If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense
- x (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant will be unable to file by the deadline without unreasonable effort or expense because management needs additional time to finalize its complete and accurate review of the disclosures in the report. In addition, our registered public accounting firm requires additional time to complete the audit of our 2005 financial statements. The delay in management's ability to complete its review and the delay in the completion of the audit was due in part to the complexity of preparing information related to its two recent acquisitions in 2005, (Chambers Belt Company and Tommy Bahama Footwear), and the extended review time associated with the requirement of the Registrant's predecessor and successor independent auditors to finalize their respective reviews of the Registrant's 2005 10-K. The Registrant intends to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K within the fifteen day extension period.

Consolidated net sales for fiscal 2005 were $109.2 million compared to $76.4 million for fiscal 2004, representing a 43% increase. Of this increase, $25.0 million is attributable to acquired brand revenue associated with the Chambers Belt Company and Tommy Bahama Footwear brand acquisitions that occurred during the second half of 2005 and $9.4 million was attributable to the realization of a full year of revenue from the Altama brand acquisition that occurred during the third quarter of fiscal 2004. These sales increases were partially offset by sales declines in our footwear and apparel and segment.
