under the ticker symbol "HA."

Following the reorganization, Hawaiian's common stock will no longer be listed on the AMEX and the PSE and will no longer be registered under the Securities Exchange Act. In addition, Hawaiian will cease to be a reporting company under the Securities Exchange Act.

Restrictions on the Sale of Hawaiian Holdings Shares

The shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock to be issued in the reorganization will be registered under the Securities Act. These shares will be freely transferable under the Securities Act, except for Hawaiian Holdings common stock issued to any person who is deemed to be an "affiliate" of Hawaiian or Hawaiian Holdings after the reorganization.

Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by or are under common control with us and include our officers and directors. Our affiliates may not sell their Hawaiian Holdings common stock acquired in the reorganization except pursuant to:

- an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering the resale of those shares;
- an exemption under paragraph (d) of Rule 145 under the Securities Act; or
- any other applicable exemption under the Securities Act.

The proposed registration rights agreement with AIP LLC requires us, if requested, to maintain an effective resale registration statement that covers the shares held from time to time by AIP LLC. Furthermore, the proposed registration rights agreement requires us generally to bear registration expenses incurred for the benefit of the holders.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Hawaiian shareholders who do not vote in favor of the reorganization proposal submitted to them for approval and who comply with all applicable statutory requirements will be entitled to exercise dissenters' rights under Part XIV (Sections 414-341 through 414-372) of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act (also known as the HBCA).

The following discussion is a summary of dissenters' rights under the HBCA and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of Part XIV of the HBCA, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex IV. Any Hawaiian shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights or who wishes to preserve the right to do so should review the following discussion and Annex IV carefully because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified in Part XIV of the HBCA will result in the forfeiture of dissenters' rights.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Under the HBCA, where a merger is submitted for approval at a meeting of shareholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, must notify each of its shareholders, in the notice of the meeting, that dissenters' rights are available and include in the notice a copy of the dissenters' rights provisions of the HBCA. The notice of the annual meeting that accompanies this proxy statement/prospectus includes the notifications required by the HBCA, and the applicable statutory provisions are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex IV.

Under Section 414-352 of the HBCA, a Hawaiian shareholder wishing to exercise dissenters' rights must:

deliver to Hawaiian, before the vote on the reorganization proposal at the annual meeting, a written notice of the shareholder's intention to demand payment for the shareholder's shares of Hawaiian capital stock; and must not vote in favor of the reorganization proposal.

A shareholder who votes by proxy and who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights must either vote against the reorganization proposal or expressly abstain from voting on the reorganization proposal. However, a vote against the reorganization proposal, or an express abstention from voting on the reorganization proposal, will NOT, in and of itself, constitute a written notice of intention to demand payment satisfying the requirements of Section 414-352 of the HBCA. If a shareholder fails to comply with the foregoing requirements and the reorganization is completed, the shareholder will forfeit all dissenters' rights and will be entitled to receive, in exchange for its shares, the reorganization consideration provided for in the merger agreement.

A shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights must hold its shares of record on the record date or, if the shareholder is the beneficial holder of shares, the beneficial shareholder must arrange for the record shareholder of the shares on the record date to provide his or her consent to the beneficial shareholder's dissent to Hawaiian not later than the time that the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights.

A notice of intent to demand payment (or a consent to a beneficial shareholder's exercise of dissenters' rights) should be executed by or on behalf of the record shareholder as the shareholder's name appears on the stock certificate. The notice must state that the shareholder intends thereby to demand payment for its shares in the reorganization. If the shares of capital stock are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, the notification should be signed in that capacity, and if the shares of capital stock are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy and tenancy in common, the notification should be signed by or on behalf of all joint owners. An authorized agent, including two or more joint owners, may sign a notification on behalf of a record shareholder; however, the agent must identify the record shareholder(s) and should expressly disclose and provide written evidence of the fact that, in signing the notification, it is agent for such record shareholder(s). A record shareholder, such as a broker who holds shares of capital stock as nominee for several beneficial owners, may exercise dissenters' rights with respect to the shares of capital stock held for one or more beneficial shareholders while not exercising dissenters' rights with respect to the shares of capital stock held for other beneficial shareholders. In this case, however, the written notice of intention to demand payment should set forth the number of shares of capital stock as to which dissenters' rights are being asserted. Where no number of shares is expressly mentioned, the notification will be presumed to cover all shares held in the name of the record shareholder. A shareholder who holds shares in a brokerage account or other nominee form and who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights may either:

consult with the broker or other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures to insure that proper notification is provided by the broker or nominee; or provide notification directly to Hawaiian, along with the consent of the record shareholder to the dissent.

A shareholder's notification of an intention to demand payment should be sent or delivered as follows:

Hawaiian Airlines, Inc.
3375 Koapaka Street, Suite G-350
Honolulu, Hawaii 96819-1869
Attention: General Counsel
Telecopier No.: (808) 835-3690

Within 10 days after the completion of the reorganization, we must provide a Dissenters' Notice to each holder of Hawaiian capital stock who has not voted in favor of the reorganization proposal and who has provided notice of its intention to demand payment in compliance with

Section 414-352 of the HBCA. The Dissenters' Notice must:

state the place where the shareholder's payment demand must be sent and where and when the shareholder's certificates formerly representing shares of Hawaiian capital stock must be deposited;

inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of shares will be restricted after payment demand is received; supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media of the terms of the proposed reorganization (which was May 2, 2002) and require that the person asserting dissenters' rights certify whether he or she acquired beneficial ownership of his or her shares before that date; set a date by which we must receive the shareholder's payment demand, which date may not be fewer than 30 days nor more than 60 days after the Dissenters' Notice is delivered to shareholders; and be accompanied by a copy of Part XIV of the HBCA.

Each shareholder to whom a Dissenters' Notice is sent must demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date of first announcement and deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the Dissenters' Notice. A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit the shareholder's certificates by the date specified in the Dissenters' Notice forfeits its dissenters' rights and will no longer be entitled to receive any payment under Part XIV of the HBCA.

Upon receipt of a dissenting shareholder's payment demand and share certificates, we must pay to each dissenter who has complied with the provisions of Part XIV of the HBCA the amount that we estimate to be the fair value of the dissenters' shares, plus accrued interest, except that we may elect to withhold payment to a dissenter who was not the beneficial shareholder before the date of first announcement unless the dissenter agrees to accept an offer to pay the estimated amount in full satisfaction of the dissenters' demand. Payment (or, in the case of dissenters who became beneficial shareholders after the date of first announcement, the offer to make payment) of the amount estimated by us to be the fair value of the dissenters' shares must be accompanied by:

Hawaiian's balance sheet as of December 31, 2001, income statement for the year then ended, statement of changes in shareholder's equity for that year and the latest available interim financial statements; a statement of our estimate of the fair value of the shares of Hawaiian capital stock;

an explanation of how the accrued interest was calculated;

a statement of the dissenters' right to demand payment under Section 414-359 of the HBCA; and a copy of Part XIV of the HBCA.

Under Section 414-359, a dissenter may notify Hawaiian in writing of the dissenters' own estimate of the fair value of the dissenters' shares and the amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenters' estimate, or reject our offer and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenters' shares, if:

the dissenter believes that the amount that we paid or offered is less than the fair value of the dissenters' shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

we fail to make payment of the estimated amount due within 60 days after the date set in the Dissenters' Notice for demanding payment; or we fail to take the proposed action, do not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under Section 414-359 if the dissenter does not notify us of the demand in writing within 30 days after we made or offered payment for the dissenters' shares.

If a demand for payment under Section 414-359 remains unsettled, we are required to commence a proceeding in the First Circuit Court within 60 days after receiving the dissenters' payment demand and request the First Circuit Court to determine the fair value of the shares and the amount of accrued interest. If we do not begin a proceeding within the 60-day period, we are required to pay the amount demanded by each dissenter whose payment demand remains unsettled. We are required to make all dissenters whose payment demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding. Dissenters who are nonresidents of Hawaii may be served with a copy of the petition instituting the proceeding by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

In the proceeding that we commence, the First Circuit Court is permitted to appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on fair value, and the appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them. Each dissenter is entitled to normal discovery rights and ultimately to a judgment in the amount by which the fair value of the dissenters' shares and accrued interest, as determined by the First Circuit Court, exceeds the amount previously paid by us.

Shareholders considering seeking dissenters' rights should be aware that the fair value of their shares of capital stock, as determined in an appraisal proceeding under Section 414-371 of the HBCA, could be more than, the same as or less than the market price of the Hawaiian Holdings shares that they would receive for their shares under the terms of the merger agreement if they did not seek appraisal of their shares.

The First Circuit Court will also determine the amount of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amounts to be received by dissenters for the period between the completion of the reorganization and the date of payment. The interest rate is the average rate "currently" paid by the applicable corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that the First Circuit Court determines to be fair and equitable under all the circumstances. If the rates of interest were to be determined based on the average rates that we paid on our principal bank loans as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the rate of interest would be approximately 8% per annum.

The First Circuit Court is required to determine all costs of an appraisal proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of any appraisers it appoints, and to assess those costs against us, except that costs may be assessed against some or all dissenters, in amounts the court finds to be equitable, if the court finds that the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in making their demand for payment under Section 414-359 of the HBCA. The First Circuit Court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the parties to the appraisal proceeding, in amounts the court finds equitable:

against us, if the court finds that we did not substantially comply with the requirements of Sections 414-351 to 414-359 of the HBCA; or against either us or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by Part XIV of the HBCA.

In addition, if the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against us, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who benefited from such services.

Shares of Hawaiian capital stock held by a shareholder who has properly exercised dissenters' rights under Part XIV of the HBCA and who has not effectively withdrawn or lost dissenters' rights at the time the reorganization is completed will not be converted into or represent the right to receive the shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock issuable in the reorganization, but shall represent only the rights to which the shareholder is entitled under Part XIV of the HBCA. However, in the event any shareholder who exercises dissenters' rights effectively withdraws or loses dissenters' rights, then its shares of Hawaiian capital stock will automatically be converted into and represent only the right to receive the shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock issuable in the reorganization to which the shareholder is entitled under the merger agreement.

PROPOSAL THREE: THE GOVERNANCE PROPOSAL

We are asking the shareholders of Hawaiian to approve separately the proposal to approve the provision in the amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings that allows only the board of directors and the chairman to call a special meeting of shareholders. A copy of the form of amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings, which we urge you to read, is included as Annex III to this proxy statement/prospectus. Approval of the governance proposal is a condition to completion of the reorganization. Therefore, if Hawaiian shareholders wish to approve the reorganization proposal, they must also approve the governance proposal.

Reasons for the Governance Proposal; Recommendation of our Board

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our shareholders vote "FOR" the governance proposal. Under Hawaiian's amended by-laws, a special meeting of shareholders may be called not only by the board of directors but also by shareholders holding at least ten percent of the outstanding stock of Hawaiian entitled to vote at the meeting, as required by Hawaii law. Delaware law, on the other hand, provides corporations with the flexibility to designate in their certificate of incorporation or by-laws any person in addition to the board of directors who is authorized to call a special meeting of shareholders. Unlike Hawaii law, Delaware law does not provide shareholders with the right to call a special meeting of shareholders. This provision in Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws is meant to take advantage of this flexibility. For more information about the differences between Delaware and Hawaii law, see "Comparative Rights of Holders of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock and Hawaiian Capital Stock Special Meetings of Shareholders."

Because the amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings do not permit shareholders to call a special meeting, it may make an acquisition of Hawaiian Holdings by means of a proxy contest more difficult. We believe, however, that because AIP owns a majority of our shares and because of the rights of the holders of our special preferred stock, a takeover attempt by these means is neither likely to occur nor be successful. In addition, we believe that eliminating the ability of shareholders to call a special meeting will prevent us from having to incur significant expenses and to divert the attention of management from other matters in organizing a meeting called by shareholders. For more information about these matters, see "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock Anti-Takeover Effects of Hawaiian Holdings' Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws."

Our board of directors believes that the reorganization is advisable to and in the best interest of our shareholders and, therefore, urges our shareholders to vote "FOR" the governance proposal.

DESCRIPTION OF HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS CAPITAL STOCK

Hawaiian Holdings is incorporated in the State of Delaware. The rights of shareholders of Hawaiian Holdings will be generally governed by Delaware law and Hawaiian Holdings' certificate of incorporation and by-laws. This summary is not a complete discussion of, and is qualified by reference to, Delaware law, including the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) and the common and constitutional law of the State of Delaware, and the full texts of Hawaiian Holdings' amended and restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws, which may be found as Annexes II and III to this proxy statement/prospectus.

General

Upon the completion of the reorganization, the authorized capital of Hawaiian Holdings will be 62 million shares, consisting of 2 million of preferred stock, par value $.01 per share, and 60 million shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share. All of the shares issued and outstanding upon completion of the reorganization will be fully paid and nonassessable.

Upon completion of the reorganization, the number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock that will be outstanding will be equal to the number of shares of Hawaiian common and special preferred stock outstanding immediately prior to the reorganization. In addition, seven shares of special preferred stock of Hawaiian Holdings will also be outstanding. These shares will be issued in four series to AIP LLC and each of the three unions currently represented on the Hawaiian board.

Common Stock

Dividends and Distributions. Subject to preferences applicable to outstanding Hawaiian Holdings preferred stock, the holders of outstanding shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock will be entitled to receive dividends and other distributions out of assets legally available at times and in amounts as the board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings may determine from time to time. All shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock are entitled to participate ratably with respect to dividends or other distributions.

Liquidation Rights. If Hawaiian Holdings is liquidated, dissolved or wound up, voluntarily or involuntarily, holders of Hawaiian Holdings' common stock are entitled to share ratably in all assets of the Hawaiian Holdings available for distribution to the Hawaiian Holdings' shareholders after the payment in full of any preferential amounts to which holders of any Hawaiian Holdings preferred stock may be entitled.

Voting Rights. Holders of Hawaiian Holdings common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters to be voted upon by shareholders. There are no cumulative voting rights. Shareholders may vote by proxy.

Other. There are no preemption, redemption, sinking fund or conversion rights applicable to the Hawaiian Holdings common stock.

Preferred Stock

The board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings may, without further shareholder approval, issue up to two million shares of preferred stock in one or more series and fix the number of shares constituting, the designation, voting powers (if any), preferences and other rights, as well as the qualifications, limitations and restrictions, of the series. The powers, preferences and rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions, if any, of each series of preferred stock may be different from those of any and all other series. The issuance of Hawaiian Holdings preferred stock may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change of control of Hawaiian Holdings without further action by the shareholders, may discourage bids for Hawaiian Holdings common stock at a premium over the market price of Hawaiian Holdings common stock and may adversely affect the market price of, and the voting and other rights of the holders of, Hawaiian Holdings common stock.

Special Preferred Stock and Related Provisions

Upon completion of the merger, Hawaiian Holdings will have designated the following four series of special preferred stock:

four shares of Series A special preferred stock, par value $.01 per share;

one share of Series B special preferred stock, par value $.01 per share;

one share of Series C special preferred stock, par value $.01 per share; and one share of Series D special preferred stock, par value $.01 per share.

Under the merger agreement, Hawaiian Holdings will issue these seven shares of special preferred stock upon completion of the reorganization as follows:

four shares of Series A special preferred stock to AIP LLC;

one share of Series B special preferred stock to IAM in accordance with the existing collective bargaining agreement with Hawaiian;

one share of Series C special preferred stock to AFA in accordance with the existing collective bargaining agreement with Hawaiian; and one share of Series D special preferred stock to ALPA in accordance with the existing collective bargaining agreement with Hawaiian.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Dividend Rights and Limitations. At any time that a dividend or distribution is declared and paid with respect to Hawaiian Holdings' common stock, holders of each series of Hawaiian Holdings' special preferred stock will have the right to receive a dividend per share equal to twice the dividend per share paid on Hawaiian Holdings' common stock.

Liquidation Rights. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Hawaiian Holdings, whether voluntary or involuntary, holders of Hawaiian Holdings' special preferred stock have the right to receive, out of the assets of Hawaiian Holdings, $.01 per share before any payment is made or any assets distributed to the holders of Hawaiian Holdings' common stock or to the holders of any other class of Hawaiian Holdings' stock.

Voting Rights. Holders of Hawaiian Holdings' special preferred stock will have the right to one vote per share, together with Hawaiian Holdings common stock, voting as a single class, with respect to any matters submitted for a vote to the holders of Hawaiian Holdings common stock.

Nomination of Members of the Board. Hawaiian Holdings' board of directors will be fixed at 11 and holders of record of Hawaiian Holdings special preferred stock will have the right to identify individuals for nomination by the board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings to serve as directors as follows:

A holder of Series A special preferred stock of Hawaiian Holdings will have the following rights:

If the holder, together with specified affiliates, owns at least 35% of the shares of the outstanding Hawaiian Holdings common stock (on a fully diluted basis), then the holder will be entitled to identify six directors to the Hawaiian Holdings board for nomination.

If the holder, together with specified affiliates, owns at least 25% of the shares of the outstanding Hawaiian Holdings common stock (on a fully diluted basis), but does not satisfy the requirement for identifying six directors specified above, then the holder will be entitled to identify five directors to the Hawaiian Holdings board for nomination.

If the holder, together with specified affiliates, owns at least 10% of the shares of the outstanding Hawaiian Holdings common stock (on a fully diluted basis), but does not satisfy the requirement for identifying five directors specified above, then the holder will be entitled to identify four directors to the Hawaiian Holdings board for nomination.

