MERGER PROPOSAL YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The boards of directors of Umpqua Holdings Corporation (Umpqua) and Western Sierra Bancorp (Western Sierra) have approved an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization pursuant to which Western Sierra would merge with and into Umpqua. We are sending you this document to ask you to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Upon completion of the merger, Western Sierra shareholders will be entitled to receive 1.61 shares of Umpqua common stock for each share of Western Sierra common stock that they own. Based on this exchange ratio, the implied value per share of Western Sierra common stock is equal to $ 1 , based on the market value of Umpqua common stock on 1 , 2006.

Umpqua common stock is listed on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol UMPQ and Western Sierra common stock is listed on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol WSBA . On February 7, 2006, the date prior to announcement of the merger agreement, Umpqua common stock closed at $27.26 and Western Sierra common stock closed at $40.08.

The value of the merger consideration to Western Sierra shareholders will depend on the value of Umpqua common stock upon completion of the merger and will fluctuate with the market price of Umpqua common stock.

After careful consideration, each of the boards of directors of Umpqua and Western Sierra determined the merger to be fair to its respective shareholders and in its respective shareholders' best interests, and unanimously approved the merger agreement.

Your vote is very important. We cannot complete the merger unless the shareholders of Umpqua and Western Sierra approve the merger proposal. The boards of directors of Umpqua and Western Sierra are soliciting proxies from shareholders to vote at the shareholder meetings. You do not need to attend the meeting to vote your shares, although you are invited to do so. Whether or not you choose to attend, please complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy or follow the instructions on the proxy for telephone or internet voting.

This joint proxy statement-prospectus gives you detailed information about the merger and the shareholder meetings. Before sending in your proxy or voting your shares, you should read this entire document, particularly the information under RISK FACTORS beginning on page 1.

You should rely only on the information in this document or in other documents to which we refer you, concerning Umpqua, Western Sierra and the proposed merger. We have not authorized anyone to provide you with information that is different.

The Umpqua shareholder meeting is its annual meeting and Umpqua is also asking its shareholders to vote in favor of the election of Umpqua directors (eliminating the election of directors for staggered three year terms), and to approve amendments to Umpqua's articles of incorporation to declassify its board of directors, provide for the annual election of all directors and allow directors to be removed without cause. Approval of the amendments and election of directors are not conditions to completion of the merger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What will Western Sierra shareholders receive in the merger?

A: Western Sierra shareholders will receive 1.61 shares of Umpqua common stock in exchange for each share of Western Sierra common stock.

Q: Will the exchange ratio of 1.61 shares of Umpqua common stock for one share of Western Sierra common stock adjust under any circumstances?

A: If the weighted average closing price of Umpqua's common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected merger closing date is $22.59 or lower, and that decline in Umpqua's price is 10% worse than the performance of the NASDAQ Bank Index over the same period, then Western Sierra may elect to terminate the merger agreement. However, if Western Sierra exercises this option, Umpqua has the option to increase the exchange ratio by an amount sufficient to ensure that the merger consideration to Western Sierra shareholders is not less than 80% of the value immediately prior to the date of announcement of the merger agreement.

Q: Did the Umpqua and Western boards of directors receive fairness opinions?

A: Yes. Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., issued an opinion to the Western Sierra board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to Western Sierra shareholders.

In addition, Hoefler & Arnett, Inc., issued an opinion to the Umpqua board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be offered by Umpqua to Western Sierra shareholders.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the merger?

A: We have structured the merger so that Umpqua and Western Sierra and most of our respective shareholders will not recognize any gain or loss for federal income tax purposes in the merger, except for taxes payable with respect to cash received by Western Sierra shareholders in lieu of fractional shares or by Western Sierra shareholders who have properly exercised dissenters' rights.

Q: What risks should I consider before I vote?

A: We encourage you to read the detailed information about the merger in this document, including the RISK FACTORS section beginning on page 1.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the merger as quickly as possible and we anticipate the merger will be completed in the second quarter of 2006. Because the merger is subject to shareholder and regulatory approval and other factors beyond our control, we cannot predict with accuracy the exact timing for completing the merger.

Q: What regulatory approvals are required to complete the merger?

A: Umpqua and Western Sierra must obtain written approvals or waivers from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services acting through the Division of Finance and Corporate Services and the California

Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

Q: Who will manage the combined company?

A: Umpqua will be the surviving corporation in the merger and the executive officers of Umpqua immediately prior to the merger will be the executive officers of Umpqua until such time as their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Table of Contents

Following the merger, the board of directors of Umpqua will consist of fifteen directors, one of whom will be selected from among the current Western Sierra and Western Sierra subsidiary bank directors. All unvested Western Sierra stock options will become fully vested at the closing of the merger;

holders of at least 5% of the total number of shares (including you) of Western Sierra common stock timely make the required written demand;

Table of Contents

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

The merger agreement contains provisions that prohibit Western Sierra from, and each director of Western Sierra and its subsidiary banks has entered into an agreement that prohibits such director from, taking any action to solicit or encourage or engage in discussions or negotiations with any person or group with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal. Western Sierra and its directors may not provide non-public information to any other person in connection with a possible alternative transaction, except to the extent specifically authorized by its board of directors in the good faith exercise of its fiduciary duties after consultation with legal counsel. Western Sierra must notify Umpqua of any alternative acquisition proposal.

Our boards of directors may agree to terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to completing the merger, even after shareholder approval. Either Umpqua or Western Sierra may terminate the merger agreement if the merger has not been completed by October 31, 2006; or if, after notice and an opportunity to cure, the other party has made a material misrepresentation or materially breached the merger agreement. Western Sierra's board of directors may also terminate the merger agreement upon advice of legal counsel that the fiduciary duties of the Western Sierra directors so require.

Termination due to Disproportionate Decline in Umpqua's Stock Price

Western Sierra may notify Umpqua of its intent to terminate the merger agreement if:
the weighted average closing price of Umpqua's common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected merger closing date is $22.59 or lower, and that decline in Umpqua's price is 10% worse than the performance of the NASDAQ Bank Index from 3,126.17 to the average closing price of the Index over the same fifteen trading day period.

Upon receipt of such notification, Umpqua has the option to increase the exchange ratio by an amount sufficient to ensure that the merger consideration to Western Sierra shareholders is not less than 80% of the value of the merger consideration on the date of announcement of the merger agreement.

If the merger agreement is terminated by either party because Western Sierra's shareholders do not approve the principal terms of the merger agreement; by Umpqua because of an uncured material misrepresentation or material breach by Western Sierra; or by Western Sierra pursuant to its fiduciary duties upon advice of legal counsel, then Western Sierra will pay Umpqua its reasonable expenses up to $600,000. If Umpqua terminates the merger agreement because of Western Sierra's willful failure to comply with a material covenant, Western Sierra will pay Umpqua an additional $3,000,000.

If the merger agreement is terminated by either party because Umpqua's shareholders do not approve the merger agreement, plan of merger or the issuance of Umpqua shares to Western Sierra shareholders, or by Western Sierra because of an uncured material misrepresentation or material breach by Umpqua, then Umpqua will pay Western Sierra its reasonable expenses up to $600,000. If Western Sierra terminates the merger agreement because of Umpqua's willful failure to comply with a material covenant, Umpqua will pay Western Sierra an additional $3,000,000, which is Western Sierra's sole remedy for termination.

In addition, and subject to exceptions discussed in detail in this document, if, under certain conditions, Western Sierra enters into any alternative acquisition transaction within twelve months of termination of the merger agreement, Western Sierra will pay $14,000,000 (less any termination fee already paid) to Umpqua if the alternative acquisition transaction had been proposed prior to the date of the Western Sierra special shareholder meeting to vote on the principal terms of the Umpqua merger. The termination fees described above are Umpqua's sole remedies for termination.

Regulatory Matters

To complete the merger, Umpqua and Western Sierra must obtain approvals or waivers from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services Division of Finance and Corporate Securities (Oregon DFCS), Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the California Commissioner of Financial Institutions. Umpqua submitted a merger application to the FDIC on March 13, 2006 and Oregon DFCS on March 14, 2006 and a request for waiver of prior approval to the California Commissioner of Financial Institutions on March 14, 2006, and submitted a request for waiver of prior approval to the Federal Reserve Board on April 1, 2006.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

This document contains and incorporates by reference forward-looking statements about Umpqua, Western Sierra and the combined company, which statements are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements may include statements regarding business strategies, management plans and objectives for future operations and projected expenses incurred to complete the merger as well as the performance of Umpqua and Western Sierra after the merger. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. You can find many of these statements by looking for words such as anticipates, expects, believes, estimates and intends and words or phrases of similar meaning. Forward-looking statements involve substantial risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and are generally beyond the control of Western Sierra and Umpqua. Risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to:

Fluctuations in the securities markets;

Receipt of required approvals;

Loss of customers and personnel during the integration process;

Costs of completing the merger;

Umpqua's ability to integrate acquired entities and achieve expected synergies, operating efficiencies or other benefits;

The ability to attract new deposits and loans;

Competitive market pricing factors;

Deterioration in economic conditions that could result in increased loan losses;

Market interest rate volatility;

Changes in legal or regulatory requirements; and

The ability to recruit and retain certain key management and staff.

There are many factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by these forward-looking statements. For a more detailed discussion of some of the risk factors, see the section entitled RISK FACTORS in this document. You should also carefully consider the risk factors contained in Umpqua's and Western Sierra's filings with the SEC that are incorporated by reference into this document. Umpqua and Western Sierra do not intend to update these forward-looking statements. You should consider any written or oral forward-looking statements in light of this explanation, and we caution you about relying on forward-looking statements.

Table of ContentsRISK FACTORS

Completion of the merger represents an investment by Western Sierra shareholders in Umpqua's common stock and an investment by Umpqua in Western Sierra's assets and liabilities, each of which will subject the respective investor to various risks. You should carefully consider the following risk factors, as well as other information contained in this document and in Umpqua's and Western Sierra's filings with the SEC, before deciding how to vote on the relevant merger proposal.

The market value of Umpqua common stock to be received by Western Sierra shareholders will fluctuate and will be influenced by the performance of both Umpqua and Western Sierra prior to closing.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Western Sierra common stock will be exchanged for the right to receive 1.61 shares of Umpqua common stock. There will be no adjustment to the exchange ratio for changes in the market price of either Umpqua shares or Western Sierra shares, unless Western Sierra exercises its right to terminate the merger agreement due to a disproportionate decline in the price of Umpqua common stock and Umpqua elects to adjust the exchange ratio as described under THE MERGER Merger Consideration . Accordingly, the market value of the Umpqua shares that Western Sierra shareholders receive upon completion of the merger will depend on the market value of Umpqua shares at that time and could vary significantly from the market value on the date of this document or the date of the Western Sierra special meeting. An unexpected change in the performance or prospects of either Umpqua or Western Sierra will likely influence the market value of Umpqua's common stock and, indirectly, Western Sierra's common stock whose value is expected to track that of Umpqua's because of the fixed exchange ratio. The market value of Umpqua shares will continue to fluctuate after the merger is completed.

The combined company may fail to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The merger is expected to generate after-tax cost savings and expense reductions of budgeted Western Sierra non-interest expense when the operations of Umpqua and Western Sierra are completely integrated, which is expected to be at least six months following closing. The expense reductions are intended to be achieved by eliminating duplicative technology, operations, outside services and redundant staff, and through facility consolidations and purchasing efficiencies. The combined company may fail to realize some or all of the anticipated cost savings and other benefits of the transaction.

The integration of banking operations may not be completed smoothly, which could result in the loss of customers and employees.

At the time of the merger, Western Sierra National Bank, Auburn Community Bank, Central California Bank and Lake Community Bank will merge with Umpqua Bank and operate under the Umpqua Bank name. Western Sierra customers are accustomed to traditional community bank branch facilities and services and Western Sierra currently operates under four distinct brands: Western Sierra National Bank, Auburn Community Bank, Central California Bank and Lake Community Bank. Umpqua Bank's facilities operate under a single brand. Some of Western Sierra's customers may not react favorably to re-branding following the merger.

Umpqua Bank has transformed itself from a traditional community bank into a community-oriented financial services retailer. In implementing this strategy, Umpqua has remodeled many of its banking branches to resemble retail stores that include distinct physical areas or boutiques such as a serious about service center, an investment opportunity center and a computer café. Over a period of months following the merger, Umpqua intends to remodel and convert some of Western Sierra's branches in a similar fashion. Such a conversion would involve significant costs and disrupt banking activities during the remodeling period, and would present a new look and feel to the banking services and products being offered. There is a risk that some of the existing Western Sierra customers and employees will not stay with Umpqua Bank during the remodeling period or after the conversion is completed. There is also a risk that some of Western Sierra's existing customers and employees may not react favorably to Umpqua

Bank's retail delivery system. Further, there may be delays in completing the conversion, which could cause confusion and disruption in the business of those branches.

Umpqua is pursuing an aggressive growth strategy, which may place heavy demands on its management and infrastructure resources.

Umpqua is a dynamic organization and is one of the faster-growing community financial services organizations in the United States. Umpqua Bank merged with Valley of the Rogue Bank in December 2000 and, in a series of transactions effective December 2001, acquired IFN Bank/ Security Bank, Pacific State Bank, Family Security Bank, Lincoln Security Bank, McKenzie State Bank, Oregon State Bank and Linn-Benton Bank. Umpqua completed the acquisition of Centennial Bancorp in November 2002 and Humboldt Bancorp in July 2004. From time to time, Umpqua has also explored other merger and acquisition opportunities and expects to continue to do so. We expect that a substantial amount of its management's attention and effort will need to be directed at deriving the benefits and efficiencies expected from the merger with Western Sierra. Moreover, the combined company will be dependent on the efforts of key management personnel to achieve the integration of the merger and any other acquisitions Umpqua may undertake. The loss of one or more key persons could have a material adverse effect upon Umpqua's ability to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Continued growth by Umpqua may present operating and other problems that could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Our growth may place a strain on our administrative, operational, personnel and financial resources and increase demands on our systems and controls. We anticipate that our business growth may require continued enhancements to and expansion of our operating and financial systems and controls and may strain or significantly challenge them. Our inability to continue to upgrade or maintain effective operating and financial control systems and to recruit and hire necessary personnel or to successfully integrate new personnel into our operations could adversely impact our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. In addition, we cannot assure you that our existing operating and financial control systems and infrastructure will be adequate to maintain and effectively monitor future growth.

We may not be successful in overcoming these risks or any other problems encountered in connection with acquisitions. Our integration of operations of banks or branches that we acquire may not be successfully accomplished and may take a significant amount of time. Our inability to improve the operating performance of acquired banks and branches or to successfully integrate their operations could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. We expect to hire additional employees and retain consultants to assist with integrating our operations, and we cannot assure you that those individuals or firms will perform as expected or be successful in addressing these issues.

Involvement in non-bank businesses involves risk.

Umpqua has a licensed retail broker-dealer subsidiary, Strand, Atkinson, Williams & York, Inc. Retail brokerage operations present special risks not generally borne by community banks. For example, the brokerage industry is subject to fluctuations in the stock market that may have a significant adverse impact on transaction fees and customer activity. A decline in fees and commissions could adversely affect the subsidiary's contribution to Umpqua's income, and might increase the subsidiary's capital needs. In its continuing expansion, Umpqua may acquire other financial services companies whose successful integration is not assured and may present additional management challenges and new risks.

Brokers holding shares of Umpqua common stock as nominees will not have discretionary authority to vote those shares in the absence of instructions from the beneficial owners on the merger proposal or the proposed amendments to Umpqua's articles of incorporation. The failure to provide voting instructions will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal and the amendments to Umpqua's articles of incorporation.

If you are a participant in the Umpqua 401(k) Plan you will receive with this document separate voting instruction cards for shares of Umpqua common stock allocated to your account as a participant or beneficiary under the Umpqua 401(k) Plan. How We Count Votes

Each share is entitled to one vote. The named proxies will vote shares as instructed on the proxies. Abstentions or broker non-votes will not be counted for or against the merger proposal or the proposed amendments to Umpqua's articles of incorporation, but will have the effect of a vote against such proposals.

In the election of directors, each share is entitled to one vote for each director position to be filled, and shareholders may not cumulate votes. Directors are elected by a plurality of votes cast. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of each director nominee.

Vote Required to Approve the Merger

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all shares of Umpqua common stock outstanding on the record date is required to approve the merger proposal. An abstention or a broker non-vote will have the effect of a vote against the proposed merger. Umpqua's board of directors urges you to submit your proxy by mail, touch-tone telephone or the internet. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Umpqua's board of directors urges you to submit your proxy by mail, touch-tone telephone or the internet. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the proposed amendments.

THE MERGER

The following description of the merger is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement attached as Appendix A and the plan of merger attached as Appendix B. We urge you to carefully read the merger agreement and the plan of merger.

General

Umpqua, Umpqua Bank, Western Sierra, Western Sierra National Bank, Auburn Community Bank, Central California Bank and Lake Community Bank have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated as of February 7, 2006. The Agreement and Plan of Reorganization is generally referred to as the merger agreement in this document.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, and in accordance with Oregon law, when the merger becomes effective, Western Sierra will merge into Umpqua. Umpqua will be the surviving corporation, and the separate corporate existence of Western Sierra will cease upon completion of the merger. Immediately after the merger of Western Sierra into Umpqua, Western Sierra National Bank, Auburn Community Bank, Central California Bank and Lake Community Bank will merge into Umpqua Bank, with Umpqua Bank surviving the merger.

In connection with the merger of Western Sierra into Umpqua, Western Sierra shareholders will receive 1.61 shares of Umpqua common stock in exchange for each share of Western Sierra common stock held. Umpqua's articles of incorporation and bylaws will be the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the combined company. See

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS for, among other things, a discussion of the differences between Umpqua's and Western Sierra's articles of incorporation and bylaws.

After completion of the merger, Western Sierra shareholders who receive Umpqua common stock in exchange for their Western Sierra common stock will own approximately 21.8% of the combined company, and continuing Umpqua shareholders will own approximately 78.2%.

Background of the Merger

In July 2004 Umpqua acquired Humboldt Bancorp, which furthered Umpqua's strategy of becoming the preeminent community bank in the region extending from Sacramento to Seattle. Since the completion of the Humboldt acquisition, Umpqua has considered and analyzed potential strategic partners operating in and around its designated market area. In early 2005, Umpqua recognized Western Sierra as a potential acquisition candidate. In May 2005, Umpqua and its financial advisor determined that Western Sierra might be in a position to entertain offers to enter into a strategic transaction.

At meetings of the Western Sierra board of directors in the first half of 2005, the Western Sierra board held informal discussions regarding, among other things, concerns with regard to the banking environment generally, consolidation in the banking industry, competition, pressure on interest margins and the ability of the company to continue to meet its goals and to achieve its business plan. Among other alternatives discussed, Western Sierra's board of directors considered the possibility of Western Sierra's engaging in a strategic transaction with another financial institution.

At a meeting held on May 5, 2005 the Western Sierra board discussed Western Sierra's general strategic direction and determined that it would be advisable to have management consult informally with potential financial advisors to seek further information regarding Western Sierra's valuation. At that meeting, Gary D. Gall, president and chief executive officer of Western Sierra, also reported on an oral expression of interest that had been received from a representative of a large national bank holding company, or Company A, regarding an interest in a transaction with Western Sierra. The board determined to have investment banks present to the board on Company A and other potential strategic partners at a later board meeting.

Table of Contents

At a meeting held on May 26, 2005, the Western Sierra board held separate discussions with each of representatives of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., or Sandler O'Neill, and representatives of one other investment bank. The representatives of these investment banks presented to the board information concerning Western Sierra's valuation and concerning other financial institutions likely to be interested in and capable of a transaction with Western Sierra.

In May and June 2005, Raymond P. Davis, president and chief executive officer of Umpqua, contacted Mr. Gall to discuss Western Sierra's and Umpqua's strategic directions.

On June 27, 2005, Mr. Davis advised the Executive/ Governance Committee of Umpqua's board of directors, which oversees Umpqua's acquisition activities, that he had informally discussed a potential acquisition with Western Sierra. Using publicly available information, Umpqua and its financial advisor, Hoefer & Arnett, Inc., analyzed a potential merger transaction with Western Sierra and reviewed potential price ranges for such a transaction.

Western Sierra's board's discussions on strategic matters continued at its meeting on July 15, 2005. Also present at that meeting were representatives of Sandler O'Neill and legal counsel to Western Sierra. A representative of Western Sierra's legal counsel discussed with the board their fiduciary duties in the context of discussing strategic alternatives. Mr. Gall and Patrick J. Rusnak, chief operating officer of Western Sierra, discussed with the board, among other things, the company's five-year strategic plan and the execution risks associated with that plan, including without limitation, the need for additional staffing and the challenges of maintaining or increasing loan and deposit growth in order to achieve the plan. The board then discussed generally its strategic alternatives, including remaining independent, contacting a limited number of other financial institutions that were likely to be interested and capable of a transaction with Western Sierra and contacting a broader group of potential partners. Both management and the board expressed concern regarding the potential for leaks and market rumors in the event that Western Sierra were to contact a broad group of potential partners, and the resulting disruption and adverse impact to Western Sierra's business. The board determined to authorize management to contact Company A as well as one other community bank holding company, or Company B. The board also authorized management to formally engage Sandler O'Neill to assist Western Sierra in these matters and instructed management to have Sandler O'Neill present additional information on Company A and Company B at a later meeting.

During the remainder of July and August 2005, representatives of Sandler O'Neill and management of Western Sierra held discussions with representatives of Company A and Company B regarding their interest in a potential transaction with Western Sierra.

On July 22, 2005, Mr. Gall met with Mr. Davis and another representative of Umpqua, at which meeting Mr. Davis indicated that Umpqua was considering the possibility of making a proposal with respect to a merger with Western Sierra.

On August 25, 2005, the Western Sierra board held a meeting, also attended by representatives of Western Sierra management, as well as representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Sullivan & Cromwell, LLP, legal counsel to Western Sierra. After a discussion by a representative of Sullivan & Cromwell of the fiduciary duties of the directors, representatives of management and Sandler O'Neill updated the board on the status of the evaluation of strategic alternatives and discussions with Company A and Company B. The representatives of Sandler O'Neill made a presentation to the board regarding Western Sierra's valuation and then reported on the indications of interest from Company A and Company B and their respective terms. The board discussed at length the details of the two offers and potential counter-proposals to each of Company A and Company B and instructed Sandler O'Neill to go back to each of Company A and Company B with counter-proposals.

During August and September, Mr. Davis and Mr. Gall had conversations in which Mr. Davis indicated that Umpqua was interested in making a proposal regarding a merger with Western Sierra. Based on the previous discussions of the Western Sierra board and the existing indications of interest from Company A and Company B, Mr. Gall indicated to Mr. Davis in general terms the value that Umpqua would have to offer in order for its proposal to be of interest to Western Sierra and its board. At that time, based on Umpqua's preliminary review of Western Sierra, Mr. Davis indicated that it would be difficult for Umpqua to reach that amount. On September 13, 2005 Mr. Davis informed Umpqua's Executive Committee that although Western Sierra was a good strategic fit for Umpqua, the parties were not close on price and other business points.

On September 9, 2005, the Western Sierra board met again to discuss with management and representatives of Sandler O'Neill the proposals from Company A and Company B. At that meeting, representatives of Sandler updated the board on the status of discussions with the two companies, including revisions to each company's proposal. The board discussed at length with its financial and legal advisors the two alternatives, the businesses of each of Company A and Company B, the risks and challenges associated with each of the two other companies and their respective business models and the risks associated with the two proposals. After extensive consideration, the board authorized management and Sandler O'Neill to focus on negotiations with Company A.

In September and October, 2005, representatives of Company A conducted due diligence with respect to Western Sierra and provided Western Sierra and its legal counsel with draft definitive agreements relating to a proposed merger. During this period, the parties continued to discuss Western Sierra's valuation and Company A's proposal with respect to the merger and merger consideration. Management of Western Sierra updated the board at various times regarding the status of discussions and negotiations with Company A. On or about October 4, 2005, representatives of Company A reported to Sandler O'Neill that, despite Company A's overall satisfaction with the results of its due diligence of Western Sierra and its businesses, Company A was concerned that it would be difficult to integrate Western Sierra's businesses into that of Company A without significant erosion of those businesses and, accordingly, that Company A would not be prepared to proceed with a transaction at that time. On October 12, 2005, Mr. Gall reported on these developments at a meeting of the Western Sierra board. After further discussion, the board authorized management and Sandler O'Neill to continue discussions with Company B.

