ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT

This prospectus supplement supplements the accompanying prospectus. The accompanying prospectus is part of a registration statement that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, using a shelf registration process. Under this shelf registration process, we may offer from time to time common stock, senior or subordinated debt securities, preferred stock, warrants, purchase contracts, units or depositary shares. The accompanying prospectus provides you with a general description of these securities, and this prospectus supplement contains specific information about the terms of this offering of shares of our common stock. Both this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus include important information about us, our securities and other information you should know before investing.

This prospectus supplement, or the information incorporated by reference, may add, update or change information in the accompanying prospectus. If information in this prospectus supplement, or the information incorporated by reference, is inconsistent with the accompanying prospectus, this prospectus supplement, or the information incorporated by reference, will apply and will supersede that information in the accompanying prospectus.

It is important for you to read and consider all information contained in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus in making your investment decision. You should also read and consider the information in the documents we have referred you to under Where You Can Find More Information below.

When used in this prospectus supplement, unless the context requires otherwise, the terms we, our, us, the Company and Kennametal refer to Kennametal Inc. and its subsidiaries. Unless otherwise specified, any reference to a year is to a fiscal year ended June 30.

WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION

We file annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC. You may read and copy any document that we file at the Public Reference Room of the SEC at 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549. You may obtain information on the operation of the Public Reference Room by calling the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330. Kennametal's SEC filings are also available to the public from commercial retrieval services, at the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov and on Kennametal's website at www.kennametal.com. Reports, proxy statements and other information are also available for inspection at the offices of the New York Stock Exchange, 20 Broad Street, New York, New York 10005.

The SEC allows us to incorporate by reference the information we file with them, which means that we can disclose important information to you by referring you to those documents. The information incorporated by reference is an important part of this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, and information that we file later with the SEC and which is incorporated by reference will automatically update and supersede this information. We incorporate by reference the documents listed below and all future filings made pursuant to Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) other than any information furnished pursuant to Item 2.02 or Item 7.01 of any Current Report on Form 8-K unless we specifically state in such Current Report that such information is to be considered filed under the Exchange Act or we incorporate it by reference into a filing under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act) or the Exchange Act.

PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT SUMMARY

*This summary only highlights information contained elsewhere in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. As a result, it does not contain all of the information that you should consider before purchasing shares of common stock. You should read the entire prospectus supplement, including the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference, which are described under the caption Where You Can Find More Information.*

Kennametal Inc.

We are a leading global supplier of tooling, engineered components and advanced materials consumed in production processes. We specialize in developing and manufacturing metalworking tools and wear-resistant parts using a specialized type of powder metallurgy. We operate in two business segments: Metalworking Solutions & Services Group and Advanced Materials Solutions Group.

Over the past several years, we have been actively engaged in further balancing our geographic footprint between North America, Western Europe and the rest of the world markets. This strategy, together with steps we have taken to enhance the balance of our sales among our end markets and business units, has helped to create a more diverse business base, provide additional sales opportunities and limit reliance on and exposure to any specific region or market sector.

For our fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, we achieved record sales of $2.7 billion and reported net income of $167.8 million. Our sales continued to grow during the first months of our fiscal year 2009 and we reported record September quarter sales for the three months ended September 30, 2008. Since then, global economic conditions and industrial activity have deteriorated substantially with a further downward acceleration in the March 2009 quarter. The decline has resulted in significantly lower industrial production and much lower demand for our products in all major geographic regions, as well as most industry and market sectors. This has had a corresponding effect on our sales levels and operating performance. We believe that our experience is commensurate with most other global manufacturing companies.

In response to the impact of the rapid and steep decline in global demand, we have undertaken and will continue to aggressively implement restructuring and other actions to reduce our manufacturing costs and operating expenses. We also have taken, and will continue to take, targeted steps to maximize cash flow and liquidity. We remain confident in our ability to manage through the global economic downturn and are poised to respond quickly to further changes in global markets while continuing to serve our customers and preserve our competitive strengths. At the same time, we will maintain our sharp focus on cash flow.

Our sales for the nine months ended March 31, 2009 were $1.7 billion, a decrease of 14% from $2.0 billion for the same period of the previous year. The decrease in sales was due to a 13% organic decline and a 2% decrease from unfavorable foreign currency effects partially offset by the net favorable impact of acquisitions and divestitures of 1%. Also for the nine months ended March 31, 2009, we reported a net loss of $86.7 million which included non-cash pre-tax charges for impairment of goodwill and intangible assets of $111.0 million ($101.2 million net of tax) as well as pre-tax charges of $52.8 million ($54.4 million net of tax) related to our restructuring plans. For information concerning our current expectations for financial results for our fourth fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2009, as well as our present expectations for financial performance for our new fiscal year which began on July 1, 2009, see Recent Developments Financial update beginning on page S-5 of this prospectus supplement.

Metalworking Solutions & Services Group (MSSG)

Our MSSG segment provides consumable metalcutting tools and tooling systems to manufacturing companies in a wide range of industries throughout the world. Metalcutting operations include turning, boring, threading, grooving, milling and drilling. Our tooling systems consist of a steel toolholder and cutting tool such as an indexable insert or drill made from cemented tungsten carbides, ceramics, cermets or other hard materials. During a metalworking operation, the toolholder is positioned in a machine that provides turning power. While the workpiece or toolholder is rapidly rotating, the cutting tool insert or drill contacts the workpiece and cuts or shapes the workpiece. The cutting tool insert or drill is consumed during use and must be replaced periodically.

