Sententia Capital Management, LLC, together with the other participants named herein (collectively, “Sententia”), has filed a definitive proxy statement and accompanying BLUE proxy card with the Securities and Exchange Commission to be used to solicit votes for the election of its slate of director nominees at the 2018 annual meeting of shareholders of Schmitt Industries, Inc., an Oregon corporation.

Sententia Announces ISS Recommendation that Schmitt Shareholders “WITHHOLD” Votes from Legacy Director and Vote “Against” Say on Pay Proposal

ISS Cites “Historic Concerns Relating to Board Independence”

Advisory Firm Recommendation Adds to Growing Support for Board Accountability

NEW YORK, October 1, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Sententia Capital Management, LLC and its affiliates (collectively, “SENTENTIA” or “we”), the beneficial owners of approximately 8.1% of the outstanding shares of common stock of Schmitt Industries, Inc. (NASDAQ: SMIT) (“Schmitt” or the “Company”), today announced that, in a report issued on September 28, 2018, Institutional Shareholder Services (“ISS”), one of the world’s leading independent proxy advisor firm, recommended that Schmitt shareholders “WITHHOLD” votes from legacy director nominee Maynard E. Brown and vote “AGAINST” approval of Schmitt’s say-on-pay proposal at the Company’s annual meeting scheduled to be held on Friday, October 12, 2018, in Portland, Oregon.

Michael R. Zapata, founding manager for Sententia, commented, “We are pleased to see further support for our concerns with Schmitt. We urge fellow shareholders to join us in voting for needed accountability and independence in Schmitt’s boardroom. Together, with Andrew P. Hines, we are working to help unlock shareholder value at Schmitt with our comprehensive plan.”

In summarizing its recommendations, ISS commented (emphasis added):*

“The consistent net losses over the past decade appear to have been driven by an inability to deliver sustainable gross margins and to control operating expenses.”

“a credible argument could be made that the board did not react soon enough to remedy SMIT's deteriorating performance, given that concerns initially presented in FY2009.”

“it is too soon in the turnaround process to draw conclusions, and the strategy itself has been articulated in a manner that makes it difficult for shareholders to assess whether it is likely that SMIT will be able to deliver sustainable profits moving forward. This ineffective communication is problematic, particularly since it appears to be part of a wider pattern of shortcomings.”

· “there are uncertainties about the viability of the company’s plan due to shortcomings in disclosure.”

· “there are historic concerns relating to board independence (highlighted in ISS analyses from 2011-2016).”

“the board failed to demonstrate responsiveness to the concerns of shareholders reflected in say-on-pay vote outcomes for two consecutive years”

“WITHHOLD votes are warranted...for long-tenured incumbent director Maynard E. Brown – who, as chair of the compensation committee, also bears direct responsibility for the company's poor responsiveness to shareholder concerns regarding executive compensation”

We are encouraged by ISS's recognition of the board's historical independence issues and ISS's recommendation that shareholders withhold votes on Maynard Brown, the longest tenured Schmitt director. We believe David Case should be held to the same standard as he has been in a leadership role at Schmitt since 1996. We believe that the lack of accountability on the board is a key reason for the last decade of cumulative negative $7.5 million in net income and destruction of shareholder value. During one of the strongest economies in a decade, Mr. Case continues to trumpet the "first profitable fiscal year for the Company since FY2012." Schmitt shareholders deserve better.