At its strategic planning retreat in October 2005, Umpqua's board and executive management confirmed their strategic objectives of emphasizing continued growth in northern California, locating appropriate merger partners in that region and enhancing Umpqua Bank's presence in the Sacramento area.

In October 2005, Umpqua management, in consultation with a representative of Hoefer & Arnett, analyzed additional financial and operational information of Western Sierra, and the improving market performance of Umpqua common stock, and concluded that the requirements that had led to cessation of earlier discussions with Mr. Gall may have been mitigated. On October 17, 2005, Mr. Davis called Mr. Gall to discuss a potential merger transaction.

On November 15, 2005, Mr. Gall and another representative of Western Sierra visited with representatives of management of Company B. On November 15, 2005, Western Sierra and Umpqua entered into a confidentiality agreement in connection with the sharing of non-public information with each other. During November and December 2005, Western Sierra continued to have discussions with Company B as well as with Umpqua. In addition, during this time, representatives of Sandler O'Neill made informal inquiries of a limited number of additional financial institutions regarding the potential for a transaction with Western Sierra. While one party preliminarily indicated that it might be interested in making a proposal with respect to a merger with Western Sierra, it was at a level below the then existing proposal from Company B and further inquiries of this other party did not lead to a proposal.

On November 17, 2005, the Western Sierra board of directors established a committee, or the committee, delegating to the committee, among other things, authority with respect to further due diligence efforts and oversight of management's and the advisors' efforts with respect to any strategic transaction and authorizing the committee to make a recommendation to the board for approval of any such transaction. On that same date, Mr. Gall and other members of Western Sierra management updated the committee on the status of discussions with Company B.

Umpqua began off-site due diligence shortly after entering into the confidentiality agreement in November and Mr. Davis reported on the progress of due diligence and discussions with Western Sierra to Umpqua's Executive/Governance Committee.

From December 5 to December 9, 2005, Company B conducted on-site due diligence with respect to Western Sierra and its businesses. On December 7, 2005, Mr. Davis made a presentation to the committee regarding Umpqua, the prospects for the combined company should a potential transaction be consummated and its proposal for a merger with Western Sierra. Following this presentation, a representative of Sandler O'Neill updated the committee on the status of discussions with and due diligence by Company B.

At the regular Umpqua board of directors meeting on December 21, 2005, Mr. Davis gave a presentation to the board on the strategic opportunity presented by Western Sierra, the results of initial due diligence and the status of discussions with Western Sierra regarding a possible merger transaction. Mr. Davis shared with Umpqua's board the presentation he made to the committee. Mr. Davis recommended to the board that Umpqua present a non-binding term sheet at a price based on Umpqua's internal modeling. The board unanimously voted in favor of the proposed term sheet and directed management to proceed.

On December 22, 2005, Umpqua provided Western Sierra with a term sheet that proposed an all stock merger with Western Sierra in which each share of Western Sierra common stock would be converted into merger consideration with a per share value of $44.23 per share, with the exchange ratio to be determined based on the weighted average closing price of Umpqua common stock over a measuring period prior to entering into a definitive merger agreement. The term sheet also addressed other key business aspects of Umpqua's proposal. Through late December and early January, Mr. Gall and representatives of Sandler O'Neill held numerous discussions with Mr. Davis to continue to negotiate the offer from Umpqua, including a meeting with Mr. Davis on January 3, 2006 at Umpqua's headquarters. During the course of those discussions, Umpqua indicated that it would be willing to fix the exchange ratio with Western Sierra at 1.58 shares of Umpqua common stock for each share of Western Sierra common stock.

At meetings of the committee on January 5 and January 9, 2006, Mr. Gall updated the committee on the status of due diligence efforts by both Company B and Umpqua, noting that Company B had substantially completed its due diligence and that Umpqua had conducted extensive due diligence as well, but still needed to complete on-site due diligence primarily with respect to Western Sierra's loan portfolio. Mr. Gall also updated the committee on the status of the discussions with both parties regarding a proposed merger, including Umpqua's then current proposal with respect to the proposed exchange ratio and other terms of the proposed transaction with Western Sierra. After discussion of the two companies and their respective indications of interest, the committee instructed management and Sandler O'Neill to continue their negotiations with both parties.

On January 12, 2006, Umpqua provided Western Sierra with a revised term sheet, which included modifications in response to certain of the key business issues previously raised by Umpqua, including increasing the proposed exchange ratio to 1.61 shares of Umpqua common stock for each share of Western Sierra common stock, although other business issues remained.

Umpqua and Western Sierra and their respective financial and legal advisors conducted due diligence with respect to each other and each other's businesses throughout January and into February, 2006, including on-site diligence by Umpqua and its advisors from January 14 through January 17, 2006 at Western Sierra's headquarters and on-site diligence by Western Sierra and its advisors from January 19 through January 23, 2006 at Umpqua's headquarters.

Mr. Davis updated Umpqua's board on the status of the negotiations at its regular meeting on January 18, 2006.

On January 18, 2006, a representative of Company B informed Sandler O'Neill that Company B would not be prepared to move forward with a transaction with Western Sierra at that time. The representative of Company B reported to Sandler O Neill that its decision to withdraw from discussions with Western Sierra was not related to its due diligence of Western Sierra.

The Western Sierra board of directors held a meeting on January 20, 2006, also attended by representatives of Sandler O Neill and Sullivan & Cromwell. A representative of Sandler O Neill reported on the fact that Company B had withdrawn its proposal with respect to Western Sierra. In addition, the representatives of Sandler O Neill then discussed at length with the board the status of negotiations with Umpqua and Umpqua's proposal. It was noted that, although Umpqua had indicated a willingness to proceed with a transaction at an exchange ratio of 1.61, a number of business issues remained to be negotiated and resolved. At this meeting, representatives of management, Sandler O Neill and Sullivan & Cromwell also reported on the preliminary due diligence efforts to date with respect to Umpqua.

On January 24, 2006 and over the next two business days, Foster Pepper Tooze LLP, or Foster Pepper, Umpqua's counsel, provided draft definitive agreements and proposed amended and restated severance, employment and/or salary continuation agreements for members of Western Sierra's management to Western Sierra. Western Sierra and Umpqua and their respective financial and legal advisors continued to negotiate the terms of a transaction between the two parties, including the terms of the draft definitive agreements and the proposed amended and restated severance, employment and/or salary continuation agreements. Numerous meetings of the committee, attended by representatives of management, Sandler O Neill and Sullivan & Cromwell, were held in late January and early February to update the committee on the status of negotiations between the parties and to seek the committee's guidance with respect to various issues.

On January 30, 2006, Umpqua provided Western Sierra with a revised term sheet, reflecting the resolution of certain business issues although other business issues remained to be negotiated and resolved.

On February 4, 2006, the committee reviewed with the financial and legal advisors of Western Sierra the terms of the proposed transaction and the draft definitive agreements. Management and representatives of the advisers reported to the committee that, although there remained to be resolved two or three outstanding issues, the terms of the proposed merger and the draft definitive agreements were in substantially final form. After a review of the terms of the proposed transaction and lengthy discussion, and subject to a resolution of the remaining issues, the committee unanimously agreed to recommend to the Western Sierra board of directors that they approve the transaction with Umpqua. Over the next several days, Western Sierra and Umpqua and their respective financial and legal advisors continued to negotiate and resolve the remaining issues and to finalize the definitive agreements.

On February 7, 2006, Umpqua's board of directors held a special meeting to consider the proposed merger with Western Sierra. Management summarized the results of their due diligence investigation and the projected financial results of the proposed merger. Representatives of Foster Pepper and Hofer & Arnett also attended the meeting. A representative of Foster Pepper reviewed with the board its fiduciary duties and, together with Mr. Davis and members of Umpqua management, reviewed the proposed terms of the transaction and the definitive merger agreement. A representative of Hofer & Arnett presented a detailed analysis of the proposed transaction with Western Sierra and delivered to the Umpqua board its opinion, confirmed in writing as of the same day, that, as of February 7, 2006, the consideration to be paid by Umpqua to Western Sierra shareholders as provided in the merger agreement was fair and equitable to Umpqua and the holders of Umpqua common stock from a financial point of view. The board asked questions of, and received answers from, Umpqua's management, and representatives of Foster Pepper and Hofer & Arnett, and considered the factors they deemed relevant to the proposal including, among other things, the opinion of its financial advisor, before voting unanimously to approve the merger and the definitive merger agreement and present the merger to Umpqua shareholders with a recommendation that Umpqua's shareholders approve the principal terms of the merger agreement.

On February 7, 2006, the Western Sierra board of directors held a meeting to consider the proposed transaction with Umpqua. Also in attendance at this meeting were representatives of Sandler O Neill and Sullivan & Cromwell. A representative of Sullivan & Cromwell again reviewed with the board its fiduciary duties, following which the representative of Sullivan & Cromwell and management reviewed with the board the proposed terms of the transaction with Umpqua and of the definitive agreements, including the proposed amended and restated severance, employment and/or salary continuation agreements. The representatives of Sandler O Neill then made a presentation to the board regarding the proposed transaction with Umpqua and delivered to the Western Sierra board its opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing as of that same date, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the various factors, assumptions and limitations set forth in Sandler O Neill's opinion, the exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to Western Sierra's shareholders. Based on all relevant factors they considered material, including, among other things, the opinion of its financial advisor and the recommendation of the committee, the board of directors unanimously approved the merger and the definitive agreements and determined that the merger is fair to and in the best interests of Western Sierra and its shareholders and determined to recommend that the shareholders of Western Sierra approve the principal terms of the merger agreement.

After the close of business on February 7, 2006, the parties executed and delivered the merger agreement. On February 8, 2006, the parties issued a joint press release announcing the proposed merger.

Umpqua's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Umpqua's Board of Directors

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that Umpqua shareholders approve the principal terms of the merger agreement, including the issuance of shares of Umpqua common stock to Western Sierra shareholders, Umpqua's board of directors considered and reviewed with senior management and outside financial and legal advisors a significant amount of information and factors relevant to the merger, including its strategic plan. Umpqua's board of directors determined that the merger would significantly advance Umpqua's strategic plan and that the proposed merger is in the best interests of Umpqua and its shareholders. Umpqua's board of directors carefully considered the following potentially positive factors in its deliberations:

The opinion of Hofer & Arnett, Inc., which is attached as Appendix C, that as of February 7, 2006, the consideration to be paid to Western Sierra shareholders in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Umpqua shareholders. The board considered the factors discussed in Hofer & Arnett's analysis but did not assign or consider any specific weighting to those factors.

The effectiveness of the merger in implementing Umpqua's growth strategy. The board reviewed the markets served by Western Sierra and recognized in the merger the ability for Umpqua to enhance its presence Northern California, particularly along the I-5 corridor in the Sacramento area.

A presentation by management of management's due diligence review of Western Sierra, including the business, operations, earnings, asset quality, financial condition, and corporate culture of Western Sierra on a historical, prospective, and pro forma basis. These reviews generally found Western Sierra to be financially sound, well capitalized and well managed.

The compatibility of corporate goals and the respective contributions the parties would bring to a combined institution. The board noted the similar community banking philosophies of the management and employees of both institutions.

The complementary customer bases, products and services of Umpqua and Western Sierra could result in opportunities to obtain synergies as products are cross-marketed and distributed over broader customer bases and best practices are compared and applied across the combined company.

The compatibility of each company's data processing systems that should significantly reduce the integration costs and risk of errors in customer account conversions.

Although Umpqua Bank and Western Sierra National Bank operate in the markets surrounding Sacramento, California, there is little overlap of store locations, which, when coupled with the new markets served by Auburn Community Bank, Central California Bank and Lake Community Bank in surrounding areas, the Umpqua board believed to present a desirable strategic opportunity for 33

expansion of its existing presence and market share. In particular, Umpqua's board considered that the resulting institution's branch network and franchise would be enhanced in the Sacramento area, which is expected to continue as a growing market.

The enhanced opportunities for acquisition and growth that the merger makes possible as a result of the greater capitalization of the combined company and the anticipated enhanced liquidity in the market for its stock.

The expanded opportunities for revenue enhancement and synergies that are expected to result from the merger. The board assessed possible synergies and recognized that the combined organization could reduce aggregate expenses that Umpqua and Western Sierra incur in areas such as salaries and benefits, occupancy expense, professional and outside service fees, and communications expense.

The execution of amended and restated employment, severance and salary continuation agreements by officers of Western Sierra and its subsidiary banks, which provide incentives to key employees to remain with Umpqua during the integration period following completion of the merger. The board considered the commitments of such officers as indications that the integration process and Umpqua's move into new markets would be successful and that the presence of senior management from Western Sierra would help assure continuity in the operation of the combined company.

The terms of the merger agreement and the Voting, Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation Agreements executed by each director of Western Sierra and of its subsidiary banks in connection with the merger. The board viewed the commitment of all directors to support the merger as indications that the merger would likely be consummated.

The tax effects of the merger. The board considered that the merger would qualify as a corporate reorganization entitled to favorable tax treatment for the parties to the merger and for their shareholders.

The Umpqua board of directors did not assign any specific or relative weight to the information it reviewed in the course of its consideration. Umpqua's board of directors unanimously recommends that Umpqua shareholders vote FOR the merger proposal.

Western Sierra's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Western Sierra's Board of Directors

In reaching its determination to approve and adopt the merger agreement, the board of directors of Western Sierra consulted with Western Sierra's management, its legal counsel and financial advisors, and considered a number of factors, including, without limitation, the following:

The opinion of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., which is attached as Appendix D, that as of February 7, 2006 the exchange ratio, as set forth in the merger agreement, was fair, from a financial point of view, to Western Sierra shareholders.

The terms of the merger, including the exchange ratio, and various other documents related to the merger.

The results of the due diligence review of Umpqua's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality and corporate culture conducted by Western Sierra management with the assistance of its advisors.

The concerns of the Western Sierra board with regard to the banking environment generally, consolidation in the banking industry, competition, pressure on interest margins and the ability of the company to continue to meet its goals and to execute on its business plan.

The current and prospective economic and competitive environment facing the financial services industry generally, including the continued rapid consolidation in the industry and the increased importance of operational scale and financial resources in maintaining efficiency and remaining competitive over the long term.

The fact that the merger will allow Western Sierra shareholders, as shareholders of the combined corporation, to share in the potential growth and increased diversification of a significantly larger three-state financial holding company.

The Western Sierra board of directors' review, based in part on presentations by its financial advisor and Western Sierra's management, of the business, operations, financial condition and earnings of Umpqua on an historical and prospective basis and of the combined company on a pro forma basis and the historical stock price performance of Umpqua's common stock and Umpqua's greater market capitalization and liquidity relative to that of Western Sierra.

The terms of the merger agreement, including a provision permitting Western Sierra to terminate the merger agreement if the weighted average closing price of Umpqua's common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected merger closing date is $22.59 or lower, and that decline in Umpqua's price is 10% worse than the performance of the NASDAQ Bank Index over the same period, thereby limiting the risk to Western Sierra's shareholders of possible significant and disproportionate declines in the trading price of Umpqua's common stock.

The fact that, based on the closing price of Umpqua's common stock on February 6, 2006, the value of the per share merger consideration to be received by Western Sierra shareholders represented a multiple of diluted earnings per share multiple for the 12 months ended December 31, 2005 of 19.7x and 263.0% of book value per share as of December 31, 2005.

The fact that, based on the closing price of Umpqua's common stock on February 6, 2006, the value of the per share merger consideration to be received by Western Sierra shareholders represented a premium of 8.7% over the closing price of Western Sierra common stock on that date, and a premium of 12% over the average closing price of Western Sierra common stock for the fifteen trading days prior to the announcement of the transaction.

The fact that the merger agreement permits Western Sierra to declare cash dividends prior to the closing at the same time and in the same amount per share as Umpqua's dividends on its common stock and the probability that Western Sierra's shareholders, who have not historically received cash dividends on Western Sierra's common stock, will receive dividend income with respect to the shares of Umpqua's common stock to be received in the merger.

The Western Sierra board's belief that a merger with Umpqua would enable Western Sierra shareholders to participate in a combined company that would have better future prospects than Western Sierra was likely to achieve on a stand-alone basis, including a more diversified customer base and, hence, more diversified revenue sources.

The expectation that the Umpqua/ Western Sierra merger will be tax-free for federal income tax purposes to Western Sierra and Western Sierra's stockholders.

The common business philosophy and compatibility of the management and staff of Western Sierra and Umpqua.

The greater number of shareholders and the increased market capitalization of the combined company, which may result in increased interest in Umpqua stock from institutional investors and market professionals which, in turn, may result in improved liquidity for shareholders.

The provisions of the merger agreement entitling Western Sierra's board to withdraw its recommendation of the merger to the Western Sierra shareholders and the provisions permitting Western Sierra's board to terminate the merger agreement with Umpqua to the extent specifically authorized by its board of directors in the good faith exercise of its fiduciary duties after consultation with legal counsel.

The $14 million termination fee that would have to be paid to Umpqua under specified circumstances, including the risk that payment of the termination fee might discourage third parties from offering to acquire Western Sierra, but recognizing that the amount of termination fee was equal to about 4% of the total merger consideration and that the termination fee was a condition to Umpqua's willingness to enter into the merger agreement with Western Sierra.

The interests of certain Western Sierra directors and officers in the merger, as described under the caption

Interests of Western Sierra Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 1 of this document, and the fact some of those interests are different from or are in addition to the interests of Western Sierra shareholders in the merger generally

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by Western Sierra's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include the material factors considered by the board of directors. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger agreement, Western Sierra's board of directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors.

For the reasons set forth above, the Western Sierra board determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are in the best interests of Western Sierra and its shareholders. The Western Sierra board recommends that Western Sierra shareholders vote FOR the merger proposal.

Opinion of Umpqua's Financial Advisor

At the request of Umpqua, Hoefer & Arnett has provided to the Umpqua board of directors a written opinion to the effect that, subject to the qualifications, limitations and assumptions set forth in the opinion, as of the date Umpqua entered into the Agreement the consideration to be paid by Umpqua as provided in the Agreement was fair to the holders of Umpqua common stock from a financial point of view.

The following summary of Hoefer & Arnett's opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion, and shareholders of Umpqua are urged to read the opinion in its entirety in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

considered the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of selected recent business combinations of companies in the banking industry which Hoefer & Arnett deemed to be comparable, in whole or in part, to the merger;

made inquiries regarding and discussed the merger and the Agreement and other related matters with Umpqua and Umpqua's legal counsel.

In addition, Hoefer & Arnett held discussions with the managements of Umpqua and Western Sierra concerning their views as to the financial and other information described above and the potential cost savings, operating synergies, revenue enhancements and strategic benefits expected to result from the merger. Hoefer & Arnett also conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other financial, economic and market criteria as it deemed appropriate to arrive at its opinion. It did not, however, make or review any independent evaluations or appraisals of any of the assets, properties, liabilities or securities, or make any physical inspection of the properties or assets of Umpqua. It assumed the adequacy of allowances for losses in loan portfolios, and did not undertake to review any individual credit files, for Umpqua or Western Sierra.

In delivering its opinion to the board of directors of Umpqua, Hoefer & Arnett prepared and delivered to the board written materials containing various analyses and other information. Subject to the provisions of the Agreement, each share of Western Sierra common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger shall be converted into the right to receive consideration equal to 1.61 shares of Umpqua, subject to a floor. The aggregate number of Umpqua shares to be issued in exchange for all of Western Sierra's common stock is approximately 12.46 million. Options to purchase Western Sierra's common stock that remain unexercised at the time of transaction close will be converted into options to purchase Umpqua shares per customary conversion methodology as described in the merger agreement. The fully diluted per share purchase price as of the date of the fairness opinion was $44.82 and as of the date of the Agreement was $43.89. For purposes of the fairness opinion, Hoefer & Arnett assumed 7,737,216 shares of Western Sierra common stock outstanding and 632,455 options to purchase Western Sierra common stock outstanding at a weighted average exercise price of $20.44 per share, based on information available as of February 3, 2006.

The following are summaries of the analyses contained in the materials delivered to Umpqua board of directors:

Public Comparable Company Analysis. This method applies the comparative public market information of comparable companies to Umpqua and Western Sierra. The methodology assumes companies in the same industry share similar markets, and the potential for revenue and earnings growth is usually dependent upon the characteristics of the growth rates of these markets, and companies that operate within the same industry or line of business experience similar operating characteristics and business opportunities and risks. The underlying component in the comparable company analysis assumes the companies are ongoing concerns.

Merger and Acquisition Transaction Analysis

Hofer & Arnett reviewed certain publicly available information regarding 22 selected merger and acquisition transactions (the Comparable Transactions) from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005 involving commercial banks and bank holding companies, in which the sellers (i) were headquartered and operated their banking business in the United States, and (ii) in which the aggregate deal value at transaction announcement was greater than $100 million and less than $750 million.

For each transaction, Hofer & Arnett analyzed data illustrating, among other things, the multiple of purchase price to LTM earnings, the multiple of purchase price to tangible book value, and the ratio of the premium (i.e., purchase price in excess of tangible book value) to core deposits.

A summary of the average and median multiples and ratios for the Comparable Transactions Group in the analysis follows:

COMPARABLE TRANSACTION GROUP ANALYSIS

Buyer/ Target Name	Price Per Fully Diluted Share	Total Assets ($000)	Deal Announce Date	Deal Value ($M)	Price to
					TBV (%)	LTM Earnings (x)	Prem Core (%)
Comparable Transaction Group Average		958,733		215.1	301.5	26.3	27.9

UMPQUA/ WSBA	Exchange Ratio = 1.6100	1,292,573	2/8/2006	362.2	373.19	20.75	30.61

An analysis of the results of the foregoing necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of Western Sierra and the companies included in the selected merger transactions and other factors that could affect the acquisition value of the companies to which it is being compared. Mathematical analyses such as determining the median or average is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable transaction data.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

In performing the Discounted Cash Flow analysis, Hoefer & Arnett estimated the future cash earnings of Western Sierra on both a stand-alone basis and a pro forma basis (including the operational benefits that are expected to result from the transaction), and then discounted those values back to the present using discount rates of 8.0%, 10.0%, and 12.0%. Free cash flow in our analysis is equal to the cash earnings of Western Sierra less the amount of retained earnings necessary to maintain an equity-to-assets ratio of 7.0%. Terminal values assume a cash earnings growth rate of 3.5% into perpetuity.

Table of Contents

This analysis indicates that the present value of Western Sierra's future cash flows ranged from $31.97 to $57.53 per share on a stand-alone basis and from $35.19 to $65.34 on a pro forma basis, compared to the value of Umpqua's stock offer equal to an exchange ratio of 1.61, or $43.89 per share as of the date of the Agreement.

Present Value Analysis

In performing the Present Value analysis, Hoefer & Arnett applied a price-to-earnings multiple ranging from 8.0x to 24.0x and a price-to-book value ratio ranging from 100% to 300% to Western Sierra's projected future earnings per share and book value per share, resulting in an implied projected stock price range. The projected stock prices were discounted to the present using discount rates of 8.0% to 15.0%.

On a stand-alone basis, this analysis indicates that the present value of Western Sierra's future stock price based on the price-to-earnings multiple averaged $39.00 and ranged from $16.66 to $67.97 per share, and based on the price-to-book value ratios averaged $39.44 and ranged from $16.85 to $68.75 per share compared to the value of Umpqua's stock offer equal to an exchange ratio of 1.61, or $43.89 per share as of the date of the Agreement.

On a pro forma basis, this analysis indicates that the present value of Western Sierra's future stock price based on the price-to-earnings multiple averaged $45.99 and ranged from $19.64 to $80.16 per share, and based on the price-to-book value ratios averaged $40.32 and ranged from $17.22 to $70.27 per share compared to the value of Umpqua's stock offer equal to an exchange ratio of 1.61, or $43.89 per share as of the date of the Agreement.