If the holder, together with specified affiliates, owns at least 5% of the shares of the outstanding Hawaiian Holdings common stock (on a fully diluted basis), but does not satisfy the requirement for identifying four directors specified above, then the holder will be entitled to identify three directors to the Hawaiian Holdings board for nomination.

If the holder, together with specified affiliates, owns less than 5% of the shares of the outstanding Hawaiian Holdings common stock (on a fully diluted basis), then the holder will not be entitled to identify any directors to the Hawaiian Holdings board for nomination.

If the holder only has the right to identify less than six directors to the Hawaiian Holdings board for nomination, the remaining directors will be comprised of outside directors that are not affiliated with either the holder or any of the unions with board representation.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Each labor union holding the Series B, Series C and Series D special preferred stock of Hawaiian Holdings will have the right to identify one director to Hawaiian Holdings' board for nomination so long as the collective bargaining agreement between the union and Hawaiian Holdings entitles the union to nominate a director.

The parties to the existing stockholders agreement to which Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC will become parties to after the reorganization have also agreed to take all action within their respective power, including the voting of capital stock of Hawaiian Holdings, to cause:

the election to the board of directors of the persons identified for nomination by the holders of the special preferred stock;

AIP LLC not to sell or otherwise dispose of its shares of our capital stock to any person or any affiliate of any person who has been denied a Part 121 certificate by the DOT;

AIP LLC to vote its shares of our capital stock against any proposed amendment to our organizational documents that would be inconsistent with specified provisions of our organizational documents regarding the governance of Hawaiian and to not do anything inconsistent with those governance provisions; and to make reasonable efforts to ensure that at least one employee director serves on each significant committee of the board of directors other than the audit committee.

Upon completion of the reorganization, the board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings will be comprised of the same individuals who comprised the board of directors of Hawaiian prior to the reorganization and will be deemed to have been nominated by holders of the special preferred stock for purposes of the provisions described below relating to the appointment and removal of directors after the completion of the reorganization.

Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors. Newly created directorships and vacancies may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Hawaiian Holdings board or by a plurality of the votes cast by shareholders at a meeting. However, if the vacancy is of a director nominated by a holder of special preferred stock, Hawaiian Holdings may fill the vacancy only with a person nominated by this holder. Furthermore, if such vacancy is not filled within 30 days, the vacancy may be filled by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the applicable series of special preferred stock.

Restrictions on Transfers and Conversion Provisions. The rights and preferences of shares of Hawaiian Holdings special preferred stock cease to exist once the outstanding shares are converted into Hawaiian Holdings common stock. This conversion will occur at a 1:1 ratio. Conversion occurs automatically in the following circumstances:

The Series A special preferred stock of Hawaiian Holdings will convert:

upon transfer to any person other than an affiliate of the original holder; or if the holder, together with its affiliates, becomes the holder of less than 5% of the then outstanding shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock (on a fully diluted basis) for a period of 365 consecutive days.

The Series B special preferred stock, Series C special preferred stock and Series D special preferred stock of Hawaiian Holdings will convert:

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

upon transfer to any third party or if the collective bargaining agreement between the holder and Hawaiian Holdings is amended so that it no longer entitles the holder to nominate a representative on the board of directors.

Merger and Similar Transactions. In the event Hawaiian Holdings enters into any consolidation, merger or other transaction in which shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock are exchanged for or changed into other stock, securities, cash or other property, then all shares of Hawaiian Holdings special preferred stock will at the same time be exchanged for or changed into an amount per share equal to the aggregate amount of stock, securities, cash and other property received in exchange for each share of Hawaiian Holdings common stock.

Other. None of the shares of Hawaiian Holdings special preferred stock are subject to redemption, but Hawaiian Holdings may acquire shares of Hawaiian Holdings special preferred stock in any other manner permitted by law. There is no provision for anti-dilution adjustments for Hawaiian Holdings special preferred stock, including with respect to the number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock issuable upon conversion of shares of Hawaiian Holdings special preferred stock.

Directors. A quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of the Hawaiian Holdings board is the presence in person of a majority of the Hawaiian Holdings board. However, a quorum must include at least three directors, if any, nominated by the holder of the Series A special preferred stock.

Amendment of Hawaiian Holdings' Restated Certificate of Incorporation. Most provisions in Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation, including those relating to the special preferred stock but excluding the authorized capital provision, may be amended only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares of voting stock of Hawaiian Holdings voting together as a single class.

Amendment of Hawaiian Holdings' By-Laws. Hawaiian Holdings' board may amend the by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings by the vote of a majority of the entire board of directors, subject to the power of shareholders to alter or repeal any by-law provision. However, amendment of the following provisions will require a majority of the board that includes at least one of the directors, if any, nominated by the Series A special preferred stock and two of the three directors nominated by the Series B, C and D special preferred stock:

amendment of the by-laws;

the number, qualification or term of office of directors;

newly created directorships or vacancies;

removal of directors;

special meetings of the board; and quorum of directors.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Hawaiian Holdings' Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws

Some provisions of Hawaiian Holdings' amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws could make the following more difficult:

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

acquisition of Hawaiian Holdings by means of a tender offer; or acquisition of Hawaiian Holdings by means of a proxy contest or otherwise.

These provisions, which are summarized below, are intended to discourage coercive takeover practices and inadequate takeover bids. These provisions are also designed to encourage persons seeking to acquire control of Hawaiian Holdings to first negotiate with the board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings. Hawaiian Holdings believes that the benefits of increased protection give Hawaiian Holdings the potential ability to negotiate with the proponent of an unfriendly or unsolicited proposal to acquire or restructure the company and outweigh the disadvantages of discouraging the proposals because negotiation of the proposals could result in an improvement of their terms.

Special Meetings. Under the amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings, special meetings of Hawaiian Holdings shareholders may be called only by the chairman of the board of directors or by a resolution approved by a majority of the board of directors. Business at the meetings is limited to the purpose stated in the notice for the meeting. For more information, see "Proposal Three: The Governance Proposal."

Requirements for Advance Notification of Shareholder Nominations and Proposals. Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws will require that shareholders provide advance notice of nomination of directors and shareholder proposals for consideration of an annual meeting. Notice for an annual meeting must be received by Hawaiian Holdings:

not earlier than 120 days prior to the anniversary of last year's annual meeting; and not later than 90 days prior to such anniversary date.

If the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or 70 days after such anniversary date, then notice must be received by Hawaiian Holdings.

not earlier than 120 days prior to the date of the annual meeting; and not later than 90 days prior to the date of the annual meeting, or 10 days after public announcement of such date, if later.

The notice must include specified information regarding the nominee or the proposal and the shareholder making the nomination or proposal that would be required by the proxy rules of the SEC.

Only business identified in the notice of special meeting may be conducted at the special meeting. If a special meeting is called to elect directors, a shareholder may submit nominations provided that the shareholder's notice is received by Hawaiian Holdings:

not earlier than 120 days prior to the date of the special meeting; and not later than 90 days prior to the date of the special meeting, or 10 days after public announcement of such date, if later.

Elimination of Shareholder Action by Written Consent. Under the restated certificate of incorporation of Hawaiian Holdings, any action required or permitted to be taken by shareholders must be effected at an annual or special meeting of shareholders, subject to the rights of holders of any series of Hawaiian Holdings preferred stock.

Undesignated Preferred Stock. The ability of the board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings to issue preferred stock with voting or other rights or preferences is described above.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Size of Board. The board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings will be fixed at 11 members.

Board Nomination and Vacancy Replacement Rights of Holders of Special Preferred Stock. The ability of holders of special preferred stock to designate for nomination and replace directors, as described above, will limit in a material manner the ability of holders of common stock to elect and replace members of the board of directors.

Amendments to Certificate of Incorporation. The amendment of these and other provisions that are contained in our restated certificate of incorporation would require approval by holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock.

Delaware Anti-Takeover Statute

Under the terms of Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation and as permitted under Delaware law, Hawaiian Holdings will elect not to be subject to Delaware's anti-takeover law. This law provides that an "interested stockholder," defined as a person who owns 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of a corporation or a person who is an associate or affiliate of the corporation and, within the preceding three-year period, owned 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock, may not engage in specified business combinations with the corporation for a period of three years after the date on which the person became an interested stockholder. The law defines the term "business combination" to encompass a wide variety of transactions with or caused by an interested stockholder, including mergers, asset sales and other transactions in which the interested stockholder receives or could receive a benefit on other than a pro rata basis with other stockholders. With the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the voting power of all then-outstanding shares of Hawaiian Holdings capital stock entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting together as a single class, Hawaiian Holdings may amend its restated certificate of incorporation in the future to become governed by the anti-takeover law. This provision would then have an anti-takeover effect for transactions not approved in advance by its board of directors, including discouraging takeover attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock. In any event, AIP LLC would not be subject to the limitation on business combinations with Hawaiian Holdings under the Delaware anti-takeover law. However, because Hawaiian Holdings will opt out of the Delaware anti-takeover law, any person who owns at least 15% of our outstanding voting stock, including any person to whom AIP LLC transfers its shares of Hawaiian Holdings stock representing 15% or more of our voting stock, could pursue a takeover transaction that was not approved by the board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings.

Other Provisions

Limitation on Voting by Foreign Shareholders. The restated certificate of incorporation of Hawaiian Holdings will provide that shares of capital stock may not be voted by, or at the direction of, persons who are not citizens of the United States unless the shares are registered on a separate stock record. Under federal law, no more than 25% of the voting stock of a United States airline such as our company may be owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by persons who are not U.S. citizens, and the airline itself, as well as its president and at least two-thirds of its directors or other managing officers, must be U.S. citizens. For these purposes, "U.S. citizen" means:

37

an individual who is a citizen of the United States;

a partnership each of whose partners is an individual who is a citizen of the United States; or a corporation or association organized under the laws of the United States or a State, the District of Columbia, or a territory or possession of the United States, of which the president and at least two-thirds of the board of directors and other managing officers are citizens of the United States, and in which at least 75% of the voting interest is owned or controlled by persons that are citizens of the United States.

In addition, the Department of Transportation has broad authority to determine on a case-by-case basis whether an air carrier is effectively owned and controlled by U.S. citizens, and has indicated that the ownership of less than 50% of an air carrier's total equity securities by non-U.S. citizens, taken alone, is not indicative of foreign control of the airline.

In order to comply with these rules, Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation will provide that no shares will be registered on the foreign stock record described above if the amount so registered would exceed the restrictions described above or adversely affect our operating certificates or authorities. Registration on the foreign stock record is made in chronological order based on the date we receive a written request for registration.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Limitation of Director Liability and Indemnification. Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation will provide, to the full extent permitted by Delaware law, that directors will not be liable to us or our stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Delaware law currently provides that this waiver may not apply to liability:

for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to us or our shareholders; for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

under Section 174 of the DGCL (governing distributions to shareholders); or for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit.

However, in the event the DGCL is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of our directors will be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, as so amended. The restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws of Hawaiian Holdings will further provide that we will indemnify each of our directors and officers to the full extent permitted by Delaware law and may indemnify other persons as authorized by the DGCL. These provisions do not eliminate any monetary liability of directors under the federal securities laws.

Shareholders

Shareholder meetings may be at any place designated by resolution of the board of directors.

Shareholders' meetings must be held annually for the election of directors and the transaction of other business.

Hawaiian Holdings' board may fix a record date for shareholder meetings that will be not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days before the meeting. Should Hawaiian Holdings' board fail to do so, the record date will be either the close of business on the day preceding the day on which notice of the shareholder meeting was given, or the close of business on the day on which Hawaiian Holdings' board adopts a resolution for the payment of dividends or distributions.

Notice of any shareholder meeting must be provided to shareholders not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting.

Where notice is required to be given, a waiver of notice has the same effect as notice. Waiver of notice includes attendance by a shareholder at a meeting, unless the shareholder attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting that the meeting was not lawfully called due to the lack of notice.

The secretary of Hawaiian Holdings must prepare and make available to any shareholder a list of all shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting at least 10 days before every meeting.

Shareholders may vote by proxy and may revoke any proxy that is not revocable by attending the meeting and voting in person or by delivering to the Secretary a revocation of the proxy.

At meetings for the election of directors, a plurality of the votes cast is sufficient to elect directors.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Any director may be removed from office with or without cause by the holders of a majority of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares of voting stock, voting together as a single class.

DESCRIPTION OF HAWAIIAN CAPITAL STOCK

Hawaiian is incorporated in the State of Hawaii. The rights of shareholders of Hawaiian are generally governed by Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation and amended by-laws, by Hawaii statutory and common law and by certain agreements affecting the rights of shareholders. The following is a summary of the material provisions of Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation, including the existing designations of series of Hawaiian preferred stock, Hawaiian's amended by-laws and the Hawaiian Rights Agreement, dated December 23, 1994, by and between Hawaiian and ChaseMellon Shareholder Services LLC, as successor to Chemical Trust Company of California, which (together with each amendment) is referred to as the Hawaiian rights agreement, under which certain rights have been issued to holders of Hawaiian's common stock. This summary is not complete and is qualified by reference to Hawaii statutory and common law and the full texts of Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation, amended by-laws and rights agreement. Copies of these documents are exhibits to the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/ prospectus is a part.

General

Under Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation, Hawaiian is authorized to issue 60 million shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, and two million shares of preferred stock, par value $.01 per share. The two million shares of Hawaiian preferred stock are divided into 1,979,993 shares of preferred stock that are not yet designated, 20,000 shares designated Series A junior participating cumulative preferred stock, four shares designated Series B special preferred stock, one share designated Series C special preferred stock, one share designated Series D special preferred stock and one share designated Series E special preferred stock.

As of the record date, 27,814,143 shares of Hawaiian common stock, held by 1,009 record holders, four shares of Series B special preferred stock, one share of Series C preferred stock, one share of Series D special preferred stock and one share of Series E special preferred stock were issued and outstanding. Hawaiian's common stock trades on the AMEX and the PSE under the symbol "HA."

The outstanding shares of Hawaiian's stock are fully-paid and non-assessable. Additional shares of Hawaiian stock, when issued, will be fully paid and non-assessable when the consideration for which Hawaiian's board of directors authorizes their issuance has been received. The holders of shares of Hawaiian stock currently outstanding have no preemptive or similar rights to purchase securities of Hawaiian unless such rights are specifically granted by the Hawaiian board and no such rights currently exist.

Common Stock

Dividends and Distributions. Stock and cash dividends and other distributions may be paid to the holders of Hawaiian common stock as and when declared by the board of directors of Hawaiian, provided that, after giving effect to the dividend or distribution, Hawaiian is able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its business and Hawaiian's total assets are not less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the maximum amount that would be payable in any liquidation in respect to all outstanding shares having preferential rights in liquidation. All shares of Hawaiian common stock are entitled to participate ratably with respect to dividends or other distributions.

Liquidation Rights. If Hawaiian is liquidated, dissolved or wound up, voluntarily or involuntarily, holders of Hawaiian's common stock are entitled to share ratably in all assets of Hawaiian available for distribution to Hawaiian's shareholders after the payment in full of any preferential amounts to which holders of any Hawaiian preferred stock may be entitled.

Voting Rights. Holders of Hawaiian common stock having voting rights on the matter in question are entitled to one vote per share. At annual and special meetings of Hawaiian shareholders, holders of a majority of the shares of Hawaiian stock entitled to vote will constitute a quorum and a majority of a quorum so present will be sufficient to approve any action, except as otherwise required by law or by Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation and except that directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

So long as Hawaiian has a class of equity securities registered with the SEC, which are listed on a national securities exchange or traded over the counter on the National Market System of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotation System, holders of Hawaiian common stock have no cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Rank. Unless the provisions of a future series of Hawaiian preferred stock provide otherwise, all shares of Hawaiian common stock will rank junior to the outstanding shares of Hawaiian preferred stock in the event of liquidation.

Other. There are no redemption, sinking fund or conversion rights applicable to the Hawaiian common stock. Subject to legal restrictions on distributions, Hawaiian may, and has, repurchased shares of its common stock. Shares of common stock repurchased or otherwise reacquired by Hawaiian become authorized and unissued shares of Hawaiian common stock.

Preferred Stock

The Hawaiian board of directors has authority to issue two million shares of Hawaiian preferred stock in one or more series and to fix the voting powers, designations, preferences and participating, optional, relative or other special rights, and qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the Hawaiian preferred stock, without any further vote or action by Hawaiian's shareholders. The Hawaiian board, to date, has designated the Series A junior participating preferred stock and four series of special preferred stock. The issuance of Hawaiian preferred stock may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change of control of Hawaiian without further action by the shareholders, may discourage bids for the Hawaiian common stock at a premium over the market price of the Hawaiian common stock and may adversely affect the market price of, and the voting and other rights of the holders of, Hawaiian common stock.

Series A Junior Participating Cumulative Preferred Stock

The Hawaiian board of directors has authorized a series of Hawaiian preferred stock, denominated Series A junior participating cumulative preferred stock, par value $.01 per share. The 20,000 authorized shares of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock will be issuable in increments of 1/1000th of a share upon the exercise of purchase rights under the Hawaiian shareholder rights plan. Please refer to the section below called " Shareholder Rights Plan" for a more detailed description of the Hawaiian shareholder rights plan. No shares of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock have been issued or are expected to be issued prior to the time that the reorganization is proposed to be consummated.

Dividend Rights and Limitations. The holder of a share of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock would be entitled to receive, in preference to holders of Hawaiian common stock or any junior stock, when, as and if declared, cumulative dividends equal to the greater of:

cash and non-cash dividends or distributions in an amount equal to 1,000 times the dividends or distributions declared on each share of Hawaiian common stock; or a preferential quarterly dividend at an annual rate of $1.00 per share of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock ($.001 per one one-thousandth of a share of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock).

