(Attach extra Sheets if Needed)

The Company is unable, without unreasonable effort and expense, to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 29, 2005, on a timely basis. The Form 10-K, which was due to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 14, 2005, will be filed by April 29, 2005.

As discussed in its press release dated March 3, 2005, as a result of the February 7, 2005 letter from the Office of the Chief Accountant to the Center for Public Company Audit Firms, expressing their views regarding generally accepted accounting principles applicable to leases, the Company reviewed its lease accounting practices. Following its review of the guidance set forth in this letter, the Company determined that its method of accounting for construction allowances and rent holidays was not consistent with generally accepted accounting principles and is also correcting its financial statements for other adjustments to straight-line rent expense. As a result, the Company is in the process of restating its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 and its Forms 10-Q for each of the first three quarters of fiscal 2004.

Given the short period of time between the date of the above referenced letter and the prescribed due date for the Company's current year Form 10-K, the Company has not completed its Forms 10-Q/A for the first three quarters of fiscal 2004 or its Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 and intends to file these reports prior to filing its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 29, 2005. The Company believes this process is nearly completed and fully expects that the Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 29, 2005 will be filed by April 29, 2005 without unreasonable effort and expense to the Company.