Accretion Analysis

Hoefer & Arnett analyzed the projected 2006 through 2008 earnings per share for one original share of Umpqua common stock, adjusted for the exchange ratio assuming 100% stock conversion. Hoefer & Arnett compared the projected earnings per share for the holders of Umpqua common stock on a stand-alone basis and on a combined pro forma basis for Umpqua and Western Sierra. This analysis assumes, among other things, that the transaction is completed in the second quarter of 2006 and expense savings are fully realized in 2007 and all periods thereafter. This analysis results in neutral earnings impact in 2006 and positive earnings accretion in excess of 3% in 2007 and 2008.

This analysis suggests that there are higher potential earnings per share and therefore higher potential value per share for the holders of Umpqua common stock if the merger is completed.

This analysis relies on financial projections for Umpqua and Western Sierra, which projections may be significantly different from actual results. Therefore, the accretion experienced by Umpqua and/or Western Sierra may be significantly different than projected.

While the foregoing summaries describe several analyses and examinations that Hoefer & Arnett deemed material in its opinion, it is not a comprehensive description of all analyses and examinations actually conducted by Hoefer & Arnett. The preparation of a fairness opinion necessarily involves various determinations of the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances, and, therefore, is not susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Each of the analyses conducted by Hoefer & Arnett was carried out in order to provide a different perspective on the transaction and to add to the total mix of information available. Hoefer & Arnett did not form a conclusion as to whether any individual analysis, considered alone, supported or failed to support an opinion as to fairness from a financial point of view. Rather, in reaching its conclusion, Hoefer & Arnett considered the results of the analyses as a whole and did not place particular reliance or weight on any individual factor. Therefore, selecting portions of the analyses and factors considered, without considering all such analyses and factors, would create an incomplete or misleading view of the process underlying the analysis. The range of valuations resulting from any particular analysis should not be taken to be Hoefer & Arnett's view of the actual value or predicted future value of Umpqua's common stock.

In performing its analyses, Hofer & Arnett made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance and general business and economic conditions such as industry growth, inflation, interest rates and many other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Umpqua, Western Sierra and Hofer & Arnett. Any estimates contained in Hofer & Arnett's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by the analyses. Additionally, estimates of the values of the business and securities do not purport to be appraisals of the assets or market value of Umpqua and Western Sierra or their securities, nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which transactions may actually be consummated.

In arriving at its opinion, Hofer & Arnett assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information provided to or reviewed by Hofer & Arnett, including publicly available information, and Hofer & Arnett did not assume any responsibility for independent verification of any such information. With respect to financial projections and other information provided to or reviewed by Hofer & Arnett, Hofer & Arnett was advised by the managements of Umpqua and Western Sierra that such projections and other information were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the respective managements of Umpqua and Western Sierra as to the expected future financial performance of Umpqua and Western Sierra, and Hofer & Arnett assumed that, after the merger, Umpqua and Western Sierra and its subsidiaries will perform substantially in accordance with such projections. Hofer & Arnett's opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Umpqua to enter into the Agreement or complete the merger.

Pursuant to the terms of an engagement letter with Umpqua, Hofer & Arnett will receive a fee from Umpqua. The Bank has also agreed to reimburse Hofer & Arnett for its expenses incurred in connection with its engagement and to indemnify Hofer & Arnett against certain liabilities.

In the ordinary course of its business, Hofer & Arnett and its affiliates may actively trade the common stock of Umpqua and Western Sierra for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, Hofer & Arnett may at any time hold a long or short position in the common stock of Umpqua or Western Sierra.

Hofer & Arnett's opinion is for the benefit and use of the members of the board of directors of Umpqua in connection with their evaluation of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Umpqua common stock as to how such holder should vote with respect to the merger.

Opinion of Western Sierra's Financial Advisor

By letter dated August 25, 2005, Western Sierra retained Sandler O'Neill to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible business combination with another financial institution. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to Western Sierra in connection with the proposed merger and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the merger agreement. At the February 7, 2006 meeting at which Western Sierra's board considered and approved the merger agreement, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the board its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, the exchange ratio was fair to Western Sierra's shareholders from a financial point of view. Sandler O'Neill has confirmed its February 7, 2006 opinion by delivering to the board a written opinion dated the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. In rendering its updated opinion, Sandler O'Neill confirmed the appropriateness of its reliance on the analyses used to render its earlier opinion by reviewing the assumptions upon which its analyses were based, performing procedures to update certain of its analyses and reviewing the other factors considered in rendering its opinion. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's updated opinion is attached as Appendix D. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion and Western Sierra shareholders are urged to read the entire Sandler O Neill opinion.

Sandler O Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus. The opinion was directed to the Western Sierra board and is directed only to the fairness of the exchange ratio to Western Sierra shareholders from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of Western Sierra to engage in the merger or any other aspect of the merger and is not a recommendation to any Western Sierra shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the special meeting with respect to the merger or any other matter.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Sandler O Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

1. the agreement;
2. certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Western Sierra that they deemed relevant;
3. certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Umpqua that they deemed relevant;
4. earnings per share estimates for Western Sierra for the years ending December 31, 2006 and long-term earnings per share growth rates for the years thereafter, in each case, as provided by, and reviewed with, senior management of Western Sierra;
5. earnings per share estimates for Umpqua for the year ending December 31, 2006 provided by and reviewed with senior management of Umpqua and long-term earnings per share growth rates for the years thereafter, in each case, provided by and reviewed with senior management of Umpqua;
6. the pro forma financial impact of the merger on Umpqua, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings determined by the senior management of Umpqua and reviewed with senior management of Western Sierra;
7. the relative contributions of assets, liabilities, equity and earnings of Western Sierra and Umpqua to the resulting institution;
8. the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Western Sierra's and Umpqua's common stock, including a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for Western Sierra and Umpqua and similar publicly available information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded;
9. the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available;
10. the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and
11. such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as they considered relevant.

Sandler O Neill also discussed with certain members of senior management of Western Sierra the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Western Sierra and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of Umpqua regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Umpqua.

In performing its reviews and analyses and in rendering its opinions, Sandler O Neill assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all the financial information, analyses and other information that was publicly available or otherwise furnished to, reviewed by or discussed with it and further relied on the assurances of senior management of Western Sierra and Umpqua that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to and did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any of such information and they did not assume any responsibility or liability for its accuracy or completeness. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Western Sierra or Umpqua or any of their respective subsidiaries, or the collectibility of any such assets, nor was it furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O'Neill is not an expert in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and it did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Western Sierra or Umpqua, nor did it review any individual credit files relating to Western Sierra or Umpqua. With Western Sierra's consent, Sandler O'Neill assumed that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Western Sierra and Umpqua were adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. In addition, Sandler O'Neill did not conduct any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Western Sierra or Umpqua.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based upon market, economic and other conditions as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of the opinion. Sandler O'Neill assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to such agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in the merger agreement are not waived. Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Western Sierra's consent, that there had been no material change in Western Sierra's and Umpqua's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the last financial statements made available to them, that Western Sierra and Umpqua will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses and that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. With Western Sierra's consent, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the advice Western Sierra received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The earnings projections used and relied upon by Sandler O'Neill for Western Sierra and Umpqua in its analyses were based upon internal financial projections for the respective companies prepared and furnished by the managements of Western Sierra and Umpqua. With respect to such financial projections and all of Umpqua's projections of costs, purchase accounting adjustments and expected cost savings relating to the merger, the managements of the respective institutions confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements of the future financial performance of Western Sierra and Umpqua, respectively, and Sandler O'Neill assumed for purposes of its analyses that such performances would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such financial projections or the assumptions on which they were based.

In rendering its February 7, 2006 opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill, but is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Western Sierra or Umpqua and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Western Sierra or Umpqua and the companies to which they are being compared.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Western Sierra, Umpqua and Sandler O Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to the Western Sierra board at the board's February 7th meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Western Sierra's common stock or Umpqua's common stock or the prices at which Western Sierra's or Umpqua's common stock may be sold at any time.

Summary of Proposal

Sandler O Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction. Based upon the closing price of Umpqua's common stock on February 6, 2006 of $27.34 and the exchange ratio of 1.61, Sandler O Neill calculated an implied transaction value of $44.02 per share. Based upon financial information for Western for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005, Sandler O Neill calculated the following ratios:

Transaction Ratios

Transaction value/ Last 12 months earnings per share	19.7x
Transaction value/ Tangible book value per share	352.9%
Transaction value/ Stated book value per share	263.0%
Tangible book premium/ Core deposits ¹	31.4%
Premium to Market Price ²	8.7%

² Based on Western Sierra's closing price of $40.50 as of 2/6/06.

For purposes of Sandler O Neill's analyses, earnings per share were based on fully diluted earnings per share. The aggregate transaction value was approximately $356.3 million, based upon 7,803,590 shares of Western Sierra common stock outstanding and including the intrinsic value of options to purchase an aggregate of 565,420 shares with a weighted average strike price of $21.40.

Analysis of Selected Merger Transactions

Sandler O'Neill reviewed 80 merger transactions announced nationwide from January 1, 2003 through February 6, 2006 involving commercial banks as acquired institutions with transaction values between $100 and $500 million. Sandler O'Neill also reviewed 11 merger transactions announced during the same period involving commercial banks in California with transaction values between $100 and $500 million. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the multiples of transaction price at announcement to last twelve months earnings per share, transaction price to book value per share, transaction price to tangible book value per share, tangible book premium to core deposits and premium to market price and computed high, low, mean and median multiples and premiums for the transactions. The median multiples were applied to Western Sierra's financial information as of and for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005. As illustrated in the following table, Sandler O'Neill derived an imputed range of values per share of Western Sierra's common stock of $37.16 to $52.31 based upon the median multiples for nationwide commercial bank transactions and $34.47 to $50.29 based upon the median multiples for California commercial bank transactions. The implied transaction value of the merger as calculated by Sandler O'Neill was $44.02 per share.

Discounted Cash Flow and Terminal Value Analysis

Sandler O'Neill performed an analysis that estimated the future stream of after-tax cash flows of Western Sierra through December 31, 2008 under various circumstances, assuming Western Sierra's projected dividend stream and that Western Sierra performed in accordance with the earnings projections generated by and reviewed with management. For periods after 2006, Sandler O'Neill assumed annual earnings per share growth rates ranging from of approximately 13%. To approximate the terminal value of Western Sierra common stock at December 31, 2008, Sandler O'Neill applied price/earnings multiples ranging from 14x to 24x and multiples of tangible book value ranging from 150% to 400%. The income streams, dividend streams and terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 9% to 15% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Western Sierra common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, this analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of Western Sierra common stock of $31.86 to $62.98 when applying the price/earnings multiples and $21.19 to $63.63 when applying multiples of tangible book value. The implied transaction value of the merger as calculated by Sandler O Neill was $44.02 per share.

Sandler O Neill performed a similar analysis that estimated the future stream of after-tax cash flows of Umpqua through December 31, 2008 under various circumstances, assuming Umpqua's projected dividend stream and that Umpqua performed in accordance with the earnings projections generated and reviewed with management. For periods after 2006, Sandler O Neill assumed an annual earnings per share growth rate of approximately 13%. In connection with its analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Western Sierra Board how the present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income, growth rate of earnings per share and dividend payout ratio. Sandler O'Neill noted that the discounted dividend stream and terminal value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Contribution Analysis

Sandler O'Neill reviewed the relative contributions to be made by Western Sierra and Umpqua to the combined institution based on financial information of both companies as of December 31, 2005. The percentage of pro forma common shares owned was determined using the exchange ratio of 1.61. This analysis indicated that the implied contributions to the combined entity were as follows:

Pro Forma Merger Analysis

Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, assuming the following: (1) the merger closes in the second quarter of 2006, (2) 100% of the Western Sierra shares are exchanged for Umpqua common stock at an exchange ratio of 1.61, (3) earnings per share projections for Western Sierra and Umpqua are consistent with internal projections and guidance as discussed with management of both companies for 2006 and 2007, and (4) purchase accounting adjustments, charges and transaction costs associated with the merger and cost savings determined by the senior managements of Umpqua and Western Sierra. The analysis indicated that for the six months ending December 31, 2006, the merger would be approximately 0.8% dilutive to Umpqua's projected earnings per share and approximately 4.6% accretive to Western Sierra's earnings per share. The analysis indicated that for the twelve months ending December 31, 2007, the merger would be approximately 3.0% accretive to Umpqua's projected earnings per share and approximately 8.5% accretive to Western Sierra's earnings per share. The analysis also indicated that at the assumed closing date for the transaction, the merger would be approximately 5.4% dilutive to Umpqua's tangible book value per share and approximately 9.8% dilutive to Western Sierra's tangible book value per share.

In connection with its analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Western Sierra Board how the pro forma analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to the growth rate of earnings per share of each company. Sandler O'Neill noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Western has agreed to pay Sandler O'Neill a transaction fee in connection with the merger of approximately $3,435,140 (based on the closing price of Umpqua's common stock as of February 6, 2006), of which none has been paid and is contingent, and payable, upon closing of the merger. Western Sierra has also paid Sandler O'Neill $300,000 for rendering its opinion, which will be credited against that portion of the transaction fee due upon closing of the merger. Western Sierra has also agreed to reimburse certain of Sandler O'Neill's reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement and to indemnify Sandler O'Neill and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees, agents, and controlling persons against certain expenses and liabilities, including liabilities under securities laws.

Sandler O'Neill has in the past provided other investment banking services to Western Sierra and received compensation for such services. Sandler O'Neill has not in the past provided investment banking services to Umpqua, but they may provide, and receive compensation for, such services in the future, including during the period prior to the closing of the Merger. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Western Sierra and Umpqua and their respective affiliates and may actively trade the debt and/or equity securities of Western Sierra and Umpqua and their respective affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Merger Consideration

When the merger is completed, Western Sierra shareholders will have the right to exchange each share of Western Sierra common stock they own for 1.61 shares of Umpqua common stock.

Possible Adjustment to the Merger Consideration

Western Sierra may notify Umpqua of its intent to terminate the merger agreement if, prior to the effective date of the merger:

the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger is less than $22.59, and

Umpqua's stock price has underperformed the Nasdaq Bank Index by more than 10%.

The comparison of Umpqua's stock price performance to that of the Nasdaq Bank Index is based on:

an initial Umpqua stock price of $28.24 and initial index of 3,126.17, each of which is equal to the average closing price over the fifteen trading days from January 18, 2006, through and including February 7, 2006, the trading day prior to announcement of the merger, and the final Umpqua stock price and final index, each of which will be equal to the average closing price over the fifteen trading day period through and including the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger.

If Western Sierra's board of directors gives notice of its intent to terminate the merger agreement due to a disproportionate decline in Umpqua's stock price, Umpqua's board of directors may elect to increase the total number of shares of Umpqua common stock to be issued to Western Sierra shareholders in the merger by the amount of shares such that the exchange ratio is equal to the number derived by multiplying 1.61 times the quotient obtained by dividing $22.59 by the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination.

Changes to Umpqua's Common Stock Prior to the Effective Date

If, prior to the effective date of the merger, Umpqua changes the number of shares of Umpqua common stock issued and outstanding as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Umpqua common stock, or exchanges Umpqua common stock for a different number or kind of shares or securities, the exchange ratio will be proportionally adjusted.

Fractional Shares

No fractional shares of Umpqua common stock will be issued to any holder of Western Sierra common stock in the merger. For each fractional share that would otherwise be issued, Umpqua will pay cash in an amount calculated by the exchange agent based on the average closing price of Umpqua common stock for the ten trading days through and including the second trading day prior to the effective date of the merger. No interest will be paid or accrued on cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of Umpqua common stock.

Rights of Holders of Western Sierra Stock Certificates Prior to Surrender

From the effective date of the merger until each Western Sierra shareholder surrenders his or her stock certificates, he or she will not be paid dividends or other distributions declared or payable to holders of record of Umpqua common stock as of any time subsequent to the effective date. Each Western Sierra shareholder's rights to dividends or other distributions will be held by the exchange agent until he or she submits his or her stock certificates. No interest will be paid on dividends or distributions on the Umpqua common stock. Each Western Sierra shareholder will, however, have other rights as an Umpqua shareholder, including the right to vote on any matter submitted to shareholders for approval.

Until completion of the merger, Western Sierra shareholders will be entitled to receive quarterly cash dividends declared by Western Sierra in amounts per share equal to Umpqua's regular quarterly cash dividend. Western Sierra has agreed not to pay any other dividends and has agreed to declare, set and pay quarterly dividends on the same dates as Umpqua declares, sets and pays its regular quarterly cash dividend.

Conversion of Western Sierra Common Stock

Promptly following closing of the merger, an exchange agent will mail to each Western Sierra shareholder a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering Western Sierra stock certificates. To ensure timely receipt of Umpqua common stock, Western Sierra shareholders should complete and sign the letter of transmittal and submit their stock certificates immediately upon receipt. Certificates representing shares of Western Sierra common stock should not be returned at this time.

Following closing of the merger and upon surrender of the certificates representing shares of Western Sierra common stock registered in his or her name, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, the exchange agent will mail to each Western Sierra shareholder the Umpqua common stock to which he or she is entitled.

Lost Certificates

If a Western Sierra shareholder's stock certificates have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, before he or she can receive the merger consideration for the shares represented by such certificates, he or she must submit an affidavit that the certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required, post a reasonable bond as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Umpqua with respect to such certificates.

Table of Contents

Effective Date of the Merger

The merger will become effective when Umpqua files articles of merger with the Oregon Secretary of State. Umpqua will file the articles of merger within fifteen days following the date upon which all shareholder and regulatory approvals are received or at such time and date as Western Sierra and Umpqua agree. The parties currently anticipate that the merger will be completed during the second quarter of 2006.

Treatment of Outstanding Stock Options

As of March 1, 2006, there were options outstanding under various Western Sierra stock option plans to purchase 1 share of Western Sierra common stock at exercise prices ranging from $4.168 to $38.36 per share.

When the merger becomes effective, Umpqua will assume Western Sierra's obligations with respect to each option outstanding under Western Sierra's stock option plans. Neither Umpqua nor Western Sierra will grant additional options under the Western Sierra plans.

After completion of the merger:

Each option may be exercised only for Umpqua common stock.

Each option will become an option to purchase the number of shares of Umpqua common stock equal to the exchange ratio multiplied by the number of shares of Western Sierra common stock subject to such option. Following the merger, each option will be fully vested but all other terms and conditions will continue.

The exercise price per share of each option will be equal to exercise price of such option prior to the completion of the merger divided by the exchange ratio.

The above adjustments will be made in a manner that preserves the status of incentive stock options (as defined in Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) to the extent applicable to avoid a disqualifying disposition of the stock underlying the incentive stock options.

All previously outstanding Umpqua stock options will remain outstanding and will not be affected by the merger.

Resulting Board of Directors of Umpqua

Immediately following completion of the merger, the board of directors of the combined company will consist of fifteen directors, including the fourteen current Umpqua directors and one director of Western Sierra or one of its subsidiary banks who will be selected by Umpqua from a list provided by Western Sierra.

The Umpqua board of directors is currently a classified board of directors with the directors serving staggered three-year terms. At the 2006 annual meeting, Umpqua shareholders will vote on a proposal to amend Umpqua's articles of incorporation to declassify the board of directors. If the amendment is approved, each director will serve one-year terms. If the amendment is not approved, the Western Sierra director who joins the Umpqua board following completion of the merger will be required to stand for election at the 2007 annual meeting of Umpqua shareholders if he or she is nominated to serve.

If a director resigns or otherwise ceases to serve as a director following the effective date of the merger and before the next annual shareholder meeting of the combined company, the Umpqua board will fill any vacancy in accordance with Umpqua's bylaws, and as required by Oregon law, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. If the Western Sierra director selected by Umpqua becomes unable to serve as an Umpqua director prior to completion of the merger, a replacement director from the list provided by Western Sierra will be selected by Umpqua.

Table of Contents

Umpqua Bank has eight divisional boards of directors, which serve as community advisory groups to Umpqua Bank. Prior to the closing of the merger, Umpqua will offer at least 10 positions on an Umpqua Bank California divisional board of directors to interested directors of Western Sierra or its subsidiary banks, with such appointments to be effective upon the closing of the merger.

Information regarding current Umpqua directors is included in this document. See UMPQUA ANNUAL MEETING PROPOSALS Information About Umpqua's Directors and Executive Officers.

Information regarding current Western Sierra directors is set forth in Western Sierra's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, which is incorporated by reference into this document. At this time, the identities of the Western Sierra director joining the Umpqua board and the Western Sierra directors joining an Umpqua Bank California divisional board have not been determined.

Interests of Western Sierra Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Western Sierra board of directors, Western Sierra shareholders should be aware that members of Western Sierra's management have interests in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement that are in addition to the interests of Western Sierra's shareholders generally, which may create potential conflicts of interest. The Western Sierra board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the other proposed transactions.

Western Sierra Stock Options

Pursuant to the merger agreement and the terms and conditions of Western Sierra's outstanding stock option plans, all unvested Western Sierra stock options outstanding at the closing of the merger will become fully vested and all Western Sierra stock options will convert into the right to receive options to acquire shares of Umpqua common stock. After the merger, each Western Sierra stock option will represent the right to acquire a number of shares of Umpqua common stock equal to the product of the number of shares of Western Sierra common stock issuable upon exercise of the option and the exchange ratio of 1.61 and the exercise price per share of Umpqua common stock under each such converted option will equal the quotient of the exercise price of the Western Sierra stock option divided by the exchange ratio of 1.61.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

The merger agreement requires Umpqua to indemnify, following the effective time of the merger, the present and former directors and officers of Western Sierra to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, unless it is determined that the person seeking indemnification acted in bad faith and not in a manner that such person believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Western Sierra. In addition, Umpqua is required to maintain Western Sierra's existing directors and officers liability insurance for a period of 3 years after the effective time of the merger (or if the cost exceeds $300,000, such period that can be purchased for $300,000) or otherwise provide comparable insured coverage for such period.

Amended and Restated Severance, Employment and/or Salary Continuation Agreements

In connection with the negotiation of the merger agreement, Umpqua required that certain Western Sierra officers enter into amended and restated severance or employment agreements and amended and restated salary continuation agreements. Prior to being amended, the severance and employment agreements provided for a lump sum payment upon a change in control and subsequent termination.

Table of Contents

Umpqua desired to create an incentive for the Western Sierra officers to continue employment, as needed, to assist with the post-merger integration. Under the amended agreements, each officer will be entitled to receive a severance benefit paid monthly upon termination of employment if the officer:

remains employed by Umpqua for nine months following the completion of the merger, is terminated by Umpqua without cause prior to nine months following the completion of the merger, or leaves Umpqua prior to nine months following the completion of the merger as a result of a decrease in base salary or an office relocation.

The amended agreements also include covenants prohibiting solicitation of Umpqua's employees and customers and condition receipt of severance benefits on the officer executing a release of claims against Umpqua. Under the restated agreements, for a period of either eighteen or, in the case of each of Western Sierra named executive officers and other senior executives, twenty-four months following termination of the officer's employment with Umpqua, the officer may not:

solicit, or assist another individual or entity who offers financial services offered by Umpqua within thirty miles of any Umpqua office in soliciting, any Umpqua employees to resign or to apply for or accept employment with any other business unless such person is terminated by Umpqua within twelve months of the merger; or solicit any person or firm who is, or during the year prior to officer's termination was, engaged in a business relationship with Umpqua or Western Sierra to terminate the person's business relationship with Umpqua or to engage in a business relationship with a business that solicits deposits, offers loans, or offers retail brokerage services.

Western Sierra and three of its named executive officers previously entered into salary continuation agreements under which they would receive continued salary for up to fifteen years starting at retirement age, the benefit amount of which is subject to vesting. In the event of a change in control of Western Sierra, the officers become fully vested in their salary continuation benefit and most of the salary continuation agreements provided that, instead of receiving benefits commencing at retirement age, the officer would be entitled to be paid a benefit in lump sum upon the change in control.