We also provide custom solutions to our customers' metalcutting needs through engineering services aimed at improving their competitiveness. Engineering services include field sales engineers identifying products that enhance productivity and engineering product designs to meet customer needs.

We serve a wide variety of industries that cut and shape metal and composite parts, including manufacturers of automobiles, trucks, aerospace components, farm equipment, oil and gas drilling and processing equipment, railroad, marine and power generation equipment, light and heavy machinery, appliances, factory equipment and metal components, as well as job shops and maintenance operations. We deliver our products to customers through a direct field sales force, distribution, integrated supply programs and electronic commerce. With a global marketing organization and operations worldwide, we believe we are one of the largest global providers of consumable metalcutting tools and supplies.

Advanced Materials Solutions Group (AMSG)

Our AMSG segment's principal business lines include the production and sale of cemented tungsten carbide products used in mining, highway construction and engineered applications requiring wear and corrosion resistance, including compacts and other similar applications. These products have technical commonality to our metalworking products. Additionally, we manufacture and market engineered components with a proprietary metal cladding technology as well as other hard materials that likewise provide wear resistance and life extension. These products include radial bearings used for directional drilling for oil and gas, extruder barrels used by plastics manufacturers and food processors and numerous other engineered components to service a wide variety of industrial markets. We also sell metallurgical powders to manufacturers of cemented tungsten carbide products, intermetallic composite ceramic powders and parts used in the metalized film industry, and we provide application-specific component design services and on-site application support services. Lastly, we provide our customers with engineered component process technology and materials, which focus on component deburring, polishing and producing controlled radii.

Our mining and construction tools are fabricated from steel parts and tipped with cemented carbide. Mining tools, used primarily in the coal industry, include longwall shearer and continuous miner drums, blocks, conical bits, drills, pinning rods, augers and a wide range of mining tool accessories. Highway construction cutting tools include carbide-tipped bits for ditching, trenching and road planing, grader blades for site preparation and routine roadbed control and snowplow blades and shoes for winter road plowing. We produce these products for mine operators and suppliers, highway construction companies, municipal governments and manufacturers of mining equipment. We believe we are the worldwide market leader in mining and highway construction tooling.

Our customers use engineered products in manufacturing or other operations where extremes of abrasion, corrosion or impact require combinations of hardness or other toughness afforded by cemented tungsten carbides, ceramics or other hard materials. We believe we are the largest independent supplier of oil field compacts in the world. Compacts are the cutting edge of oil well drilling bits, which are commonly referred to as rock bits. We sell these products through a direct field sales force, distribution and electronic commerce.

Competitive Strengths

We believe our competitive strengths together with our Kennametal Value Business System position us to meet our long term goals of growing sales faster than the market, margin expansion, earnings growth and higher returns.

Table of Contents

Global market leading positions with respected brands

We believe that we are one of the largest global providers of metalcutting tools and tooling systems and have a leading market position in many of the products we bring to market. We believe that our reputation for manufacturing excellence, as well as our technological expertise and innovation in our principal products, has helped us achieve this leading market presence in our primary markets. Our customer service capabilities, including multiple distribution channels, our global presence, state-of-the-art manufacturing capabilities, ability to develop solutions to address customer needs through new and improved tools and the consistent high quality of our products, allow us to sell products based upon the value added productivity to the customer rather than strictly on competitive prices.

We believe that our brands include some of the most widely recognized and respected names in the markets we serve. These brands and trademarks include Kennametal[®], the letter K with other identifying letters and/or numbers, Block Style K, Kenloc[®], Kenna-LOK[®], KM Micr[®], Kentip[®], Widia Heinlein[®], Top Notch[®], ToolBoss[®], Kyon[®], Fix-Perfect[®], Mill1[®], RTW[®], Circle[®], Conforma Clad[®], Extrude Hone[®] and Surftran[®]. Through these brands, we are able to introduce related products and services to markets that we already serve and broaden our presence with our customers.

Focused product portfolio with diversified customers, end markets and geographic exposure

We believe we have achieved a degree of product breadth and end market and geographic diversity that differentiates us from many of our competitors. We have more than 80,000 customers, with no customer accounting for more than 3% of our sales, and have actively managed our product portfolio to maintain the consumable product mix at about 80%. Our service engineers and technicians directly assist customers with product design, selection and application, with a focus on delivering complete, high value-add solutions. Additionally, through our focus on product innovation and lifecycle management, we continue to optimize our product portfolio. Since 2004, we have reduced our metalworking SKUs by over 60% from more than 380,000 to less than 150,000.

We are also working to focus our business portfolio and rationalize our manufacturing footprint through selective divestitures and acquisitions. In 2006, we divested J&L Industrial Supply as part of our strategy to divest non-core businesses. Similarly, from fiscal year 2006 through fiscal year 2008, we divested five other businesses, including five facilities. A portion of the proceeds from these divestitures was employed to make strategic acquisitions of complementary businesses. Furthermore, we recently completed the sale of certain high speed steel product lines, which included four facilities.