At any time that dividends or other distributions payable on the Hawaiian Series A preferred stock are in arrears, Hawaiian may not pay dividends or distributions on, or purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire for consideration, any shares of Hawaiian stock ranking junior to the Hawaiian Series A preferred stock.

Liquidation Rights. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of Hawaiian, whether voluntary or involuntary, holders of shares of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock would be entitled to receive a liquidation payment in an amount equal to the greater of:

$1.00 per share of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock ($.001 per one one-thousandth of a Hawaiian Series A share of preferred stock), plus all accrued and unpaid dividends and distributions on the shares of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock; or an amount equal to 1,000 times the aggregate amount to be distributed per share of Hawaiian common stock.

Voting Rights. Each share of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock would have 1,000 votes, subject to anti-dilution protections. Except as otherwise provided in Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation or amended by-laws, holders of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock and Hawaiian common stock would vote together as one class on all matters submitted to shareholders. Holders of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock would also have special voting rights to elect an additional director of Hawaiian in the event that dividends on the Hawaiian Series A preferred stock either have not been paid or have not been declared and adequate provision for the payment thereof made in an amount equivalent to six quarterly dividends.

Merger and Similar Transactions. In the event of any merger, consolidation or other transaction in which shares of Hawaiian common stock are exchanged or changed, the holder of a share of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock would be entitled to receive 1,000 times the aggregate amount of stock, securities, cash and/or other property received per share of Hawaiian common stock.

Rank. Unless otherwise provided in connection with the creation of a subsequent series of Hawaiian preferred stock, Hawaiian Series A preferred stock ranks junior to any other series of Hawaiian preferred stock, whether issued before or after the issuance of the Hawaiian Series A preferred stock, and senior to Hawaiian's common stock.

Other. The Hawaiian Series A preferred stock may not be issued except upon exercise of rights, and the rights have not become exercisable under the Hawaiian rights agreement. The rights of holders of the Hawaiian Series A preferred stock as to dividends, voting and liquidation preferences are protected by anti-dilution provisions. The shares of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock are nonredeemable, but may be acquired in any other manner permitted by law. Shares of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock that are repurchased or otherwise reacquired by Hawaiian after issuance become authorized but unissued shares of Hawaiian preferred stock without designation as to series. Hawaiian Series A preferred stock may be issued in fractions of a share of one one-thousandths (1/1000) of a share, and integral multiples thereof, which fractional shares entitle the holder, in proportion to the number of the holder's fractional shares, to all the rights of holders of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock. The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock, voting together as a single class, would be required to alter or change, materially and adversely, the powers, preferences or special rights of the Hawaiian Series A preferred stock.

Special Preferred Stock

In connection with the investment in Hawaiian by AIP on January 31, 1996, Hawaiian authorized and issued shares of four new series of preferred stock, denominated Series B special preferred stock, par value $.01 per share, Series C special preferred stock, par value $.01 per share, Series D special preferred stock, par value $.01 per share, and Series E special preferred stock, par value $.01 per share.

AIP holds four shares of Series B special preferred stock, AFA holds one share of Series C special preferred stock, IAM holds one share of Series D special preferred stock and ALPA holds one share of Series E special preferred stock, which shares comprise all of the issued and outstanding shares of each series of Hawaiian special preferred stock.

Dividend Rights and Limitations. At any time that a dividend or distribution is declared and paid with respect to Hawaiian common stock, holders of each series of Hawaiian special preferred stock have the right to receive a dividend per share equal to twice the dividend per share paid on the Hawaiian common stock.

Liquidation Rights. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Hawaiian, whether voluntary or involuntary, holders of Hawaiian special preferred stock have the right to receive, out of the assets of Hawaiian, $.01 per share before any payment is made or any assets distributed to the holders of Hawaiian common stock or to the holders of any other class of Hawaiian stock.

Voting Rights. Holders of Hawaiian special preferred stock have the right to one vote per share together with the Hawaiian common stock, voting as a single class, with respect to any matters submitted for a vote to the holders of Hawaiian common stock, and any other rights to vote required by the HBCA.

Under Hawaiian's amended by-laws, Hawaiian's board of directors is fixed at eleven and holders of record of Hawaiian special preferred stock have the right to identify individuals for nomination by the board of directors of Hawaiian to serve as directors, with the holder of one or more shares of Hawaiian Series B special preferred stock having the right to identify six directors so long as it is the holder of record of at least 35% of the common stock of Hawaiian, and the holders of the other three series of Hawaiian special preferred stock each entitled to identify one director. The holder of the share or shares of each series of Hawaiian special preferred stock also has the right to fill a vacancy on the Hawaiian board caused by the removal, resignation or death of a director whom the holder of such series of Hawaiian special preferred stock is entitled to nominate pursuant to Hawaiian's amended by-laws, if the vacancy is not filled by the Hawaiian board within 30 days.

Restrictions on Transfers and Conversion Provisions. The rights and preferences of shares of Hawaiian special preferred stock cease to exist once the outstanding shares are converted into Hawaiian common stock, on a share for share basis, which occurs automatically (i) upon transfer of the shares to any person who is not an affiliate of the initial holder of the Hawaiian special preferred stock, (ii) in the case of the Hawaiian Series B special preferred stock, if the holder is the holder of record of less than five percent of the outstanding common equity interest of Hawaiian for 365 consecutive days and (iii) in the case of the single share of each of the Hawaiian Series C special preferred stock, Hawaiian Series D special preferred stock and Hawaiian Series E special preferred stock, if the collective bargaining agreement by and between the holder and Hawaiian is amended through collective bargaining so that the collective bargaining agreement no longer entitles the holder to nominate a representative to Hawaiian's board.

Rank. With respect to the right to receive distributions upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Hawaiian, the Hawaiian special preferred stock ranks senior to the Hawaiian Series A preferred stock and to the Hawaiian common stock.

Merger and Similar Transactions. In the event Hawaiian enters into any consolidation, merger or other transaction in which shares of Hawaiian common stock are exchanged for or changed into other stock, securities, cash or other property, then all shares of Hawaiian special preferred stock will at the same time be exchanged for or changed into an amount per share equal to the aggregate amount of stock, securities, cash and other property received in exchange for each share of Hawaiian common stock.

Other. None of the shares of Hawaiian special preferred stock are subject to redemption, but Hawaiian may acquire shares of Hawaiian special preferred stock in any other manner permitted by law. Shares of Hawaiian special preferred stock purchased or otherwise acquired by Hawaiian are cancelled and become authorized but unissued shares of Hawaiian preferred stock, without designation as to series. There is no provision for anti-dilution adjustments for the Hawaiian special preferred stock, including with respect to the number of shares of Hawaiian common stock issuable upon conversion of shares of Hawaiian special preferred stock.

Shareholder Rights Plan

On December 1, 1994 the Hawaiian board of directors authorized adoption of the Hawaiian rights plan pursuant to which one preferred stock purchase right became attached to each share of Hawaiian's common stock. The following is a brief description of the Hawaiian rights plan as amended and the rights. It is intended to provide a general description only and is subject to the detailed terms and conditions of the Hawaiian rights agreement, which is an exhibit to the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part.

Common Stock Certificates Representing Rights. Until the "distribution date," which we describe below:

the rights are not exercisable;

the rights attach to and trade only together with the Hawaiian common stock; and stock certificates representing Hawaiian common stock also represent the rights attached to the Hawaiian common stock.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Hawaiian common stock certificates issued after December 1, 1994 and prior to the distribution date contain a notation incorporating the Hawaiian rights agreement by reference.

Distribution Date. The "distribution date" is the earliest of:

the tenth business day (or such later day designated by the board of directors of Hawaiian) following the date of the first public announcement, which we refer to as the "share acquisition date," that any person, together with all affiliates and associates of such person (other than Hawaiian or certain related entities, AIP, with respect to the shares it acquired under its 1996 stock purchase agreement with Hawaiian, "grandfathered acquiring persons" (as described below), holders and any person that the Hawaiian board determines, within the time period prescribed by the Hawaiian rights plan, is not an acquiring person) has become the beneficial owner of 15% or more of the then outstanding Hawaiian common stock (we refer to a person meeting these requirements as an "acquiring person");

the tenth business day (or such later day designated by the Hawaiian board) following the date of the commencement of, or the announcement of an intention to make, a tender offer or exchange offer, the consummation of which would cause any person to become an acquiring person; or the first date, on or after the share acquisition date, upon which Hawaiian, directly or indirectly (except pursuant to a transaction approved by the Hawaiian board which does not involve an acquiring person), is involved in a merger or other business combination in which Hawaiian is not the surviving corporation or in which the outstanding shares of Hawaiian common stock are changed into or exchanged for securities or assets of another person, or upon which 50% or more of Hawaiian's consolidated assets or earning power are sold or transferred (other than in transactions in the ordinary course of business) to a person other than one or more wholly-owned subsidiaries of Hawaiian.

In calculating the percentage of outstanding shares of Hawaiian common stock that are beneficially owned by any person, the person will be deemed to beneficially own any Hawaiian common stock issuable upon the exercise, exchange or conversion of any options, warrants or other securities beneficially owned by the person, but Hawaiian common stock issuable upon such exercise will not be deemed outstanding for the purpose of calculating the percentage of Hawaiian common stock that is beneficially owned by any other person.

No person will be deemed an acquiring person until that person becomes the beneficial owner of a percentage of the then outstanding Hawaiian common stock that is at least 1% more than the percentage of the outstanding Hawaiian common stock beneficially owned by that person solely as a result of distributions pursuant to Hawaiian's 1994 bankruptcy reorganization plan, such person referred to as a "grandfathered acquiring person." Further, if such a grandfathered acquiring person transfers the shares received pursuant to the bankruptcy reorganization plan, the direct transferee will not be deemed to be an acquiring person unless, as a result of another acquisition, the transferee becomes the beneficial owner of at least 1% more than the percentage of outstanding Hawaiian common stock transferred to the transferee by such grandfathered acquiring person. In addition, if any person becomes the beneficial owner of at least 15% of the then outstanding Hawaiian common stock as a result of any decrease in the number of outstanding shares of Hawaiian common stock resulting from any stock repurchase plan or self tender offer of Hawaiian, then the person will not be deemed an acquiring person until the person afterwards acquires beneficial ownership of, in the aggregate, a number of additional shares of Hawaiian common stock equal to 1% or more of the then outstanding Hawaiian common stock.

Upon the close of business on the distribution date, the rights will separate from the Hawaiian common stock, rights certificates will be issued and the rights will become exercisable.

Issuance of Rights Certificates. As soon as practicable following the distribution date, separate certificates representing only rights will be mailed to the holders of record of Hawaiian common stock as of the close of business on the distribution date, and the separate rights certificates alone will represent rights from and after the distribution date.

Expiration of Rights. The rights will expire on December 1, 2004 unless earlier redeemed or exchanged, unless the distribution date has previously occurred and the rights have separated from the Hawaiian common stock, in which case the rights will expire on December 1, 2014.

Exercise of Rights. Unless the rights have expired or have been redeemed or exchanged, they may be exercised, in whole or in part at the option of the registered holders, as described in the following three paragraphs. No right may be exercised more than once and may only be exercised in one of the three ways described in the following three paragraphs. From and after the first event of the type described below, each right that is beneficially owned by an acquiring person or that was attached to a share of Hawaiian common stock that is subject to an option beneficially owned by an acquiring person will be void.

Right to Purchase Hawaiian Preferred Stock. From and after the close of business on the distribution date, each right (other than a right that has become void) will be exercisable to purchase one one-thousandth of a share of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock at an exercise price of $8.00. Prior to the distribution date, Hawaiian may substitute for all or any portion of the Hawaiian Series A preferred stock that would otherwise be issuable upon exercise of the rights, cash, assets or other securities having the same aggregate value as the Hawaiian Series A preferred stock.

Right to Purchase Hawaiian Common Stock. From and after the close of business on the tenth business day following the share acquisition date, each right (other than a right that has become void) will be exercisable to purchase, at the exercise price, Hawaiian common stock with a market value equal to two times the exercise price. If Hawaiian does not have sufficient Hawaiian common stock available for all rights to be exercised, Hawaiian will substitute for all or any portion of the Hawaiian common stock that would otherwise be issuable upon the exercise of the rights, cash, assets or other securities having the same aggregate value as that number of shares of Hawaiian common stock.

Right to Purchase Common Stock of Successor Corporation. If, on or after the share acquisition date:

Hawaiian is acquired in a merger or other business combination in which Hawaiian is not the surviving corporation;

Hawaiian is the surviving corporation in a merger or other business combination in which all or part of the outstanding Hawaiian common stock is changed into or exchanged for stock or assets of another person; or

50% or more of Hawaiian's consolidated assets or earning power are sold (other than in transactions in the ordinary course of business), then each right (other than a right that has become void) will thereafter be exercisable to purchase, at the exercise price, shares of common stock of the surviving corporation or purchaser, respectively, with an aggregate market value equal to two times the exercise price.

Adjustments to Prevent Dilution. The exercise price, the number of outstanding rights and the number of shares of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock or Hawaiian common stock issuable upon exercise of the rights are subject to adjustment from time to time as set forth in the Hawaiian rights agreement in order to prevent dilution.

Cash Paid Instead of Issuing Fractional Securities. With certain exceptions, no adjustment in the exercise price will be required until cumulative adjustments require an adjustment of at least 1%. No fractional securities will be issued upon exercise of a right (other than fractions of a share of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock that are integral multiples of one one-thousandth of one share of Hawaiian Series A preferred stock and that may, at the election of Hawaiian, be evidenced by depository receipts) and, in lieu thereof, an adjustment in cash shall be made based on the market price of such securities on the last trading date prior to the date of exercise.

Redemption. At any time prior to the earlier of:

the tenth business day (or a later day designated by the Hawaiian board) following the date of the commencement of, or the announcement of an intention to make, a tender offer or exchange offer, the consummation of which would cause any person to become an acquiring person;

the share acquisition date; or the date Hawaiian is acquired in a merger or other business combination in which Hawaiian is not the surviving corporation, the members of the Hawaiian board serving prior to the date of the event triggering the rights may, at their option, direct Hawaiian to redeem the rights in whole, but not in part, at a redemption price of $.01 per right and Hawaiian will so redeem the rights. Immediately upon such action by the Hawaiian board, the right to exercise rights will terminate and the only right of the holders of rights will be to receive the redemption price.

Exchange. At any time after the share acquisition date and prior to the first date thereafter upon which an acquiring person will be the beneficial owner of 50% or more of the outstanding Hawaiian common stock, the Hawaiian board may, at its option, direct Hawaiian to exchange all, but not less than all, of the then outstanding rights for Hawaiian common stock at an exchange ratio per right equal to that number of shares of Hawaiian common stock which, as of the date of the Hawaiian board's action, has a current market price equal to the difference between the exercise price and the current market price of the shares that would otherwise be issuable upon exercise of a right on such date, and Hawaiian will so exchange the rights. Immediately upon such action by the Hawaiian board, the right to exercise rights will terminate and the only right of the holders of rights will be to receive a number of shares of Hawaiian common stock equal to the exchange ratio.

No Shareholder Rights Prior to Exercise. Until a right is exercised, the holder of a right, as such, will have no rights as a shareholder of Hawaiian (other than rights resulting from the holder's ownership of Hawaiian common stock), including, without limitation, the right to vote or to receive dividends.

Amendment of Rights Agreement. The Hawaiian board of directors may, from time to time, without the approval of any holder of rights, direct Hawaiian and the rights agent to supplement or amend any provision of the Hawaiian rights agreement in any manner, whether or not the supplement or amendment is adverse to any holder of rights, and Hawaiian and the rights agent will so supplement or amend the provision. However, from and after the earliest of:

the tenth business day (or a later day designated by the Hawaiian board) following the date of the commencement of, or the announcement of an intention to make, a tender offer or exchange offer, the consummation of which would cause any person to become an acquiring person;

the share acquisition date;

the date Hawaiian is acquired in a merger or other business combination in which Hawaiian is not the surviving corporation;
or the redemption date,

the Hawaiian rights agreement will not be supplemented or amended in any manner that would materially and adversely affect any holder of outstanding rights other than an acquiring person. In addition, from and after the first date upon which there exists an acquiring person, the Hawaiian rights agreement will not be supplemented or amended in any manner without the approval of a majority of Hawaiian's directors who were directors prior to that date.

By a resolution adopted at the April 26, 2002 meeting of the Hawaiian board of directors, the Hawaiian board exempted the Hawaiian merger from the shareholders' rights plan by deeming the Hawaiian merger to be an "Approved Section 13(a) Transaction" and also exempted the AIP restructuring from the shareholders' rights plan by deeming the affiliate of AIP that will acquire AIP's shares of Hawaiian common stock not to be an "acquiring person."

Transfer Agent

The transfer agent for the Hawaiian common stock and special preferred stock is Mellon Investor Services LLC, San Francisco, California.

COMPARATIVE RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS CAPITAL STOCK AND HAWAIIAN CAPITAL STOCK

The rights of Hawaiian shareholders are currently governed by the Hawaii Business Corporation Act (HBCA) and common law, Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation, Hawaiian's by-laws and the Hawaiian rights agreement. The rights of Hawaiian Holdings shareholders after the completion of the reorganization will be governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) and common law, Hawaiian Holdings' certificate of incorporation and Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws. The rights issued under the Hawaiian rights agreement are attached to Hawaiian common stock, and these rights will expire upon the conversion of the shares of Hawaiian common stock into shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock in the reorganization. The rights attached to the shares of Hawaiian common stock that remain outstanding and held by a subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings after the reorganization will be rendered non-exercisable through an amendment of the Hawaiian rights agreement.