For Western Sierra's executive officers, the amounts payable in these circumstances either under their existing agreements (for those whose agreements were not amended in connection with the merger agreement) or under the amended agreements are as follows:

	Payment upon Change in Control	Paid in Monthly Installments over 24 Month Period
Gary D. Gall	$ 1,503,877	$ 1,358,090
Kirk Dowdell	$ 576,471	$ 397,764
Anthony J. Gould	N/A	$ 544,536
Wayne D. Koonce	$ 360,000*	$ 310,031
Patrick J. Rusnak	N.A.	$ 525,267

* Payable in equal monthly installments over 120 months

Other Western Sierra officers will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment subject to their willingness to remain employed with Umpqua for up to 9 months following the merger. A total of twenty-seven Western Sierra's and Western Sierra's subsidiary banks' officers may be entitled to severance benefits totaling $5.2 million under existing or amended and restated severance or employment agreements.

In certain cases, the applicable officer agreed to have his or her benefits reduced to the extent required such that those benefits did not give rise to the payment of an excise tax under applicable law.

Retention Bonuses

In 2006, Mr. Dowdell and Mr. Gould are also entitled to receive retention bonuses in the amounts of $17,066 and $5,668 per month, respectively, to be paid, in addition to their base salary, for each month following the merger that he continues his employment with Umpqua.

Appointment to the Board of Directors of Umpqua

As part of the merger agreement, Umpqua agreed to appoint one member of the Western Sierra board of directors, including the boards of directors of Western Sierra's subsidiary banks, to the board of directors of Umpqua and Umpqua Bank upon consummation of the merger. Upon such appointment, the Western Sierra director will be compensated like any other non-employee director of Umpqua. Each non-employee director of Umpqua receives a quarterly retainer of $2,500, a participation fee of $4,000 for each regular board meeting and a participation fee of $500 for each committee meeting attended, with additional retainers and higher participation fees for the board and committee chairs. All director fees are payable in shares of Umpqua common stock, and directors may choose to receive compensation on a deferred basis. Director fees are paid quarterly, in arrears, after review of attendance records.

Additionally, as part of the merger agreement Umpqua agreed to offer at least 10 individuals from the boards of directors of Western Sierra or its bank subsidiaries positions on an Umpqua Bank California divisional board. The California divisional boards of Umpqua are advisory boards only. Members of the advisory boards receive $300 per quarter ($500 per quarter for the chairperson) if they attend a meeting during the quarter, with all fees payable in shares of Umpqua common stock.

Commitments of Directors

Each director of Umpqua and of Western Sierra and its subsidiary banks has expressly agreed to vote all of his or her shares for approval of the applicable merger proposal. Each such director has agreed to recommend that, subject to his or her fiduciary duties, their respective shareholders approve the applicable merger proposal.

Further, except with the consent of Umpqua, each non-employee director of Western Sierra and its subsidiary banks have agreed that, from February 7, 2006 through the date that is two years from the later of consummation of the merger or termination of such director's service on a Western Sierra board, he or she will not, directly or indirectly: accept a position as a director, founder, incorporator, organizer (including activities leading to the attempted or actual formation of a bank holding company or insured depository institution), officer or employee with any bank holding company or insured depository (other than Umpqua or its affiliates) with branches in the counties in which any of the Western Sierra subsidiary banks have branches on the date the merger is completed; solicit any customer of Western Sierra or Umpqua to divert its business from Western Sierra or Umpqua; solicit any employee to leave his or her employment with Western Sierra or Umpqua;

employ or assist in employing any Western Sierra or Umpqua employee to perform services for any bank holding company or insured depository; or disparage Western Sierra or Umpqua or their affiliates, directors or employees.

Resales of Stock by Affiliates

The Umpqua common stock to be issued in the merger will be freely transferable by Western Sierra shareholders. However, Western Sierra affiliates (controlling persons), such as all directors, executive officers and holders of more than 10% of Western Sierra's outstanding stock immediately prior to the merger, may not sell their Umpqua shares received in the merger:

except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended;

except pursuant to the provisions of Rule 145(d) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended; or unless an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to Umpqua states that those shares may be sold pursuant to an exemption from registration.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following describes the anticipated, material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to Western Sierra shareholders. This discussion addresses only Western Sierra shareholders who hold their stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code and does not address all of the federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to Western Sierra shareholders that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities or currencies;

traders in securities that use a mark-to-market method of accounting;

persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States;

shareholders who hold their shares as part of a hedge, straddle, or other risk-reduction transaction; or shareholders who acquired their Western Sierra common stock through stock options or otherwise as compensation.

In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences of the merger under foreign, state, or local tax laws or the tax consequences of transactions completed before or after the merger, such as the exercise of options or rights to purchase Western Sierra common stock in anticipation of the merger. The discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, applicable Treasury Regulations, judicial decisions, and administrative rulings and practice, all as of the date of this document, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect.

You are urged to consult your own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences to you of the merger based on your own circumstances, including the effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, and foreign taxes.

Tax Consequences of the Merger

The merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. It is a condition to Umpqua's and Western Sierra's obligation to complete the merger that the parties receive an opinion from Foster Pepper Tooze LLP, counsel to Umpqua, dated as of the closing date of the merger, that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a). The opinion will not bind the Internal Revenue Service or preclude the Internal Revenue Service from adopting a contrary position. The opinion will be based upon facts and assumptions, and on specific representations and assurances made by Umpqua and Western Sierra. Neither Umpqua nor Western Sierra has requested or intends to request a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with regard to any of the tax consequences of the merger.

Table of Contents

The Foster Pepper Tooze LLP opinion will state that:

the merger agreement will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a);

the parties to the agreement and to the plans of merger will each be a party to a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code;

no taxable gain or loss will be recognized by Umpqua, Umpqua Bank, Western Sierra, Western Sierra National Bank, Auburn Community Bank, Central California Bank or Lake Community Bank as a result of the merger; and no taxable gain or loss will be recognized by Western Sierra shareholders who exchange all of their shares of Western Sierra common stock for Umpqua common stock in the merger (except with respect to cash, if any, received in lieu of fractional shares of Umpqua common stock).

Consequences to Western Sierra Shareholders

If you are a Western Sierra shareholder, you will not recognize taxable gain or loss to the extent you receive Umpqua common stock in exchange for your shares (except with respect to cash, if any, received in lieu of fractional shares of Umpqua common stock). The aggregate tax basis of the Umpqua common stock you receive as a result of the merger will be the same as your aggregate tax basis in the Western Sierra common stock you exchange, increased by the amount of gain recognized in the merger, if any. The holding period of Umpqua common stock you receive as a result of the exchange will include the holding period of the Western Sierra common stock you exchange.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Under purchase accounting, Western Sierra's assets and liabilities will be recorded at their respective fair values as of the closing date of the merger and added to Umpqua's assets and liabilities. Financial statements and reported results of operations of Umpqua after the closing date would reflect these values, but would not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Western Sierra. Any excess of the purchase price over the fair values of Western Sierra's assets and liabilities will be recorded as goodwill, which may be charged off against earnings in the future if the goodwill is subsequently determined to be impaired in accordance with applicable accounting rules. The goodwill will be tested for impairment on at least an annual basis.

DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS RIGHTS

Umpqua

Under Oregon law, Umpqua shareholders do not have the right to dissent from the merger and obtain payment for the appraised value of their shares.

Western Sierra

Under California law, each Western Sierra shareholder has the right to dissent from the merger and to have the appraised fair market value of their shares of Western Sierra common stock as of February 7, 2006 to the dissenting shareholders paid in cash if:

his or her shares were outstanding immediately prior to the record date;

the merger is approved by the shareholders of Umpqua and Western Sierra; demands are made for payment with respect to 5% or more of the outstanding shares of the common stock of Western Sierra; and such shareholder complies with Sections 1300 through 1312 of the California General Corporation Law, or CGCL.

Sections 1300 through 1312 of the CGCL, which include the procedures required to perfect dissenters rights, are attached to this document as Appendix E. The description of dissenters rights contained in this document is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 13, commencing with Section 1300, of the CGCL.

For a Western Sierra shareholder to exercise dissenters rights, he or she must:

make a timely written demand upon Western Sierra for purchase in cash of his or her shares at their fair market value as of February 7, 2006, which demand includes:

the number and class of the shares held of record by him or her that he or she demand that Western Sierra purchase, and what he or she claims to be the fair market value of his or her shares as of February 7, 2006;

have his or her demand received by Western Sierra on or before the date of the Western Sierra special meeting of shareholders;

vote against the approval of the principal terms of the merger agreement;

submit certificates representing his or her shares for endorsement in accordance with Section 1302 of the CGCL; and comply with such other procedures as are required by the CGCL.

Failure to follow the procedures set forth in the CGCL will result in a waiver of dissenters rights. Further, if a Western Sierra shareholder returns his or her proxy without instructions, which will result in a vote for the approval of the principal terms of the merger, he or she will not be entitled to dissenters rights. Any demand notices or other documents to be delivered to Western Sierra may be sent to Anthony J. Gould, Western Sierra Bancorp, 4080 Plaza Goldorado Circle, Cameron Park, California 95682.

The statement of fair market value by a dissenting Western Sierra shareholder constitutes an offer to sell his or her shares at the fair market value as of February 7, 2006. A demand may not be withdrawn without the consent of Western Sierra. A proxy or vote against the approval of the principal terms of the merger does not in and of itself constitute a demand for his or her shares.

Table of Contents

If a Western Sierra shareholder holds dissenting shares, Western Sierra will mail to him or her a notice of the approval of the merger by the shareholders of Western Sierra within ten days after the date of such approval, accompanied by:

a copy of Sections 1300, 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304 of Chapter 13 of the CGCL;

a statement of the price determined by Western Sierra to represent the fair market value as of February 7, 2006 of the dissenting shares; and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if he or she desires to exercise his or her dissenters' rights under such sections.

The statement of price constitutes an offer by Western Sierra to purchase at the price stated for such dissenting shares.

A Western Sierra shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights must submit to Western Sierra at its principal office or at the office of its transfer agent the certificates representing any shares that he or she is demanding that the corporation purchase, for endorsement as dissenting shares, within 30 days after the date on which notice of approval of the merger by Western Sierra shareholders was mailed to him or her.

If Western Sierra denies that shares submitted to it as dissenting shares are dissenting shares, or if Western Sierra and a dissenting shareholder fail to agree on the fair market value of his or her shares, then either the dissenting shareholder or Western Sierra may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county in California requesting that the court determine such issue. Such complaint must be filed within six months after the date on which notice of the approval of the merger is mailed to such dissenting shareholder.

On trial of the action, the court will first determine if the shares are dissenting shares, and if so determined, the court will either determine the fair market value or appoint one or more impartial appraisers to do so. If both Western Sierra and a dissenting shareholder fail to file a complaint within six months after the date on which notice of the approval of the merger was mailed to such dissenting shareholder, his or her shares will cease to be dissenting shares. In addition, if a dissenting shareholder transfers his or her shares prior to their submission for the required endorsement, such shares will lose their status as dissenting shares.

Failure to take any necessary step will result in a termination or waiver of dissenters' rights under Chapter 13 of the CGCL. A person having a beneficial interest in Western Sierra common stock that is held of record in the name of another person, such as a trustee or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the requirements of Chapter 13 of the CGCL in a timely manner if such person elects to demand payment of the fair market value of such shares.

The merger agreement provides that none of Western Sierra, Western Sierra National Bank, Auburn Community Bank, Central California Bank or Lake Community Bank nor their officers, directors or agents may initiate contact with any person or entity in an effort to solicit a merger, acquisition proposal or similar transaction with a party other than Umpqua. Western Sierra may not provide non-public information to any other person in connection with a possible alternative transaction, except to the extent specifically authorized by its board of directors in the good faith exercise of its fiduciary duties based upon advice of its legal counsel. Western Sierra must notify Umpqua if it receives any alternative acquisition proposal.

Affiliate Agreements

Each affiliate of Western Sierra has delivered to Umpqua an agreement requiring each such person to dispose of his or her shares of Umpqua common stock acquired in the merger only in compliance with the Securities Act of 1933.

Conditions to Complete the Merger

The merger is subject to conditions set forth in the merger agreement. In the event the merger has not been completed by October 31, 2006, either party may terminate the merger agreement. See Termination below.

The merger can only occur if:

each of Western Sierra's and Umpqua's shareholders approve the merger agreement; and Umpqua and Western Sierra procure all required regulatory consents, orders and approvals, and satisfy legal requirements of regulators including the Federal Reserve Board, the FDIC, the Director of the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services, and the California Department of Financial Institutions.

Umpqua has filed required applications with the appropriate regulatory agencies and expects to receive the necessary approvals in due course.

Each party's respective obligations are conditioned on satisfaction by the other party of its obligations under the merger agreement and the above-mentioned conditions. The following additional conditions must be satisfied, or waived where permissible, and events must occur before the parties will be obligated to complete the merger:

there are no actions or proceedings commenced or threatened against any party to restrain, prohibit or invalidate the merger or restrict the operations of the business of the parties;

there is no banking moratorium or other suspension of payment by banks in the United States;

each party has received good standing certificates or certificates of existence of the other party;

each party has received certified resolutions of the board of directors and shareholders of the other party evidencing approval of the proposed merger the representations and warranties given by each party are true in all material respects as of the effective date of the merger;

each party has complied in all material respects with its covenants in the merger agreement;

there has been no material adverse change in the business or financial condition of either party since February 7, 2006, the date on which the parties entered into the merger agreement;

Table of Contents

each party has received a certificate of the other party's President and Chief Financial Officer certifying the fulfillment of conditions to completion of the merger; and each party has received an opinion of Foster Pepper Tooze LLP as to the tax treatment of the merger.

Conditions to Umpqua's Obligation to Complete the Merger

The following conditions must be satisfied, or waived where permissible, before Umpqua is obligated to complete the merger:

less than 12.5% of the outstanding shares of Western Sierra common stock have perfected their right to become dissenting shareholders under California law;

the SEC has issued an order of registration relating to the shares of Umpqua common stock to be issued in the merger to Western Sierra shareholders and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement relating to such shares has been issued or is pending or threatened;

each amended and restated severance, employment or salary continuation agreement entered into by certain officers of Western Sierra immediately prior to execution of the merger agreement has not been amended or restated and remains in full force and effect; and each Voting, Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation Agreement entered into by directors of Western Sierra and of its subsidiary banks has not been amended or rescinded and is in full force and effect.

Waiver of Conditions

The merger agreement provides that Western Sierra or Umpqua may waive any condition precedent to its own obligations under the merger agreement, including any default in the performance of any obligation of the other party, and may waive the time for compliance or fulfillment of any obligation of the other party, provided that such a waiver is permitted by law.

Amendment

The merger agreement may be amended at any time prior to the effective date upon approval of each party's board of directors, except that amendments that increase the amount or modify the form of consideration to be received by the Western Sierra shareholders must be approved by Umpqua shareholders and amendments that decrease the amount or modify the form of consideration to be received by the Western Sierra shareholders must be approved by Western Sierra shareholders.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated, and the merger abandoned, at any time prior to the effective date:

by the mutual consent of the boards of directors of Western Sierra and Umpqua acknowledged in writing;

by either Western Sierra or Umpqua acting through their respective board of directors any time after October 31, 2006, if the merger has not been consummated by that date through no fault of the terminating party;

by either Western Sierra or Umpqua acting through their respective board of directors in the event of a material breach by the other party of its representations, warranties or covenants in the merger agreement, which has not been cured within thirty days notice to the breaching party;

by Western Sierra upon a determination by its board of directors that such action is required for the directors to comply with their fiduciary duties; or by Western Sierra if Umpqua's stock price, based on average closing prices, is less than $22.59 and such decline in Umpqua's stock price is disproportionate to the performance of the Nasdaq Bank Index, as described below.

Table of Contents

Disproportionate Decline in Umpqua's Stock Price

Western Sierra may notify Umpqua of its intent to terminate the merger agreement if, prior to the effective date of the merger:

the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger is less than $22.59;

Umpqua's stock price has underperformed the Nasdaq Bank Index by more than 10%; and Western Sierra notifies Umpqua within 48 hours following the date of such events.

The comparison of Umpqua's stock price performance to that of the Nasdaq Bank Index is based on: an initial Umpqua stock price of $28.24 and initial index of 3,126.17, each of which is equal to the average closing price over the fifteen trading days from January 18, 2006, through and including February 7, 2006, the trading day prior to announcement of the merger, and the final Umpqua stock price and final index, each of which will be equal to the average closing price over the fifteen trading day period through and including the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger.

If Western Sierra's board of directors gives notice of its intent to terminate the merger agreement due to a disproportionate decline in Umpqua's stock price, Umpqua's board of directors may elect to increase the total number of shares of Umpqua common stock to be issued to Western Sierra shareholders in the merger by the amount of shares such that the exchange ratio is equal to the number derived by multiplying 1.61 times the quotient obtained by dividing $22.59 by the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date. Umpqua must notify Western Sierra of its decision to adjust the merger consideration and upon such election, Western Sierra may not terminate the merger agreement.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated by the mutual consent of both parties, or either party terminates because the merger has not been completed by October 31, 2006, through no fault of the terminating party, the merger agreement will be void and neither party will have any liability as a result of the termination.

Western Sierra must pay Umpqua's reasonable expenses up to $600,000 if:

either party terminates the merger agreement due to the failure of Western Sierra's shareholders to approve the merger proposal, provided that no failure or any covenant, condition, representation or warranty on the part of Umpqua shall have contributed to the failure of Western Sierra's shareholders to approve the merger;

Umpqua terminates the merger agreement due to Western Sierra's uncured material breach; or Western Sierra terminates the merger agreement pursuant to a determination by its board that such action is required in order for the directors to comply with their fiduciary duties.

Umpqua must pay Western Sierra's reasonable expenses up to $600,000 if:

either party terminates the merger agreement due to the failure of Umpqua's shareholders to approve the merger proposal, provided that no failure of any covenant, condition, representation or warranty on the part of Western Sierra shall have contributed to the failure of Umpqua's shareholders to approve the merger; or

Western Sierra terminates the merger agreement due to Umpqua's uncured material breach.

In addition, if either Umpqua or Western Sierra terminates the merger agreement as a result of the other party's willful failure to comply with any of such party's material covenants in the agreement, the breaching party will pay the terminating party an additional $3.0 million.

Table of Contents

Western Sierra must pay a $14.0 million termination fee to Umpqua, within thirty days of Umpqua's request, if all of the following occur:

the merger agreement is terminated:

by either party because Western Sierra shareholders fail to approve the merger proposal, by Western Sierra pursuant to a good faith determination by its board of directors after consultation with Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, its legal counsel, that such action is required for the directors to comply with their fiduciary duties, or by Umpqua because of an uncured material breach by Western Sierra;

Western Sierra enters into an alternative acquisition transaction prior to twelve months after the date of termination;

the alternative acquisition transaction had been proposed:

prior to or at the time of Western Sierra's special meeting of shareholders concerning the proposed merger with Umpqua if either party terminates the merger agreement because Western Sierra shareholders fail to approve the merger proposal, or prior to the date of termination if Umpqua terminates the merger agreement because of an uncured material breach by Western Sierra or if Western Sierra terminates the merger agreement to comply with their fiduciary duties;

there was no material failure by Umpqua to comply with its covenants in the merger agreement at the time of Western Sierra's special meeting of shareholders; and there was no material failure by Umpqua to satisfy the conditions to closing that:

Umpqua's shareholders approve the proposed merger (if Umpqua's shareholders have met by the date of termination),

Umpqua's representations and warranties are true in all material respects as of the effective date of the merger, and there has been no material adverse change in the business or financial condition of Umpqua since February 7, 2006, the date on which the parties entered into the merger agreement.

If, in connection with the termination of the merger agreement, Western Sierra pays any of Umpqua's expenses or pays the additional $3.0 million to Umpqua as a result of Western Sierra's material breach of the agreement, the $14.0 million termination fee will be reduced by such payments.

Expenses

The merger agreement provides, in general, that each party will pay its own expenses in connection with the merger, including fees and expenses of its own financial and other consultants, accountants, and legal counsel except under termination events as discussed above. Upon completion of the merger, other expenses, including severance, salary continuation and change in control payments, will be paid by Umpqua.

INFORMATION ABOUT UMPQUA

Umpqua is an Oregon corporation headquartered in Portland, Oregon, and formed in March 1999. At that time, Umpqua acquired all of the outstanding shares of South Umpqua Bank, an Oregon state-chartered bank formed in 1953 in Canyonville, Oregon. DESCRIPTION OF UMPQUA CAPITAL STOCK

In the merger, Western Sierra shareholders will exchange their shares of Western Sierra common stock for Umpqua common stock. The following summarizes the material features of Umpqua common stock and is subject to the provisions of Umpqua's articles of incorporation and bylaws and the relevant portions of the Oregon Business Corporation Act, or OBCA.

Description of Common Stock

Umpqua is authorized to issue up to 100 million shares of common stock without par value and 2 million shares of preferred stock without par value. As of 1, 2006, there were 1 shares of common stock outstanding. Following the merger, a total of approximately 1 shares are expected to be outstanding. No preferred shares have been issued. The terms of the preferred stock are not established in the articles of incorporation, but may be designated in one or more series by the board of directors when the shares are issued. Umpqua's board of directors is authorized to issue or sell additional capital stock of Umpqua, at its discretion and for fair value, and to issue future cash or stock dividends, without prior shareholder approval, except as otherwise required by law or the listing requirements of the Nasdaq National Market.

A total of 2 million shares of common stock are reserved for issuance under Umpqua's 2003 Stock Incentive Plan. As of 1, 2006 there were a total of 1 shares in the plan available for future grants, of which 1 were immediately exercisable. Awards of stock options and restricted stock grants under the plan, when added to options under all other plans, are limited to a maximum 10% of Umpqua's outstanding shares on a fully-diluted basis. An additional 1 shares are reserved for issuance under grants made under Umpqua's 2000 Stock Option Plan and other equity based award plans. Approximately 1 additional Umpqua shares will be reserved for the exercise of awards granted under Western Sierra's stock incentive plans, which will be assumed by Umpqua.

Voting and Other Rights

Each outstanding share of common stock has the same relative rights as each other share of common stock, including rights to the net assets of Umpqua upon liquidation. Each share is entitled to one vote on matters submitted to a vote of shareholders. A majority of the votes cast on a matter is sufficient to take action upon routine matters. The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares is required to approve a merger or dissolution or sale of all of Umpqua assets. In general, amendments to Umpqua's articles of incorporation must be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares. Amendments to Umpqua's articles of incorporation concerning the following subject matters, however, currently require the approval of at least 75% of all votes entitled to be cast on the amendment:

number of directors,

classified board of directors,

removal of directors,

board vacancies,

limitation of director liability, indemnification of directors, and anti-takeover provisions.

As discussed above, Umpqua's shareholders are being asked to approve an amendment to Umpqua's articles of incorporation to eliminate the classified board of directors, to elect each director annually and to allow directors to be removed without cause. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

Umpqua's directors are currently split into three classes, with elected directors generally serving three-year terms. Holders of common stock may not cumulate votes in the election of directors. All issued and outstanding shares are, and all shares to be issued to Western Sierra shareholders pursuant to the merger will be, fully paid and non-assessable.

In the event of Umpqua's liquidation, holders of Umpqua's common stock will be entitled to receive pro rata any assets legally available for distribution to Umpqua shareholders, subject to any prior rights of any Umpqua preferred stock then outstanding.

Umpqua's common stock does not have any preemptive rights, sinking fund provisions, redemption privileges or conversion rights. Umpqua's articles of incorporation permit the repurchase of outstanding shares of common stock.

Mellon Investor Services, LLC is the registrar and transfer agent for Umpqua's common stock.

