NEWS RELEASE

CN amends specific share repurchase program

MONTREAL, Nov. 30, 2015 — CN (TSX: CNR) (NYSE: CNI) announced today that it has amended its agreement announced on Oct. 27, 2015, with a third party to repurchase common shares under a specific share repurchase program during the term of CN's normal course issuer bid. The maximum number of common shares to be purchased by CN from that third party has been increased from 4,000,000 to 5,175,000 common shares, in accordance with the terms of an issuer bid exemption order issued by the Ontario Securities Commission.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain information included in this news release constitutes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and under Canadian securities laws, including potential purchases of common shares for cancellation under a normal-course-issuer bid. CN cautions that, by their nature, these forward-looking statements involve risk, uncertainties and assumptions, and are subject to the discretion of CN's Board of Directors in respect of the declaration of dividends. The Company cautions that its assumptions may not materialize and that the current economic conditions render such assumptions, although reasonable at the time they were made, subject to greater uncertainty.

Important risk factors that could affect the above forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the effects of general economic and business conditions, industry competition, inflation, currency and interest rate fluctuations, changes in fuel prices, legislative and/or regulatory developments, compliance with environmental laws and regulations, actions by regulators, various events which could disrupt operations, including natural events such as severe weather, droughts, floods and earthquakes, labor negotiations and disruptions, environmental claims, uncertainties of investigations, proceedings or other types of claims and litigation, risks and liabilities arising from derailments, and other risks and assumptions detailed from time to time in reports filed by CN with securities regulators in Canada and the United States. Reference should be made to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis” in CN’s annual and interim reports, Annual Information Form and Form 40-F filed with Canadian and U.S. securities regulators, available on CN’s website, for a summary of major risks and assumptions.

CN assumes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect future events, changes in circumstances, or changes in beliefs, unless required by applicable Canadian securities laws. In the event CN does update any forward-looking statement, no inference should be made that CN will make additional updates with respect to that statement, related matters, or any other forward-looking statement.

CN is a true backbone of the economy whose team of approximately 25,000 railroaders transports more than C$250 billion worth of goods annually for a wide range of business sectors, ranging from resource products to manufactured products to consumer goods, across a rail network of approximately 20,000 route-miles spanning Canada and mid-America. CN – Canadian National Railway Company, along with its operating railway subsidiaries – serves the cities and ports of Vancouver, Prince Rupert, B.C., Montreal, Halifax, New Orleans, and Mobile, Ala., and the metropolitan areas of Toronto, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Calgary, Chicago, Memphis, Detroit, Duluth, Minn./Superior, Wis., and Jackson, Miss., with connections to all points in North America. b) whether purchase and payment for the securities will be made by the issuer in accordance with the requirements of TSX: Yes, and in accordance with the requirements of NYSE.

Form: I2 NOTICE OF INTENTION TO MAKE A NORMAL COURSE ISSUER BID ("NCIB")

Issuer Name: CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAY COMPANY Stock Symbol: CNR

c) whether the price that the issuer will pay for any securities acquired by it will be the market price of the securities at the time of acquisition: Yes, plus brokerage fees, or such other price as may be permitted by the TSX. Purchases made under an issuer bid exemption order will be at a discount to the prevailing market price as per the terms of the order. All of the Common Shares purchased will be cancelled.

d) whether purchases (other than by way of exempt offer) will be made other than by means of open market transactions during the period the NCIB is outstanding:

Purchases under the Normal Course Issuer Bid will be conducted through the facilities of the TSX and the NYSE or alternative trading systems, if eligible, or by such other means as may be permitted by the TSX or a securities regulatory authority in accordance with sections 628 to 629.3 of Part VI of the TSX Company Manual (the "TSX NCIB Rules"), including under automatic purchase plans and by private agreements or share repurchase programs under issuer bid exemption orders issued by securities regulatory authorities.

Pursuant to a Share Repurchase Program Agreement with The Bank of Nova Scotia ("Scotia") dated October 27, 2015 and in accordance with the terms of an issuer bid exemption order (the "OSC Order") issued by the Ontario Securities Commission, CNR has established a share repurchase program (the "Program") whereby Scotia will purchase Common Shares on the TSX and other Canadian published markets in accordance with the TSX Rules applicable to CNR's purchases under the Normal Course Issuer Bid. On a daily basis for the duration of the Program, Scotia will sell to CNR a number of Common Shares from its current holdings equal to the number of Common Shares that Scotia has purchased under the Program at a price negotiated with CNR, which will be at a discount to the volume weighted average price of the Common Shares on the TSX for the relevant trading day. The duration of the Program will be from October 30, 2015 to the earlier of December 24, 2015 and the date on which CNR has purchased 4,000,000 common shares from Scotia under the Program. All Common Shares purchased by CNR from Scotia under the Program will be cancelled. CNR will not purchase any other Common Share under the Normal Course Issuer Bid during the term of the Program. On November 27, 2015, CNR and Scotia amended the Program in order to increase the number of Common Shares that may be purchased under the Program from 4,000,000 to 5,175,000 Common Shares. Accordingly, the duration of the Program, as amended, is from October 30, 2015 to the earlier of December 24, 2015 and the date on which CNR has purchased 5,175,000 Common Shares from Scotia under the Program.

CNR may enter into one or more additional share repurchase program agreements in respect of one or more additional share repurchase programs under issuer bid exemption orders issued by securities regulatory authorities.

4. Consideration Offered – State whether there are any restrictions on the price the offeror is prepared to pay and any other restrictions relating to the NCIB, such as specific funds available, method of purchasing, etc.: None

5. Reasons for the NCIB – State the purpose or business reasons for the NCIB:

CNR believes that the repurchase of its shares represents an appropriate and beneficial use of the Company's funds.
