On November 30, 2007, Starboard Value and Opportunity Master Fund Ltd. (“Starboard”), an affiliate of Ramius Capital Group, L.L.C. (“Ramius Capital”), together with the other participants named herein, made a definitive filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) of a proxy statement and an accompanying GOLD proxy card to be used to solicit votes for the election of its nominees at the 2008 annual meeting of shareholders of Luby’s, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”).

Item 1: On December 17, 2007, Starboard issued the following press release:

RAMIUS CAPITAL FILES PRESENTATION FOR LUBY’S SHAREHOLDERS

Outlines Material Conflicts of Interest Among Luby’s Management and the Board

Concerned that Luby’s Board Members Have Limited Industry Experience

Independent Nominees Outline Ideas for Improving Luby’s Operations and Enhancing Long-Term Shareholder Value

New York – December 17, 2007– Starboard Value and Opportunity Master Fund Ltd., an affiliate of RCG Starboard Advisors, LLC and Ramius Capital Group, L.L.C. (collectively, “Ramius”), today announced that it filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 14, 2007 a presentation for shareholders of Luby’s, Inc. (“Luby’s” or the “Company”) (NYSE: LUB). Ramius is urging all shareholders of Luby’s to vote for its four independent director nominees at the Company’s upcoming 2008 Annual Meeting, scheduled for January 15, 2008. The presentation and other proxy materials are available at www.ShareholdersForLubys.com or www.sec.gov.

The presentation outlines material conflicts of interest that involve Luby’s management and the Board. The presentation also highlights Luby’s history of ignoring shareholders’ best interests and describes the independent nominees’ ideas for strategic initiatives to improve the business. Specifically, the presentation addresses:

- Material conflicts of interest among Luby’s management team and the Board;
- The Company’s history of ignoring shareholders’ best interests by:
 - o allowing the Pappases to gain effective control of Luby’s without paying a control premium, and
 - o refusing to declassify the board of directors despite shareholders affirmative vote to do so;
- Anti-takeover measures that serve to insulate the current board of directors and make it less accountable to shareholders;
- The Company’s poor operating performance relative to peers;
- Luby’s nominees’ lack of restaurant industry experience;
- Ramius’ independent nominees’ substantial restaurant industry and corporate finance experience; and
- Strategic initiatives for improving the business proposed by the independent nominees.

Ramius’ knowledgeable, experienced and truly independent director nominees will provide a renewed focus on improving operations, corporate governance and management accountability through more effective Board oversight and our nominees are committed to working constructively with the other Luby’s directors and management in order to ensure that the Company is run for the best interest of all shareholders.
