The Convertible Note accrues interest at the rate of 12% per annum and are secured by all of the assets of the Company and mature in six months on September 8, 2011. There shall be no obligation for payment of principal or interest until maturity. Should the Company default on this obligation the interest rate rises to 18% per annum.

The Convertible Note will be repaid by the Company issuing common equity, cash payment or some combination of cash and equity. During the term of the Convertible Notes, the investors may at any time and at their sole option convert outstanding principal and accrued interest into Common Stock of the Company at a rate of nine cents ($0.09) per common share. The investor, as additional consideration to enter into this transaction, has also been issued warrants to purchase 300,000 shares of the Company's common stock with an exercise price of $0.09 per share exercisable for five years from the issue date. The Convertible Note as well as the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes and exercise of the warrants are restricted securities. The holders of the Convertible Notes are not provided registration rights under the terms of the Convertible Notes.

The Company intends to use the funds from the sale of the Convertible Note to complete the construction and build-out of its cGMP certified manufacturing facility in Oxnard California. Construction should be completed within 30 days and within 90 days the manufacturing plant will be fully operational. This will allow the company to begin manufacture of products utilizing the Company's proprietary bi-layer rapid dissolving oral thin film.

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

The information set forth in Item 1.01 hereof is incorporated by reference into this Item 3.02. The Convertible Note has been issued in reliance on exemptions from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Act), and Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated under the Act. These transactions qualified for exemption from registration because among other things, the transactions did not involve a public offering, each investor was an accredited investor and/or qualified institutional buyer, each investor had access to information about the Company and their investment, each investor took the securities for investment and not resale, and the Company took appropriate measures to restrict the transfer of the securities.

The Convertible Note, and the shares of the Company's common stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Note and exercise of the Warrants have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or applicable exemption from registration requirements.