The following is a summary of the material differences between the current rights of Hawaiian shareholders and the rights they will have as shareholders of Hawaiian Holdings following the reorganization. For detailed descriptions of the capital stock of Hawaiian Holdings and Hawaiian see "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock" and "Description of Hawaiian Capital Stock" in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Hawaiian Holdings
(a Delaware corporation)

Hawaiian
(a Hawaii corporation)

Authorized Capital Stock

The authorized capital stock of Hawaiian Holdings will consist of 62 million shares, consisting of 60 million shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share and 2 million of preferred stock, par value $.01 per share, of which there have been designated four shares of Series A special preferred stock, one share of Series B special preferred stock, one share of Series C special preferred stock, and one share of Series D special preferred stock.

The authorized capital stock of Hawaiian consists of 60 million shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share and 2 million shares of preferred stock, par value $.01 per share, which are divided into 1,979,993 shares of preferred stock that are not yet designated, 20,000 shares designated Series A junior participating cumulative preferred stock, four shares designated Series B special preferred stock, one share designated Series C special preferred stock, one share designated Series D special preferred stock and one share designated Series E special preferred stock.

Voting Rights

Holders of common stock are, and holders of special preferred stock will be, entitled to one vote per share. Except as otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, holders of common stock and special preferred stock will vote together as a single class on all matters to be voted upon by shareholders.

Holders of common stock and special preferred stock are entitled to one vote per share. Holders of common stock and special preferred stock vote together as a single class on all matters to be voted upon by shareholders.

The DGCL requires voting by separate classes of shares only with respect to amendments to a corporation's certificate of incorporation that adversely affect the powers, preferences or special rights of the shares of a class or that increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares or the par value of the shares of a class.

Under the DGCL, shareholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors unless such right is granted in the certificate of incorporation. Hawaiian Holdings restated certificate of incorporation does not provide for cumulative voting.

The HBCA requires voting by separate classes of shares only with respect to amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation (or with respect to plans of merger or share exchanges that include provisions that would require voting by separate classes if these provisions were amendments to the articles of incorporation) that: adversely affect the holders of those classes, increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares, effects an exchange or reclassification of shares of the class into shares of another class (or vice versa), change the designation, rights, preferences or limitations of shares of the class; change the shares of the class into a different number of shares of the same class; create a new class of shares having, or increase the rights, preferences or number of authorized shares of any class that, after giving effect to the amendment, have, rights or preferences with respect to distributions or to dissolution that are prior, superior or substantially equal to the shares of the class; limit or deny an existing preemptive right of the shares of the class or cancel or otherwise affect rights to distributions or dividends that have accumulated but not yet been declared on shares of the class.

Under the HBCA, shareholders have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors under specified procedures unless the articles of incorporation or by-laws of specified categories of corporations provide otherwise. The right of shareholders to cumulate votes has been eliminated in Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation.

Dividends and Distribution

Delaware corporations may pay dividends out of surplus or, if there is no surplus, out of net profits for the fiscal year in which declared and/or the preceding fiscal year. Section 170 of the DGCL also provides that dividends may not be paid out of net profits if, after the payment of the dividend, capital is less than the capital represented by the outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. Dividends may be paid in cash, property or shares of capital stock.

A Hawaii corporation, unless otherwise provided in its articles of incorporation, may pay dividends and other distributions to its shareholders unless, after giving effect to the distribution, the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business, or the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy preferential rights.

Subject to the rights of holders of preferred stock, holders of common stock will be entitled to receive, on a ratable basis, dividends and other distributions out of assets legally available at times and in amounts as the board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings may determine from time to time. When any dividend or distribution is paid or declared on the common stock, holders of special preferred stock will have the right to receive a dividend per share equal to twice the dividend per share paid on the common stock.

Subject to the foregoing restrictions and the rights of holders of preferred stock, holders of common stock are entitled to receive, on a ratable basis, dividends and other distributions at times and in amounts as the board of directors of Hawaiian may determine from time to time, so long as the dividend or distribution will not render it insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they come due. When any dividend or distribution is paid or declared on the common stock, holders of special preferred stock will have the right to receive a dividend per share equal to twice the dividend per share paid on the common stock.

Treasury Stock

Under the DGCL, if a corporation acquires shares of its own stock, it is not required to retire these shares and may instead treat these treasury shares as issued but not outstanding shares. A corporation may resell its shares of treasury stock for such consideration as the board of directors may determine (including at less than their par value), but may not vote these treasury shares or count them for quorum purposes.

Under the HBCA, a corporation may acquire its own shares and shares so acquired constitute authorized but unissued shares. If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissuance of acquired shares, the number of authorized shares is reduced by the number of shares acquired, effective upon filing a statement of cancellation showing the reduction in the authorized shares. Hawaiian's articles of incorporation do not prohibit the reissuance of acquired shares.

Effect on Preferred Stock of Mergers and Similar Transactions

In the event Hawaiian Holdings enters into any consolidation, reorganization or other transaction in which shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock are exchanged for or changed into other stock, securities, cash or into other property, then all shares of Hawaiian Holdings special preferred stock will at the same time be exchanged for or changed into an amount per share equal to the aggregate amount of stock, securities, cash and other property received in exchange for each share of Hawaiian Holdings common stock.

In the event Hawaiian enters into any consolidation, reorganization or other transaction in which shares of Hawaiian common stock are exchanged for or changed into other stock, securities, cash or other property, then all shares of Hawaiian special preferred stock will at the same time be exchanged for or changed into an amount per share equal to the aggregate amount of stock, securities, cash and other property received by each share of Hawaiian common stock.

Number of Directors

The DGCL provides that the board of directors of a Delaware corporation shall consist of one or more directors as fixed by the corporation's certificate of incorporation or by-laws.

Under the HBCA, the board of directors must consist of one or more individuals, with the number either to be specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or by-laws.

The board of directors of Hawaiian Holdings currently will be fixed by the restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws at 11 directors.

The board of directors of Hawaiian is currently fixed by the articles of incorporation and by-laws at 11 members.

Classes of Directors

The DGCL permits, but does not require, a Delaware corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation for a classified board of directors, dividing the board into up to three classes of directors with staggered terms of office, with only one class of directors to be elected each year for a maximum term of three years. Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation will not provide for a classified board of directors.

Under the HBCA, if there are nine or more directors, the articles of incorporation may provide for staggering their terms by dividing the total number of directors into two or three groups, with each group containing one-half or one-third of the total (as near as may be) and with only one group to be elected each year. Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation do not provide for a staggered board.

Qualifications of Directors

Under the DGCL, a director need not be a shareholder unless the certificate of incorporation or by-laws so requires. Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation will not contain such a requirement, and its amended by-laws will provide that directors need not be shareholders of Hawaiian Holdings. Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws will provide that the qualifications of directors will consist of nomination in accordance with the procedures described under "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock Special Preferred Stock and Related Provisions Nomination of Members of the Board."

The HBCA provides that, unless the articles of incorporation or by-laws so prescribe, a director need not be a resident of Hawaii or a shareholder of the corporation. Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation do require that at least one member of the board of directors be either Hawaii residents or shareholders. Hawaiian's amended by-laws provide that the qualifications of directors consist of nomination in accordance with procedures described under "Description of Hawaiian Capital Stock Special Preferred Stock Voting Rights."

Board Nomination Rights

Each holder of a share of special preferred stock will be entitled to identify for nomination one member of Hawaiian Holdings' board of directors, subject to specified conditions, which are described in detail under "Description of Hawaiian Holdings Capital Stock."

Each holder of a share of special preferred stock is entitled to identify for nomination one member to Hawaiian's board of directors subject to specified conditions, which are described in detail under "Description of Hawaiian Capital Stock."

Removal of Directors

The DGCL provides that a director or the entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors. However, in the case of a corporation whose board is classified, the directors may be removed only for cause unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. Hawaiian Holdings will not have a classified board of directors.

Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws will provide that, subject to the rights of holders of preferred stock, any director may be removed from office with or without cause by the holders of a majority of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares of voting stock.

Under the HBCA, shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause.

A director, including a director nominated by the holders of special preferred stock, may be removed, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of shareholders having a majority of the corporation's voting power at a special meeting called expressly for that purpose. A Hawaii court may also remove a director in an action commenced by the corporation or by holders of at least 10% of the shares of any class if the court finds that the director engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct, or gross abuse of authority or discretion, with respect to the corporation and that removal is in the best interest of the corporation.

Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors

The DGCL provides that, unless the governing documents of a corporation provide otherwise, vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from a resignation or an increase in the authorized number of directors elected by all of the shareholders having the right to vote as a single class may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office.

Newly created directorships and vacancies on Hawaiian Holdings' board may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the board or by a plurality of the votes cast by shareholders at a meeting. However,

The HBCA provides that, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, vacancies and newly created directorships from an increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by the shareholders, the board of directors or, if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum, the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

Newly created directorships and vacancies on Hawaiian's board may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board or by a plurality of the votes cast by shareholders at a meeting. However, so so long as there is a holder of special preferred stock of Hawaiian Holdings, and the vacancy is of a director nominated by that holder, Hawaiian Holdings' board may fill the vacancy only with a person nominated by the holder. Furthermore, if the type of vacancy described in the preceding sentence is not filled within 30 days, the vacancy may be filled by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of this series of special preferred stock.

long as there is a holder of special preferred stock of Hawaiian, and the vacancy is of a director nominated by that holder, the Hawaiian board may fill the vacancy only with a person nominated by the holder. Furthermore, if the type of vacancy described in the preceding sentence is not filled within 30 days, this vacancy may be filled by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the series of special preferred stock.

Special Meetings of Shareholders

Under the DGCL, a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the board of directors or by any other person authorized to do so in the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws. Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws will provide that special meetings of Hawaiian Holdings shareholders may be called only by the chairman of the board of directors or by a resolution approved by a majority of the board of directors subject to the rights of holders of any series of preferred stock of Hawaiian Holdings. Business at such special meetings is limited to the purpose stated in the notice for such meeting.

Under the HBCA, a corporation is required to hold a special meeting of shareholders on the call of its board of directors or a person authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or by-laws, or by written demand of shareholders holding at least ten percent of the outstanding stock of Hawaiian entitled to vote at the meeting.

Special meetings of Hawaiian shareholders must be called by the corporate secretary upon written request of the holders of not less than one-tenth of the issued and outstanding common stock entitled to vote at the meeting or upon the resolution of the board of directors. Business at such meetings is limited to the purpose stated in the notice of meeting.

Requirements for Advance Notification of Shareholder Nominations and Proposals

Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws will require that shareholders provide advance notice of nomination of directors and shareholder proposals for consideration of an annual meeting. Notice for an annual meeting must be received by Hawaiian Holdings:

not earlier than 120 days prior to the anniversary of last year's annual meeting; and not later than 90 days prior to such anniversary date.

If the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or 70 days after such anniversary date, then notice must be received by Hawaiian Holdings.

Not earlier than 120 days prior to the date of the annual meeting; and not later than 90 days prior to the date of the annual meeting, or 10 days after public announcement of such date, if later.

Hawaiian's amended by-laws require that shareholders provide advance notice of shareholder proposals for consideration at an annual meeting. The advance notice must be received by the corporate secretary not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the annual meeting. However, if less than 40 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given or made to shareholders, the notice must be received no later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which the notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made.

The notice must include specified information regarding the proposal and the shareholder making the proposal that would be required by the proxy rules of the SEC.

The notice must include specified information regarding the nominee or the proposal and the shareholder making the nomination or proposal that would be required by the proxy rules of the SEC.

Only business identified in the notice of special meeting may be conducted at the special meeting. If a special meeting is called to elect directors, a shareholder may submit nominations provided that the shareholder's notice is received by Hawaiian Holdings:

not earlier than 120 days prior to the date of the special meeting; and not later than 90 days prior to the date of the special meeting, or 10 days after public announcement of such date, if later.

Notice of Shareholders Meetings

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

The DGCL requires notice of shareholders meetings to be sent to all shareholders of record entitled to vote at the meeting not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the date of the meeting.

Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws will provide for notice to shareholders of record not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to an annual or special meeting.

Under the HBCA, a corporation must notify shareholders entitled to vote of the date, time and place of each shareholders' meeting no fewer than 10 nor more than 60 days before the meeting date.

Hawaiian's amended by-laws provide for written notice to shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting not less than 10 nor more than 70 days prior to the date set for an annual or special meeting.

Shareholder Action by Written Consent

Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws will provide that shareholder action may not be taken by written consent, but instead that any action required or permitted to be taken by shareholders must be effected at an annual or special meeting of shareholders, subject to the rights of holders of any series of the preferred stock.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by shareholders of Hawaiian at a shareholders' meeting may be taken by the unanimous written consent of shareholders, but such action is impracticable because of the large number of Hawaiian shareholders.

Undesignated Preferred Stock

The board of directors will be authorized to issue preferred stock with voting or other rights or preferences without shareholder approval.

The board of directors is authorized to issue preferred stock with voting or other rights or preferences without shareholder approval.

Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation

Under the DGCL, amendments to a corporation's certificate of incorporation require the approval of the board of directors and shareholders holding a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote on such amendment, unless a different proportion is specified in the certificate of incorporation or by other provisions of the DGCL.

Most provisions in Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation, including those relating to the special preferred stock but excluding the authorized capital provision, may be amended only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares of voting stock of Hawaiian Holdings voting together as a single class.

Under the HBCA, amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation require the approval of the board of directors (except in specified instances involving a conflict of interest) and the approval of the holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote on the amendment.

Under Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation, the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of all outstanding shares of the capital stock of Hawaiian with voting power is required to amend Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation.

Amendment of By-laws

Under the DGCL, holders of a majority of the voting power of a corporation, and, when provided in the certificate of incorporation, the directors of the corporation, have the power to adopt, amend and repeal the by-laws of a corporation.

Hawaiian Holdings' board may amend the by-laws by the vote of a majority of the entire board of directors, subject to repeal or change by action of shareholders, except for the provisions of Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws relating to:

- amendment of the by-laws;
- the number, qualification or term of office of directors;
- newly created directorships or vacancies;
- removal of directors;
- special meetings of the board; and

Under the HBCA, a corporation's board of directors may amend or repeal the by-laws unless either the articles of incorporation or the HBCA reserve this power exclusively to the shareholders, or the shareholders in amending or repealing a particular by-law provide expressly that the board of directors may not amend or repeal that by-law. A corporation's shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's by-laws even though the by-laws may also be amended or repealed by its board of directors.

Hawaiian's amended by-laws may be amended, altered or repealed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the board, subject to repeal or change by action of shareholders, except for the provisions of Hawaiian's amended by-laws relating to:

- the number or qualifications of directors;
- notice and other requirements with respect to shareholder meetings; and
- the removal of directors and filling of vacancies or the amendment quorum of directors.

of the amended by-laws.

55

The majority of the board which approves an amendment to the provisions listed above must include at least one director, if any, nominated by the holder of the Series A special preferred stock and at least two of the three directors nominated by the holders of the Series B, Series C and Series D special preferred stock.

The provisions of the by-laws listed above may be amended only by a majority of the board of directors that includes a director, if any, nominated by the holder of the Series B special preferred stock and at least two of the three directors nominated by the holders of the Series C, Series D and Series E special preferred stock.

Indemnification

The DGCL provides that, subject to certain limitations in the case of suits brought by or in the right of the corporation, a corporation may indemnify any person who is made a party to any suit or proceeding on account of being a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against expenses, attorney's fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, through, among other things, a majority vote of the directors who were not parties to the suit or proceeding, if the person:

acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and in a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

To the extent a present or former director or officer is successful in the defense of such an action, suit or proceeding, the corporation is required by the DGCL to indemnify such person for reasonable expenses incurred thereby.

The HBCA provides that a corporation may indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because the individual is a director against the liability incurred in the proceeding if:

The individual conducted himself or herself in good faith and the individual reasonably believed: (i) in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity, the individual's conduct was in the best interests of the corporation; and (ii) in all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was unlawful; or the individual engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the articles of incorporation.

To the extent that a director is successful in the defense of such a proceeding, the corporation is required by the DGCL to indemnify such director for reasonable expenses incurred thereby. The HBCA also provides that a corporation may include indemnification provisions in its articles of incorporation that are broader than the foregoing provisions.

Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws will provide for indemnification, to the fullest extent authorized by Delaware law, for each person who was or is made a party to, is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding because he or she is or was a director or officer of such company (or was serving at the request of such company as a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another entity) while serving in such capacity against all expenses, liabilities, or loss reasonably incurred by this person provided that indemnification in connection with a proceeding brought by this person will be required only if the proceeding was authorized by Hawaiian Holdings' board of directors.

Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws also will provide that Hawaiian Holdings must pay expenses incurred in defending the proceedings specified above in advance of their final disposition, provided that, if so required by Delaware law, such advance payments for expenses incurred by a director or officer may be made only if he or she undertakes to repay all amounts so advanced if it is ultimately determined that the person receiving such payments is not entitled to be indemnified. Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation and amended by-laws authorize the company to provide similar indemnification to its employees or agents.

Under the HBCA, a corporation, before final disposition of a proceeding, may advance funds to pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding. Also under certain circumstances, a director may apply and obtain indemnification or an advance for expenses to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction.

