Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 25, 2006, the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company"), which is the holding company for The Provident Bank (the "Bank"), the wholly-owned savings bank subsidiary of the Company, approved change in control agreements between the Company and Janet D. Krasowski, Senior Vice President-Human Resources of the Bank, and Giacomo Novielli, Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer of the Bank (Ms. Krasowski and Mr. Novielli hereinafter referred to as the "Executives").

The change in control agreement, the form of which was filed as an Exhibit to the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-1 (Registration No. 333-98241), provides certain benefits to each of the Executives in the event of a change in control of the Company or the Bank. Each agreement is for a term of 24 months, renewing annually unless notice of non-renewal is given. If notice of non-renewal is provided, the agreement terminates 24 months following the applicable anniversary date. Following a change in control of the Company or the Bank, as defined in the change in control agreement, the Executive is entitled to a severance payment if his or her employment is terminated other than for cause, disability or retirement, or if the Executive terminates employment for good reason. Good reason is generally defined to include the assignment of duties materially inconsistent with the Executive's positions, duties or responsibilities as in effect prior to the change in control, a reduction in his or her annual compensation or benefits, or relocation of his or her principal place of employment by more than 25 miles from its location immediately prior to the change in control, or a failure of the Company to obtain an assumption of the agreement by its successor. Severance under the agreement is a cash payment equal to two times the highest annualized rate of base salary and other cash compensation paid to him or her during the year in which he or she was terminated or either of the immediately preceding two calendar years, whichever is greater. In addition, the Executive is entitled to receive life, health, dental and disability coverage for two years following termination of employment. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the agreement, payments are reduced to the extent necessary to prevent an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.
