PROXY STATEMENT

FOR

2003 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON FRIDAY, MAY 16, 2003

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to the shareholders of Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc. (the "Fund"), a Texas corporation which has elected to be treated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"). The Fund's Board of Directors is soliciting proxies to be voted at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held on Friday, May 16, 2003, at the Renaissance Dallas Hotel, Dallas, Texas, at 8:00 a.m., Dallas time and at any adjournment(s). This Proxy Statement is first being sent to shareholders on or about April 14, 2003.

The accompanying proxy card is designed to permit each Fund shareholder to vote for or against or to abstain from voting on the proposals described in this Proxy Statement, and to authorize the persons serving as proxies to vote in their discretion with respect to any other proposal properly presented at the Annual Meeting. When a shareholder's executed proxy card specifies a choice with respect to a voting matter, the shares will be voted accordingly. If no specifications are made, then the proxy will be voted by the persons serving as proxies at the Annual Meeting FOR the election of the two Class Three directors.

The Board of Directors encourages the shareholders to attend the Annual Meeting personally. Executing and returning the accompanying proxy card will not affect a shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and to vote in person. Any shareholder given a proxy has the right to revoke it at any time before it is voted by giving written notice of revocation to Ms. Barbe Butschek, Secretary, Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc., 8080 North Central Expressway, Suite 210, LB-59, Dallas, Texas 75206-1857, by executing and delivering a later-dated proxy, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. No revocation notice or later-dated proxy, however, will be effective until received by the Fund at or prior to the Annual Meeting. Revocation will not affect a vote on any matters taken prior to the receipt of the revocation. Mere attendance at the Annual Meeting will not by itself revoke the proxy.

In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, officers and directors of the Fund, and officers, directors, and regular employees of Renaissance Capital Group, Inc. ("Renaissance Group"), the investment adviser to the Fund, may solicit the return of proxies by personal interview, mail, telephone, and facsimile. These persons will not receive additional compensation for their services, but will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses. Brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries will be requested by the Fund to forward solicitation material to the beneficial owners of shares. The Fund will pay all costs of solicitation.

The Fund's 2002 Annual Report to Shareholders is enclosed for the review of all shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. The Annual Report is not incorporated into this Proxy Statement and is not considered proxy soliciting material.

The Fund's principal offices are located at 8080 N. Central Expressway, Suite 210, LB-59, Dallas, Texas 75206-1857, and its telephone number is (214) 891-8294.

PURPOSES OF THE MEETING

At the Annual Meeting, Fund shareholders will have the opportunity to meet principal officers of selected Portfolio Companies and to hear their business reviews. In addition, the shareholders will consider and vote upon the following matters:

1. The election of two Class Three directors of the Fund, to hold office for terms of three years or until their successors are elected and qualified;
2. To amend the Fund's Articles of Incorporation to change the name of the Fund to RENN Capital Fund III, Inc.; and
3. Such other and further business as may properly be presented at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment(s).

RECORD DATE AND SHARE OWNERSHIP

The close of business on March 28, 2003, has been fixed as the record date (the "Record Date") for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment(s). At the close of business on the Record Date, the Fund had outstanding 4,351,718 shares of Common Stock and approximately 614 record holders.

VOTING

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. The Common Stock is the only class of securities of the Fund entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. A Shareholder is entitled to vote all shares of Common Stock held of record at the close of business on the Record Date, in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting. There are no cumulative voting rights. All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions, and broker non-votes.

A quorum for the Annual Meeting will consist of the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote as of the Record Date. Shares that are voted "FOR," "AGAINST," or "WITHHELD FROM" a matter are treated as being present at the meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and are also treated as shares "represented and voting" at the Annual Meeting (the "Votes Cast") with respect to such matter.

Broker non-votes and abstentions will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be voted for or against a proposal. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes effectively will be a vote against any proposal where the required vote is a percentage of the shares present or outstanding. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted as votes cast for purposes of determining whether sufficient votes have been received to approve a proposal.

If a quorum is not present at the Annual Meeting or, although a quorum is present an insufficient number of votes in favor of any of the proposals set forth in the Notice of Meeting are received by the date of the Annual Meeting, the persons named as proxies may vote for one or more adjournment(s) of the Annual Meeting with no notice other than announcement at the Annual Meeting. Further solicitations of proxies with respect to these proposals may be made. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be voted for any adjournment(s).

VOTING ELECTRONICALLY VIA THE INTERNET OR BY TELEPHONE

Shareholders whose shares are registered in their own names may vote either via the Internet or by telephone. Specific instructions to be followed by any registered shareholder interested in voting via the Internet or by telephone are set forth on the enclosed proxy card. The Internet and telephone voting procedures are designed to authenticate the shareholder's identity and to allow shareholders to vote their shares and confirm that their voting instructions have been properly recorded.

If your shares are registered in the name of a bank or brokerage firm, you may be eligible to vote your shares electronically over the Internet or by telephone. A large number of banks and brokerage firms are participating in the ADP Investor Communications Services online program. This program provides eligible shareholders who receive a copy of this proxy statement the opportunity to vote via the Internet or by telephone. If your bank or brokerage firm is participating in ADP's program, your proxy card will provide instructions. If your proxy card does not reference Internet or telephone information, please complete and return the proxy card in the self-addressed, postage-paid envelope provided.

PROPOSAL ONE
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Russell Cleveland and Ernest C. Hill have been nominated as the Class Three directors to serve for a term of three years or until respective successors are elected and qualified. For information concerning Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Hill, see "Information Concerning Directors" below.

Pursuant to the Fund's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, the Board of Directors consists of five directors and is divided into three classes. Each class serves for a three-year term. The term of office of the Class Three directors expires at the Annual Meeting to be held this year, the term of office of the Class One director expires at the Annual Meeting of shareholders to be held in 2004, and the term of office of the Class Two directors expires at the Annual Meeting of shareholders to be held in 2005.

Because the Board of Directors is divided into classes, only those directors in a single class may be changed in any one year. Consequently, changing a majority of the Board of Directors would require two years (although under Texas law, procedures exist to remove directors even if they are not then standing for reelection and, under Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") regulations, procedures exist for including appropriate shareholder proposals in the annual proxy statement). Having a classified Board of Directors, which may be regarded as an "anti-takeover" provision, may make it more difficult for shareholders of the Fund to change the majority of directors, thus having the effect of maintaining the continuity of management.

Each of the nominees for a Class Three directorship receiving the vote of a plurality of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be elected as a director.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES FOR A CLASS THREE DIRECTORSHIP.

PROPOSAL TWO
AMEND ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE THE NAME OF THE FUND TO RENN CAPITAL FUND III, INC.

The Board of Directors has adopted a resolution to amend the Fund's Articles of Incorporation to change the name of the Fund to RENN Capital Fund III, Inc., and has directed that the amendment be submitted to a vote of the Fund's shareholders. The Common Stock of the Fund is traded under the ticker symbol RENN on the Nasdaq National Market System ("NMS"). Consequently, there is already both name recognition and growing acceptance of RENN as the branded name of the Fund. Further, this more distinctive and identifiable name differentiates the Fund from other financial services concerns which use the name Renaissance.

An amendment to the Articles of Incorporation requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE AMENDMENT OF THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE THE NAME OF THE FUND TO RENN CAPITAL FUND III, INC.