Dividend Rights

Subject to any prior rights of any outstanding preferred stock, holders of Umpqua's common stock are entitled to receive dividends or distributions, whether payable in cash or otherwise, as Umpqua's board of directors may declare out of funds legally available for these payments. The board of directors' dividend policy is to review Umpqua's financial performance, capital adequacy, regulatory compliance and cash resources on a quarterly basis, and, if such review is favorable, to declare and pay a cash dividend to shareholders. Umpqua's ability to pay cash dividends is largely dependent on the dividends it receives from its principal subsidiary, Umpqua Bank. Although Umpqua expects to continue to pay cash dividends, future dividends are subject to the discretion of the board.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

Umpqua's articles of incorporation authorize the board of directors, when evaluating a merger, tender offer or exchange offer, to consider the social, legal and economic effects on employees, customers and suppliers of the company, and on the communities and geographical areas in which the company operates, as well as the state and national economies and the short- and long-term interests of the company and its shareholders. This provision may be amended only by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares. Such provision may have the effect of discouraging potential acquirers, and may be considered an anti-takeover defense. Under the OBCA, a proposed merger or plan of exchange requires the approval of the board of directors and the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation contain other provisions that could make more difficult their acquisition by means of an unsolicited tender offer or proxy contest. Umpqua's articles of incorporation authorize the issuance of voting preferred stock, which, although intended primarily as a financing tool and not as a defense against takeovers, could potentially be used by management to make uninvited attempts to acquire control more difficult by, for example, diluting the ownership interest or voting power of a substantial shareholder, increasing the consideration necessary to effect an acquisition, or selling unissued shares to a friendly third party.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation currently provide for removal of directors only for cause and by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares, and provide for a board of directors divided into three classes, with as close as possible to one-third of the directors elected annually for three-year terms. Only one class of directors is elected in any particular year. The existence of a classified board and limitations on removal of directors may have the effect of discouraging persons from proposing to acquire Umpqua in a transaction, such as a tender offer, not approved by the board because of the difficulty in gaining control of the board promptly after the transaction.

Proposed Amendment. Umpqua's board of directors has proposed an amendment to Umpqua's articles of incorporation that would eliminate the provision that directors may only be removed for cause. The amendment must be approved by the affirmative vote of 75% of all the votes entitled to be cast. If the amendment is approved, a director may be removed by a majority vote with or without cause.

The CGCL permits classification of a California corporation's board of directors. Western Sierra does not have a classified board of directors. Western Sierra's bylaws require that all directors be elected at each annual meeting of shareholders for a term of one year.

The CGCL provides that directors may be removed without cause, if the removal is approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. The CGCL further provides that, with respect to directors of corporations not having classified boards of directors, no director can be removed (unless the entire board is removed) if the votes cast against removal of the director would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively (without regard to whether cumulative voting is permitted) at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

Western Sierra's bylaws substantially restate the applicable CGCL provisions.

FILLING VACANCIES ON BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The OBCA provides that, unless the corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a vacancy on the board of directors may be filled by shareholders or the board of directors.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation provide that only the board of directors may fill vacancies.

The CGCL provides that vacancies created by removal of a director may be filled only by shareholder approval unless the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise.

The CGCL provides that in other cases, vacancies may be filled by approval of the board. Shareholders may elect a director at any time to fill any vacancy not filled by the directors.

Western Sierra's bylaws substantially restate the statutory provisions.

SHAREHOLDER NOMINATIONS

Umpqua's bylaws provide that shareholder nominations may be brought before an annual meeting only upon delivery of a notice to Umpqua's Secretary not later than the close of business 90 calendar days before the calendar date of Umpqua's proxy statement released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting.

Western Sierra's bylaws provide that shareholder nominations for election of directors must be delivered to Western Sierra's President by the later of (i) the close of business 21 days prior to any meeting of shareholders called for the election of directors, or (ii) 10 days after the date of mailing of notice of a meeting to shareholders.

SHAREHOLDER VOTING

Election of Directors. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

Vote for Approval of Action. Actions other than the election of directors are approved if the votes cast in favor exceed the votes opposed, unless a greater number is required by the OBCA or the articles of incorporation.

Extraordinary Transactions. The OBCA generally requires approval of a merger, consolidation, dissolution or sale of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the matter.

Election of Directors. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

Vote for Approval of Action. Actions other than the election of directors are approved by the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented and voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present, unless a greater number is required by the CGCL or the articles of incorporation.

Extraordinary Transactions. The CGCL generally requires approval of a merger, consolidation, dissolution or sale of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the matter. Western Sierra's articles of incorporation require the affirmative vote of 66-2/3% of the outstanding shares for mergers or consolidations, upon consummation of which Western Sierra's shareholders will own less than 50% of the voting power of the surviving entity, or for the sale or other disposition of 50% or more of the corporation's assets or the combined assets of the corporation and its subsidiaries.

SPECIAL MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Under the OBCA, a corporation's board of directors, shareholder(s) (holding at least 10% of the votes entitled to be cast for any proposition at the special meeting, by a demand in writing) and other persons designated in the corporation's articles or bylaws have the authority to call special meetings of shareholders. Umpqua's bylaws also authorize the Chief Executive Officer to call a special meeting.

Under the CGCL, the board of directors, chair of the board, president, shareholder(s) (holding at least 10% of the votes entitled to be cast for any proposition at the special meeting, by a demand in writing), and such other persons designated in the corporation's articles or bylaws have the authority to call special meetings of shareholders.

The OBCA permits a corporation, in its articles of incorporation, to require a greater percentage than 10%, up to 25%, but Umpqua's articles of incorporation do not require more than 10%.

Western Sierra's bylaws substantially restate the statutory provisions and do not specify any additional persons.

ACTION BY SHAREHOLDERS WITHOUT A MEETING

Under the OBCA and Umpqua's bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at a shareholder meeting may be taken without a meeting if all shareholders entitled to vote execute a written consent describing the action. The OBCA permits a corporation to provide in its articles of incorporation that action may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all shareholders entitled to vote on the action were present and voted. Umpqua's articles do not include such a provision.

The CGCL provides that, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, any action that may be taken at a special or annual meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice if a consent in writing, setting forth the action taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Except with respect to filling vacancies on the board of directors, other than vacancies created by removal, the CGCL does not permit election of directors by written consent except by unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote in the election of directors.

ANTI-TAKEOVER PROVISIONS

Umpqua's articles of incorporation permit the board to consider factors in determining what is in the best interest of the corporation including a merger's or reorganization's social, legal, and economic effect on employees, suppliers, customers, the community, the economy of the state and nation, short- and long-term interests Umpqua and its shareholders, and other relevant factors.

Western Sierra's articles of incorporation require the affirmative vote of 66-2/3% of the outstanding shares to effect a merger or consolidation, upon consummation of which Western Sierra's shareholders will own less than 50% of the voting power of the surviving entity, or for the sale or other disposition of 50% or more of the corporation's assets or the combined assets of the corporation and its subsidiaries.

AMENDMENT TO CHARTER DOCUMENTS

Articles of Incorporation. The OBCA provides that amendments to the articles of incorporation must be approved by the board of directors and by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the amendment (if the amendment gives rise to dissenters' rights) or by a vote of shareholders with the votes cast in favor of the amendment exceeding the votes cast in opposition to the amendment (if the amendment does not give rise to dissenters' rights). The board alone may adopt immaterial amendments.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation require a supermajority vote to amend provisions relating to board size, classified board, removal of directors, filling of board vacancies, the limitation of director's liability and indemnification, and consideration of other constituencies in the context of a merger or similar extraordinary transaction. These provisions may be amended or revised only by approval of holders of at least 75% of the shares entitled to vote. Amendments to include other terms that would be inconsistent with the provisions above must also be approved by holders of at least 75% of the shares entitled to vote.

Bylaws. The OBCA provides that the corporation's board may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless the articles of incorporation reserve the power exclusively to the shareholders in whole or in part or the shareholders in amending or repealing a particular bylaw provide expressly that the directors may not amend or repeal that bylaw. The OBCA permits shareholders to amend or repeal bylaws. Umpqua's bylaws substantially restate the statutory provisions.

Articles of Incorporation. To amend the articles of incorporation, the CGCL requires the approval of the corporation's board of directors and a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. Western Sierra's articles also require 66-2/3% to amend the provision requiring a supermajority for certain business combinations and sale of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets.

Bylaws. The CGCL provides that holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote and the corporation's board of directors each have the power to adopt, amend or repeal a corporation's bylaws, although the articles or bylaws of the corporation may restrict or eliminate the power of the board to take such action. The fixed number or the minimum number of directors may not be reduced to less than five if the votes cast against adoption of the amendment to the bylaws or articles are equal to or more than 66-2/3% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.

Neither Western Sierra's articles nor bylaws restrict the power of the board to adopt, amend or repeal its bylaws, other than amendments to the bylaws specifying or changing a fixed number of directors or the maximum or minimum number or changing from a fixed to a variable board or vice versa.

Other Business of the Umpqua Annual Meeting

Proposal 2. Annual Election of Directors

Our articles of incorporation currently provide that Umpqua's board of directors is divided into three classes and each year the term of office of one class expires. A board divided into multiple classes is often referred to as a classified or staggered board.

On July 20, 2005, our board of directors adopted a resolution recommending that shareholders approve an amendment to our articles of incorporation to remove the classified board provisions and provide for the annual election of all directors.

If Umpqua shareholders approve the amendment to provide for annual election of all directors, the terms of all directors elected this year will expire at the 2007 annual meeting. If this proposal is not approved, our board of directors will remain classified and Scott D. Chambers, Raymond P. Davis, Diana E. Goldschmidt, Lynn K. Herbert and Theodore S. Mason will stand for election to three year terms that will expire at the 2009 annual meeting, and Stephen M. Gambia, who was appointed to the board of directors after our last annual meeting, will stand for election to a one year term that will expire at the 2007 annual meeting.

The board of directors also recommends that the articles of incorporation be amended to eliminate the provision that directors may only be removed for cause.

Vote Required to Approve the Amendments

Our articles of incorporation require that these amendments be approved by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares.

Reasons for the Recommended Amendments

Proponents of classified boards generally argue that they provide continuity and stability in the management of the company's business and affairs since a majority of the directors always will have prior experience as directors of the company. Proponents also argue that classified boards promote the independence of directors because directors elected for multi-year terms are less subject to outside influence.

However, classified board structures have been criticized from a corporate governance perspective because they do not allow for an annual shareholder referendum on the performance of the board. The election of directors is the primary avenue for shareholders to influence corporate governance policies and to hold management accountable for implementing those policies. Classified boards also tend to discourage unsolicited tender offers or proxy contests because of the difficulty in gaining control of the board soon after the transaction.

The removal for cause provisions in the articles of incorporation are related to the classified board requirement and serve to discourage unsolicited tender offers or proxy contests.

Our Executive/ Governance Committee reviewed these competing considerations and concluded that the proposed amendments to provide for annual election of directors and permit directors to be removed without cause are more consistent with good governance practices and provide greater accountability of the board to the Company's shareholders. The Committee therefore recommended the proposed amendments to the board, which adopted resolutions recommending that the shareholders approve amendments to the articles, deleting Articles VB and VE and amending Article VC and replacing them with the following:

B. Election of Directors. Each director shall be elected to serve a term of one year, with each director's term to expire at the next annual meeting following the director's election as a director. Notwithstanding the expiration of the term of a director, the director shall continue to hold office until his or her successor has been elected and qualified. A decrease in the number of directors will not have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. At each annual meeting, the shareholders will elect directors by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election.

C. Removal of Directors. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, any director of the Corporation may be removed at any time with or without cause, and except as otherwise required by law, only by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to elect such director, at a meeting of the shareholders called for that purpose, and the meeting notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. If the director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove the director.

The complete text of the articles of incorporation, as amended by this proposal, is attached as Appendix F to this document. Upon approval of this amendment, the board of directors will make corresponding amendments to the Company's bylaws.

Board Recommendation

The board of directors recommends a vote FOR this proposal. The individuals appointed as proxies in the enclosed proxy intend to vote FOR this proposal.

Proposal 3. Election of Directors

Umpqua's articles of incorporation and bylaws currently provide that directors are elected to serve staggered three-year terms of office. We propose to amend the articles of incorporation to provide for the annual election of directors. Our articles of incorporation establish the number of directors at between six and nineteen, with the exact number to be fixed from time to time by resolution of the board of directors. The number of directors is currently set at fourteen. Directors are elected by a plurality of votes, which means that the nominees receiving the most votes will be elected, regardless of the number of votes each nominee receives. Shareholders are not entitled to cumulate votes in the election of directors.

In July 2005, Stephen M. Gambee was appointed to the board. To comply with applicable law, he must stand for election by the shareholders at this year's annual meeting.

As of the annual meeting, five Umpqua directors, Scott D. Chambers, Raymond P. Davis, Diana E. Goldschmidt, Lynn K. Herbert and Theodore S. Mason, are completing their current terms. Each has been nominated for re-election to the board.

The board of directors has nominated all current directors for election to one-year terms that will expire at the 2007 annual meeting, anticipating that the articles of incorporation will be amended, as provided in Proposal 2. If Proposal 2 is not approved, our board of directors will remain classified and Scott D. Chambers, Raymond P. Davis, Diana E. Goldschmidt, Lynn K. Herbert and Theodore S. Mason will stand for election to three year terms that will expire at the 2009 annual meeting and Stephen M. Gambee will stand for election to a one year term that will expire at the 2007 annual meeting.

Each of the nominees currently serves as a director of Umpqua and of Umpqua Bank. The individuals appointed as proxies in the enclosed proxy intend to vote FOR the election of the nominees listed above. If any nominee is not available for election, the individuals named in the proxy intend to vote for such substitute nominee as the board of directors may designate. Each nominee has agreed to serve on the board and we have no reason to believe any nominee will be unavailable.

Board Recommendation

The board of directors recommends a vote FOR the election of all nominees.

Our Board of Directors believes that its primary role is to ensure that we maximize shareholder value in a manner consistent with legal requirements and the highest standards of integrity. The Board has adopted and adheres to a Statement of Governance Principles, which the Board and senior management believe promote this purpose, are sound and represent the best practices for our Company. We continually review these governance principles and practices in light of Oregon law, Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) regulations, the rules and listing standards of the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) as well as best practices suggested by recognized governance authorities.

Statement of Governance Principles and Charters

Our Statement of Governance Principles and the charter of each of our Board committees can be viewed on our website at www.umpquaholdingscorp.com/corporate-governance. Each Board committee operates under a written charter.

Audit and Compliance Committee

The Board of Directors has a standing Audit and Compliance Committee that meets with our independent registered public accounting firm to plan for and review the annual audit reports. The Committee meets at least four times per year and is responsible for overseeing our internal controls and the financial reporting process. As of January 1, 2006, the members of the Committee were Directors Giustina (Chair), Angell, Frohnmayer, Goldschmidt (Vice Chair), Herbert, Miller and Timm. Each member of the Committee is independent, as independence is defined under Rule 4200(a)(15) of the listing standards of the NASD. The Board of Directors has adopted an Audit and Compliance Committee Charter, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B. That charter provides that only independent directors may serve on the Committee. The charter further provides that at least one member shall have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities. The Board of Directors has determined that Bryan L. Timm meets the SEC criteria for an audit committee financial expert. The Board of Directors believes that each of the current members of the Committee has education and/or employment experience that provides them with appropriate financial sophistication to serve on the Committee. Nomination Procedures

Our Statement of Governance Principles describes the qualifications that the Company looks for in its nominees to the board of directors. Directors should possess the highest personal and professional ethics, integrity and values and should be committed to representing the long-term interests of our shareholders. The Board will consider the policy-making experience of the candidate in the major business activities of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Board will also consider whether the nominee is representative of the major markets in which the Company operates. Directors must be willing to devote sufficient time to effectively carry out their duties and responsibilities and must be committed to serve on the Board for at least the term to which they are elected. Nominees should not serve on more than three boards of public companies in addition to the Company's Board. The Board's policy provides that no person shall be eligible for election or reelection as a director if that person will reach the age of 70 at the time of that person's election or reelection, provided that a director who reaches age 70 during his or her term, shall complete the term for which that director was elected.

A shareholder may recommend a candidate to the Board and that recommendation will be reviewed and evaluated by our Nominating Committee. Our Committee will use the same procedures and criteria for evaluating nominees recommended by shareholders as it does for nominees selected by the Company. Shareholder recommendations for Board candidates should be submitted to the Company's Corporate Secretary, Steven Philpott at Umpqua Holdings Corporation's Legal Department, P.O. Box 1560, Eugene, OR 97440.

In 2005, we received no recommendations for Board candidates from shareholders who do not now sit on our Board except that James Coleman recommended the appointment of Stephen Gambee to the Board at a time when Mr. Coleman was still a member of the Board.

Changes in Nomination Procedures

There have been no material changes to the procedures by which shareholders may recommend nominees to our board of directors since our procedures were disclosed in the proxy statement for the 2005 annual meeting.

Shareholder Communications

Our directors are active in their respective communities and they receive comments, suggestions, recommendations and questions from shareholders, customers and other interested parties on an ongoing basis. Our directors are encouraged to share those questions, comments and concerns with other directors and with our CEO. Comments and questions directed to our Board should be submitted to the Company's corporate Secretary, Steven Philpott at Umpqua Holdings Corporation's Legal Department, P.O. Box 1560, Eugene, OR 97440. These comments will be communicated to the Board at its next regular meeting. No communications of this type were received from shareholders in 2005. The Company has no policy regarding the attendance of directors at the annual meeting of shareholders. Two directors attended the 2005 annual meeting.

Employee Code of Conduct

The Company has adopted a code of conduct, referred to as the Business Ethics and Conflict of Interest Code. We require all employees to adhere to this code in addressing legal and ethical issues that they encounter in the course of doing their work. This code requires our employees to avoid conflicts of interest, comply with all laws and regulations, conduct business in an honest and ethical manner and otherwise act with integrity and in the Company's best interest. During 2005, all of our employees were required to certify that they reviewed and understood this code. In addition, all senior management officers were required to certify and disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest involving them or their affiliates.

This code provides that our employees may forward confidential or anonymous complaints to our Chief Auditor, who is independent of executive management and who reports directly to our Audit and Compliance Committee. Employees are encouraged to report any conduct that they believe in good faith to be an actual or apparent violation of our Business Ethics and Conflict of Interest Code.

In addition, the Company has adopted a Code of Ethics for Financial Officers, which applies to our chief executive officer, our chief financial officer, our principal accounting officer, our controller and all other officers serving in a finance, accounting, tax or investor relations role. This code for financial officers supplements our Business Ethics and Conflict of Interest Code and is intended to promote honest and ethical conduct, full and accurate financial reporting and to maintain confidentiality of the Company's proprietary and customer information.

A copy of our Business Ethics and Conflict of Interest Code and our Code of Ethics for Financial Officers is posted on our website at http://www.umpquaholdingscorp.com/corporate_governance.

Compliance with Section 16 Filing Requirements

Based solely upon our review of (i) Forms 3, 4 and 5 that we filed on behalf of directors and executive officers, or received from them with respect to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and (ii) their written representations that no Form 5 is required, we believe that all reporting persons made all required Section 16 filings with respect to the 2005 fiscal year on a timely basis, except that due to the Company's administrative oversight, Ronald Farnsworth was late filing his initial Form 3 following his appointment as principal accounting officer.

Audit and Compliance Committee Report

The Audit and Compliance Committee of the Board of Directors oversees the accounting, financial reporting and regulatory compliance processes of the Company, the audits of the Company's financial statements, the qualifications of the public accounting firm engaged as the Company's independent auditor and the performance of the Company's internal and independent auditors. The Committee's function is more fully described in its charter, which the Board has adopted. The Committee reviews that charter on an annual basis.

The Board annually reviews the Nasdaq listing standards definition of independence for audit committee members and has determined that each member of the Committee meets that standard.

Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements. Management must adopt accounting and financial reporting principles, internal controls and procedures that are designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards, applicable laws and regulations.

As a Committee, we met with management periodically during the year to consider the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and the objectivity of its financial reporting. The Committee discussed these matters with the Company's independent auditors and with appropriate Company financial personnel and internal auditors. The Committee also discussed with the Company's senior management and independent auditors the process used for certifications by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Principal Accounting Officer, which are required for certain of the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Committee is responsible for hiring and overseeing the performance of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Audit and Compliance Committee engaged Deloitte & Touche LLP (Deloitte) as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm, to perform the audit of the Company s financial statements for the period ending December 31, 2004. Deloitte had been engaged in this capacity for several years, based on the Committee s review of Deloitte s performance and independence from management.

The Committee has adopted a policy to review the engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm at least every five years. In 2005, the Committee reviewed the outside audit firm engagement and invited several major accounting firms to present to the Committee their qualifications for the engagement.

On August 9, 2005, acting upon the Committee s prior approval and direction, the Company dismissed Deloitte as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm and two days later, with the Committee s prior approval and direction, the Company engaged Moss Adams LLP (Moss Adams) as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm, after reviewing Moss Adams s qualifications and independence from management. Moss Adams was engaged to audit the Company s financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2005 and to review the Company s condensed consolidated financial statement for the periods ending September 30, 2005. In accordance with NASD Rule 4350, Moss Adams is registered as a public accounting firm with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board.

The Audit and Compliance Committee reviewed with management and Moss Adams the Company s audited financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005 and met separately with both management and Moss Adams to discuss and review those financial statements and reports prior to issuance. Management has represented, and Moss Adams has confirmed to the Committee, that the financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Audit and Compliance Committee received from and discussed with Moss Adams the written disclosure and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and SEC Regulation S-X, Rule 2-02. The Committee also discussed with Moss Adams those matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees) of the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, to the extent applicable. The Committee reviewed audit and non-audit services performed by Moss Adams and discussed with the auditors their independence.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit and Compliance Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company s audited financial statements be included in the Company s annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

Executive Compensation Plans and Agreements

We have entered into special agreements with our Named Executive Officers. These agreements are intended to motivate the executives to remain employed by us, to work hard for us, to meet regulatory and compliance objectives and to help the Company achieve financial performance goals set by the Board of Directors.

Employment Agreement with Raymond P. Davis

Our agreement with Raymond P. Davis, effective July 1, 2003, provides for his employment as President and Chief Executive Officer. It has no specific term and we may terminate his employment at any time for any reason or for no reason at all. However, if we terminate his employment without cause or if he leaves our employ for good reason, as defined in that agreement, he is entitled to a severance benefit equal to twice his base salary just prior to termination and twice his bonus received the prior year. Should Mr. Davis' employment terminate as a result of a change in control, his employment agreement provides for payment of a severance benefit equal to three years base salary and three times the bonus that he was targeted to receive that year, payable over 36 months. In addition, the Company, or its successor, would be obligated to pay health and welfare benefits for three years following termination. Further, all of Mr. Davis' unvested stock options would immediately vest and he would receive an additional credit to and vesting under his supplemental executive retirement plan. However, if the sum of the change in control benefits exceed the maximum amount permitted in accordance with Internal Revenue Code section 280G and would result in any portion not being deductible by the Company for federal income tax purposes, the amount of such benefits will be reduced to permit full deductibility.

Retirement Plan for Mr. Davis

We entered into a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan with Mr. Davis on July 1, 2003, as amended and restated January 1, 2006, that provides for retirement benefits to be paid to him if he retires on or after June 3, 2011. The Davis SERP also provides for adjusted payments if Mr. Davis is terminated or leaves Umpqua prior to June 3, 2011. The annual retirement benefit payable under the Davis SERP is equal to Mr. Davis' Final Average Compensation multiplied by the product (not to exceed 60%) of three percent and the number of years of service with Umpqua. Final Average Compensation means the highest three-year average annual total Compensation out of the final five years of employment. Compensation means base salary and cash bonus paid under Mr. Davis' Employment Agreement and is the same as the salary and bonus reported on the Summary Compensation Table.

The table below shows the estimated annual pension benefits payable at normal retirement in the Davis SERP, which is a non-qualified defined benefit plan. For the purposes of the Davis SERP and the table below, the table describes the annual benefit payable as a single life annuity beginning at age 62 (17 years of service) and at ages through 65 when he will have been with Umpqua for 20 years. For purposes of the Davis SERP, Mr. Davis had 11.5 years of service as of December 31, 2005. Although not reflected in the table below, the benefits payable under the Davis SERP by us are reduced by the amounts otherwise provided by Social Security and other retirement benefits paid by us.