The diverse set of industries we serve includes metalworking manufacturers and suppliers in an array of industries, including the aerospace, automotive, machine tool, light machinery and heavy machinery industries, as well as manufacturers, producers and suppliers in a number of other industries, including the highway construction, coal mining, quarrying and oil and gas exploration and production industries. We believe the diversity of our customer base and products coupled with our global reach can help mitigate the effects of downturns in individual product and geographic markets and position us well as the global economy recovers.

Table of Contents

The following charts illustrate the percentage of our sales by end market and geographic region for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008:

Sales By End-Market

Sales By Geographic Region

Significant focus on technological innovation

We believe our continued investment in product innovation is a key driver of our ability to offer innovative solutions for our customers' manufacturing problems and productivity requirements. Our world-class research scientists and engineers develop over 40 new patents per year, enabling us to achieve over 40% of our sales from products less than five years old.

Since 2000, our product development cycle has decreased to fewer than 10 months from 24 months. We believe our stage-gate product development process and market planning have led to this increase in productivity and innovation. Our program provides discipline and focus for the development process by establishing gateways, or sequential tests, to remove inefficiencies and accelerate improvements. This program is designed to ensure a strong link between customer needs and corporate strategy and to enable us to gain full benefit from our investments in new product design.

Our Kennametal Value Business System

We believe our Kennametal Value Business System enables consistent and disciplined decision-making across all facets of our business. This system oversees our strategic planning, product development, customer excellence, talent development, portfolio management and lean initiatives, which are designed to filter out wasteful or inefficient processes. We believe these initiatives increase productivity and allow us to offer savings in materials, expenses and other resources, ultimately creating value for our customers. Our Kennametal Value Business System will continue to guide us as we advance toward our financial goals for the future.

Aggressive cost reduction efforts

We believe that our cost reduction efforts will improve our operating leverage well into the future. Our initiatives focus on restructuring and other cost reduction programs to rationalize our manufacturing footprint, increase manufacturing productivity and reduce operating expenses. Over the past several years, we have closed certain manufacturing facilities on a pay-as-you-go basis. In 2008 and 2009, we implemented various restructuring initiatives and other cost reduction actions that are further described below in Recent Developments.

In addition, we have taken significant steps to simplify our business. From consolidating business units to rationalizing our product portfolio, we are striving to become a more market-facing, efficient organization. For example, over the last three years, we have consolidated the Advanced Materials Solutions Group from seven to four customer facing business units and we continually evaluate consolidating brand names within our portfolio. We also continue to streamline and consolidate our support functions to improve customer service and operational effectiveness while lowering expenses.

Recent Developments

Restructuring and other cost reduction actions

In response to the impact of the rapid and steep decline in global demand, we have undertaken and will continue to aggressively implement restructuring and other actions to reduce our manufacturing costs and operating expenses. In April 2008, we announced restructuring actions to rationalize certain manufacturing and service facilities, as well as other employment and cost reduction programs. In January 2009, we announced global salaried workforce reductions. In April 2009, we announced further restructuring actions which involve additional employment and other cost reduction programs. Annual ongoing benefits from these actions, once fully implemented, are expected to be approximately $125 million. We expect to incur pre-tax charges of approximately $115 million in connection with the execution of these initiatives, including $61 million recorded through March 31, 2009. The majority of the remaining charges are expected to be incurred by December 31, 2009, most of which are expected to be cash expenditures. In addition to these restructuring programs, we have taken and will continue to take other actions to adjust our costs and level of operations to the extent necessary and appropriate. These other actions included employee furloughs from March 2009 through June 2009, the suspension of matching contributions to certain employee benefit plans effective March 2009 and the implementation of salary reductions effective July 2009. We will also continue to take other specific and targeted steps to maximize cash flow and liquidity.

Sale of high speed steel drills and related product lines

On June 30, 2009, we completed the sale of our high speed steel drills, related product lines and assets. Total cash proceeds from this divestiture amount to $29 million, of which $2 million was received prior to closing, $24 million is expected to be received in the September 2009 quarter and $3 million is expected to be received in the December 2009 quarter. The sale was in alignment with our strategy to shape our business portfolio and to rationalize our manufacturing footprint. We expect to recognize a pre-tax loss on the sale and related pre-tax charges of $30 million to $33 million, the majority of which will be recorded in our fourth fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2009. The sale included four facilities and operations specifically related to the product lines located at Evans, Georgia; Clemson, South Carolina; Mexico City, Mexico; and Mississauga, Ontario, Canada.

Amendment to credit facility

On July 6, 2009, we entered into an amendment to our existing $500 million credit facility, which expires on March 21, 2011. The amendment, among other things, provides additional flexibility with respect to financial covenants while maintaining the current size and maturity of the credit facility, increases our interest rates and other costs, and provides for the granting of security in limited circumstances.

Financial update

On April 24, 2009, we announced that we expected organic sales for our fourth fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2009 to be down by more than 40 percent from the same quarter of the prior year. At the same time, we also announced that we expected that our June 2009 quarter operating results, excluding charges related to restructuring, would be somewhat lower than the operating results for the March 2009 quarter, excluding charges related to restructuring and impairment.

Edgar Filing: KENNAMETAL INC - Form 424B5

For our fourth fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2009, we currently expect our financial results to be in line with our previously announced expectations and, therefore, we expect to record a loss per diluted share (LPS), excluding restructuring and divestiture related charges, for the June 2009 quarter.

