Istanbul, July 19, 2018

Announcement Regarding the Change in Management

Bülent Aksu, who joined our Company on July 20, 2016, and who has served as the Executive Vice President of Finance (CFO), has decided to resign from his position, effective as of July 31, 2018, in order to take a role within the Ministry of Treasury and Finance.

Turkcell's CEO Kaan Terzioğlu stated the following in respect to the matter: "Mr. Bülent Aksu, implementing international practices, enabled our Company to become an exemplar in our country in balance sheet and currency risk management. Mr. Aksu also made notable contributions to building our Company on concrete financial foundations, allowing sustainable growth, through his innovative solutions for financing of investments. His endeavors and outstanding efforts to maintain our Company's solid and healthy financial structure are worthy of commendation. I believe Mr. Aksu will prove his success in his new role, and I wish it to be auspicious for our country."

Osman Yılmaz, director responsible for our Company's Treasury, Risk and Collection Management, in addition to his current position, will be the acting Executive Vice President of Finance, effective as of August 1, 2018.