PENSION PLAN TABLE

Final Average Compensation	17 Years of Service	18 Years of Service	19 Years of Service	20 or More Years of Service
$ 570,000	$ 290,700	$ 307,800	$ 324,900	$ 342,000
$ 710,000	$ 362,100	$ 383,400	$ 404,700	$ 426,000
$ 850,000	$ 433,500	$ 459,000	$ 484,500	$ 510,000
$ 990,000	$ 504,900	$ 534,600	$ 564,300	$ 594,000
$1,130,000	$ 576,300	$ 610,200	$ 644,100	$ 678,000
$1,270,000	$ 647,700	$ 685,800	$ 723,900	$ 762,000
$1,410,000	$ 719,100	$ 761,400	$ 803,700	$ 846,000

The payout under the Davis SERP is adjusted in the event of a termination with or without cause, based on the vesting schedule set forth below. Had Mr. Davis terminated his employment without cause or had the Company terminated his employment for cause on December 31, 2005, he would have been entitled to receive benefits with a present value of $519,239. Had the Company terminated his employment without cause or had Mr. Davis terminated his employment for good reason on December 31, 2005, he would have been entitled to receive benefits with a present value of $865,399. During 2005, the Company accrued $544,006 with respect to the Davis SERP. In the event of Mr. Davis' disability or death prior to age 62, he or his estate would be entitled to the full amount the Company had accrued through such date.

DAVIS SERP VESTING SCHEDULE

Prior to 12 Months Ended	Voluntary Termination by Mr. Davis or Termination by Umpqua with Cause(1)	Termination by Umpqua Without Cause or by Mr. Davis for Good Reason(1)
6/30/2004	20%	30%
6/30/2005	25%	40%
6/30/2006	30%	50%
6/30/2007	35%	60%
6/30/2008	40%	80%
6/30/2009	60%	100%
6/30/2010	80%	100%
6/30/2011	90%	100%
Thereafter	100%	100%

(1) Vesting percentage represents the percentage of the amounts actually accrued by the Company as of that date to which Mr. Davis is entitled, not the percentage of the projected retirement benefit.

If Mr. Davis is terminated without cause or he terminates his employment for any reason within two years of a change of control in the Company, Mr. Davis is credited with additional years of service equal to one half of the time remaining between his actual years of service and 17, his earliest retirement date at age 62. If there had been a change in control during 2005 and his employment terminated December 31, 2005, Mr. Davis would have been credited with an additional 2.75 years of service, for a total of 14.25 years of service, and his estimated annual benefit commencing at age 62 would have been $342,637, based on a Final Average Compensation of $801,467, which includes Mr. Davis 2005 salary and bonus.

Employment Agreements with Other Named Executive Officers

We have entered into Terms of Employment and Severance Agreements with David M. Edson, Daniel A. Sullivan, Brad F. Copeland and William T. Fike. These agreements expire five years after commencement, but provide for employment at will. However, if we terminate the executive's employment without cause or if the executive leaves our employ for good reason, as defined in that agreement, the executive is entitled to a severance benefit equal to the greater of (i) nine months of the executive's base salary or (ii) two weeks for every year of employment, paid over nine months.

Should the executive's employment terminate as a result of a change in control, his employment agreement provides for payment of a severance benefit equal to two times base salary and two times the bonus he received the prior year, payable over twenty-four months. In addition, if the executive remains employed for twelve months following a change in control, he will receive a bonus equal to twelve months base salary and 100% of the bonus paid the prior year, payable over twelve months.

With respect to Mr. Fike, if his employment terminates within six months prior to the Company entering into an agreement that results in a change in control and he is entitled to a severance benefit, he will receive a supplemental benefit equal to fifteen months base salary and two times the bonus he received the prior year, paid over fifteen months.

Supplemental Retirement (Top Hat) Plan

We maintain a non-qualified deferred compensation plan for executive managers selected by the Board. Under the plan eligible executives may defer a portion of their compensation into the plan. The Company may make discretionary matching contributions or other discretionary contributions to the plan. The plan is designed to be administered under Sections 201(2) and 301(a)(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

Deferred Compensation Agreement with Mr. Fike

On June 13, 2005, the Company entered into a 2005 Executive Deferred Compensation Agreement with William Fike, pursuant to which Mr. Fike is permitted to defer a portion of his annual compensation. The Company has established an account of the deferrals, which will be credited with interest at the end of each year. The interest credited is equal to the 5-year Treasury Constant Maturity as of the last business day of the preceding year.

Incentive Plan for Senior Management

Effective January 1, 2005, the Company adopted a Performance-Based Executive Incentive Plan. The Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee and it continues in effect until December 31, 2008. In 2005, the Plan provided for bonuses to be awarded to the Chief Executive Officer and our Named Executive Officers upon achievement of performance objectives established by the Compensation Committee for Mr. Davis and individual performance objectives established by Mr. Davis for the other named executives. The plan is designed to tie a significant portion of annual compensation to performance and to provide incentives to executive officers to achieve results tied to important objective business criteria. In addition, incentive compensation is tied to performance goals established by the Compensation Committee for specific divisions and the Company as a whole.

Each executive is assigned a target bonus, which is a percentage of base salary. Achievement of the target bonus in 2005 was based on the success of the Company and the individual executive in two objective performance areas:

Company financial goals based on earnings per share, and supervisory ratings issued by regulatory agencies for the Company and its subsidiaries.

The Company awarded additional incentive amounts based on achievement of subjective leadership and personal goals. Payments of all bonuses are subject to the negative discretion of the Compensation Committee or by Mr. Davis with respect to the other named executives. Please refer to the Compensation Committee's Report on Executive Compensation for more information.

Table of Contents

Under section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Company is generally prohibited from deducting for federal income tax purposes employee compensation that would otherwise be deductible to the extent that the compensation exceeds $1,000,000 for any covered employee in any fiscal year. However, compensation that is performance-based as defined in the Code is not subject to the deductibility limits. The Plan is intended to ensure that performance-based compensation awarded to the Company's executives is deductible.

2003 Stock Incentive Plan

We have a stock incentive plan that was approved by shareholders in 2003. Two million shares of common stock were reserved for issuance under the 2003 plan. The plan is administered by the Board's Compensation Committee. Under the 2003 plan, non-qualified stock options, incentive stock options and restricted stock grants may be issued to employees and directors of the Company and its subsidiaries as recommended by the Committee and approved by the Board.

Under the terms of the 2003 plan, awards of stock options and restricted stock grants, when added to options under all other plans, are limited to a maximum of ten percent of the outstanding shares on a fully diluted basis. During 2005, we granted options to purchase 507,500 shares to employees under the 2003 plan and we granted 8,000 shares of restricted stock. As of February 28, 2006, there were a total of 1,237,100 shares in the 2003 plan available for future grants, of which all were immediately available for issuance under the ten percent limitation.

Director Compensation

The Board of Directors has adopted a Director Compensation Plan that sets forth the terms and manner in which non-employee directors will be compensated for their service on the Board of Directors and committees of Umpqua and its subsidiaries.

In December 2005 and January 2006, the Compensation Committee undertook a review of director compensation as compared with a peer group of companies. The Committee looked at director compensation paid by the same peer group of companies that it used for review of the CEO's compensation.

In January 2006, the Board of Directors, acting upon a recommendation from the Compensation Committee, increased the Board meeting participation fee from $3,000 to $4,000 per meeting. As of January 2006, each non-employee director receives a quarterly retainer of $2,500, a participation fee of $4,000 for each regular Board meeting and a participation fee of $500 for each committee meeting attended. The Board chair receives a quarterly retainer of $3,000 and a participation fee of $4,500 for each regular Board meeting attended. Committee chairs receive a slightly higher participation fee for chairing their committee meetings; $700 for the Audit and Compliance Committee chair and $600 for the chairs of other committees.

All director fees are payable in shares of Umpqua Holdings Corporation common stock, purchased periodically on the open market by a brokerage firm for the account of each director with funds provided by the Company. Directors may choose to receive compensation on a deferred basis.

Under the Plan, director fees are paid quarterly, in arrears, after review of attendance records. Directors may attend committee meetings by teleconference, but they are allowed to attend only one regular Board meeting per year by teleconference and they must be personally present at all other regular Board meetings to receive any meeting participation fee. The Director Compensation Plan also reiterates the directors obligations under applicable securities laws, Umpqua's Insider Trading Policy, and obligates the directors, if requested to do so, to execute a lockup agreement in the event of a firmly underwritten public offering of our securities.

Compensation Committee Report

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee has several important responsibilities. First, it oversees the administration of the Company's compensation plans and agreements, including incentive stock option plans, 401(k) and profit sharing plans, supplemental executive retirement plans, BOLI assets and employment/compensation agreements with the Company's CEO. In addition, the Committee reviews the performance of the CEO, reviews with the CEO and approves or ratifies the compensation levels of his direct reports and compares the performance of the CEO and his direct reports to Company goals, in order to establish compensation and annual incentives awards. The Committee also evaluates and recommends to the full Board the compensation for Company directors. The Committee is composed entirely of independent non-employee members of the Board of Directors. No former employee of the Company serves on this Committee. The Committee's activities are governed by a written charter adopted by the Board and reviewed annually by the Committee.

Goals and Principles

The goal of our executive compensation program is to attract, motivate and retain the highly talented senior managers the Company needs to develop and deliver innovative banking and financial products and services to our customers. The following principles influence the design and administration of our compensation program:

1. Individual and Company Performance. A significant component of compensation should be related to performance. We believe that an employee's compensation should be tied to how well the employee's team and the Company perform against both financial and non-financial goals and objectives. The Board annually establishes the financial goals for the incentive compensation program. Non-financial goals include satisfactory performance on all internal and external regulatory exams and audits and achievement of the personal goals assigned to each executive.
2. Short-Term and Long-Term Incentives. Incentive compensation should balance short and long term performance. We look to balance the focus of all employees on achieving strong short-term or annual results in a manner that will ensure the Company's long-term viability and success. Therefore, to reinforce the importance of balancing these perspectives, senior management is regularly provided with both annual and long-term incentives. Participation in long-term incentive programs increases with higher levels of responsibility, as employees in these leadership roles have the greatest influence on the Company's strategic direction and results over time.
3. Competitiveness. Compensation levels should be competitive to achieve our goals. The Committee reviews compensation survey data from multiple external sources to ensure that our total compensation program is competitive and sound. The Committee often asks outside counsel to attend its meetings for advice on best practices. All compensation programs are reviewed annually to gauge their effectiveness in attracting and retaining executive management.
4. Equity Orientation. Our executive officers are expected to be Company shareholders and to maintain a material ownership position in Company stock while they are employed with the Company. We provide our employees at all levels with various methods to become shareholders. We make stock option grants to valued employees from time to time and we make restricted stock grants to employees who are outstanding performers, but not necessarily executives or managers. In addition, we sponsor a 401(k) and profit sharing plan that provides for discretionary matching and profit sharing contributions by the Company to eligible employees. The Company's plan contributions are made 50% in Company stock and 50% in cash.

5. Components of Executive Compensation. The basic components of executive compensation are:
- Annual cash compensation, including base salary and annual incentive payments;
 - Long-term incentive compensation, including stock options and grants of restricted shares;
 - Deferred compensation plans, SERP benefits (for the CEO only) and a supplemental retirement (top hat) plan;
 - Competitive fringe benefits, such as group health, life and disability insurance and perquisites.

6. Annual Cash Compensation.

6.1 Base Salary. The purpose of base salary is to create a secure base of cash compensation for executives that is competitive with the market. Executive salary increases do not necessarily follow a preset schedule or formula; however, the following are considered when determining appropriate salary levels and increases:

The individual s current and sustained performance results and the methods utilized to achieve those results; and

Non-financial performance indicators to include strategic developments for which an executive has responsibility (such as product development, expansion of markets, increase in same-store loan or deposit growth and acquisitions) and managerial performance (such as service quality, sales objectives and regulatory compliance).

On an annual basis, at the end of each fiscal year, the Company s CEO recommends the compensation of individual executive officers reporting to him, as well as the compensation of executive officers covered by NASD Rule 4350, and the Committee reviews that compensation and compares it with market information to ensure that executive compensation is competitive and that the CEO is exercising his discretion appropriately. The Committee reviews, and ratifies or approves, all components of the compensation for executive officers covered by NASD Rule 4350, including salary, bonus, equity and long-term incentive compensation. Based on this review, the Committee found the CEO s 2006 recommendations for the Named Executive Officers total compensation to be appropriate and approved them.

6.2 Annual Incentives. The purpose of annual incentive plans is to provide cash compensation on an annual basis that is at risk and contingent on the achievement of annual business and operating objectives, as well as personal goals and objectives.

Each of the Named Executive Officers (excluding the CEO) was eligible for target incentives in 2005 up to 50% of their base salary. Achievement of the target bonus in 2005 was based on success in three performance areas: (i) corporate financial targets (50%); (ii) leadership and personal goals (35%); and (iii) regulatory and compliance goals (15%).

7. Long-Term Incentive Compensation. There are two forms of long-term incentives normally granted to our executives: stock options and the award of restricted shares.

Stock Options. The purpose of stock options is to provide equity compensation whose value is directly related to the creation of shareholder value and the increase in Company stock price. Stock options provide executives a vehicle (subject to vesting requirements) to increase equity ownership and share in the appreciation of the value of Company stock.

Restricted Stock Grants. Restricted stock grants are awarded subject to vesting requirements and, in some cases, subject to the Company achieving predetermined financial goals. Restricted shares serve to help retain key executive talent, as well as retain non-executive employees who make a significant contribution to the Company. 45 employees received option grants in 2005, totaling 507,500 shares. 13 employees received restricted share grants in 2005, totaling 8,000 shares.

8. Compensation for the Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Davis led the Company to solid financial performance in 2005, a year that also saw the Company's stock price reach an all-time high. At the same time, Mr. Davis continued to emphasize the Company's vision and mission, which is to create a unique and memorable banking environment in which our customers perceive the bank as an indispensable partner in achieving their financial goals; our people achieve unparalleled personal and professional success; our shareholders achieve the exceptional rewards of ownership; and our communities benefit from our involvement and investment in their future.

At meetings in December 2005 and January 2006, the Committee reviewed all components of Mr. Davis's compensation including salary, bonus, equity and long-term incentive compensation, accumulated realized and unrealized stock option, restricted stock gains, SERP plan benefits and various perquisites and other personal benefits. The Committee reviewed tally sheets setting forth the components of Mr. Davis's compensation prepared by outside counsel, together with tally sheets from peer companies, a compensation review of specified peer financial institutions performed by a nationally recognized third party compensation consultant, as well as salary survey data provided by that consultant. The peer group of companies was selected by the Committee based on recommendations of the compensation consultant. The Committee also looked at the benefits that the CEO would receive pursuant to his employment agreements under various severance and change in control scenarios. Throughout this process, the Committee received advice from the Company's outside counsel.

Based on this information, the Committee felt that an adjustment to Mr. Davis's compensation was appropriate. Effective January 1, 2006, Mr. Davis's base salary increased from $608,000 to $658,000 and his targeted annual incentive remains at 75% of base salary. For 2006, Mr. Davis's incentive compensation is based on success in three performance areas: corporate financial targets (65%), leadership and personal goals (20%) and regulatory and compliance goals (15%). In addition, effective January 18, 2006, the Committee awarded Mr. Davis a stock option grant of 25,000 shares at the then current market price vesting over a four year period.

9. Internal Pay Equity. In December 2005 and January 2006, the Committee performed an internal pay equity review of the total compensation paid to the CEO, as compared to the other Named Executive Officers and the CEO's other direct reports. The Committee commissioned a nationally recognized compensation consultant to survey the compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers by the same peer group of companies that the Committee used to review the CEO's compensation. That survey demonstrated that the compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers, as compared with the CEO's compensation (excluding the CEO's SERP) is in the same percentage range as the peer group companies.

When the Committee considers the compensation payable to the CEO and the other Named Executive Officers the aggregate amounts and mix of all components, including accumulated (realized and unrealized) option and restricted stock gains are taken into consideration.

10. Performance-Based Executive Incentive Plan. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows federal income tax deductions by publicly traded companies for compensation in excess of $1 million per year paid to those executive officers whose compensation is detailed in the Summary Compensation Table. Under an exception to the general rule of non-deductibility, the $1 million deduction limit does not apply to qualified performance-based compensation. In 2005, the Company's shareholders approved the Umpqua Holdings Corporation 2005 Performance-Based Executive Incentive Plan (the "2005 Plan"), which the Company believes will qualify the short-term incentive compensation it makes available to its executive officers for the performance-based exception to non-deductibility under Section 162(m). The Committee believes that the Company will not be subject to any Section 162(m) limitations on the deductibility of compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers for fiscal year 2005.

Table of Contents

At this time, it is the policy of the Compensation Committee to ensure that all compensation payable to the CEO and the other Named Executive Officers is fully deductible for federal income tax purposes consistent with Section 162(m).

11. Director Compensation. The Committee's practice is to engage an outside advisor once every three years to review director compensation paid by a peer group of companies to ensure that the compensation we pay to our directors is competitive given Company performance, Board performance and our community bank philosophy. As noted above, the Compensation Committee recommended increasing director compensation and the Board approved an increase to the Board meeting participation fee by $1,000 per meeting. The Committee reported to the Board that even with this increase in the Board meeting participation fee, total compensation paid to each director is below the median paid by the peer group of companies.

Summary and Conclusions

The Committee believes the executive compensation policies and programs described in this report serve shareholder interests and the Company. Compensation to executives is aligned with Company performance and individual performance. We will continue to evaluate and, as necessary, update our compensation programs to assure that they remain performance driven, are competitive, serve to retain the best talent and reinforce equity ownership.

Based on our review, the Committee finds that the aggregate compensation payable to the Company's CEO and the other Named Executive Officers (including the potential payouts under various severance and change in control scenarios) is reasonable and not excessive.

Transactions with Directors and Officers

Many of our directors and officers, their immediate family members and businesses with which they are associated, borrow from and have deposits with Umpqua Bank. All such loans are made in the ordinary course of Umpqua Bank's business, and on substantially the same terms, including interest rates paid or charged and collateral required, as comparable transactions with unaffiliated persons. The transactions did not and do not involve more than the normal risk of collection or present other unfavorable features to Umpqua Bank.

As of December 31, 2005, the aggregate outstanding balance of all loans to executive officers, directors, principal shareholders and their businesses was approximately $11.7 million, which represented approximately 1.6% of the consolidated shareholders' equity at that date. All such loans are currently in good standing and are being paid in accordance with their terms.

Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Moss Adams LLP (Moss Adams), independent Certified Public Accountants, audited our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005. One or more representatives of Moss Adams are expected to be present at the annual meeting, will be given the opportunity to make a statement, and will be available to respond to any appropriate questions.

On August 9, 2005, we informed Deloitte & Touche LLP (Deloitte) that Deloitte had been dismissed as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm effective August 9, 2005, the date Deloitte completed its procedures on our unaudited interim financial statements for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 and with respect to the Form 10-Q in which those financial statements were included.

Umpqua s Audit & Compliance Committee (the Committee) approved and directed Deloitte s dismissal, following the Committee s review of the audit engagement.

Deloitte s report for the years ending December 31, 2004 and 2003 contain no adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion nor were those reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and through August 9, 2005 (the Relevant Period) there were no disagreements with Deloitte on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to Deloitte s satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference thereto in their reports on the financial statements for such years.

During the Relevant Period, there were no reportable events as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K (Reportable Events) issued by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission).

We asked Deloitte to furnish us with a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether or not they agreed with our conclusion that there were no Reportable Events during the Relevant Period. Deloitte provided such a letter dated August 10, 2005, which is included as Exhibit 16.1 to the Registration Statement on Form S-4 of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part.

On August 10, 2005, we engaged Moss Adams as our independent registered public accounting firm to audit our financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2005 and to review our condensed consolidated financial statements for the periods ending September 30, 2005. The Committee approved and directed our engagement of Moss Adams.

During the Relevant Period, neither the Company nor (to the Company s knowledge) anyone acting on behalf of the Company consulted with Moss Adams regarding: (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction (either completed or proposed), (ii) the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company s financial statements, (iii) any matter that was the subject of a disagreement, as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K or (iv) any Reportable Event.

- i. Tax advice related to structuring certain proposed mergers, acquisitions and disposals

	2005	2004
Memo: Ratio of Tax Planning and Advice Fees and All Other Fees to Audit Fees, Audit-Related Fees and Tax Compliance Fees	0.9%	2.8%

In considering the nature of the services provided by the independent auditor, the Audit and Compliance Committee determined that such services are compatible with the provision of independent audit services. The Committee discussed these services with the independent auditor and Company management to determine that they are permitted under the rules and regulations concerning auditor independence promulgated by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) to implement the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Pre-Approval Policy

The services performed by Moss Adams for the 2005 audit engagement were pre-approved by the Audit and Compliance Committee at its July 19, 2005 meeting, in accordance with the Committee's pre-approval policy and procedures. This policy describes the permitted audit, audit-related, tax, and other services (collectively, the Disclosure Categories) that the independent auditor may perform. The policy requires that a description of the services (the Service List) expected to be performed by the independent auditor in each of the Disclosure Categories be pre-approved annually by the Committee.

Services provided by the independent auditor during the following year that are included in the Service List were pre-approved following the policies and procedures of the Committee.

Any requests for audit, audit-related, tax, and other services not contemplated on the Service List must be submitted to the Committee for specific pre-approval and cannot commence until such approval has been granted. Normally, pre-approval is provided at regularly scheduled meetings. However, the authority to grant specific pre-approval between meetings, as necessary, has been delegated to the Chair of the Audit and Compliance Committee. The Chair must update the Committee at the next regularly scheduled meeting of any services that were granted specific pre-approval.

In addition, although not required by the rules and regulations of the SEC, the Committee generally requests a range of fees associated with each proposed service on the Service List and any services that were not originally included on the Service List. Providing a range of fees for a service incorporates appropriate oversight and control of the independent auditor relationship, while permitting the Company to receive immediate assistance from the independent auditor when time is of the essence.

The policy contains a de minimis provision that operates to provide retroactive approval for permissible non-audit services under certain circumstances. The provision allows for the pre-approval requirement to be waived if all of the following criteria are met:

1. The service is not an audit, review or other attest service;
2. The aggregate amount of all such services provided under this provision does not exceed the lesser of $5,000 or five percent of total fees paid to the independent auditor in a given fiscal year;
3. Such services were not recognized at the time of the engagement to be non-audit services (to date the SEC has not provided any guidance with respect to determining whether or not a service was recognized at the time of the engagement. We believe that the SEC intended the term recognized to mean identified);
4. Such services are promptly brought to the attention of the Audit and Compliance Committee and approved by the Audit and Compliance Committee or its designee; and

5. The service and fee are specifically disclosed in the Proxy Statement as meeting the de minimis requirements.

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

As an Oregon corporation, Umpqua is subject to the provisions of the Oregon Business Corporation Act (the OBCA). The OBCA permits a corporation to indemnify an individual who is made a party to a proceeding because such individual is or was a director of the corporation against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

his or her conduct was in good faith;

he or she reasonably believed that his or her conduct was in the corporation's best interest, or at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and in the case of a criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, indemnification is mandatory if the director is wholly successful on the merits or otherwise in such a proceeding, or if a court of competent jurisdiction orders the corporation to indemnify the director. Umpqua's articles of incorporation do not limit the statutory right to indemnification.

Under the OBCA, a corporation may not, however, indemnify the individual if the individual was adjudged liable: to the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation; or in any proceeding charging improper personal benefit on the basis that he or she improperly received a personal benefit.

The OBCA also provides that a corporation's articles of incorporation may limit or eliminate the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, provided that no such provision shall eliminate the liability of a director for:

any breach of the directors' duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders;

acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

any unlawful distribution; or any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation provide that we will indemnify our directors and officers against reasonable expenses (including attorney fees), judgments, fines, penalties, excise taxes or settlement payments incurred or suffered by reason of service as a director or officer or at Umpqua's request as a director, officer, partner or trustee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation limit monetary liability of our directors for their conduct as directors to the fullest extent permitted under the OBCA. If the OBCA is amended to further limit the directors' liability, Umpqua's articles would incorporate such amendment on its effective date.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

Table of Contents

The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415 (§230.415 of this chapter), will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of such registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(b) After the Effective Time, Umpqua will either (i) continue the WSB employee benefit plans in effect at the Effective Date (provided that at renewal dates, co-payments, employee contributions, deductible limits and other cost-sharing arrangements may be modified to reflect any increase in the costs of such benefits), (ii) modify the WSB employee benefits plans to provide for benefits that would, in the aggregate, be substantially similar to those provided to WSB and the WSB Banks employees at the Effective Date, or (iii) may shift WSB and the WSB Banks employees to the benefit programs then made available to Umpqua employees (the Benefits Integration) with credit for service with WSB and the WSB Banks accrued (or otherwise credited by WSB and the WSB Banks) prior to the Benefits Integration deemed service with Umpqua for eligibility and vesting purposes (and levels of benefits); provided, however, that in each case, for the period from the Effective Time through December 31, 2006, the WSB and WSB Bank s employees shall continue to be provided employee benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those employee benefits provided to such employees immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 7.12(a) with respect to individuals with employment or other agreements that provide for severance payments, WSB and the WSB Banks employees, who by reason of the Mergers become employees of Umpqua or Umpqua Bank and are thereafter terminated other than for cause by such entity, will be provided with severance benefits by Umpqua based on the Umpqua Bank Severance Policy as currently in effect as of the date of this Agreement, a copy of which has been provided to WSB. Consistent with Section 7.12(b), WSB and the WSB Banks employees who become entitled to severance benefits, whether as a result of the Mergers or otherwise, will receive full credit for prior service accrued (or otherwise credited) with WSB and WSB Banks, plus service following the Effective Time, for purposes of determining the amount of such severance benefits. This Section 7.12(c) does not affect retention or incentive payments that are otherwise due to such employees.