Table of Contents

Despite the current global recession, recently, a number of traditional industry indicators point to potential market stabilization. The U.S. Purchasing Managers Index reached a low of 32.9 in December 2008 and has increased each month for six consecutive months to 44.8 as of June 2009. Historically, an index rating at or below 50 indicates a contraction in industrial activity. Another key index, the Industrial Production Index, is forecasted to grow beginning in September 2009 by Global Insight, a respected economic research organization, indicating that a recovery in general industrial manufacturing may start in the first quarter of calendar year 2010.

Although there have been recent indications of some stabilization in industrial activity, and certain signals point toward possible economic recovery, we believe that we will continue to experience the adverse effects of the global recession during the first part of our new fiscal year 2010 which began on July 1, 2009. As such, for the quarter ending September 30, 2009, we presently expect to record a loss per diluted share (LPS), excluding restructuring and divestiture related charges, that will be greater than the LPS for the quarter ended June 30, 2009, excluding restructuring and divestiture related charges. The principal reason for the expected change in LPS from the previous quarter is due to the difference in temporary cost savings from the employee furloughs made in the June 2009 quarter and the salary reductions placed into effect at the beginning of the September 2009 quarter. While there can be no assurance, we currently expect to see the effects of an economic recovery reflected in our results for the second half of our fiscal year 2010.

RISK FACTORS

Any investment in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the risks described below and all of the information contained in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus before deciding whether to purchase our common stock. In addition, you should carefully consider, among other things, the matters discussed under Risk Factors in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2009, and in other documents that we subsequently file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, all of which are incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only risks and uncertainties we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also impair our business operations. If any of the following risks actually occur, our business, financial condition and results of operations would suffer. In that event, the trading price of our common stock could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment in our common stock. The risks discussed below also include forward-looking statements and our actual results may differ substantially from those discussed in these forward-looking statements. See Forward-Looking Statements.

We reported a net loss per diluted share for the third fiscal quarter of 2009 and remain subject to the effects of the global economic downturn.

Our sales for the quarter ended March 31, 2009 declined by 36% from the same quarter of the previous year. The year-to-year decline in sales was due to a 32% organic decline and a 5% decrease from unfavorable foreign currency effects, partially offset by the net favorable impact of acquisitions and divestitures of 1%. We reported a net loss of $137.9 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2009. The net loss for the March 2009 quarter was primarily driven by non-cash pre-tax charges for impairment of goodwill and intangible assets of $111.0 million ($101.2 million net of tax) and pre-tax charges of $33.5 million ($37.2 million net of tax) related to the company's restructuring plans as well as the impact of the global economic downturn. We believe that our results will continue to be impacted by the global economic downturn, which has materially and adversely affected industrial activity on a global basis as well as the demand for our products and our sales levels. In light of the weakness in market conditions, we have limited visibility as to when our markets will stabilize. We cannot assure you that we will not incur additional restructuring charges, that we will achieve all of the anticipated benefits from restructuring actions we have taken or that our markets will recover in the near term.

Current worldwide economic conditions may adversely affect our ability to obtain capital and liquidity.

Changes in the ratings that rating agencies assign to our debt may ultimately impact our access to the debt capital markets and the costs we incur to borrow funds. The tightening in the credit markets and the low level of liquidity in many financial markets due to the current turmoil in the financial and banking industries could also affect our access to the debt capital markets. Both Standard & Poor's and Moody's have recently reaffirmed our current investment grade ratings, but have modified their outlook from stable to negative, reflecting global economic uncertainty. If we experience downgrades in our credit ratings, including any announcement that our ratings are under review for a downgrade, or if the credit and capital markets were to deteriorate, our access to the capital markets, the price we would have to pay and the amount we could raise may be negatively impacted.

In addition, several large financial institutions have either recently failed or been dependent on the assistance of the U.S. federal government to continue to operate as a going concern. Although we believe that the banks participating in our credit facility have adequate capital and resources, we can provide no assurance that all of these banks will continue to operate as a going concern in the future. If any of the banks in our lending group were to fail, it is possible that the borrowing capacity under our credit facility would be reduced. In the event that the availability under our credit facility was reduced significantly, we could be required to obtain capital from alternate sources in order to finance our capital needs. Our options for addressing such capital constraints would include, but not be limited to (i) obtaining commitments from the remaining banks in the lending group or from new banks to fund increased amounts under the terms of our credit facility, or (ii) accessing the public or private capital markets. If it becomes necessary to access additional capital, it is likely that any such alternatives in the current market would be on terms less favorable than under our recently amended credit facility terms, which could have a negative impact on our consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

Future sales of our common stock in the public market or the issuance of securities convertible into our common stock or which entitle holders to receive our common stock could adversely affect the trading price of our common stock and our ability to raise funds in new stock offerings.

Sales by us or our shareholders of a substantial number of shares of our common stock in the public markets following this offering, or the perception that these sales might occur, could cause the market price of our common stock to decline or could impair our ability to raise capital through a future sale of, or pay for acquisitions using, our equity securities.

We and certain of our executive officers will agree, with limited exceptions, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, that we and they will not, without the prior written consent of the representatives on behalf of the underwriters, directly or indirectly, offer to sell, sell or otherwise dispose of any shares of our common stock. All of the shares sold in this offering will be freely transferable, except for any shares sold to our affiliates, as that term is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or Securities Act.