The current indemnity provisions in Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation were adopted under an earlier version of the HBCA. These provisions require the corporation to provide indemnification to a person named in a proceeding by reason of being a director or officer if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interests, and, in a criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. No indemnification, however, may be made in a proceeding brought by or in the right of Hawaiian in respect of any matter as to which he or she has been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to Hawaiian unless and only to the extent that the applicable court determines that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, he or she is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which the court deems proper. Further, indemnification under the provisions in Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation may be made only as

The right to indemnification is not exclusive of any other right which any person may have or acquire under any statute, provision of Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation or amended by-laws, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

authorized in a specific case upon a determination that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard, with such determination to be made by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the proceeding;

if the quorum is not obtainable, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion to the corporation;

57

by a majority vote of the shareholders; or by the court in which the proceeding is or was pending upon application.

Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation also provide that expenses incurred in defending a proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding as authorized by the board of directors in a particular case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount unless it is ultimately determined that he or she is entitled to be indemnified.

Any indemnification pursuant to Hawaiian's restated articles of incorporation is not to be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement or otherwise.

Limitations on Directors' and Officers' Liability

Under the DGCL, a corporation may, in its certificate of incorporation, eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. A corporation, however, may not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for:

any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders;

acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

payment of a dividend or approval of a stock repurchase in violation of Section 174 of the DGCL; or any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The restated certificate of incorporation of Hawaiian Holdings will provide that, to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL, no director will be liable to Hawaiian Holdings or

Under the HBCA, a corporation may, in its articles of incorporation, eliminate or limit the personal liability of its directors in any action brought by the shareholders or the corporation for monetary damages against any director of the corporation for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director. A corporation, however, may not eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director for:

the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which the director is not entitled;

an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders; payment of a dividend or other distribution in violation of section 414-223 of the HBCA; or an intentional violation of criminal law.

The restated articles of incorporation of Hawaiian provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by the HBCA, a director will not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as director. This provision protects Hawaiian Holdings' directors against personal liability for monetary damages from breaches of their duty of care. It does not eliminate the director's duty of care and has no effect on the availability of equitable remedies, such as an injunction or rescission, based upon a director's breach of his or her duty of care.

Shareholder Rights Plan

Hawaiian Holdings will not have a shareholder rights plan immediately after the reorganization, but the board could adopt such a plan in the future (although it has no current plans to do so).

Hawaiian currently has a shareholder rights plan, which is summarized under "Description of Hawaiian Capital Stock Shareholder Rights Plan."

Interested Director Transactions

Under Delaware law, contracts or transactions between a corporation and one or more of its directors or officers will not be void or voidable solely because of this reason or solely because the interested director or officer is present or participates in the board or committee meeting that authorizes the contract or transaction so long as:

the material facts as to the director's or officer's relationship or interest and as the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the board or committee, and the board in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by a vote that includes the affirmative votes of a majority of the directors, even if the disinterested directors are less than a quorum;

the material facts as to the director's or officer's relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are known to the shareholders entitled to vote, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the shareholders; or the contract or transaction is fair as to the corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the board of directors, a committee or shareholders.

Under Hawaii law, contracts or transactions between a corporation and one or more of its directors may not be enjoined, set aside or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions, in a proceeding by a shareholder or in a derivative proceeding, because the director, or a person with whom the director has a personal, economic or other association has an interest, so long as the contract or transaction:

is approved by a majority of the members of the board who are "qualified directors" (but no fewer than two) or by a majority of the members of a committee who are either all of the qualified directors on the board or were approved by the affirmative vote of all qualified directors on the board after disclosure of the existence and nature of the conflicting interest and of all material facts known about the transaction (even if directors who are not qualified directors participate in the related deliberations or vote);

is approved by a majority vote of shares beneficially owned by shareholders of Hawaiian who are not directors with a conflicting interest or specified persons related to such directors, after disclosure of the existence and nature of the conflicting interest and of all material facts known about the transaction; or if the transaction, judged according to the circumstances at the time of the commitment, is established to have been fair to Hawaiian.

Interested directors may be counted for quorum purposes at a meeting.

A "qualified director" is a director who does not have a conflicting interest or a family, financial, professional or employment relationship with a director who has a conflicting interest if, under the circumstances, the relationship would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment when voting on the transaction.

Approval of Merger

Under the DGCL, a merger or consolidation must be approved by the board of directors and by a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. However, under Section 251(f) of the DGCL, no vote of shareholders of a constituent corporation surviving a merger is required, unless the corporation provides otherwise in its certificate of incorporation (which Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation will not), if:

the merger agreement does not amend the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation;

each share of stock of the surviving corporation outstanding before the merger is an identical outstanding or treasury share after the merger; and either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation are to be issued or delivered pursuant to the merger or, if such common stock will be issued or delivered, it will not increase the number of shares of common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger

Under the HBCA, a merger or share exchange to which Hawaiian is a constituent party must be approved by three-fourths of the outstanding shares of common stock and special preferred stock, voting together as a single voting group, and the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares of special preferred stock, voting together as a single voting group. However, action by the shareholders of the surviving corporation on a plan of merger is not required if:

the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not differ (with limited exceptions) from the articles of incorporation before the merger;

each shareholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical rights, immediately after the merger;

the number of voting shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of voting shares issuable as a result of the merger, will not exceed by more than 20% the total number of voting by more than 20%.

shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately before the merger; and

In addition, under Section 251(g) of the DGCL, no shareholder approval is required if a corporation merges with a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary in order to form a holding company structure, so long as specified requirements are satisfied. As a result, if Hawaiian had been a Delaware corporation, a reorganization similar to that contemplated by the reorganization proposal would not have required shareholder approval.

the number of participating shares (i.e., shares entitled to participate without limitations on distributions) outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of participating shares issuable as a result of the merger, will not exceed by more than 20% the total number of participating shares outstanding immediately before the merger.

Approval of Sale of Assets

Any sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of Hawaiian Holdings' assets must be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares of Hawaiian Holdings common stock and special preferred stock, voting together as a single class.

Any sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of Hawaiian's assets other than in the usual and regular course of business must be approved by three-fourths of the outstanding shares of Hawaiian common stock and special preferred stock, voting together as a single voting group.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

The DGCL contains a business combination statute that protects domestic corporations from hostile takeovers, and from actions following such a takeover, by prohibiting some transactions once an acquiror has gained a significant holding in the corporation.

Section 203 of the DGCL prohibits, with certain exceptions, "business combinations," including mergers, sales and leases of assets, issuances of securities and similar transactions by a corporation or a subsidiary with an "interested stockholder" who beneficially owns 15% or more of a corporation's voting stock, within three years after the person or entity becomes an interested shareholder.

In accordance with Section 203, Hawaiian Holdings will make an election in its restated certificate of incorporation to opt out of this section so that it will not apply to Hawaiian Holdings.

The Hawaii Control Share Acquisition Act places restrictions on the acquisition of ranges of voting power in the election of directors of an issuing public corporation, which is defined as a corporation incorporated in Hawaii with at least 100 shareholders and having its principal place of business or substantial assets located in Hawaii. The Control Share Acquisition Act does not currently apply to Hawaiian by virtue of a provision in its restated articles of incorporation making the Act inapplicable to Hawaiian. Neither Hawaiian Holdings nor Hawaiian will be an issuing public corporation within the meaning of the Control Share Acquisition Act following the reorganization.

(a Hawaii corporation)

The Hawaii Corporate Take-Overs Act (the "HCTA"), generally applies to take-over offers made to residents of the State of Hawaii in cases where the offeror would become the beneficial owner of more than 10% of any class of equity securities of a target company, or where an offeror that already owns more than 10% of any class of equity securities of the target company would increase its beneficial ownership by more than 5%. Under the HCTA, a "take-over offer" is an offer to acquire any equity securities of a target company from a Hawaii resident pursuant to a tender offer or request or invitation for tenders. A "target company" is an issuer of publicly traded equity securities that is organized under the laws of Hawaii or has at least 20% of its equity securities beneficially held by Hawaii residents and has substantial assets in Hawaii. (Under this definition, the HCTA may apply to Hawaiian Holdings following the reorganization.)

The HCTA does not apply if the offer has been approved in writing by the board of directors of the target company, if the offeror is the issuer of the securities, if the offeror does not acquire more than 2% of any class of equity securities of the issuer during the preceding 12 month period, or if the offer involves an exchange of securities that is registered under (or exempt from) the HCTA. Under the HCTA, no offeror may acquire from any Hawaii resident equity securities of a target company at any time within two years following the last purchase of securities pursuant to a take-over offer with respect to the same class of securities, including but not limited to acquisitions made by purchase, exchange, merger, consolidation, partial or complete liquidation, redemption, reverse stock split, recapitalization, reorganization, or any other similar transaction, unless the holders of the equity securities are afforded, at the time of the acquisition, a reasonable opportunity to dispose of the securities to the offeror upon substantially equivalent terms as those provided in the earlier take-over offer. The HCTA requires that any person making a covered take-over offer file a registration statement with the Hawaii Commissioner of Securities.

Appraisal or Dissenters' Rights

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, shareholders of a corporation involved in a merger or consolidation have the right to demand and receive payment of the fair value of their stock in lieu of receiving the merger consideration, provided that these shareholders comply with the procedural requirements set forth under Delaware law for perfecting this right. However, appraisal rights are not available to holders of shares that are:

listed on a national securities exchange;

designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system operated by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

unless holders of such stock are required under the terms of the merger agreement to accept consideration in the reorganization other than any combination of:

shares of stock or depositary receipts of the surviving corporation in the reorganization; shares of stock or depositary receipts of another corporation that, at the effective date of the reorganization, will be either:

listed on a national securities exchange;

designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system operated by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; or held of record by more than 2,000 holders; or cash in lieu of fractional shares of stock or depositary receipts

Under Hawaii law, shareholders of a corporation involved in a merger or other specified extraordinary actions have a right to dissent from these actions, and obtain payment of the fair value of their shares, in lieu of receiving the reorganization consideration, provided that these shareholders comply with specified procedural requirements. See "Proposal Two: The Reorganization Rights of Dissenting Shareholders."

Shareholders have dissenters' rights under the HBCA with respect to the following corporate actions:

a merger if (a) shareholder approval of the action is required and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger or (b) the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under the HBCA;

a share exchange in which their shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the exchange;

a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the ordinary course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution (with specified exceptions); charter amendments that materially and adversely affect rights in respect of a dissenter's shares in certain specified respects;

a conversion to which the corporation is the converting entity if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the conversion; and actions pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, by-laws or a resolution of the board provides for the right to dissent.

received.

Shareholder Preemptive Rights

The DGCL provides that no shareholder shall have any preemptive rights to purchase additional securities of the corporation unless the certificate of incorporation expressly grants these rights. Hawaiian Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation will not provide for preemptive rights.

The HBCA provides that shareholders of a corporation do not have a preemptive right to acquire the corporation's unissued shares except to the extent the articles of incorporation so provide. The articles of incorporation of Hawaiian expressly denies preemptive rights other than such rights as the board in its discretion may grant. No such rights have been granted.

Inspection of Shareholder Lists

Delaware law allows any shareholder to inspect the stock ledger and the other books and records of a corporation for a purpose reasonably related to that person's interest as a shareholder. Hawaiian Holdings' amended by-laws will provide that the shareholder list will be available for inspection at least 10 days before every shareholders meeting.

The HBCA allows any shareholder to inspect the shareholders' list beginning two business days after notice of the meeting is given and continuing through the meeting. A shareholder or his or her agent or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and to copy the list, during regular business hours and at the shareholder's expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

Hawaii law also allows any shareholder to inspect the stock ledger and obtain a certified copy of anything in the ledger, provided that the shareholder pays a reasonable charge for the preparation of the certified transcript.

INFORMATION ABOUT HAWAIIAN

Overview

We are the largest airline headquartered in Hawaii, based on operating revenues of $611.6 million for 2001. We are engaged primarily in the scheduled transportation of passengers, cargo and mail. We were incorporated in January 1929 under the laws of the Territory of Hawaii. On average and depending on seasonality, we operate approximately 150 scheduled flights per day with:

daily service on our "transpacific" routes between Hawaii and Las Vegas, Nevada, the five key U.S. West Coast gateway cities of Los Angeles, San Diego and San Francisco, California, Seattle, Washington and Portland, Oregon and, beginning in 2002, Sacramento, California, Ontario, California and Phoenix, Arizona; daily service on our "interisland" routes among the six major islands of Hawaii; and weekly service on our "south pacific" routes as the sole direct provider of air transportation from Hawaii to each of Pago Pago, American Samoa, and Papeete, Tahiti.

We also provide charter service daily from Honolulu to Las Vegas and two to three times weekly from Honolulu to Anchorage, Alaska.

As of June 30, 2002, our operating fleet consisted of six Boeing 767-300ER aircraft, 13 Boeing 717-200 aircraft and 10 DC-10 aircraft. In 2001, we announced plans to replace all of our wide-body DC-10 aircraft utilized on the transpacific and south pacific routes with 16 Boeing 767-300ERs. Under this plan, we expect to take delivery in 2002 and 2003 of 10 additional Boeing 767-300ER aircraft. Upon completion of our fleet modernization plan in 2003, we expect to have one of the youngest fleets of any U.S. national or major carrier.

Additional information about Hawaiian is contained in Hawaiian's annual report to shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2001 and quarterly report on Form 10-Q/A for the quarter ended March 31, 2002 that accompany this proxy statement/prospectus and other documents

Recent Developments

Termination of Merger with Aloha and TurnWorks. On December 19, 2001, we entered into an agreement and plan of merger with Aloha Airgroup, Inc., TurnWorks Acquisition III, Inc. and TurnWorks, Inc., pursuant to which each of Hawaiian and Aloha agreed to become a wholly owned subsidiary of a new holding company and the existing shareholders of Hawaiian and Aloha would become, along with TurnWorks, shareholders of the new holding company. When it became clear that the April 18, 2002 outside date in our merger agreement with Aloha and TurnWorks would not be met, we were asked by TurnWorks to extend that date. After discussions with the other parties about potential revisions to the proposed merger as a condition to any extension, we decided and announced that we would not agree to an extension. Subsequently, Aloha and TurnWorks announced they would no longer pursue the proposed merger, and the parties effectively treated the merger agreement as terminated. To avoid any doubt on the matter, on April 18, 2002, we formally terminated the merger agreement, while reserving our position that the merger agreement had been effectively terminated prior to that date. Since then, Aloha has publicly stated that it may seek the payment of a $4 million fee from us arising from the termination of the merger agreement. To date, Aloha has neither made a formal request nor initiated legal action seeking the payment of a termination fee. We have no present intention to pay a termination fee to any party to the merger agreement, and believe that no termination fee is owed to any party under the terms of the merger agreement.

Stock Repurchase Program. On April 19, 2002, after the formal termination of the merger agreement, we began purchasing shares under the stock repurchase program that was authorized by our board of directors in March 2002. The program authorizes us to purchase up to 5 million shares of our common stock from time to time in the open market or privately negotiated transactions. Under this program, we purchased approximately 990,700 shares in open market transactions through May 7, 2002, when we terminated this repurchase program.

Tender Offer. On May 31, 2002, we commenced a tender offer to purchase for cash up to 5,880,000 shares of our own common stock at a price of $4.25 per share (which we refer to as the "offer"). This represents approximately 17.46% of the Hawaiian common stock outstanding on that date. The offer, which was oversubscribed, expired at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on June 27, 2002. According to the final count, 26,578,337 shares were tendered and not withdrawn. We accepted 5,880,000 properly tendered shares on a pro rata basis, with a proration factor of approximately 22.12%. Of these shares, we accepted for payment 4,022,415 shares from AIP, our majority shareholder. As a result, AIP beneficially owns 14,159,403 shares, or approximately 50.9%, of our common stock.

In addition, our board is required to nominate one outside director (an individual not employed by us or affiliated with AIP or any of our unions), and one director who is a senior management official.

All officers are appointed annually by our board of directors at their first meeting after the annual meeting of shareholders at which our board is elected and at subsequent meetings of our board or as directed by our amended by-laws or as delegated by our board.

Recent Developments Regarding Executive Management

Zoller, Jr., who had been with Hawaiian since December 1, 1999, and had been president and chief operating officer since January 30, 2001. On the same date, our board of directors changed Paul J. Casey's title to that of vice chairman, chief executive officer and president effective April 1, 2002. Also, on the same date, our board of directors promoted H. Norman Davies, Jr., who had been with Hawaiian since January 1997 from the position of vice president safety and security to the position of executive vice president operations.

On May 15, 2002, Paul J. Casey tendered his resignation as our vice chairman, chief executive officer and president and as a member of our board of directors. Mr. Casey was no longer one of our employees effective June 30, 2002. In connection with Mr. Casey's resignation, our board of directors nominated and elected John W. Adams, the chairman of our board of directors, to be our chief executive officer and president, effective as of May 17, 2002, until a successor is named.

Certain Matters Involving Directors and Executive Officers

Responsibilities of the Board; Meetings

Our board of directors has responsibility for the overall direction of our business and affairs, although it is not involved in day-to-day operations. Our board of directors and its committees establish corporate policy and make major decisions at their meetings. Our management keeps directors informed by providing them various reports and other information at meetings of our board of directors and its committees and at other times during the year. Regular meetings of our board of directors are held six times per year and other meetings are held when required. In 2001, our board of directors held twelve meetings, six of which were telephonic meetings and also acted by unanimous written consent. During 2001, each director attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the board and committees on which he or she served.

Compensation of Directors

During fiscal year 2001, nonemployee directors were each paid a $12,000 annual retainer fee, prorated on a monthly basis. In addition to the $12,000 annual retainer fee, nonemployee directors received a fee of $1,250 for each meeting of the board of directors attended (decreased to $625 for telephonic attendance) and a fee of $500 for each committee meeting attended. We provided travel to and from board meetings, as well as hotel accommodations, meals and ground transportation, as needed, for all directors. Mr. Adams, Mr. Casey, Mr. Morella and Ms. Soper, as employee directors, received only reimbursement for expenses incurred in attending meetings.