(d) For purposes of vacation benefits, service accrued (or otherwise credited) with WSB and the WSB Banks shall be credited for determining an employee s eligibility and length of vacation under the Umpqua vacation plan, and any vacation taken prior to the Benefits Integration will be subtracted under the Umpqua plan from the employee s vacation entitlement for the calendar year in which the Benefits Integration occurs.

(e) For purposes of participation in Umpqua bonus plans, profit sharing plans and arrangements, and similar benefits, WSB and the WSB Banks employees shall receive credit for length of service accrued (or otherwise credited) with WSB and the WSB Banks and (except as may otherwise be provided in employment contracts) shall be entitled to participate in Umpqua bonus compensation plans and awards beginning at the Effective Time.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Umpqua shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law (and Umpqua shall also advance expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law provided the Person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such Person is not entitled to indemnification), each present and former director and officer of WSB and WSB Subsidiaries (collectively, the Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities (collectively, Costs) incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that Umpqua shall not be required to indemnify any Indemnified Party pursuant hereto if it shall be determined that the Indemnified Party acted in bad faith and not in a manner such Party believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of WSB.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under paragraph (a) of this Section 7.13, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify Umpqua thereof, but the failure to so notify shall not relieve Umpqua of any liability it may have to such Indemnified Party if such failure does not materially prejudice the indemnifying party. In the event of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) Umpqua shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and Umpqua shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if Umpqua elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are issues which raise conflicts of interest between Umpqua and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them, and Umpqua shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties promptly as statements therefor are received; provided, however, that Umpqua shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph (b) to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties in any jurisdiction unless the use of one counsel for such Indemnified Parties would present such counsel with a conflict of interest, (ii) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter and (iii) Umpqua shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent; and provided, further, that Umpqua shall not have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party if and when a court of competent jurisdiction shall ultimately determine, and such determination shall have become final, that the indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable law.

(c) Umpqua shall maintain WSB's existing officers' and directors' liability insurance for a period of 3 years after the Effective Time (or if the cost exceeds $300,000, such period that can be purchased for $300,000) or otherwise provide comparable insured coverage for such period.

(d) If Umpqua or any of its successors or assigns (i) shall consolidate with or merge into any other corporation or entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) shall transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any individual, corporation or other entity, then, and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the surviving corporation shall assume all of the obligations set forth in this Section 7.13.

(e) The provisions of this Section 7.13 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each of the Indemnified Parties, their heirs and their representatives.

11. Termination.

11.1 Procedure for Termination. This Agreement may be terminated before the Effective Date:

(a) By the mutual consent of the Boards of Directors of Umpqua and WSB acknowledged in writing;

(c) By Umpqua, acting through its Board of Directors upon written notice to WSB, if there has been a breach by WSB in its representations, warranties or covenants set forth herein such that Section 8.8 or 8.9 would not be satisfied and which misrepresentation, breach or failure is not cured within thirty (30) days notice to WSB of such misrepresentation, breach or failure; or by WSB, acting through its Board of Directors upon written notice to Umpqua, if there has been a breach by Umpqua in its representations, warranties or covenants set forth herein such that Section 9.7 or 9.8 would not be satisfied and which misrepresentation, breach or failure is not cured within thirty (30) days notice to Umpqua of such misrepresentation, breach or failure;

(d) By WSB, if its Board of Director determines in good faith (after consultation with Sullivan & Cromwell LLP) that such action is required in order for the directors to comply with their respective fiduciary duties under applicable law; or

(e) By WSB, if (1) there has been a significant decline in the price of Umpqua Common Stock, measured by the Umpqua Measuring Price, (2) such decline is not proportionate relative to the Index, (3) WSB delivers written notice to Umpqua of its intention to terminate this Agreement within forty-eight (48) hours following the date of such event and (4) Umpqua does not elect to pursue a Decline Adjustment as set forth below; provided, however, that, if Umpqua effects a stock dividend, stock split, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction after the date hereof and prior to the date on which the Umpqua Measuring Price is determined, the provisions of this Section 11.1(e) shall be appropriately adjusted so that such event does not in and of itself trigger a termination right on behalf of WSB. For purposes hereof, the following terms have the following meanings:

(i) Index means the NASDAQ Bank Index.

(ii) Initial Index shall mean 3,126.17.

(iii) Final Index shall mean the average of the closing prices of the Index for the Umpqua Measuring Period.

(iv) Minimum Adjustment Price means $22.59, which represents 80% of the Umpqua Initial Price.

(v) A significant decline shall be deemed to have occurred if the Umpqua Measuring Price is less than the Minimum Adjustment Price.

(vi) A decrease is not proportionate relative to the Index if the quotient obtained by dividing the Umpqua Measuring Price by the Umpqua Initial Price is less than the quotient obtained by dividing the Final Index by the Initial Index and subtracting 0.10 from the quotient.

(vii) Umpqua Initial Price means $28.24.

(viii) Umpqua Measuring Period means the fifteen day trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the Effective Date.

(ix) Umpqua Measuring Price means the average closing price of Umpqua Common Stock on NASDAQ over the Umpqua Measuring Period.

Notwithstanding any decrease in the price of Umpqua Common Stock, as set forth in this Section 11.1(e), WSB shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1(e) if Umpqua elects, no later than the close of business on the second succeeding Business Day after the close of the Umpqua Measuring Period, to adjust the Exchange Ratio (a Decline Adjustment) such that the Exchange Ratio shall equal the number derived by multiplying the unadjusted Exchange Ratio times the quotient obtained by dividing the Minimum Adjustment Price by the Umpqua Measuring Price.

(f) By WSB or Umpqua, acting through its Board of Directors, if any Order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of any of the Mergers shall become final and non-appealable (whether before or after the approval by the shareholders of WSB or Umpqua).

(g) By either party if (i) WSB shareholders fail to approve the principal terms of this Agreement at a meeting held pursuant to Section 6.10 or any adjournments or postponements thereof or (ii) Umpqua shareholders fail to approve this Agreement, the Holding Company Plan of Merger or the issuance of shares of Umpqua Common Stock contemplated hereby at a meeting held pursuant to Section 7.8 or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

11.2.1 In the event this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 11.1(a) or 11.1(b), 11.1(e) or 11.1(f), this Agreement shall become wholly void and of no further force and effect and there shall be no liability on the part of any party or its respective Board of Directors as a result of such termination or abandonment.

11.2.2 If this Agreement is terminated by WSB or Umpqua pursuant to Section 11.1(g)(i) (provided that no failure of any covenant, condition, representation or warranty on the part of Umpqua or within the reasonable control of WSB shall have proximately caused the failure of WSB shareholders to have approved the principal terms of this Agreement), by Umpqua pursuant to Section 11.1(c) or by WSB pursuant to Section 11.1(d), then WSB agrees to pay to Umpqua its reasonable expenses incurred in entering into and attempting to consummate the transaction up to a maximum of $600,000, to be paid within thirty (30) days after Umpqua's request; provided, however, if Umpqua has terminated the Agreement as a result of WSB's willful failure to comply with any material covenant set forth in Section 6, it agrees to pay Umpqua an additional $3,000,000, to be paid within thirty (30) days after Umpqua's request. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 11.1(g)(i) or Section 11.1(d), or by Umpqua pursuant to Section 11.1(c) and WSB enters into an Alternative Acquisition Transaction prior to the date that is 12 months from the date of termination and such Alternative Acquisition Transaction had been proposed prior to the date of the WSB shareholder meeting in the case of termination pursuant to Section 11.1(g)(i) or prior to the date of termination in the case of termination pursuant to Section 11.1(c) or 11.1(d); and provided that in any of such events if, at the time of WSB's shareholder meeting there was no material failure by Umpqua to comply with the covenants set forth in Section 7 and to satisfy the conditions set forth in Section 9.1 (if the shareholders of Umpqua shall have met by the date of the termination) and Sections 9.7 and 9.9, then WSB will, within thirty (30) days after Umpqua's request, pay Umpqua the sum of $14,000,000 (reduced by any amounts paid or payable pursuant to the first sentence of this paragraph). This Section 11.2.2 shall be the sole remedy in favor of Umpqua for termination of this Agreement pursuant to the sections named in the first sentence, and Umpqua specifically waives the protections of any other legal or equitable remedies that otherwise might be available to Umpqua.

11.2.3 If this Agreement is terminated by Umpqua or WSB pursuant to Section 11.1(g)(ii) (provided that no failure of any covenant, condition, representation or warranty on the part of WSB or within the reasonable control of Umpqua shall have proximately caused the failure of Umpqua shareholders to have approved the Agreement, the Holding Company Plan of Merger or the issuance of shares of Umpqua Common Stock contemplated hereby) or by WSB pursuant to Section 11.1(c), then Umpqua agrees to pay to WSB its reasonable expenses incurred in entering into and attempting to consummate the transaction up to a maximum of $600,000; provided, however, if WSB has terminated the Agreement as a result of Umpqua's willful failure to comply with any material covenant set forth in Section 7, it agrees to pay WSB an additional $3,000,000. This Section 11.2.3 shall be the sole remedy in favor of WSB for termination of this Agreement pursuant to the sections named in the first sentence, and WSB specifically waives the protections of any other legal or equitable remedies that otherwise might be available to WSB.

12.5 Expenses. Each of the parties hereto shall pay their respective expenses in connection with this Agreement and the Plans of Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby, except as otherwise may be specifically provided.

12.10 No Benefit to Third Parties. Except for Sections 7.12 and 7.13, nothing herein expressed or implied is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any person or entity, other than the parties hereto, any right or remedy under or by reason hereof. 7. EXCHANGE OF SHARES. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any party or any shareholder, the following shall occur:

7.1 Umpqua Common Stock. Each share of Umpqua Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Merger shall remain outstanding.

7.2 Merger Consideration; WSB Common Stock. Each outstanding share of WSB Common Stock (other than Dissenters' Shares) shall, subject to the limitations set forth herein, be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock determined by applying the Exchange Ratio, except that cash shall be paid in lieu of any resulting fractional shares. Subject to Section 10, Exchange Ratio means 1.61 shares of Umpqua Common Stock for each share of WSB Common Stock.

7.3 WSB Stock Options.

7.3.1 As of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Holding Company Merger and without any action on the part of any holder of any such option, each outstanding option to acquire WSB Common Stock (each a WSB Option) shall be automatically converted into an option to purchase Umpqua Common Stock (each, a Converted Option) as follows: (i) the number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Converted Option shall be equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of WSB Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the WSB Option, and (B) the Exchange Ratio; and (ii) the exercise price per share of Umpqua Common Stock shall be equal to the result of (A) the exercise price of the WSB Option, divided by (B) the Exchange Ratio. All other terms and conditions of the Converted Options shall remain the same as the terms and conditions of the WSB Options. With respect to any WSB Option that is an incentive stock option within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code, the foregoing adjustments shall be effected in a manner consistent with Section 424(a) of the Code.

7.3.2 Umpqua shall, as of the Effective Time, assume the obligations of WSB under all plans and agreements pursuant to which a WSB Option has been issued (the WSB Stock Plans) and shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of the Converted Options. Umpqua shall cause the registration of the shares of Umpqua Common Stock subject to the Converted Options to become effective as part of a registration statement on Form S-8, or any successor or other appropriate forms, with respect to the shares of Umpqua Common Stock subject to the Converted Options promptly following the Effective Time; and, thereafter, Umpqua shall deliver to holders of Converted Options any applicable prospectus and shall maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements, including the current status of any related prospectus, for so long as the Converted Options remain outstanding.

8. NO FRACTIONAL SHARES. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, no fractional shares of Umpqua Common Stock and no certificates or scrip therefor, or other evidence of ownership thereof, will be issued. Instead, Umpqua will pay to each holder of WSB Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Umpqua Common Stock an amount in cash (without interest) determined by multiplying such fraction by the closing price for Umpqua Common Stock on the Effective Date as reported by the NASDAQ National Market.

9. EXCHANGE PROCEDURES. Prior to the Effective Date, Umpqua shall appoint an Exchange Agent for the purpose of exchanging certificates representing shares of WSB Common Stock (other than Dissenters' Shares) for Umpqua Common Stock. On or about the Effective Date, Umpqua will issue and deliver to the Exchange Agent certificates representing a sufficient number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock issuable and an estimate of the cash required to make cash payable in the Merger.

9.1 Upon surrender for cancellation to the Exchange Agent of one or more certificates for shares of WSB Common Stock (Old Certificates), accompanied by a duly executed letter of transmittal in proper form, the Exchange Agent shall deliver to each holder of such surrendered Old Certificates new certificates representing the appropriate number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock (New Certificates), together with checks for payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares to be issued in respect of the Old Certificates.

9.2 Until Old Certificates have been surrendered and exchanged for New Certificates as herein provided, each outstanding Old Certificate shall be deemed, for all corporate purposes of Umpqua to be whole shares of Umpqua Common Stock. No dividends or other distributions which are declared on Umpqua Common Stock into which shares of WSB Common Stock have been converted after the Effective Date, will be paid to persons otherwise entitled to receive the same until the Old Certificates have been surrendered in exchange for New Certificates in the manner herein provided. In no event shall the persons entitled to receive such dividends or other distributions be entitled to receive interest on such dividends or other distributions.

9.3 Any Umpqua Common Stock or cash delivered to the Exchange Agent (together with any interest or dividends thereon) and not issued pursuant to this Section 9 at the end of twelve months from the Effective Date shall be returned to Umpqua, in which event the persons entitled thereto shall look only to Umpqua for payment thereof.

9.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, if any holder of WSB Common Stock shall be unable to surrender his or her Old Certificates because such certificates have been lost or destroyed, such holder may deliver in lieu thereof a lost stock certificate affidavit and, unless waived, at the sole option of Umpqua or the Exchange Agent, an indemnity bond together with a surety, each in a form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Umpqua or the Exchange Agent.

9.5 The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the shares of Umpqua Common Stock or WSB Common Stock held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold all dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such shares of Umpqua Common Stock for the account of the persons entitled hereto.

10. ANTI-DILUTION PROVISION. If Umpqua changes or proposes to change the number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Date as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Umpqua Common Stock, or exchanges Umpqua Common Stock for a different number or kind of shares or securities or is involved in any transaction resulting in any of the foregoing, and the record date therefore shall be prior to the Effective Date, the Exchange Ratio shall be proportionately adjusted.

11. DISSENTERS RIGHTS.

11.1 The shareholders of Umpqua have no rights under Oregon law to dissent from this Plan of Merger.

11.2 All shares of WSB Common Stock that are dissenting shares within the meaning of California General Corporation Law § 1300 (Dissenters Shares) shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive Umpqua Common Stock unless and until such shares have lost their status as dissenting shares under CGCL § 1300, at which time such shares shall be converted into Umpqua Common Stock pursuant to Section 7.2. Any Dissenting Shareholder who shall be entitled to be paid the value of such shareholder s shares of WSB Common Stock, as provided in Section 1300 of the CGCL, shall not be entitled to shares of Umpqua Common Stock at the Exchange Ratio in respect thereof unless and until such Dissenting Shareholder shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such Dissenting Shareholder s right to dissent from the Holding Company merger under the CGCL, and shall be entitled to receive only the payment provided for by Section 1300 of the CGCL with respect to such Dissenters Shares.

12. APPROVAL. This Plan of Merger has been ratified and approved by the Board of Directors and shareholders of each of Umpqua and WSB at meetings called and held in accordance with the applicable provisions of law and their respective articles of incorporation and bylaws. Each of Umpqua and WSB have procured all other consents and approvals, taken all other actions, and satisfied all other requirements prescribed by law or otherwise, necessary for consummation of the Merger on the terms herein provided.

13. CONDITIONS TO THE MERGER. All conditions precedent to the effectiveness of this Plan of Merger as set forth in the Reorganization Agreement have been satisfied or waived.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Plan of Merger to be executed by their duly authorized officers as of the date first above written.

Board of Directors

Umpqua Holdings Corporation

Umpqua Bank Plaza

One SW Columbia Street, Suite 1200

Portland, Oregon 97258

Directors of Umpqua Holdings Corporation:

We understand that Umpqua Holdings Corporation and its subsidiary Umpqua Bank (collectively, hereinafter, Umpqua) and Western Sierra Bancorp and its subsidiaries Western Sierra National Bank, Auburn Community Bank, Lake Community Bank and Central California Bank (collectively, hereinafter, Western Sierra) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of February 8, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Western Sierra will be merged with and into Umpqua (the Merger). Pursuant to the Merger, as more fully described in the Merger Agreement and as further described to us by management of Umpqua, we understand that, subject to the exercise of dissenters' rights, each outstanding share of common stock of Western Sierra is to be converted into the right to receive 1.6100 Umpqua common shares, equal to $44.82 as of the date of the Merger Agreement. We further understand that the aggregate consideration payable by Umpqua to the shareholders of Western Sierra will equal approximately 12.46 million Umpqua common shares, subject to adjustment as provided for and as more fully described in the Merger Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are set forth in more detail in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked us whether, in our opinion, as of the date hereof, the consideration to be paid by Umpqua to Western Sierra shareholders as provided in the Merger Agreement (the Merger Consideration) is fair to Umpqua and its shareholders from a financial point of view.

Hoefer & Arnett, Inc. is an investment banking firm and is regularly engaged as part of its business in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, private placements, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, and valuations for corporate purposes.

For purposes of this opinion and in connection with our review of the Merger, we have, among other things: (1) reviewed the Merger Agreement, (2) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Umpqua and Western Sierra that we deem to be relevant, (3) reviewed certain internal information, primarily financial in nature, including financial projections and other financial and operating data relating to the strategic implications and operational benefits anticipated to result from the Merger, furnished to us by Umpqua and Western Sierra, (4) reviewed certain publicly available and other information concerning the reported prices and trading history of, and the trading market for, the common stock of Umpqua and Western Sierra, (5) reviewed certain publicly available information with respect to other companies that we believe to be comparable in certain respects to Umpqua and Western Sierra, (6) considered the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of selected recent business combinations of companies in the banking industry which we deemed to be comparable, in whole or in part, to the Merger, and (7) made inquiries regarding and discussed the Merger and the Merger Agreement and other matters related thereto with Umpqua and Umpqua's counsel. In addition to the foregoing, we have conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other financial, economic and market criteria as we deem appropriate to arrive at our opinion.

In arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information provided to or reviewed by us, whether or not publicly available, and we have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification of any such information. With respect to financial projections and other information provided to or reviewed by us, we have been advised by the management of Umpqua that such projections and other information were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the respective managements of Umpqua and Western Sierra as to the expected future financial performance of Umpqua and Western Sierra and the strategic implications and operational benefits anticipated from the Merger, and we have assumed that, after the Merger, Umpqua and its subsidiaries will perform substantially in accordance with such projections. We further relied on the assurances of the management of Umpqua that they are unaware of any facts that would make the information or projections provided to us incomplete or misleading. We have not made or been provided with any independent evaluations or appraisals of any of the assets, properties, liabilities or securities, nor have we made any physical inspection of the properties or assets, of Umpqua or Western Sierra. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed that such allowances for Umpqua are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. In addition, we have not assumed responsibility for reviewing any individual credit files relating to Umpqua or Western Sierra.

Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Umpqua to enter into the Merger Agreement or complete the Merger.

Our opinion is based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring after the date hereof.

We have acted as financial advisor to Umpqua and will receive a fee from Umpqua for our services if the proposed Merger is consummated. In the ordinary course of our business, we and our affiliates may actively trade the common stock of Umpqua and Western Sierra for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, we may at any time hold a long or short position in the common stock of Umpqua or Western Sierra.

This opinion is for the benefit and use of the members of the Board of Directors of Umpqua in connection with their evaluation of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Umpqua common stock as to how such holder should vote with respect to the Merger. This opinion may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair and equitable to Umpqua and the holders of Umpqua common stock from a financial point of view.

Sincerely,

HOEFER & ARNETT, INC.

traded; (viii) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available; (ix) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (x) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of senior management of Western Sierra, the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Western Sierra and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of Umpqua regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Umpqua.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources or that was provided to us by Western Sierra or Umpqua or their respective representatives and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of management of Western Sierra and Umpqua that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Western Sierra or Umpqua or any of their subsidiaries, or the collectibility of any such assets, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Western Sierra and Umpqua nor have we reviewed any individual credit files relating to Western Sierra and Umpqua. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Western Sierra and Umpqua are adequate to cover such losses.

With respect to the earnings estimates for Western Sierra and Umpqua reviewed with the managements of Western Sierra and Umpqua and used by us in our analyses, Western Sierra's and Umpqua's managements confirmed to us that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of the respective managements of the respective future financial performances of Western Sierra and Umpqua, respectively, and we assumed that such performances would be achieved. With respect to the projections of transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and stock repurchases determined by the senior management of Umpqua and reviewed with senior management of Western Sierra, the managements of Western Sierra and Umpqua confirmed to us that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements and we assumed that such performances would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such financial projections or the assumptions on which they are based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in Western Sierra's or Umpqua's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Western Sierra and Umpqua will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to the agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements, that the conditions precedent in the agreements are not waived and that the Merger will be a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice Western Sierra has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We are expressing no opinion herein as to what the value of Umpqua's common stock will be when issued to Western Sierra's shareholders pursuant to the Agreement or the prices at which Western Sierra's or Umpqua's common stock may trade at any time.

We have acted as Western Sierra's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion. Western Sierra has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. As you are aware, we have provided certain other investment banking services to Western Sierra in the past and have received compensation for such services.

In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Western Sierra and Umpqua and their affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity or debt securities of Western Sierra and Umpqua or their affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Western Sierra in connection with its consideration of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Western Sierra as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to holders of Western Sierra Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Western Sierra to engage in the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Western Sierra or the effect of any other transaction in which Western Sierra might engage. Our opinion is not to be quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in a registration statement, prospectus, proxy statement or in any other document, nor shall this opinion be used for any other purposes, without our prior written consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion, as of the date hereof, that the Exchange Ratio is fair to the holders of Western Sierra Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

APPENDIX E
Excerpt from the California General Corporation Law Concerning Dissenters' Rights
CORPORATIONS CODE
TITLE 1. CORPORATIONS
DIVISION 1. GENERAL CORPORATION LAW
CHAPTER 13. DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

§ 1300: Reorganization or short-form merger; dissenting shares; corporate purchase at fair market value; definitions

(a) If the approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152) of a corporation is required for a reorganization under subdivisions (a) and (b) or subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1201, each shareholder of the corporation entitled to vote on the transaction and each shareholder of a subsidiary corporation in a short-form merger may, by complying with this chapter, require the corporation in which the shareholder holds shares to purchase for cash at their fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder which are dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b). The fair market value shall be determined as of the day before the first announcement of the terms of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the proposed action, but adjusted for any stock split, reverse stock split, or share dividend which becomes effective thereafter.