We may issue common stock or securities convertible into our common stock or which entitle holders to receive our common stock in the future for a number of reasons, including to finance our operations and growth plans, to adjust our ratio of debt-to-equity, to satisfy our obligations upon the exercise of options or for other reasons. We cannot predict the effect, if any, that future sales or issuance of shares of our common stock or convertible securities, or which entitle holders to receive our common stock or the availability of shares of common stock or convertible or other securities for future sale or issuance, will have on the trading price of our common stock.

The price of our common stock has fluctuated and may continue to fluctuate, which may make it difficult for you to resell the common stock when you want or at prices you find attractive.

The market price and volume of sales of our common stock have been and may continue to be subject to significant fluctuations due not only to general stock market conditions, but also to a change in sentiment in the market regarding our operations, business prospects or liquidity. You may not be able to sell your shares of common stock at or above the public offering price, or at all. During the period from July 1, 2008 to July 9, 2009, our common stock has fluctuated from a high of $38.75 per share to a low of $12.82 per share. In addition to the risk factors discussed in this prospectus supplement and in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2009, which is incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, the price and volume volatility of our common stock may be affected by:

deepening of or prolonged effects of the global recession;

operating results that vary from expectations of management, securities analysts and investors;

developments in our business or in our industry generally;

regulatory changes affecting our industry generally or our business and operations;

the operating and securities price performance of companies that investors consider to be comparable to us;

announcements of strategic developments, acquisitions and other material events by us or our competitors;

S-10

whether we continue to declare and pay dividends on our common stock or reduce the current dividend rate; and changes in global financial and economic markets and general market conditions, such as interest or foreign exchange rates, commodity and equity prices, availability of credit, asset valuations, and volatility.

Any volatility of or a significant decrease in the market price of our common stock could also negatively affect our ability to make acquisitions using common stock. Further, if we were to be the object of securities class action litigation as a result of volatility in our common stock price or for other reasons, it could result in substantial costs and diversion of our management's attention and resources, which could negatively affect our financial results.

Our ability to make dividend payments on our common stock depends to a large extent on our operations.

The amount and timing of dividends is subject to the discretion of our board of directors and depends on business conditions, including our results of operations, the availability of cash flow from operations, proceeds from the sale of assets and/or borrowings and other factors. The current global economic recession has adversely affected and is expected to continue to adversely affect our results of operations for at least the near term. Although we historically have paid regular quarterly dividends on our common stock, we cannot ensure that we will continue to pay cash dividends or that if we continue to pay dividends it will be at the current rate per share.

Provisions in our organizational documents and Pennsylvania law may discourage a change of control.

Certain provisions in our amended and restated articles of incorporation and restated bylaws may have the effect of discouraging a change of control, which, under certain circumstances, could reduce the market price of our common stock. For example, our articles of incorporation authorizes our board of directors to issue shares of preferred stock to which special rights may be attached, including voting and dividend rights. With these rights, preferred stockholders could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire us. In addition, certain other provisions of our corporate documents regarding supermajority voting requirements for approval of mergers with five percent shareholders, classification of the board of directors, removal of directors, advance notice requirements for stockholder director nominations and amendments of our amended and restated articles of incorporation and restated bylaws may also discourage, delay or prevent a merger or acquisition involving us that our stockholders may consider favorable. We are also subject to the anti-takeover provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, which impose various impediments to the ability of a third party to acquire control of us, even if a change of control would be beneficial to our existing shareholders. See "Description of Kennametal Capital Stock Anti-Takeover Provisions in our Charter and Bylaws" and "PBCL Anti-Takeover Provisions" in the accompanying prospectus.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus (including the documents incorporated by reference) contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements are statements that do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. You can identify forward-looking statements by the fact they use words such as should, anticipate, estimate, approximate, expect, may, will, project, intend, plan, believe and other words and expression in connection with any discussion of future operating or financial performance or events.

Forward-looking statements in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus may concern, among other things, Kennametal's expectations regarding our strategy, goals, plans and projections regarding our financial position, liquidity and capital resources, results of operations, market position, and product development, all of which are based on current expectations that involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Among the factors that could cause the actual results to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements are risks and uncertainties related to:

the recent downturn in our industry;

a deepening or prolonged global economic recession;

restructuring and related actions (including associated costs and anticipated benefits);

compliance with our debt arrangements;

availability and cost of the raw materials we use to manufacture our products;

our ability to protect our intellectual property in foreign jurisdictions;

our foreign operations and international markets, such as currency exchange rates, different regulatory environments, trade barriers, exchange controls, and social and political instability;

energy costs;

commodity prices;

competition;

integrating recent acquisitions, as well as any future acquisitions, and achieving the expected savings and synergies;

business divestitures;

demands on management resources;

future terrorist attacks or acts of war;

labor relations;

demand for and market acceptance of new and existing products; and implementation of environmental remediation matters.

Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should the assumptions underlying the forward-looking statements prove incorrect, actual outcomes could vary materially from those indicated. These and other risks are more fully described in the Risk factors section in prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2009, and in our other periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We undertake no obligation to release publicly any revisions to forward-looking statements as a result of future events or developments.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate that the net proceeds from the sale of the common stock will be approximately $104.5 million (or approximately $120.3 million if the over-allotment option is exercised in full), after deducting underwriting commissions and discounts and our estimated offering expenses. We intend to use the net proceeds from the sale of the common stock to pay down outstanding indebtedness under our amended revolving credit facility maturing on March 21, 2011 and for general corporate purposes. Subject to compliance with the terms of and to the maturity of our amended revolving credit facility, we can reborrow these amounts and use them for general corporate purposes. The current weighted average domestic drawn borrowing rate under our amended credit facility is LIBOR plus 275. As of July 6, 2009, that rate was 3.05%. Affiliates of certain of the underwriters are lenders under our amended credit facility and will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering. Consequently, this offering will be made in compliance with FINRA Rule 5110(h). See Underwriting.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL TAX CONSEQUENCES TO NON-U.S. HOLDERS

The following summary describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of our common stock to non-U.S. holders (as defined below) that acquire our common stock for cash pursuant to this offer. The summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), Treasury Regulations, judicial decisions, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and other applicable authorities, all as in effect as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect). The discussion does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular person or to persons subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws. In addition, this discussion does not address the consequences of any state, local or foreign tax consequences or any tax consequences other than U.S. federal income tax consequences. This summary deals only with persons who hold our common stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). No IRS ruling has been or will be sought regarding any matter discussed herein. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the particular U.S. federal tax consequences to them of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of our common stock, as well as the effects of state, local and non-U.S. tax laws.

A non-U.S. holder is a person or entity that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is a:

non-resident alien individual, other than certain former citizens and residents of the United States subject to tax as expatriates, foreign corporation or foreign estate or trust.

If a partnership (including any entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a holder of our common stock, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of such partnership. Partners and partnerships should consult their tax advisors as to the particular U.S. federal income tax consequences applicable to them.

Distributions

Distributions on common stock will constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent such distributions are made out of our current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. We will be required to withhold U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30% (or at a lower rate under an applicable income tax treaty that allows for a reduced rate of withholding, provided that we have received proper certification that the non-U.S. holder is eligible for the reduced rate under such income tax treaty) from the gross amount of the dividends paid to a non-U.S. holder unless such dividends are effectively connected with a non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, in the case of certain tax treaties, are attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base within the United States) and the non-U.S. holder complies with applicable certification and disclosure requirements, as described below.

Non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under an applicable income tax treaty and the manner of claiming the benefits of such treaty. A non-U.S. holder that is eligible for a reduced rate of U.S. federal withholding tax under an income tax treaty may obtain a refund or credit of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for a refund with the IRS.

Dividends that are effectively connected with a non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, in the case of certain tax treaties, are attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base within the United States) are not subject to the U.S. federal withholding tax, but, unless otherwise provided in an applicable income tax treaty, are instead taxed in the manner applicable to U.S. persons. In that case, we will not have to withhold U.S. federal withholding tax if the non-U.S. holder complies with applicable certification and disclosure requirements. In addition, dividends received by a foreign corporation that are effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States may be subject to a branch profits tax at a 30% rate, or at a lower rate if provided by an applicable income tax treaty.

Table of Contents

Dispositions

Subject to the discussion below regarding information reporting and backup withholding, a non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income taxation with respect to gain realized on the sale, exchange or other disposition of our common stock, unless:

- (1) the non-U.S. holder holds our common stock in connection with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business (and, in the case of certain tax treaties, the gain is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base within the United States); or
- (2) in the case of an individual, such individual is present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which the gain is realized and certain other conditions are met; or
- (3) we are or have been a U.S. real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and such non-U.S. holder held more than 5% of our common stock at any time during the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date of disposition or the period that such non-U.S. holder held our common stock.

An individual non-U.S. holder described in (1) immediately above will be subject to tax on the net gain derived from the sale under regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates. An individual non-U.S. holder described in (2) immediately above will be subject to a flat 30% tax on the gain derived from the sale, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses, even though the individual is not considered a resident of the United States. If a non-U.S. holder that is a foreign corporation falls under (1) immediately above, it will be subject to tax on its net gain in the same manner as if it were a United States person as defined under the Code and, in addition, may be subject to the branch profits tax equal to 30% of its effectively connected earnings and profits or at such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty.

We believe that we are not, and we do not anticipate that we will become, a U.S. real property holding corporation.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

A non-U.S. holder not subject to U.S. income tax may nonetheless be subject to backup withholding and information reporting with respect to distributions on our common stock, and with respect to amounts realized on the disposition of our common stock within the United States or through certain United States-related financial intermediaries, unless (except as described below) the non-U.S. holder provides the withholding agent with the applicable IRS Form W-8 (and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the beneficial owner is a United States person as defined under the Code) or otherwise establishes an exemption. Non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors as to their qualifications for an exemption for backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining such an exemption. In general, we must report to the IRS and to each non-U.S. holder the dividends paid to such non-U.S. holder and the tax, if any, withheld with respect to such dividends. Copies of the information or returns reporting such dividends and withholding may also be made available to the tax authorities in the country in which the non-U.S. holder resides under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a non-U.S. holder may be credited against the non-U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, or refunded, if the required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner. Non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the information reporting and backup withholding rules to them.

Federal Estate Tax

Individual Non-United States Holders and entities the property of which is potentially includible in such an individual's gross estate for U.S. federal estate tax purposes (for example, a trust funded by such an individual and with respect to which the individual has retained certain interests or powers), should note that, absent an applicable treaty benefit, the common stock will be treated as U.S. situs property subject to U.S. federal estate tax.