In addition to the standing board committees, on October 29, 2001, the board appointed the members of the audit committee to serve as a special committee to conduct an independent review of and to negotiate on behalf of the minority shareholders the terms of the merger agreement with Aloha and TurnWorks under which our operations and those of Aloha were to have been combined under a single holding entity. The executive committee authorized payment to the special committee of fees and reasonable business expenses as follows:

	Retainer	Monthly Retainer	In Person Meeting	Telephonic Meeting
Chairman	$ 30,000	$ 3,750	$ 3,750	$ 1,500
Members	20,000	2,500	2,500	1,000

The special committee met nine times during 2001 and earned the following fees for 2001 which were paid in January 2002: Mr. Cole $59,250; Mr. Hoar $38,500; and Mr. Weisfield $39,500. The committee continued through March 2002 and held one meeting in 2002. Fees for 2002 were paid as follows: Mr. Cole $20,250; Mr. Hoar $8,500; and Mr. Weisfield $8,500.

Nonemployee directors are eligible to receive stock options under the terms of the 1996 Nonemployee Director Stock Option Plan. At its discretion, the compensation committee of the board of directors, acting pursuant to that plan, can grant stock options to nonemployee directors under the terms of the plan. In 2001, no stock options were granted to nonemployee directors pursuant to the 1996 Nonemployee Director Stock Option Plan.

Indemnification Agreements

At the 1995 annual meeting of shareholders, the shareholders approved and authorized us to enter into indemnification agreements with all of our directors and officers, including all of the named executive officers. The agreements provide for mandatory indemnification of the director or officer (the "indemnitee") against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines, penalties and settlement amounts to the fullest extent permitted by law, subject to certain specified limitations and subject to the indemnitee meeting the applicable standard of conduct. To be entitled to indemnification in proceedings other than proceedings by us or in our right, the indemnitee must have acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to our best interests. For criminal proceedings, the director or officer must have had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct in question was unlawful and, if the director or officer is found guilty, a disinterested majority of the directors must find that (i) the indemnitee did not receive a pecuniary benefit to our detriment and (ii) under the circumstances, the indemnitee is entitled to indemnification. To be entitled to indemnification in proceedings by us or in our right, the indemnitee must have acted in good faith and in a manner he or she believed to be in or not opposed to our best interests and its shareholders, but no such indemnification may be made if the indemnitee is adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duties unless and to the extent that the court in which the proceeding was pending finds the indemnitee to be fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity. The indemnification agreements also provide that we will use our best efforts to maintain in force directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of our equity securities, to file with the SEC and with us initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of our common stock and other equity securities. Based upon the information supplied to us by these persons, we are required to report in this proxy statement/prospectus any known failure to file these reports within the specified period. To our knowledge, based upon a review of the Section 16(a) reports furnished to us and the written representations of our officers and directors, all these filing requirements were satisfied by our directors and executive officers for fiscal year 2001 with the exception of Reno F. Morella. Mr. Morella inadvertently failed to report shares distributed during 2001 to Mr. Morella's account held by Vanguard Fiduciary Trust Company, as Trustee, under the Hawaiian pilots' 401(k) plan. The required report was filed on February 13, 2002.

Standing Board Committees

During 2001, the standing committees of the board of directors consisted of the audit, compensation, executive, nominating, and pension investment committees.

The audit committee met six times during 2001. The responsibilities of the audit committee include recommending to the board the selection of our independent auditor and reviewing our internal accounting controls. The audit committee is authorized to conduct such reviews and examinations as it deems necessary or desirable with respect to our accounting and internal control practices and policies and our relationship with our independent auditors.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

The compensation committee met three times during 2001. The compensation committee focuses on executive compensation, the administration of our stock option plans and the granting of discretionary bonuses.

The executive committee met five times during 2001. The executive committee has the authority to act for the board of directors on most matters during the intervals between board meetings.

The nominating committee recommends to the board of directors candidates for election to directorships at annual meetings of shareholders. The nominating committee met once during 2001, to determine its slate of directors for recommendation to shareholders. The nominating committee will consider nominees for director recommended by our shareholders, subject to the applicable provisions of our amended by-laws described above. To make such a recommendation for consideration in connection with the 2003 annual meeting, a shareholder should submit the name of the proposed nominee and the proposed nominee's business background to our corporate secretary, at our principal executive office, by no later than December 31, 2002.

The pension investment committee oversees the investment management of our pension plans, including the Pension Plan for Employees Represented by the International Association of Machinists, the Pension Plan for Salaried Employees and the Retirement Plan for Pilots of Hawaiian Airlines, Inc. During 2001, the pension investment committee did not meet in person but regularly reviewed investment management by reviewing executive reports.

Employment Contracts; Termination of Employment and Change-In-Control Arrangements

We have entered into employment contracts with each of the named executive officers other than Mr. Adams. Except as described below, the agreements for the named executive officers, as amended to date, have substantially the same terms.

Each of the agreements specifies the officer's title and general duties and provides for a specified term of employment, which term varies as set forth in the table below and rolls forward on a monthly basis; i.e., on the first day of each month, the term of the agreement is extended for an additional month unless either party has given written notice to the other party that it does not wish the term to be extended. Each agreement provides for:

the officer's base salary (which is subject to annual review and may be increased in the sole discretion of the board of directors or as the board has designated);

the amount of any "signing bonus" or other special benefits; the eligibility of the officer to receive annual performance bonuses in the sole discretion of the compensation committee and/or the board of directors;

the right of the officer to participate in fringe benefit programs and benefit plans (such as stock option, pension, disability and life insurance and medical coverages) in accordance with the terms of those programs and benefits;

the right of the officer, and the officer's spouse and dependents, to travel benefits on Hawaiian flights;

the right of the officer to be included in our executive long-term disability insurance plan;

the right of the officer to be reimbursed for business expenses in accordance with our policies;

the right of the officer to receive an automobile allowance, a housing allowance, and reimbursement for club dues (which rights vary among the named executive officers with employment contracts); and the obligations of the officer to maintain the confidentiality of Hawaiian's information.

Certain of the contractual provisions that vary in the employment contracts of the four named executive officers are shown in the following table:

Name	Effective Date of Contract	Term (Mos.)	Salary Base ($)	Initial Bonus ($)	Special Other Features ($)	Signing Options
Paul J. Casey. ⁽¹⁾	04/14/97	36	325,000 ⁽²⁾	70,000		150,000
Robert W. Zoller, Jr. ⁽³⁾	12/01/99	24 ⁽⁴⁾	300,000 ⁽⁵⁾			100,000
Christine R. Deister	03/01/01	12 ⁽⁶⁾	250,000	75,000	80,000 ⁽⁷⁾⁽⁸⁾	200,000
John B. Happ	12/15/97	18	225,000		50,000 ⁽⁸⁾

(1) Mr. Casey was no longer our vice chairman, chief executive officer and president as of May 17, 2002 and was no longer employed with Hawaiian as of June 30, 2002.

(2) Mr. Casey's base salary was increased to $375,000 as of February 1, 2002.

(3) Mr. Zoller was no longer employed with Hawaiian as of April 15, 2002.

(4) The term of Mr. Zoller's employment agreement increased from 12 months to 24 months on December 1, 2001, the second anniversary of the effective date of his employment agreement.

(5) Mr. Zoller's base salary was increased to $300,000 effective as of January 31, 2001.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

The term of Ms. Deister's employment agreement will increase to 24 months on the second anniversary of the effective date of her employment agreement and will increase to 18 months upon a change of control before the second anniversary of the effective date.

(7) Lump sum payment of $30,000 towards temporary living expenses.

(8) Relocation allowance up to $50,000.

74

There are also certain differences in the termination provisions in the employment agreements of the named executive officers. All of the agreements provide for termination:

immediately upon the officer's death;

at our election, if the officer is unable to perform his or her duties as a result of a medical or physical incapacity for 120 days in any consecutive 7-month period;

at any time by us for "cause" (as defined in the agreements); and at any time by us without cause.

In addition, the employment agreements with Mr. Casey and Mr. Zoller provided, and the employment agreement with Ms. Deister provides, that each may be terminated by the officer for "good reason" (which includes certain transactions that involve changes in control, a material change in the officer's duties, a material breach by us of the agreement, the failure by us to provide incentive compensation and benefit plans comparable to those in effect at the time the agreement was entered into and the relocation of our principal executive offices outside the Honolulu area). If the officer's employment is terminated by death or by reason of disability, the officer (or his or her beneficiaries) is entitled to benefits in accordance with our retirement, insurance and other programs and plans then in effect. If the officer's employment is terminated by us other than for cause, or in the case of Mr. Casey, Mr. Zoller and Ms. Deister, by such officer for good reason, then such officer is entitled to receive:

any base salary accrued but unpaid prior to the termination date; and the continued payment of the officer's base salary and fringe benefits for a period after the termination date that is equal to the term of the officer's employment agreement as discussed above.

Finally, the agreements provide that an officer terminated for cause is not entitled to continuation of the officer's base salary or other benefits after the termination date.

On June 30, 2000, the compensation committee authorized amendments of employment agreements with and certain agreements granting options to specified officers to provide that, for those of the specified officers who continue to be employed by Hawaiian, in the event a change of control in ownership of Hawaiian occurs before June 30, 2003:

all stock options granted to such officers prior to and on June 30, 2000 would accelerate and become fully vested; and the exercise price of any unexercised options previously granted to such officers and having a higher exercise price than the market price of the stock on June 30, 2000 would then be "reset" to the market price on June 30, 2000.

As of January 31, 2001, the employment agreement for Mr. Casey was amended to change his title and responsibilities.

We entered into a release and separation agreement with John L. Garibaldi, which became effective on July 14, 2000. Under this agreement, we are obligated to pay Mr. Garibaldi his former base salary of $245,000 per year plus the average of his three previous annual performance bonuses, or $13,333.34, in semi-monthly installments until July 14, 2002, and to provide specified fringe benefits to Mr. Garibaldi through July 14, 2002. In addition, we agreed to extend the deadline for his ability to exercise his options to acquire 300,000 shares of our common stock until July 14, 2006 and to accelerate the vesting of options to acquire 200,000 of these shares. he might have had arising out of his employment with or separation from us.

Under this agreement, we are obligated to pay Mr. Zoller his former base salary of $300,000 per year in semi-monthly installments until April 20, 2004, and to provide specified fringe benefits to Mr. Zoller through April 15, 2006. In addition, the agreement provides that his options to acquire 300,000 shares of our common stock would be fully vested on April 15, 2002 and that these options would terminate on April 15, 2004. In consideration, Mr. Zoller agreed to release us from any claims that he might have had arising out of his employment with us, but did not release any claims that may arise from or that are related to this agreement, and agreed that until April 14, 2003 he would not generally be involved with an entity that competes with us in providing interisland passenger or freight services.

Compensation Committee Report

The compensation committee of the board of directors of Hawaiian is charged with making compensation recommendations to the full board of directors for Hawaiian's executive officers at the vice president level and above, along with recommendations for bonuses, deferred compensation and stock option plans. The compensation committee also has authority to grant awards under and to administer the 1994 Stock Option Plan and the 1996 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended.

In determining executive compensation, the compensation committee reviews such general factors as profitability, operational integrity and customer satisfaction, and takes into consideration the executives' accomplishment of specific projects, which for the executive officers in 2001 included induction of two new aircraft types (Boeing 717-200s replacing DC9-51s for the inter-island fleet and Boeing 767-300ERs replacing DC-10 aircraft for the transpacific and southpacific routes), renegotiation of the collective bargaining agreements with Hawaiian's major unions, and response to the events of September 11, 2001 and the resulting operational and security requirements affecting the entire industry.

Principal Components of Executive Compensation

Components of executive compensation include annual base salary, specific contract provisions that vary per officer (including term, benefits and fringes), incentive bonuses, and grants of options under Hawaiian's option plans. The annual base salary for an executive officer is generally negotiated at the beginning of employment and reviewed on a regular basis in comparison to industry compensation levels, the need to attract talented executives to Hawaii and the performance objectives listed in the previous section. The award of bonuses is generally related to achievement of performance objectives. The grant of options is generally incentive based related to individual performance and to the profitability of Hawaiian. Stock option awards for 2001 were in recognition of newly assumed executive positions and responsibilities for Mr. Adams, Mr. Zoller and Ms. Deister, as reported elsewhere herein.

As described under the caption " Employment Contracts; Termination of Employment and Change-in-Control Arrangements," the named executive officers except for Mr. Adams have employment contracts with Hawaiian which set forth their base salaries and other compensation arrangements and provide that their compensation levels are subject to annual review and possible increases in the sole discretion of the board of directors of Hawaiian.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Casey's compensation determination for 2001 included the review of several factors, including Mr. Casey's leadership as Hawaiian negotiated its collective bargaining agreements, inducted new aircraft, and expanded to new routes. However, Hawaiian's expansion efforts and profitability were greatly affected by the events of September 11, 2001 and their subsequent effect on the air transportation industry. In response to these events, Mr. Casey and executive management took immediate measures to curtail losses, reduce routes and review expansion and other plans, including negotiation of a merger transaction which was projected to provide long-term benefits to Hawaiian. Mr. Casey and executive management were not awarded bonuses or granted stock options for 2001 but Mr. Casey's performance was recognized by an increase in his base salary to $375,000 effective February 1, 2002.

2001 Actions of the Compensation Committee

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

On December 21, 2000, the compensation committee reviewed the background and credentials of Christine R. Deister for the position of executive vice president, chief financial officer and treasurer and approved effective March 1, 2001, compensation for Ms. Deister, including a base salary of $250,000, a rolling 12-month contract which will increase to 24 months after two years and other benefits. In addition, the compensation committee authorized the grant to Ms. Deister of options to purchase 200,000 shares of Hawaiian common stock on the first day of employment at an exercise price equal to the market value on said date.

On January 31, 2001, by action of the board of directors of Hawaiian, Mr. Casey was named vice chairman and chief executive officer and Mr. Zoller was named president and chief operating officer. On February 23, 2001, the compensation committee authorized an increase in base salary for Mr. Zoller from $230,000 to $300,000 effective January 31, 2001 and granted to Mr. Zoller options to purchase 100,000 shares of Hawaiian common stock at the market price on said date. Further, the compensation committee authorized an increase in Mr. Adams' annual base salary from $200,000 to $400,000 effective January 31, 2001 and recommended to the board that the board grant to Mr. Adams options to purchase 200,000 shares of Hawaiian common stock at the market price on said date of grant, which was February 23, 2001.

Audit Committee Report

The audit committee of the board of directors is responsible for overseeing management's financial reporting practices and internal controls. Listing standards of the AMEX require that all AMEX-listed companies have audit committees composed of three outside directors. Hawaiian's audit committee is composed of three outside directors, all of whom meets the independence requirements of the applicable AMEX-listing standards.

The audit committee acts under a written charter that was adopted by our board of directors effective June 15, 2000 and was attached as Exhibit A to Hawaiian's 2001 proxy statement. This audit committee charter was reviewed and reaffirmed on July 25, 2001 by the audit committee.

In connection with the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, the audit committee has:

Reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and with representatives of Ernst & Young LLP, Hawaiian's independent auditors;

Discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees); and Received from the independent auditors the disclosures regarding Ernst & Young LLP's independence as required by Independence Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), discussed with Ernst & Young LLP their independence and considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with said auditors' independence.

The following fees have been billed to Hawaiian by Ernst & Young LLP for services rendered during or related to 2001:

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

Audit Fees: Fees for the annual audit for fiscal year 2001 and review of the fiscal year 2001 Form 10-Qs and Form 10-K were $344,000.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees: No fees for financial information systems design and implementation were paid to Ernst & Young LLP during 2001.

Non-Audit Fees: Fees for all other services rendered by the auditor during 2001 included $677,371 for audit-related services (including due diligence and registration statement-related services, as further discussed below, and audits of employee benefit plans and airport passenger facilities charges) and $110,739 for tax services, for a total of $788,110.

Included in non-audit fees are fees for services related to the merger involving Hawaiian, Aloha and TurnWorks totaling $509,037, which included due diligence review of the parties to the merger and preparation of the Form S-4 joint proxy statement/prospectus related to the merger involving Hawaiian, Aloha and TurnWorks. This amount constitutes Hawaiian's 50% portion of the total fees for the services relating to this merger.

The audit committee has reviewed the foregoing fees billed by Ernst & Young LLP and has concluded that the provision of non-audit services did not impact negatively upon the maintenance of the auditor's independence.