(b) As used in this chapter, dissenting shares means shares which come within all of the following descriptions:

1) Which were not immediately prior to the reorganization or short-form merger either (A) listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100 or (B) listed on the National Market System of the NASDAQ Stock Market, and the notice of meeting of shareholders to act upon the reorganization summarizes this section and Sections 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304; provided, however, that this provision does not apply to any shares with respect to which there exists any restriction on transfer imposed by the corporation or by any law or regulation; and provided, further, that this provision does not apply to any class of shares described in subparagraph (A) or (B) if demands for payment are filed with respect to 5 percent or more of the outstanding shares of that class.

2) Which were outstanding on the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on the reorganization and (A) were not voted in favor of the reorganization or, (B) if described in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1) (without regard to the provisos in that paragraph), were voted against the reorganization, or which were held of record on the effective date of a short-form merger; provided, however, that subparagraph (A) rather than subparagraph (B) of this paragraph applies in any case where the approval required by Section 1201 is sought by written consent rather than at a meeting.

3) Which the dissenting shareholder has demanded that the corporation purchase at their fair market value, in accordance with Section 1301.

4) Which the dissenting shareholder has submitted for endorsement, in accordance with Section 1302.

(c) As used in this chapter, dissenting shareholder means the recordholder of dissenting shares and includes a transferee of record.

§ 1301. Notice to holders of dissenting shares in reorganizations; demand for purchase; time; contents

(a) If, in the case of a reorganization, any shareholders of a corporation have a right under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, to require the corporation to purchase their shares for cash, such corporation shall mail to each such shareholder a notice of the approval of the reorganization by its outstanding shares (Section 152) within 10 days after the date of such approval, accompanied by a copy of Sections 1300, 1302, 1303, 1304 and this section, a statement of the price determined by the corporation to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if the shareholder desires to exercise the shareholder's right under such sections. The statement of price constitutes an offer by the corporation to purchase at the price stated any dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, unless they lose their status as dissenting shares under Section 1309.

(b) Any shareholder who has a right to require the corporation to purchase the shareholder's shares for cash under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, and who desires the corporation to purchase such shares shall make written demand upon the corporation for the purchase of such shares and payment to the shareholder in cash of their fair market value. The demand is not effective for any purpose unless it is received by the corporation or any transfer agent thereof (1) in the case of shares described in clause (i) or (ii) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1300 (without regard to the provisos in that paragraph), not later than the date of the shareholders' meeting to vote upon the reorganization, or (2) in any other case within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares pursuant to subdivision (a) or the notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

(c) The demand shall state the number and class of the shares held of record by the shareholder which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase and shall contain a statement of what such shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as of the day before the announcement of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger. The statement of fair market value constitutes an offer by the shareholder to sell the shares at such price.

§ 1302. Submission of share certificates for endorsement; uncertificated securities

Within 30 days after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or the notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, the shareholder shall submit to the corporation at its principal office or at the office of any transfer agent thereof, (a) if the shares are certificated securities, the shareholder's certificates representing any shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed or (b) if the shares are uncertificated securities, written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase. Upon subsequent transfers of the dissenting shares on the books of the corporation, the new certificates, initial transaction statement, and other written statements issued therefor shall bear a like statement, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares.

§ 1303. Payment of agreed price with interest; agreement fixing fair market value; filing; time of payment

(a) If the corporation and the shareholder agree that the shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement. Any agreements fixing the fair market value of any dissenting shares as between the corporation and the holders thereof shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, payment of the fair market value of dissenting shares shall be made within 30 days after the amount thereof has been agreed or within 30 days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the reorganization are satisfied, whichever is later, and in the case of certificated securities, subject to surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

§ 1304. Action to determine whether shares are dissenting shares or fair market value; limitation; joinder; consolidation; determination of issues; appointment of appraisers

(a) If the corporation denies that the shares are dissenting shares, or the corporation and the shareholder fail to agree upon the fair market value of the shares, then the shareholder demanding purchase of such shares as dissenting shares or any interested corporation, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152) or notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, but not thereafter, may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county praying the court to determine whether the shares are dissenting shares or the fair market value of the dissenting shares or both or may intervene in any action pending on such a complaint.

(b) Two or more dissenting shareholders may join as plaintiffs or be joined as defendants in any such action and two or more such actions may be consolidated.

(c) On the trial of the action, the court shall determine the issues. If the status of the shares as dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall first determine that issue. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall determine, or shall appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value of the shares.

§ 1305. Report of appraisers; confirmation; determination by court; judgment; payment; appeal; costs

(a) If the court appoints an appraiser or appraisers, they shall proceed forthwith to determine the fair market value per share. Within the time fixed by the court, the appraisers, or a majority of them, shall make and file a report in the office of the clerk of the court. Thereupon, on the motion of any party, the report shall be submitted to the court and considered on such evidence as the court considers relevant. If the court finds the report reasonable, the court may confirm it.

(b) If a majority of the appraisers appointed fail to make and file a report within 10 days from the date of their appointment or within such further time as may be allowed by the court or the report is not confirmed by the court, the court shall determine the fair market value of the dissenting shares.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, judgment shall be rendered against the corporation for payment of an amount equal to the fair market value of each dissenting share multiplied by the number of dissenting shares which any dissenting shareholder who is a party, or who has intervened, is entitled to require the corporation to purchase, with interest thereon at the legal rate from the date on which judgment was entered.

(d) Any such judgment shall be payable forthwith with respect to uncertificated securities and, with respect to certificated securities, only upon the endorsement and delivery to the corporation of the certificates for the shares described in the judgment. Any party may appeal from the judgment.

(e) The costs of the action, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable, but, if the appraisal exceeds the price offered by the corporation, the corporation shall pay the costs (including in the discretion of the court attorneys' fees, fees of expert witnesses and interest at the legal rate on judgments from the date of compliance with Sections 1300, 1301 and 1302 if the value awarded by the court for the shares is more than 125 percent of the price offered by the corporation under subdivision (a) of Section 1301).

§ 1306. Prevention of immediate payment; status as creditors; interest

To the extent that the provisions of Chapter 5 prevent the payment to any holders of dissenting shares of their fair market value, they shall become creditors of the corporation for the amount thereof together with interest at the legal rate on judgments until the date of payment, but subordinate to all other creditors in any liquidation proceeding, such debt to be payable when permissible under the provisions of Chapter 5.

§ 1307. Dividends on dissenting shares

Cash dividends declared and paid by the corporation upon the dissenting shares after the date of approval of the reorganization by the outstanding shares (Section 152) and prior to payment for the shares by the corporation shall be credited against the total amount to be paid by the corporation therefor.

§ 1308. Rights of dissenting shareholders pending valuation; withdrawal of demand for payment

Except as expressly limited in this chapter, holders of dissenting shares continue to have all the rights and privileges incident to their shares, until the fair market value of their shares is agreed upon or determined. A dissenting shareholder may not withdraw a demand for payment unless the corporation consents thereto.

§ 1309. Termination of dissenting share and shareholder status

Dissenting shares lose their status as dissenting shares and the holders thereof cease to be dissenting shareholders and cease to be entitled to require the corporation to purchase their shares upon the happening of any of the following:

- (a) The corporation abandons the reorganization. Upon abandonment of the reorganization, the corporation shall pay on demand to any dissenting shareholder who has initiated proceedings in good faith under this chapter all necessary expenses incurred in such proceedings and reasonable attorneys' fees.
- (b) The shares are transferred prior to their submission for endorsement in accordance with Section 1302 or are surrendered for conversion into shares of another class in accordance with the articles.
- (c) The dissenting shareholder and the corporation do not agree upon the status of the shares as dissenting shares or upon the purchase price of the shares, and neither files a complaint or intervenes in a pending action as provided in Section 1304, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.
- (d) The dissenting shareholder, with the consent of the corporation, withdraws the shareholder's demand for purchase of the dissenting shares.

§ 1310. Suspension of right to compensation or valuation proceedings; litigation of shareholders' approval

If litigation is instituted to test the sufficiency or regularity of the votes of the shareholders in authorizing a reorganization, any proceedings under Sections 1304 and 1305 shall be suspended until final determination of such litigation.

§ 1311. Exempt shares

This chapter, except Section 1312, does not apply to classes of shares whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to such shares in the event of a reorganization or merger.

§ 1312. Right of dissenting shareholder to attack, set aside or rescind merger or reorganization; restraining order or injunction; conditions

(a) No shareholder of a corporation who has a right under this chapter to demand payment of cash for the shares held by the shareholder shall have any right at law or in equity to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger, or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, except in an action to test whether the number of shares required to authorize or approve the reorganization have been legally voted in favor thereof; but any holder of shares of a class whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to them in the event of a reorganization or short-form merger is entitled to payment in accordance with those terms and provisions or, if the principal terms of the reorganization are approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1202, is entitled to payment in accordance with the terms and provisions of the approved reorganization.

(b) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, subdivision (a) shall not apply to any shareholder of such party who has not demanded payment of cash for such shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter; but if the shareholder institutes any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, the shareholder shall not thereafter have any right to demand payment of cash for the shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter. The court in any action attacking the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded shall not restrain or enjoin the consummation of the transaction except upon 10 days' prior notice to the corporation and upon a determination by the court that clearly no other remedy will adequately protect the complaining shareholder or the class of shareholders of which such shareholder is a member.

(c) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, in any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, (1) a party to a reorganization or short-form merger which controls another party to the reorganization or short-form merger shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of the controlled party, and (2) a person who controls two or more parties to a reorganization shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of any party so controlled.

ARTICLE III

AUTHORIZED CAPITAL STOCK

A. Authorized Classes of Shares. The Corporation may issue 102,000,000 shares of stock divided into two classes as follows:

2,000,000 shares of preferred stock (Preferred Stock). The Preferred Stock may be further divided into one or more series of Preferred Stock. Each series of Preferred Stock will have the preferences, limitations and relative rights as may be set forth for such series either in these Articles or in an amendment to these Articles (Preferred Stock Designation). A Preferred Stock Designation may be adopted either by action of the Board of Directors of the Corporation pursuant to Section G of this Article III or by action of the shareholders of the Corporation; and 100,000,000 shares of common stock (Common Stock).

Except as may otherwise be provided in a Preferred Stock Designation, all shares of a class will have preferences, limitations and relative rights identical to those of all other shares of the same class. All shares of a series of Preferred Stock will have preferences, limitations and relative rights identical to those of all other shares of that series of Preferred Stock.

B. Voting Rights. The Corporation s Capital Stock will have voting rights as follows:

1. Common Stock Voting Rights. Subject to the voting rights, if any, of any Preferred Stock that may be outstanding, the outstanding shares of Common Stock will (a) each have one vote, (b) vote together as a single voting group and (c) together have unlimited voting rights.

F-1

Table of Contents

2. Preferred Stock Voting Rights. Except as otherwise provided by the Oregon Business Corporation Act or in a Preferred Stock Designation, each share of Preferred Stock will, on each matter which that series of Preferred Stock is entitled to vote, (a) either have (i) one vote if that series of Preferred Stock is not by its terms convertible into Common Stock, or (ii), if that series of Preferred Stock is convertible into Common Stock, one vote for each share of Common Stock into which that series of Preferred Stock may be converted as of the record date for the meeting at which the vote is to be taken, and (b) vote together with shares of the Common Stock as a single voting group.

3. Nonvoting Preferred Stock. Shares of any series of Preferred Stock which are designated as being nonvoting will nonetheless have such voting rights as are required by the Oregon Business Corporation Act.

4. Noncumulative Voting for Directors. The holders of shares of Common Stock and the holders of shares of any series of Preferred Stock which is entitled to vote with respect to the election of directors will not have the right to cumulate votes in the election of directors.

C. Dividends. Subject to any priority or participating rights of any Preferred Stock that may be outstanding, the holders of Common Stock will be entitled to receive, out of any legally available assets of the Corporation, any dividends declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Except as may otherwise be provided in a Preferred Stock Designation, the Board of Directors of the Corporation will have the sole authority and discretion to determine the time, amount and terms of payment for any dividend that may be declared. Nothing in these Articles will be construed as obligating the Board of Directors of the Corporation to declare a dividend at any time, even though the Corporation may have assets legally available to pay a dividend.

D. Redemption. Subject to any provision to the contrary contained in any Preferred Stock Designation, the Corporation may repurchase all or any of its outstanding shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock even though the distribution made to effect that repurchase would cause the difference between the Corporation's total assets and its total liabilities to be less than the amount that would be needed to satisfy the preferential liquidation rights of all outstanding shares of classes or series of a class with liquidation rights that are prior to those of the shares being repurchased if the Corporation were to be liquidated at the time of such repurchase.

E. Liquidation. In liquidating, dissolving or winding up the Corporation, the Board of Directors must first discharge or make adequate provision for discharging all liabilities of the Corporation. The remaining net assets of the Corporation shall be distributed to the holders of the Common Stock according to their respective share holdings, subject to the priority and participating rights of any Preferred Stock that may be outstanding.

F. No Preemptive Rights. No holder of any shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock will be entitled to any preemptive right to purchase or subscribe for any new, unissued or treasury shares of the Corporation.

G. Preferences, Limitations and Relative Rights of Preferred Stock. The Board of Directors of the Corporation is expressly authorized to designate, from time to time by resolution duly adopted, the preferences, limitations and relative rights of one or more series of Preferred Stock. A Preferred Stock Designation by the Board of Directors may set forth, with respect to the shares of the series of Preferred Stock so designated, the following preferences, limitations and relative rights:

1. Voting. The voting rights of the shares of that series of Preferred Stock, including whether the shares have special, conditional or limited voting rights. Alternatively, the Preferred Stock Designation may include a statement to the effect that the shares of that series of Preferred Stock are nonvoting except to the extent voting rights are required by the Oregon Business Corporation Act.

2. Dividends. The dividend rate and preference, if any, of the shares of that series of Preferred Stock. The Preferred Stock Designation will also state (a) whether the dividend rights of shares of that series of Preferred Stock are cumulative, noncumulative or partially cumulative and (b) whether or not the shares of that series of Preferred Stock will participate in any dividends that may be declared with respect to the Common Stock.

3. Liquidations. The amount of the liquidation preference, if any, of the shares of that series of Preferred Stock. The Preferred Stock Designation will also state whether or not and, if so, when the shares of that series of Preferred Stock will participate with the Common Stock in any liquidating distributions.

4. Redemption. Whether the shares of that series of Preferred Stock are redeemable at the option of the Corporation, at the option of the holder of the shares or another person or upon the occurrence of a designated event and whether the redemption price for the shares of that series of Preferred Stock will be a designated amount or determined by a designated formula or by reference to an extrinsic event or extrinsic data, whether the redemption price for the shares of such series of Preferred Stock will be paid in cash, indebtedness or other property. The Preferred Stock Designation will also state (a) the terms and conditions, if any, of any redemption, (b) the procedures for effecting any redemption and (c) whether or not and, if so, where and in what manner a sinking fund must be created by the Corporation for the purpose of funding any redemption.

5. Conversion. Whether the shares of that series of Preferred Stock are convertible at the option of the Corporation, at the option of the holder of the shares or another person or upon the occurrence of a designated event into other securities of the Corporation in a designated amount or in an amount determined by a designated formula or by reference to an extrinsic event or extrinsic data. The Preferred Stock Designation will also state the terms and conditions of the conversion, if any, and the procedures for effecting such a conversion.

6. Other Terms. Such other preferences, limitations and relative rights as the Board of Directors of the Corporation may determine.

Every Preferred Stock Designation must identify that series of Preferred Stock in a manner that will distinguish that series from all other series of Preferred Stock and from the undesignated Preferred Stock. The Preferred Stock Designation must also set forth the number of shares to be included in that series. All shares of that series that are thereafter redeemed, converted, or, if so provided in the Preferred Stock Designation, remain unissued on a designated date or on the occurrence of an event will cease to be of that series and will automatically become undesignated Preferred Stock.

Any Preferred Stock Designation adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation pursuant to this Section G of Article III will constitute articles of amendment to these Articles of Incorporation and will become effective, without shareholder action, upon filing as prescribed by the Oregon Business Corporation Act. No shares of Preferred Stock or of a series of Preferred Stock may be issued by the Corporation prior to the filing of articles of amendment determining the preferences, limitations and relative rights of such shares.

ARTICLE V
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A. Number of Directors. The number of directors of the Corporation will be not less than six (6) nor more than nineteen (19), with the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board of directors. As used in these ~~Restated Articles of Incorporation~~, the term "whole board of directors" means the total number of directors that the Corporation would have if there were no vacancies on the board of directors.

B. ~~Election of Directors. Each director shall be elected to serve a term of one year, with each director's term to expire at the next annual meeting following the director's election as a director. Notwithstanding the expiration of the term of a director, the director shall continue to hold office until his or her successor has been elected and qualified.~~ ~~Classified Board. The Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as the then total number of directors constituting the whole board of directors permits. One class will stand for election at each annual meeting of shareholders, with each class standing for election every third year. The initial Directors in the first group (class 1 Directors) shall hold office for a term expiring at the first annual meeting of shareholders of the Corporation, initial Directors in the second group (class 2 Directors) shall hold office for a term expiring at the second annual meeting of shareholders, and initial Directors in the third group (class 3 Directors) shall hold office for a term expiring at the third annual meeting of shareholders. If the number of Directors is increased or decreased, such change will be apportioned among the classes so that after the change, the classes will remain as nearly equal in number as possible.~~

~~Each Director shall be elected to hold office for a term of three years, and until his or her successor has been elected and qualified, subject to prior death, resignation or removal, such term to expire on the date of the third annual meeting of shareholders following the election of the class of Directors to which such Director belongs. A decrease in the number of directors will not have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. No fewer than two and no more than five Directors shall have terms expiring in the same year, and in any event, the number of Directors whose terms expire in any one year shall be less than one half of the total number of Directors. At each annual meeting, the shareholders will elect directors by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election.~~

C. Removal of Directors. Notwithstanding any other provision of these ~~Restated Articles of Incorporation~~, any director of the Corporation may be removed at any time with or without ~~only for~~ cause, and except as otherwise required by law, only by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to elect such director, at a meeting of the shareholders called for that purpose, and the meeting notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. If the director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove the director. ~~For purposes of this Article IV, the term "cause" shall mean:~~

~~(i) any breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its shareholders;~~

~~(ii) acts or omissions, which are not in good faith or which, involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;~~

~~(iii) any unlawful distribution under the provisions of the Oregon Bank Act or other applicable state or federal laws; or~~

~~(iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.~~

D. Vacancies. Any directors' position to be filled by reason of a vacancy in the board of directors or a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the directors remaining in office. Shareholders may not fill vacancies.

~~E. Article Amendment or Repeal. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of the Corporation, the provisions of this Article may not be amended or repealed~~ and no provisions inconsistent herewith may be adopted by the corporation without the affirmative vote of 75% of all of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter.

ARTICLE VI
LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS

No director of the Corporation is personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for the following:

- (a) Any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its shareholders;
- (b) Acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
- (c) Any distribution to shareholders that is unlawful under the Oregon Business Corporation Act or successor statute; or
- (d) Any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

This Article does not limit or eliminate the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring before the effective date of this Article.

No amendment to or repeal of this Article may make any director of the Corporation personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for any act or omission as a director occurring before the effective date of that amendment or repeal.

This Article is intended to limit the liability of any director of the Corporation to the greatest extent authorized under the Oregon Business Corporation Act. Any further limitation on the liability of directors authorized under any amendment to the Oregon Business Corporation Act is incorporated into this Article on the effective date of that amendment.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Corporation, the provisions of this Article may not be amended or repealed and no provisions inconsistent herewith may be adopted by the corporation without the affirmative vote of 75% of all of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter.

ARTICLE VII
INDEMNIFICATION

A. Non-Derivative Actions. Subject to the provisions of Sections C, E and F below, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, (including all appeals) (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of or arising from the fact that the person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or one of its subsidiaries, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, or trustee of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines, penalties, excise taxes assessed with respect to any employee benefit plan and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person to be indemnified in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith, did not engage in intentional misconduct, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, did not know the conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that the person knew that the conduct was unlawful.

Table of Contents

B. Derivative Actions. Subject to the provisions of Sections C, E and F below, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit (including all appeals) by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of or arising from the fact that the person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or one of its subsidiaries, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, or trustee of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually incurred by the person to be indemnified in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith, provided, however, that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for deliberate misconduct in the performance of that person's duty to the Corporation, for any transaction in which the person received an improper personal benefit, for any breach of the duty of loyalty to the Corporation, or for any distribution to shareholders which is unlawful under the Oregon Business Corporation Act, or successor statute, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

C. Determination of Right to Indemnification in Certain Cases. Subject to the provisions of Sections E and F below, indemnification under Sections A and B of this Article shall not be made by the Corporation unless it is expressly determined that indemnification of the person who is or was an officer or director, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, or trustee of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections A or B. That determination may be made by any of the following:

(a) By the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not or were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding;

(b) If a quorum cannot be obtained under paragraph (a) of this subsection, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the action, suit or proceeding (directors who are parties to the action, suit or proceeding may participate in designation of the committee);

(c) By special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in (a) or (b) or, if a quorum of the Board of Directors cannot be obtained under (a) and a committee cannot be designated under (b) the special legal counsel shall be selected by majority vote of the full Board of Directors, including directors who are parties to the action, suit or proceeding;

(d) If referred to them by Board of Directors of the Corporation by majority vote of a quorum (whether or not such quorum consists in whole or in part of directors who are parties to the action, suit or proceeding), by the shareholders; or

(e) By a court of competent jurisdiction.

D. Indemnification of Persons Other than Officers or Directors. Subject to the provisions of Section F, in the event any person not entitled to indemnification under Sections A and B of this Article was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding of a type referred to in Sections A or B of this Article by reason of or arising from the fact that such person is or was an employee or agent (including an attorney) of the Corporation or one of its subsidiaries, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as an employee or agent (including an attorney) of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, the Board of Directors of the Corporation by a majority vote of a quorum (whether or not such quorum consists in whole or in part of directors who were parties to such action, suit or proceeding) or the stockholders of the Corporation by a majority vote of the outstanding shares upon

F-6

referral to them by the Board of Directors of the Corporation by a majority vote of a quorum (whether or not such quorum consists in whole or in part of directors who were parties to such action, suit or proceeding) may, but shall not be required to, grant to such person a right of indemnification to the extent described in Sections A or B of this Article as if the person were acting in a capacity referred to therein, provided that such person meets the applicable standard of conduct set forth in such Sections. Furthermore, the Board of Directors may designate by resolution in advance of any action, suit or proceeding, those employees or agents (including attorneys) who shall have all rights of indemnification granted under Sections A and B of this Article.

E. Successful Defense. Notwithstanding any other provision of Sections A, B, C or D of this Article, but subject to the provisions of Section F, to the extent a director, officer, or employee is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections A, B or D of this Article, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, that person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

F. Condition Precedent to Indemnification Under Sections A, B, D or E. Any person who desires to receive the benefits otherwise conferred by Sections A, B, D or E of this Article shall promptly notify the Corporation that the person has been named a defendant to an action, suit or proceeding of a type referred to in Sections A, B, D, or E and intends to rely upon the right of indemnification described in Sections A, B, D or E of this Article. The notice shall be in writing and mailed, via registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the President of the Corporation at the executive offices of the Corporation or, in the event the notice is from the President, to the registered agent of the Corporation. Failure to give the notice required hereby shall entitle the Board of Directors of the Corporation by a majority vote of a quorum (consisting of directors who, insofar as indemnity of officers or directors is concerned, were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, but who, insofar as indemnity of employees or agents is concerned, may or may not have been parties) or, if referred to them by the Board of Directors of the Corporation by a majority vote of a quorum (consisting of directors who, insofar as indemnity of officers or directors is concerned, were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, but who, insofar as indemnity of employees or agents is concerned, may or may not have been parties), the stockholders of the Corporation by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of shares of the Corporation's stock which have unlimited voting rights to make a determination that such a failure was prejudicial to the Corporation in the circumstances and that, therefore, the right to indemnification referred to in Sections A, B or D of this Article shall be denied in its entirety or reduced in amount.

G. Advances for Expenses. Expenses incurred by a person indemnified hereunder in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding (including all appeals) or threat thereof, may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such expenses if it shall ultimately be determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation and a written affirmation of the person's good faith belief that he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct. The undertaking must be a general personal obligation of the party receiving the advances but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

H. Insurance.