Table of ContentsUNDERWRITING

We are offering the shares of common stock described in this prospectus supplement through a number of underwriters. J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated are acting as joint book-running managers of the offering and as representatives of the underwriters. We have entered into an underwriting agreement with the underwriters. Subject to the terms and conditions of the underwriting agreement, we have agreed to sell to the underwriters, and each underwriter has severally agreed to purchase, at the public offering price less the underwriting discounts and commissions set forth on the cover page of this prospectus supplement, the number of shares of common stock listed next to its name in the following table:

Name	Number of shares
J.P. Morgan Securities Inc.	2,310,000
Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated	2,310,000
KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc.	700,000
PNC Capital Markets LLC	700,000
ABN AMRO Incorporated	350,000
Mitsubishi UFJ Securities (USA), Inc.	350,000
Mizuho Securities USA Inc.	93,800
BNY Mellon Capital Markets, LLC	93,100
Comerica Securities, Inc.	93,100
Total	7,000,000

The underwriters are committed to purchase all the common shares offered by us if they purchase any shares. The underwriting agreement also provides that if an underwriter defaults, the purchase commitments of non-defaulting underwriters may be increased or the offering may be terminated.

The underwriters propose to offer the common shares directly to the public at the public offering price set forth on the cover page of this prospectus supplement and to certain dealers at that price less a concession not in excess of $0.40163 per share. Any such dealers may resell shares to certain other brokers or dealers at a discount of up to $0.10000 per share from the public offering price. After the initial public offering of the shares, the offering price and other selling terms may be changed by the underwriters. Sales of shares made outside of the United States may be made by affiliates of the underwriters.

The underwriters have an option to buy up to 1,050,000 additional shares of common stock from us to cover sales of shares by the underwriters which exceed the number of shares specified in the table above. The underwriters have 30 days from the date of this prospectus supplement to exercise this over-allotment option. If any shares are purchased with this over-allotment option, the underwriters will purchase shares in approximately the same proportion as shown in the table above. If any additional shares of common stock are purchased, the underwriters will offer the additional shares on the same terms as those on which the shares are being offered.

The underwriting fee is equal to the public offering price per share of common stock less the amount paid by the underwriters to us per share of common stock. The underwriting fee is $0.70875 per share. The following table shows the per share and total underwriting discounts and commissions to be paid to the underwriters assuming both no exercise and full exercise of the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares.

	Without over-allotment exercise	With full over-allotment exercise
Per Share	$ 0.70875	$ 0.70875
Total	$ 4,961,250	$ 5,705,437.50

We estimate that the total expenses of this offering, including registration, filing and listing fees, printing fees and legal and accounting expenses, but excluding the underwriting discounts and commissions, will be approximately $750,000.

A prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus in electronic format may be made available on the web sites maintained by one or more underwriters, or selling group members, if any, participating in the offering. The underwriters may agree to allocate a number of shares to underwriters and selling group members for sale to their online brokerage account holders. Internet distributions will be allocated by the representatives to underwriters and selling group members that may make Internet distributions on the same basis as other allocations.

We have agreed that, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, we will not (i) offer, pledge, announce the intention to sell, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, or file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement under the Securities Act relating to, any shares of our common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our common stock, or publicly disclose the intention to make any offer, sale, pledge, disposition or filing, or (ii) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers all or a portion of the economic consequences associated with the ownership of any shares of common stock or any such other securities (regardless of whether any such transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) above is to be settled by the delivery of shares of common stock, or such other securities, in cash or otherwise), without the prior written consent of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, other than the shares to be sold pursuant to the underwriting agreement and any shares of common stock issued upon the exercise of options granted under our stock-based compensation plans.

Our directors and executive officers have entered into lock-up agreements with the underwriters prior to the commencement of this offering pursuant to which each of these persons, with limited exceptions, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, may not, without the prior written consent of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, (1) offer, pledge, announce the intention to sell, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of our common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our common stock (including, without limitation, common stock or such other securities which may be deemed to be beneficially owned by such directors, executive officers, managers and members in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC and securities which may be issued upon exercise of a stock option or warrant) or (2) enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of the common stock or such other securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (1) or (2) above is to be settled by delivery of common stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise or (3) make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to the registration of any shares of common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock, in each case other than (A) sales of shares of common stock (or stock equivalents) by the undersigned to us, including, without limitation, the exercise of outstanding stock options effected by means of net share settlement or by the delivery to us of shares of common stock held by the undersigned for the payment of withholding taxes and as payment of the exercise price of stock options, (B) cashless exercise of our stock options effectuated through brokers by sales of shares of common stock of the undersigned in order to pay to us the exercise price of our stock options then being exercised and for withholding taxes, (C) transfers of shares of common stock as a bona fide gift or gifts, (D) distributions of shares of common stock to members or stockholders of the undersigned, (E) any sales pursuant to any existing contract, instruction or plan that satisfies all of the requirements of Rule 10b5-1(c)(1)(i)(B) in existence as of the date hereof in accordance with the terms of such contract, instruction or plan and (F) the disposition pursuant to a pledge in effect on the date hereof of common stock or securities convertible into, or exchangeable or exercisable for, common stock as security for a margin account pursuant to the terms of such account; provided that in the case of any transfer or distribution pursuant to clause (C) or (D), each donee or distributee shall execute and deliver to J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated a lock-up letter in the form of this paragraph; provided, further, that in the case of any transfer or distribution pursuant to clause (C) or (D), no filing by any party (donor, donee, transferor or transferee) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or other public announcement shall be required or shall be made voluntarily in connection with such transfer or distribution (other than a filing on a Form 5 made after the expiration of the 90-day period referred to above); and provided, further, that no such sales pursuant to clause (E) shall be permitted pursuant to any amendments to such contract, instruction or plan entered into during the period ending 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement.