Based on these actions, the audit committee has recommended to the board of directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, as filed with the SEC.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this "Agreement"), dated as of May 2, 2002, by and among Hawaiian Airlines, Inc., a Hawaii corporation ("Hawaiian"), Hawaiian Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Hawaiian ("Hawaiian Holdings"), and HA Sub Inc., a Hawaii corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings ("Merger Sub").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of Hawaiian Holdings, Hawaiian and Merger Sub have each approved and adopted this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements (as defined below) to which it is a party and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and such Ancillary Agreements, including, without limitation, the reorganization of Hawaiian into a Delaware holding company structure, in each case after making a determination that this Agreement and such Ancillary Agreements and such transactions are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, such corporation and its shareholders;

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of Hawaiian, by resolutions adopted at the April 26, 2002 meeting of such Board of Directors, has deemed the Merger (as defined below) to be an "Approved Section 13(a) Transaction" and deemed AIP Inc. (as defined below) not to be an "Acquiring Person," in each case, under the Rights Agreement, dated December 23, 1994, by and between Hawaiian and ChaseMellon Shareholder Services, L.L.C. (as successor to Chemical Trust Company of California) (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Rights Agreement");

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Holdings, in its capacity as the sole shareholder of Merger Sub has adopted and approved this Agreement;

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Holdings, AIP Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings ("AIP Merger Sub"), AIP General Partner, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("AIP GP") (which is the sole general partner of Airline Investors Partnership, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership and the majority shareholder of Hawaiian ("AIP")), and AIP, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("AIP Inc.") (which is the sole limited partner of AIP), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "AIP Merger Agreement"), dated as of the date hereof, pursuant to which, inter alia, (a) prior to the effective time of the AIP Mergers (as defined below), (i) the shareholders of each of AIP GP and AIP Inc. will contribute all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of AIP GP and AIP Inc. to AIP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("AIP LLC") and become the sole holders of membership interests of AIP LLC and (ii) as permitted by Section 4(a)(i)a) of the Designation of the Hawaiian Series B Special Preferred Stock (as defined below), AIP will transfer the four shares of Hawaiian Series B Special Preferred Stock (as defined below) that it holds to AIP's affiliate, John W. Adams; and (b) prior to the Effective Time (as defined below), (i) AIP GP will merge with and into AIP Inc., with AIP Inc. as the surviving corporation (the "First AIP Merger"), as a result of which AIP Inc. will hold all of the partnership interests in AIP and AIP will therefore cease to exist, with AIP Inc. thereby becoming the direct holder of all of the shares of Hawaiian Common Stock (as defined below) held by AIP immediately prior thereto, (ii) immediately after the First AIP Merger, AIP Merger Sub will merge with and into AIP Inc., with AIP Inc. as the surviving corporation (the "Second AIP Merger" and, together with the First AIP Merger, the "AIP Mergers"), and (iii) pursuant to the Second AIP Merger, AIP LLC will have its shares of AIP Inc. converted into the right to receive a number of shares of Hawaiian Holdings Common Stock (as defined below) equal to the number of shares of Hawaiian Common Stock held by AIP immediately prior to the AIP Mergers;

WHEREAS, at the Effective Time, pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, inter alia, (i) Merger Sub, in accordance with the Hawaii Business Corporation Act (as amended from time to time, the "HBCA"), will merge with and into Hawaiian, with Hawaiian as the surviving corporation (the "Merger" and, together with the Second AIP Merger, the "Reorganization"), (ii) each share of Hawaiian Common Stock (other than such shares held by AIP Inc., which shares shall continue to be outstanding and held by AIP Inc. as a wholly owned subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings) will be converted into the right to receive one share of Hawaiian Holdings Common Stock, (iii) each share of Hawaiian Special Preferred Stock (as defined below) will be converted into the right to receive one share of Hawaiian Holdings Common Stock, and (iv) each share of Hawaiian Holdings Common Stock held by Hawaiian (being the 100 shares issued upon the formation of Hawaiian Holdings) will be canceled;

WHEREAS, immediately after the Effective Time, Hawaiian Holdings and AIP LLC will enter into a Registration Rights Agreement, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A to the AIP Merger Agreement, and a Joinder to the Stockholders Agreement, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit B to the AIP Merger Agreement (collectively, with the AIP Merger Agreement, the "Ancillary Agreements");

WHEREAS, the consummation of the Merger requires, among other things, the approval of this Agreement by the affirmative vote of (i) 75% of the outstanding shares of Hawaiian Common Stock and Hawaiian Special Preferred Stock, voting as a single voting group and (ii) a majority of the outstanding shares of Hawaiian Special Preferred Stock represented at the Annual Meeting (as defined below), voting as a single voting group (collectively, the "Hawaiian Shareholder Approval"); and

WHEREAS, it is the intention of the parties hereto that the Reorganization shall be a tax-free transaction under Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

NOW, THEREFORE, in furtherance of the foregoing, the parties agree as follows:

The effects and the consequences of the Merger shall be as set forth in this Agreement and the HBCA.

Section 1.2 Effective Time. (a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, as soon as practicable following the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Section 3.1, the parties shall duly prepare, execute and file articles of merger (the "Articles of Merger") complying with Section 414-315 of the HBCA with the Director of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs of the State of Hawaii. Section 1.3 Organizational Documents. (a) The parties shall cause (i) the Certificate of Incorporation of Hawaiian Holdings to be amended and restated to be in the form set forth in Exhibit A hereto and (ii) the Bylaws of Hawaiian Holdings to be amended and restated to be in the form set forth in Exhibit B hereto, in each case as of immediately prior to the effective time of the AIP Mergers. As so amended and restated, the Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws of Hawaiian Holdings shall be the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Hawaiian Holdings until thereafter changed or amended either (A) as provided therein or by the Delaware General Corporation Law (as amended from time to time, the "DGCL"), in the case of such Certificate of Incorporation, or (B) as provided therein, by the Certificate of Incorporation or by the DGCL, in the case of such Bylaws.

(b) The Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of Merger Sub in effect at the Effective Time shall become the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided therein or by the HBCA; provided, however, that Article I of such Articles of Incorporation shall provide that the name of the Surviving Corporation shall be "Hawaiian Airlines, Inc."

Section 1.4 Directors. The directors of Hawaiian immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors of each of Hawaiian Holdings and the Surviving Corporation from and after the Effective Time and shall hold office until the earlier of their respective death, resignation or removal or their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified in the manner provided for in the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Hawaiian Holdings, or as otherwise provided by the DGCL (in the case of the directors of Hawaiian Holdings), and in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, or as otherwise provided by the HBCA (in the case of the directors of the Surviving Corporation).

The registered owner on the books and records of Hawaiian Holdings or its transfer agent of any outstanding stock certificate shall, until such certificate shall have been surrendered for transfer or otherwise accounted for to Hawaiian Holdings or its transfer agent, have and be entitled to exercise any voting and other rights with respect to, and to receive any dividends and other distributions upon, the shares of Hawaiian Holdings Common Stock evidenced by such outstanding certificates which prior to the Merger represented shares of Hawaiian Common Stock and Special Preferred Stock as provided above.

Each share of Series A Special Preferred Stock shall be converted into one (1) share of Common Stock automatically if the holder (together with all Affiliates of such holder) of Series A Special Preferred Stock is or becomes at any time the holder of less than 5% of the "outstanding common equity interest" of the Corporation for a period of 365 consecutive days. "Outstanding common equity interest" shall mean, at any time, the issued and outstanding Common Stock at such time, Common Stock issuable upon exercise, conversion or exchange of outstanding warrants, stock options or convertible stock, or other securities exercisable, convertible or exchangeable into Common Stock (without taking into effect any anti-dilution provision in such securities), as adjusted to reflect prior stock splits, reclassifications and similar events.

The holder of the converted share or shares of Special Preferred Stock shall be deemed to have become a stockholder of record of the Common Stock on the applicable Conversion Date. On the applicable Conversion Date or as soon as practicable thereafter, any holder of a certificate that, prior to conversion represented a share of Special Preferred Stock must deliver such certificate to the Corporation during regular business hours at the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place as may be designated in writing delivered to the holder of such certificate by the Corporation, duly endorsed for Transfer to the Corporation (if required by it), accompanied by written notice identifying such Transferee who is not an Affiliate, Transferee or other holder, as the case may be. II-5 which would be payable on all such series of Preferred Stock, if all remaining liquidating amounts payable were paid in full and nothing shall be paid to the holders of any other class of stock junior to the Special Preferred Stock. Neither a consolidation nor merger of the Corporation with or into one or more corporations, nor a sale of all or a substantial part of the assets of the Corporation, shall be deemed to be a liquidation, dissolution or winding up within the meaning of this Section 6 unless such consolidation, merger or sale shall be in connection with a plan of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the business of the Corporation or shall otherwise be deemed as such by law.

SECTION 7. Consolidation, Merger, Etc. In the event that the Corporation shall enter into any consolidation, merger, combination or other transaction in which the shares of Common Stock are exchanged for or changed into other stock or securities, cash and/or any other property, or otherwise changed, then and in each such event, all shares of Special Preferred Stock shall at the same time, subject to the limitations of and in the manner provided by law, be similarly exchanged or changed in an amount per share equal to the aggregate amount of stock, securities, cash and/or any other property (payable in kind), as the case may be, into which or for which each share of Common Stock is changed or exchanged.

SECTION 8. No Redemption. The shares of Special Preferred Stock shall not be redeemable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation may acquire shares of Special Preferred Stock in any other manner permitted by law or this Certificate of Incorporation.

SECTION 9. Rank. With regard to rights to receive distributions upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the Special Preferred Stock shall rank (i) senior to the Common Stock of the Corporation, (ii) senior to any series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation the terms of which specifically provide that such series shall rank junior to the Special Preferred Stock, (iii) junior to any series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation the terms of which specifically provide that such series shall rank senior to the Special Preferred Stock, and (iv) pari passu with each other and with any series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation the terms of which do not specifically provide that such series shall rank junior or senior to the Special Preferred Stock.

SECTION 10. Preemptive Rights. No holder of the shares of Special Preferred Stock shall have any preemptive or preferential rights of subscription for or to purchase any shares of any class of stock or other securities of the Corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, other than such right or rights, if any, and upon such terms and at such prices as the Board of Directors, in its discretion from time to time may determine. The Board of Directors may issue shares of Special Preferred Stock or other securities without offering the same in whole or in part to the stockholders of the Corporation.

D. Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

SECTION 1. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Certificate of Incorporation (including, without limitation, Part C of this Article III or any certificate filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware establishing the terms of a series of Preferred Stock in accordance with Part B of this Article III) or by applicable law, each holder of Common Stock, as such, shall be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held of record by such holder on all matters on which stockholders generally are entitled to vote, and no holder of any series of Preferred Stock, as such, shall be entitled to any voting powers in respect thereof.

SECTION 2. Subject to applicable law and the rights, if any, of the holders of any outstanding series of Preferred Stock, dividends may be declared and paid on the Common Stock at such times and in such amounts as the Board of Directors in its discretion shall determine.

II-6

SECTION 3. Upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, subject to the rights, if any, of the holders of any outstanding series of Preferred Stock, the holders of the Common Stock shall be entitled to receive the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders ratably in proportion to the number of shares held by them.

E. Restriction on Foreign Ownership of Voting Stock.

The ownership or control of more than 25% of the issued and outstanding Voting Stock of the Corporation by persons who are not "citizens of the United States" as defined in Section 40102(a)(15) of the Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. Section 40101, ET SEQ., (the "Transportation Act") is prohibited; provided, however, that such percentage shall be deemed to be automatically increased or decreased from time to time to that percentage of ownership which is then permissible by persons who are not "citizens of the United States" under the Transportation Act or under any successor or other law of the United States of America which provides for the regulation of, or is otherwise applicable to, the Corporation or its subsidiaries in their business activities. A transfer of shares of Voting Stock of the Corporation to a Foreigner shall not be valid, except between the parties to the transfer, until the transfer shall have been recorded on the Foreign Stock Record of the Corporation as provided in this Part E of Article III. The "Foreign Stock Record" shall mean a record maintained by the Secretary which shall record the date of a transfer to a Foreigner, the parties to the transfer and the number and description of the shares of Voting Stock transferred to a Foreigner. At no time shall ownership or control of shares representing more than 25% of the Corporation's Voting Stock be registered on the Foreign Stock Record. If at any time the Corporation shall determine that shares of Voting Stock are owned or controlled by Foreigners who are not registered on the Foreign Stock Record, the registration of such shares shall, subject to the limitation in the preceding sentence, be made in chronological order in the Foreign Stock Record, based on the date of the Corporation's finding of ownership or control of such shares by a Foreigner. If at any time the Corporation shall determine that the number of shares of Voting Stock purportedly registered on the Foreign Stock Record exceeds 25% of the total number of shares of Voting Stock, sufficient shares shall be removed from the Foreign Stock Record in reverse chronological order so that the number of shares of Voting Stock registered on the Foreign Stock Record does not exceed 25% of the total number of shares of Voting Stock. At no time shall shares of Voting Stock known by the Corporation to be owned or controlled by Foreigners and not registered on the Foreign Stock Record be entitled to vote until so registered. All shares of Voting Stock known to the Corporation to be owned by Foreigners as of the date of the adoption of this Part E of Article III shall be registered on the Foreign Stock Record. The shares registered on the Foreign Stock Record pursuant to the preceding sentence have chronological priority over any subsequent request for the registration of additional shares of Voting Stock on the Foreign Stock Record. As used in this Part E of Article III, "Foreigner" means any person who is not a "citizen of the United States" as defined in Section 40102(a)(15) of the Transportation Act. As used in this Part E of Article III and elsewhere in this Certificate of Incorporation, "Voting Stock" of the Corporation means the Common Stock and any shares of Preferred Stock of the Corporation entitled to vote on matters generally referred to the stockholders for a vote.

Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, except as otherwise provided in Section 3 of this Article VI, the Corporation shall be required to indemnify a Covered Person in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) commenced by such Covered Person only if the commencement of such Proceeding (or part thereof) by the Covered Person was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

SECTION 2. Prepayment of Expenses. The Corporation shall pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Covered Person in defending any Proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided, however, that, to the extent required by applicable law, such payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by the Covered Person to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article VI or otherwise.

SECTION 3. Claims. If a claim for indemnification or advancement of expenses under this Article VI is not paid in full within thirty (30) days after a written claim therefor by the Covered Person has been received by the Corporation, the Covered Person may file suit to recover the unpaid amount of such claim and, if successful in whole or in part, shall be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such claim. In any such action the Corporation shall have the burden of proving that the Covered Person is not entitled to the requested indemnification or advancement of expenses under applicable law.

SECTION 4. Nonexclusivity of Rights. The rights conferred on any Covered Person by this Article VI shall not be exclusive of any other rights that such Covered Person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of this Certificate of Incorporation, the By-laws of the Corporation, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors of the Corporation or otherwise.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

SECTION 6. Amendment or Repeal. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing provisions of this Article VI shall not adversely affect any right or protection hereunder of any Covered Person in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

SECTION 7. Other Indemnification and Prepayment of Expenses. This Article VI shall not limit the right of the Corporation, to the extent and in the manner permitted by applicable law, to indemnify and to advance expenses to persons other than Covered Persons when and as authorized by appropriate corporate action.

ARTICLE VII.

NO ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT

Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock, including the Special Preferred Stock, any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation and may not be effected by any consent in writing by such stockholders. STOCKHOLDERS

- 2.1 Place of Meetings. Every meeting of Stockholders may be held at such place, within or without the State of Delaware, as may be designated by resolution of the Board from time to time.
- 2.2 Annual Meeting. If required by applicable law, a meeting of Stockholders shall be held annually for the election of Directors at such date and time as may be designated by resolution of the Board from time to time. Any other business may be transacted at the annual meeting.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS INC - Form 424B3

2.3 Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by applicable law or except as expressly provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, special meetings of Stockholders may be called at any time by the Board or the Chairman and may not be called by any other person or persons. Business transacted at any special meeting of Stockholders shall be limited to the purpose stated in the notice.

2.4 Fixing Record Date. For the purpose of (i) determining the Stockholders entitled (A) to notice of or to vote at any meeting of Stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or (B) to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or (ii) any other lawful action, the Board may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date was adopted by the Board and which record date, unless otherwise required by applicable law, shall not be (x) in the case of clause (i)(A) above, more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, and (y) in the case of clause (i)(B) or (ii) above, more than sixty (60) days prior to such action. If no such record date is fixed:

(a) the record date for determining Stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of Stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held; and

(b) the record date for determining Stockholders for any purpose other than those specified in Section 2.4(a) shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto.

When a determination of Stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of Stockholders has been made as provided in this Section 2.4, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof unless the Board fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

2.5 Notice of Meetings of Stockholders. Whenever under the provisions of applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws, Stockholders are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, notice shall be given stating the place, if any, date and hour of the meeting, the means of remote communication, if any, by which Stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Unless otherwise provided by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws, notice of any meeting shall be given, not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, to each Stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail, with postage prepaid, directed to the Stockholder at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Corporation. An affidavit of the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or of the transfer agent of the Corporation that the notice required by this Section 2.5 has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. Any meeting of Stockholders, annual or special, may adjourn from time to time to reconvene at the same or some other place. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and at the adjourned meeting any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. If, however, the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each Stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

2.6 Waivers of Notice. Whenever the giving of any notice to Stockholders is required by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws, a waiver thereof, given by the person entitled to said notice, whether before or after the event as to which such notice is required, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance by a Stockholder at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except when the Stockholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting has not been lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Stockholders need be specified in any waiver of notice unless so required by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws.

2.7 List of Stockholders. The Secretary shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of Stockholders, a complete list of the Stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each Stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each Stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any Stockholder, the Stockholder's agent, or attorney, at the Stockholder's expense, for any purpose germane to the meeting, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, during ordinary business hours at the principal place of business of the Corporation, or on a reasonably accessible electronic network as provided by applicable law. If the meeting is to be held at a place, the list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any Stockholder who is present. If the meeting is held solely by means of remote communication, the list shall also be open for examination as provided by applicable law. Upon the willful neglect or refusal of the Directors to produce such a list at any meeting for the election of Directors, they shall be ineligible for election to any office at such meeting. Except as provided by applicable law, the stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to who are the Stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list of Stockholders or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of Stockholders.

