On April 25, 2008, Nanes Delorme Partners I L.P. (“Nanes Delorme Partners”), together with the other participants named herein, made a preliminary filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) of a proxy statement and an accompanying GOLD proxy card to be used to solicit votes for the election of its nominees at the 2008 annual meeting of stockholders of VAALCO Energy Inc., a Delaware corporation.

Item 1: On April 25, 2008, Nanes Delorme Partners issued the following announcement:

NANES DELORME PARTNERS FILES PRELIMINARY PROXY MATERIALS TO ELECT THREE NOMINEES TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF VAALCO ENERGY

Largest Stockholder Lacks Confidence in the Ability and Commitment of Current Board

Nanes Delorme Partners Minority Slate of Nominees Has Experience Necessary to Help Oversee Effort to Maximize Stockholder Value

NEW YORK, NY – APRIL 25, 2008 – Nanes Delorme Partners I L.P. (“Nanes Delorme Partners”) today announced that it has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission preliminary proxy materials in connection with its nomination of three highly qualified candidates for election to the Board of Directors of VAALCO Energy Inc. (“VAALCO” or the “Company”) (NYSE: EGY) at the Company’s 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders scheduled to be held on June 4th, 2008. The three director nominees are Mr. Julien Balkany, Mr. Leonard Toboroff and Mr. Clarence Cottman III.

Nanes Delorme Partners, with associated entities, currently beneficially own 4,700,000 of the outstanding shares of VAALCO representing approximately 8.0% of the Company, making it the largest stockholder of VAALCO, based on publicly available information.

Nanes Delorme Partners believes that VAALCO’s stock price is significantly undervalued due to management’s and the Board’s continued poor decisions. Nanes Delorme Partners also has serious concerns that the strategic direction developed by the Company will not be able to reverse the continued downward trend in the Company’s share price. Without change to the current Board, Nanes Delorme Partners fears that the Company’s value may continue to erode under the continued unchecked stewardship of current senior management.

Julien Balkany, a Managing Member of the Fund’s General Partner, Nanes Balkany Partners LLC, said: “In spite of record oil prices and a portfolio of high quality oil and gas E&P properties, the Company’s stock price remains severely depressed. We frankly question the ability of the incumbent Board to improve the Company’s operating performance, corporate governance structure and enhance stockholder value. The share price underperformance has continued in the beginning of 2008 and has only started to trade higher since we publicized our concerns on March 11, 2008. Since this date VAALCO’s stock has increased by approximately 33%, illustrating what we believe to be the strong expectation by stockholders of immediate and substantial changes in the Company.”

Added Balkany, “We believe that VAALCO’s current Board interest is not closely aligned with other shareholders and change at the Board level is necessary to unlock value. If elected, we will work closely with other members of the Board to enact positive value-enhancing change for the benefit of all stockholders.”

Nanes Delorme Partners is particularly concerned with:

- VAALCO's disappointing stock performance;
- Management's ill-advised oil exploration diversification in the UK North Sea;
- Management's failure to retain an investment banker and consider a sale of the Company and other strategic options; and
- VAALCO's stockholder unfriendly corporate governance.

Nanes Delorme Partners further believes that the NYSE is not the appropriate exchange to list a company with core assets in West Africa and that listing on another exchange could increase the trading volume and improve liquidity of the Company's shares.

Issues the nominees intend to address include:

- Redemption of the Shareholders Rights Plan and elimination of VAALCO's anti-takeover provisions;
  - Declassification of the staggered Board and institution of annual election for all directors;
    - Separation of the role of Chairman and CEO;
    - Termination of the Supermajority Voting provisions;
- Commencement of a process to identify and appoint a qualified Chief Operating Officer to strengthen management; and
- Discontinuation of further expansion on the North Sea Region and refocus VAALCO's efforts and resources on the Company's core assets in Gabon and Angola.

In addition, Nanes Delorme Partners' nominees will also seek to have the Board fulfill its fiduciary responsibility in creating an independent special committee to evaluate and explore all strategic alternatives for maximizing stockholder value, including, but not be limited to, core asset divestments, alternative listings, mergers and/or the sale of the entire Company.

Balkany noted: "VAALCO clearly needs directors who understand the importance of accountability and who are prepared to take the necessary steps to maximize stockholder value. The Nanes Delorme Partners director nominees are prepared to use their best efforts to implement corporate governance reforms and establishing an independent special committee, assisted by a first tier investment bank, to evaluate and explore all potential alternatives to maximize stockholder value."

About the Three Nominees