We have agreed to indemnify the underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933.

Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol KMT.

In connection with this offering, the underwriters may engage in stabilizing transactions, which involve making bids for, purchasing and selling shares of common stock in the open market for the purpose of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the common stock while this offering is in progress. These stabilizing transactions may include making short sales of our common stock, which involves the sale by the underwriters of a greater number of shares of common stock than they are required to purchase in this offering, and purchasing shares of common stock on the open market to cover positions created by short sales. Short sales may be covered shorts, which are short positions in an amount not greater than the underwriters over-allotment option referred to above, or may be naked shorts, which are short positions in excess of that amount. The underwriters may close out any covered short position either by exercising their over-allotment option, in whole or in part, or by purchasing shares in the open market. In making this determination, the underwriters will consider, among other things, the price of shares available for purchase in the open market compared to the price at which the underwriters may purchase shares through the over-allotment option. A naked short position is more likely to be created if the underwriters are concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of our common stock in the open market that could adversely affect investors who purchase in this offering. To the extent that the underwriters create a naked short position, they will purchase shares in the open market to cover the position.

The underwriters have advised us that, pursuant to Regulation M of the Securities Act of 1933, they may also engage in other activities that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of our common stock, including the imposition of penalty bids. This means that if the representatives of the underwriters purchase common stock in the open market in stabilizing transactions or to cover short sales, the representatives can require the underwriters that sold those shares as part of this offering to repay the underwriting discount received by them.

These activities may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of our common stock or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the common stock, and, as a result, the price of the common stock may be higher than the price that otherwise might exist in the open market. If the underwriters commence these activities, they may discontinue them at any time. The underwriters may carry out these transactions on the New York Stock Exchange, in the over-the-counter market or otherwise.

Other than in the United States, no action has been taken by us or the underwriters that would permit a public offering of the securities offered by this prospectus supplement in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. The securities offered by this prospectus supplement may not be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, nor may this prospectus supplement or any other offering material or advertisements in connection with the offer and sale of any such securities be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with the applicable rules and regulations of that jurisdiction. Persons into whose possession this prospectus supplement comes are advised to inform themselves about and to observe any restrictions relating to the offering and the distribution of this prospectus supplement. This prospectus supplement does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities offered by this prospectus supplement in any jurisdiction in which such an offer or a solicitation is unlawful.

This document is only being distributed to and is only directed at (i) persons who are outside the United Kingdom or (ii) to investment professionals falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005 (the Order) or (iii) high net worth entities, and other persons to whom it may lawfully be communicated, falling within Article 49(2)(a) to (d) of the Order (all such persons together being referred to as relevant persons). The securities are only available to, and any invitation, offer or agreement to subscribe, purchase or otherwise acquire such securities will be engaged in only with, relevant persons. Any person who is not a relevant person should not act or rely on this document or any of its contents.

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a Relevant Member State), from and including the date on which the European Union Prospectus Directive (the EU Prospectus Directive) is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the Relevant Implementation Date), an offer of securities described in this prospectus may not be made to the public in that Relevant Member State prior to the publication of a prospectus in relation to the shares which has been approved by the competent authority in that Relevant Member State or, where appropriate, approved in another Relevant Member State and notified to the competent authority in that Relevant Member State, all in accordance with the EU Prospectus Directive, except that it may, with effect from and including the Relevant Implementation Date, make an offer of shares to the public in that Relevant Member State at any time:

to legal entities which are authorized or regulated to operate in the financial markets or, if not so authorized or regulated, whose corporate purpose is solely to invest in securities; to any legal entity which has two or more of (1) an average of at least 250 employees during the last financial year; (2) a total balance sheet of more than 43,000,000 and (3) an annual net turnover of more than 50,000,000, as shown in its last annual or consolidated accounts; to fewer than 100 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the EU Prospectus Directive) subject to obtaining the prior consent of the book-running managers for any such offer; or in any other circumstances which do not require the publication by the Company of a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an offer of securities to the public in relation to any securities in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the securities to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the securities, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the EU Prospectus Directive in that Member State and the expression EU Prospectus Directive means Directive 2003/71/EC and includes any relevant implementing measure in each Relevant Member State.

This document as well as any other material relating to the shares which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this prospectus supplement (the Shares) do not constitute an issue prospectus pursuant to Article 652a of the Swiss Code of Obligations. The Shares will not be listed on the SWX Swiss Exchange and, therefore, the documents relating to the Shares, including, but not limited to, this document, do not claim to comply with the disclosure standards of the listing rules of SWX Swiss Exchange and corresponding prospectus schemes annexed to the listing rules of the SWX Swiss Exchange.

The Shares are being offered in Switzerland by way of a private placement, i.e. to a small number of selected investors only, without any public offer and only to investors who do not purchase the Shares with the intention to distribute them to the public. The investors will be individually approached by the Company from time to time.

This document as well as any other material relating to the Shares is personal and confidential and does not constitute an offer to any other person. This document may only be used by those investors to whom it has