2.8 Quorum of Stockholders; Adjournment. Except as otherwise provided by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws, at each meeting of Stockholders, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of all outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at the meeting of Stockholders shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business at such meeting. In the absence of a quorum, the holders of a majority of the shares of stock present in person or represented by proxy at any meeting of Stockholders, including an adjourned meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn such meeting to another time and place. Shares of its own stock belonging to the Corporation or to another corporation, if a majority of the shares entitled to vote in the election of directors of such other corporation is held, directly or indirectly, by the Corporation, shall neither be entitled to vote nor be counted for quorum purposes; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not limit the right of the Corporation to vote stock, including but not limited to its own stock, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

2.9 Voting; Proxies. Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, any Stockholder entitled to vote at any meeting of Stockholders shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by such Stockholder which has voting power upon the matter in question. If the Certificate of Incorporation provides for more or less than one vote for any share on any matter, each reference in the By-laws or the General Corporation Law to a majority or other proportion of stock shall refer to such majority or other proportion of the votes of such stock. The provisions of Sections 212 and 217 of the General Corporation Law shall apply in determining whether any shares of capital stock may be voted and the persons, if any, entitled to vote such shares; but the Corporation shall be protected in assuming that the persons in whose names shares of capital stock stand on the stock ledger of the Corporation are entitled to vote such shares. At any meeting of Stockholders (at which a quorum was present to organize the meeting), all matters, except as otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation, these By-laws, the rules and regulations of any stock exchange applicable to the Corporation, applicable law, or pursuant to any rules or regulations applicable to the Corporation or its securities, shall be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority in voting power of shares of stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon. At all meetings of Stockholders for the election of Directors, except as otherwise required by the Certificate of Incorporation, these By-laws or applicable law, a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares entitled to vote in the election shall be sufficient to elect such Directors. Except as otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation, each Stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of Stockholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for such Stockholder by proxy but no such proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. A proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power. A Stockholder may revoke any proxy that is not irrevocable by attending the meeting and voting in person or by delivering to the Secretary a revocation of the proxy or by delivering a new proxy in accordance with applicable law bearing a later date.

2.10 Voting Procedures and Inspectors of Election at Meetings of Stockholders. The Board, in advance of any meeting of Stockholders, may and shall if required by applicable law, appoint one or more inspectors, who may be employees of the Corporation, to act at the meeting and make a written report thereof. The Board may designate one or more persons as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. If no inspector or alternate is able to act at a meeting, the person presiding at the meeting may, and shall if required by applicable law, appoint, one or more inspectors to act at the meeting. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability. The inspectors shall (a) ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, (b) determine the shares represented at the meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots, (c) count all votes and ballots, (d) determine and retain for a reasonable period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors, and

(e) certify their determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting and their count of all votes and ballots. The inspectors may appoint or retain other persons or entities to assist the inspectors in the performance of their duties. Unless otherwise provided by the Board, the date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the Stockholders will vote at a meeting shall be determined by the person presiding at the meeting and shall be announced at the meeting. No ballot, proxies or votes, or any revocation thereof or change thereto, shall be accepted by the inspectors after the closing of the polls unless the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware upon application by a Stockholder shall determine otherwise. In determining the validity and counting of proxies and ballots cast at any meeting of Stockholders, the inspectors may consider such information as is permitted by applicable law. No person who is a candidate for office at an election may serve as an inspector at such election.

2.11 Conduct of Meetings; Organization. The Board may adopt by resolution such rules and regulations for the conduct of the meeting of Stockholders as it shall deem appropriate. At each meeting of Stockholders, the Chairman, or if there is no Chairman or if there be one and the Chairman is absent, the Chief Executive Officer, or if there is no Chief Executive Officer or if there be one and the Chief Executive Officer is absent, the President, or if there is no President or if there be one and the President is absent, a Vice President, and in case more than one Vice President shall be present, that Vice President designated by the Board (or in the absence of any such designation, the most senior Vice President, based on age, present), shall preside over the meeting. Except to the extent inconsistent with such rules and regulations as adopted by the Board, the person presiding over any meeting of Stockholders shall have the right and authority to convene and to adjourn the meeting, to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts as, in the judgment of such person, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting. Such rules, regulations or procedures, whether adopted by the Board or prescribed by the presiding officer of the meeting, may include, without limitation, the following: (i) the establishment of an agenda or order of business for the meeting; (ii) rules and procedures for maintaining order at the meeting and the safety of those present; (iii) limitations on attendance at or participation in the meeting to Stockholders of record of the Corporation, their duly authorized and constituted proxies or such other persons as the person presiding over the meeting shall determine; (iv) restrictions on entry to the meeting after the time fixed for the commencement thereof; and (v) limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments by participants. The presiding officer at any meeting of Stockholders, in addition to making any other determinations that may be appropriate to the conduct of the meeting, shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a matter or business was not properly brought before the meeting and if such presiding officer should so determine, such person shall so declare to the meeting and any such matter or business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted or considered. Unless and to the extent determined by the Board or the person presiding over the meeting, meetings of Stockholders shall not be required to be held in accordance with the rules of parliamentary procedure. The Secretary, or in his or her absence, one of the Assistant Secretaries, shall act as secretary of the meeting. In case none of the officers above designated to act as the person presiding over the meeting or as secretary of the meeting, respectively, shall be present, a person presiding over the meeting or a secretary of the meeting, as the case may be, shall be designated by the Board, and in case the Board has not so acted, in the case of the designation of a person to act as secretary of the meeting, designated by the person presiding over the meeting.

2.12 Order of Business. The order of business at all meetings of Stockholders shall be as determined by the person presiding over the meeting.

2.13 Notice of Stockholder Business and Nominations.

(a) Annual Meetings of Stockholders. (i) Nominations of persons for election to the Board and the proposal of business to be considered by the Stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of Stockholders only (A) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto), (B) by or at the direction of the Board or (C) by any Stockholder of the Corporation who was a Stockholder of record of the Corporation at the time the notice provided for in this Section 2.13 is delivered to the Secretary and who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 2.13.

(ii) For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a Stockholder pursuant to clause (C) of paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 2.13, such Stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary and any such proposed business other than the nominations of persons for election to the Board must constitute a proper matter for Stockholder action. To be timely, a Stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the ninetieth (90th) day nor earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth (120th) day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting (provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than thirty (30) days before or more than seventy (70) days after such anniversary date, notice by such Stockholder must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth (120th) day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth (90th) day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth (10th) day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the Corporation). In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a Stockholder's notice as described above. Such Stockholder's notice shall set forth: (A) as to each person whom such Stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a Director (I) all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of Directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act and (II) such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected; (B) as to any other business that such Stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the text of the proposal or business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and in the event that such business includes a proposal to amend the By-laws, the language of the proposed amendment), the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such Stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (C) as to the Stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made (I) the name and address of such Stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner, (II) the class and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such Stockholder and such beneficial owner, (III) a representation that such Stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such business or nomination, and (IV) a representation whether such Stockholder or the beneficial owner, if any, intends or is part of a group which intends (x) to deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the Corporation's outstanding capital stock required to approve or adopt the proposal or elect the nominee and/or (y) otherwise to solicit proxies from Stockholders in support of such proposal or nomination. The foregoing notice requirements shall be deemed satisfied by a Stockholder if the Stockholder has notified the Corporation of his or her intention to present a proposal at an annual meeting in compliance with Rule 14a-8 (or any successor thereof) promulgated under the Exchange Act and such Stockholder's proposal has been included in a proxy statement that has been prepared by the Corporation to solicit proxies for such annual meeting. The Corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as it may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a Director of the Corporation.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 2.13 to the contrary, in the event that the number of Directors to be elected to the Board at an annual meeting is increased and there is no public announcement by the Corporation naming the nominees for the additional directorships at least one hundred (100) days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a Stockholder's notice required by this Section 2.13 shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for the additional directorships, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

(b) Special Meetings of Stockholders. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of Stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting. Nominations of persons for election to the Board may be made at a special meeting of Stockholders at which Directors are to be elected pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (i) by or at the direction of the Board or (ii) provided that the Board has determined that Directors shall be elected at such meeting, by any Stockholder of the Corporation who is a Stockholder of record at the time the notice provided for in this Section 2.13 is delivered to the Secretary, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and upon such election and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 2.13. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, in the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of Stockholders for the purpose of electing one or more Directors to the Board, any such Stockholder entitled to vote in such election of Directors may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be) for election to such position(s) as specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting, if such Stockholder's notice required by paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 2.13 shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth (120th) day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth (90th) day prior to such special meeting or the tenth (10th) day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of a special meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a Stockholder's notice as described above.

special

(c) General. (i) Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.13 shall be eligible to be elected at an annual or special meeting of Stockholders of the Corporation to serve as Directors and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of Stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.13. Except as otherwise provided by law, the chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty (A) to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.13 (including whether the Stockholder or beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made solicited (or is part of a group which solicited) or did not so solicit, as the case may be, proxies in support of such Stockholder's nominee or proposal in compliance with such Stockholder's representation as required by clause (a)(ii)(C)(IV) of this Section 2.13 and (B) if any proposed nomination or business was not made or proposed in compliance with this Section 2.13, to declare that such nomination shall be disregarded or that such proposed business shall not be transacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.13, if the Stockholder (or a qualified representative of the Stockholder) does not appear at the annual or special meeting of Stockholders of the Corporation to present a nomination or business, such nomination shall be disregarded and such proposed business shall not be transacted, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the Corporation.

(ii) For purposes of this Section 2.13, "public announcement" shall include disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

(iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.13, a Stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 2.13. Nothing in this Section 2.13 shall be deemed to affect any rights (A) of Stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act or (B) of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to nominate or elect directors pursuant to any applicable provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation and Sections 3.2 and 3.3 of these By-laws.

DIRECTORS

3.1 General Powers. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board. The Board may adopt such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws or applicable law, as it may deem proper for the conduct of its meetings and the management of the Corporation.

3.2 Number; Qualification; Term of Office. The number of directors shall be eleven (11). Each Director shall hold office until a successor is duly elected and qualified or until the Director's earlier death, resignation, disqualification or removal. The qualifications of directors shall be as set forth in clauses (a) through (g) of this Section 3.2.

III-9

If the Series A Nominating Stockholder (together with its Permitted Affiliates) is on such date the holder of at least 25% but less than 35% of the Outstanding Common Equity Interest of the Corporation, five (5) Series A Nominated Directors shall have been identified to the Board by the Series A Nominating Stockholder for nomination to the Board and one (1) Outside Director shall have been nominated by the Board. If the Series A Nominating Stockholder (together with its Permitted Affiliates) is on such date the holder of at least 10% but less than 25% of the Outstanding Common Equity Interest of the Corporation, four (4) Series A Nominated Directors shall have been identified to the Board by the Series A Nominating Stockholder for nomination to the Board and two (2) Outside Directors shall have been nominated by the Board. (f) At all times, one director who is a senior management official of the Corporation shall have been nominated by the Board.

(g) Directors need not be stockholders.

3.3 Newly Created Directorships and Vacancies. Unless otherwise provided by applicable law or the Certificate of Incorporation, any newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of Directors and vacancies occurring in the Board for any cause, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board, upon the recommendation of the remaining members of the nominating committee of the Board, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director, or may be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting of Stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to the provisions of Section 3.2 of these By-laws: (a) so long as there is a Series A Nominating Stockholder, the Board may fill a Series A Nominated Director vacancy only with a person nominated to the Board by such Series A Nominating Stockholder (which person will thereafter be deemed a Series A Nominated Director); (b) so long as there is a holder of Series B Special Preferred Stock, the Board may fill a Series B Nominated Director vacancy only with a person nominated to the Board by such holder (which person will thereafter be deemed a Series B Nominated Director); (c) so long as there is a holder of Series C Special Preferred Stock, the Board may fill a Series C Nominated Director vacancy only with a person nominated to the Board by such holder (which person will thereafter be deemed a Series C Nominated Director); and (d) so long as there is a holder of Series D Special Preferred Stock, the Board may fill a Series D Nominated Director vacancy only with a person nominated to the Board by such holder (which person will thereafter be deemed a Series D Nominated Director). A Director so elected shall be elected to hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the Director whom he or she has replaced or until a successor is elected and qualified, or until the Director's earlier death, resignation or removal.

3.4 Resignation. Subject to the provisions of Section 3.3 of these By-laws, any Director may resign at any time by notice given in writing or by electronic transmission to the Corporation. Any resignation pursuant to this Section 3.4 shall take effect at the time therein specified, and, unless otherwise specified in such resignation, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

3.5 Removal. Subject to the provisions of Section 141(k) of the General Corporation Law and Section 3.3 of these By-laws, any or all of the Directors may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the combined voting power of the then outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote on the election of Directors, voting together as a single class.

3.6 Compensation. Each Director, in consideration of his or her service as such, shall be entitled to receive from the Corporation such amount per annum or such fees for attendance at Directors' meetings, or both, as the Board may from time to time determine, together with reimbursement for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, if any, incurred by such Director in connection with the performance of his or her duties. Each Director who shall serve as a member of any committee of Directors in consideration of serving as such shall be entitled to such additional amount per annum or such fees for attendance at committee meetings, or both, as the Board may from time to time determine, together with reimbursement for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, if any, incurred by such Director in the performance of his or her duties. Nothing contained in this Section 3.6 shall preclude any Director from serving the Corporation or its subsidiaries in any other capacity and receiving proper compensation therefor.

3.7 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board may be held without notice at such times and at such places within or without the State of Delaware as may be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board.

3.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be held at such times and at such places within or without the State of Delaware whenever called by the Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary or by a majority of the Directors then serving as Directors on at least 24 hours' notice to each Director given by one of the means specified in Section 3.11 hereof other than by mail, or on at least three (3) business days' notice if given by mail. Special meetings of the Board shall be called by the Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of a majority of the Directors then serving as Directors. If necessary under the Certificate of Incorporation or Section 3.3 of these By-laws, special meetings of the Board shall be held whenever called by (a) the Series A Nominating Stockholder to fill the vacancy of a Series A Nominated Director, (b) the Series B Nominating Stockholder to fill the vacancy of a Series B Nominated Director, (c) the Series C Nominating Stockholder to fill the vacancy of a Series C Nominated Director, and (d) the holder of the Series D Special Preferred Stock to fill the vacancy of the Series D Nominated Director.

3.10 Adjourned Meetings. A majority of the Directors present at any meeting of the Board, including an adjourned meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn such meeting to another time and place. At least 24 hours' notice of any adjourned meeting of the Board shall be given to each Director whether or not present at the time of the adjournment, if such notice shall be

3.11 Notice Procedure. Subject to Sections 3.8 and 3.14 hereof, whenever, under applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws, notice is required to be given to any Director, such notice shall be deemed given effectively if given in person or by telephone, by mail addressed to such Director at such Director's address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, or by telegram, telecopy or, if consented to by the Director to whom notice is given, by other means of electronic transmission.

the ground that the meeting has not been lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Directors or a committee of Directors need be specified in any waiver of notice unless so required by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws.

3.13 Organization. At each meeting of the Board, the Chairman, or if there is no Chairman or if there be one and the Chairman is absent, the Chief Executive Officer, or if there is no Chief Executive Officer or if there be one and the Chief Executive Officer is absent, a chairman chosen by a majority of the Directors present, shall preside. The Secretary shall act as secretary at each meeting of the Board. In case the Secretary shall be absent from any meeting of the Board, an Assistant Secretary shall perform the duties of secretary at such meeting; and in the absence from any such meeting of the Secretary and all Assistant Secretaries, the person presiding at the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

3.14 Quorum of Directors. Except as provided in Section 3.10 with respect to adjourning meetings and Section 3.3 with respect to filling vacancies, the presence in person of a majority of the Entire Board, which, so long as there is any Series A Nominated Director, must include at least three (3) Series A Nominated Directors, shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board.

3.15 Action by Majority Vote. Except as otherwise expressly required by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws, the vote of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board.

3.16 Action Without Meeting. Unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all Directors or members of such committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing or by electronic transmission, and the writing or writings or electronic transmission or transmissions are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee.

ARTICLE 4

The Board may designate one or more Directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of such committee. If a member of a committee shall be absent from any meeting, or disqualified from voting thereat, the remaining member or members present at the meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may, by a unanimous vote, appoint another member of the Board to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent permitted by applicable law and to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board designating such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, and may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers that may require it. Unless otherwise specified in the resolution of the Board designating a committee, at all meetings of such committee, a majority of the then authorized number of members of the committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the vote of a majority of the members of the committee present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the committee. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings. Unless the Board otherwise provides, each committee designated by the Board may make, alter and repeal rules for the conduct of its business. In the absence of such rules each committee shall conduct its business in the same manner as the Board conducts its business pursuant to Article 3 of these By-laws.

A. Right to Dissent and Obtain Payment for Shares.

§ 414-341. Definitions.

As used in this part:

"Beneficial shareholder" means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.

"Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.

"Dissenter" means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under sections 414-342 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by sections 414-351 to 414-359.

"Fair value," with respect to a dissenters' shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.

"Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.

"Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

"Shareholder" means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

§ 414-342. Right to dissent.

- (a) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:
- (1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party:
 - (A) If shareholder approval is required for the merger by section 414-313 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger; or
 - (B) If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under section 414-314;
 - (2) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;
 - (3) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale;
- IV-1
- (4) An amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenters' shares because it:
 - (A) Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;
 - (B) Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares;
 - (C) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;
 - (D) Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or
 - (E) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under section 414-74;
 - (5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares; or
 - (6) Consummation of a plan of conversion to which the corporation is the converting entity, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan.

- (b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this part may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

§ 414-343. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the partial dissenter dissents and the partial dissenters' other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.
- (b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if:
 - (1) The beneficial shareholder submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and
