ING seeks voluntary delisting of shares from Frankfurt, Paris and Swiss stock exchanges

ING announced today that it intends to concentrate the trading of its (depository receipts for) shares on the stock exchanges in Amsterdam, Brussels and New York. Accordingly, ING has filed applications to voluntarily delist from the Frankfurt, Paris and Swiss stock exchanges.

The decision to seek delisting is based on the following factors:

The low volume of shares traded on the aforementioned exchanges. In the twelve months up to 1 November 2008, trading on the Frankfurt, Paris and Swiss exchanges amounted to a combined 0.3% of the total daily trading volume in ING shares. This share of volume has steadily been diminishing over the last years.

Technological and regulatory developments now give investors ample opportunity to trade shares on exchanges outside their country of residence. This reason for having a broad range of listings is now no longer relevant.

Maintaining a listing brings costs with it. Concentrating trading on a limited number of exchanges aligns with ING's ongoing focus on cost efficiency.

The delisting from the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, and SWX Swiss Exchange (Zürich, Basle and Geneva) is expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2009. ING's delisting from Euronext Paris will take place after Euronext moves to a single order book for Paris, Amsterdam and Brussels in January, thereby giving investors in France the possibility to trade in ING shares via the Brussels or Amsterdam Exchange. All the aforementioned delistings are conditional on approval of the relevant authorities and exchanges.

The listings of (depository receipts for) shares on Euronext Amsterdam and Euronext Brussels and of ADRs on the New York Stock Exchange are not affected by the delisting.
