ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS, TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 15, 2006
PROXY STATEMENT

PROXIES AND VOTING INFORMATION

The Board of Directors of DeVry Inc. (the Company) is sending you this Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card to solicit your proxy to vote your shares at the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on November 15, 2006, and any adjournment thereof. The solicitation of proxies gives every stockholder an opportunity to vote because your shares can be voted only if you are present or represented by proxy at the meeting. This Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy card are first being sent to stockholders on or about October 10, 2006.

When you have returned your proxy, the Proxy Committee (and each of them, with full powers of substitution) will vote your shares as you direct. Please follow the instructions on the enclosed card, which explain how to submit your proxy by mail, by telephone or through the Internet. If you submit a proxy by telephone or through the Internet, you should not also mail in a card. If you return your proxy to us by any of these means without choices for each proposal, the Proxy Committee will vote your shares on the unmarked proposals as recommended by the Company's Board of Directors. Abstentions, directions to withhold authority and broker non-votes (where a named entity holds shares for a beneficial owner who has not provided voting instructions) will be considered present at the meeting for purposes of a quorum but will not be counted in determining the total number of votes cast. Because each proposal (as required by the Company's Certificate of Incorporation) requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock of the Company outstanding on the record date, the effect of each of these is the same as a no vote. A proxy may be revoked at any time before the proxy is voted at the meeting by: (1) notifying the Company in writing that the proxy has been revoked, (2) submitting a later-dated proxy by mail, over the telephone or through the Internet, or (3) voting in person at the meeting. The election of five Directors and the ratification of the selection of the independent registered public accounting firm will both require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock of the Company outstanding on the record date.

If you are a Company employee who is a participant in the DeVry Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan and/or the Profit Sharing Retirement Plan's DeVry Stock Fund, your proxy will serve as direction to the custodian of the Stock Purchase Plan or the trustee of the Profit Sharing Retirement Plan to vote your shares for your account as you have directed. If you submit a proxy without indicating your voting preference, your shares will be voted in the same proportion as shares for which instructions have been received.

The Company will bear the expense of soliciting proxies and will reimburse all stockholders for the expense of sending proxies and proxy material to beneficial owners, including expenditures for foreign mailings. The solicitation initially will be made by mail but also may be made by Company employees by telephone, electronic means or personal contact.

As of September 22, 2006 the Company had 70,812,230 shares of Common Stock ($0.01 par value) outstanding. Stockholders are entitled to one vote per share owned on the record date.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation provides for a Board of Directors of not less than three nor more than 12 Directors, as determined by the Board, that is divided into three classes serving staggered three-year terms. The Company's Board of Directors is currently comprised of 11 directors. The current members of Class III, whose terms of office expire in 2006, are Charles A. Bowsher, Robert C. McCormack, William T. Keevan, and Julia A. McGee, and the Board of Directors recommends their re-election. The Board also recommends the election of Daniel Hamburger, who has not previously served on the Board, as a Class I Director, for a term to expire in 2007. As a result, the Board of Directors has acted pursuant to the Company's By-Laws to increase the size of the Board of Directors to 12 members, with such change to take effect immediately prior to the Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

It is intended that all shares represented by a proxy in the accompanying form will be voted for the election of each of Charles A. Bowsher, Robert C. McCormack, William T. Keevan, and Julia A. McGee as a Class III Director and Daniel Hamburger as a Class I Director unless otherwise specified in such proxy. A proxy cannot be voted for more than five persons. In the event that a nominee becomes unable to serve as a Director, the Proxy Committee will vote for the substitute nominee that the Board designates. The Board has no reason to believe that the nominees will become unavailable for election.

Each nominee for election as Director is listed below, along with a brief statement of his or her current principal occupations, business experience and other information, including directorships in other public companies. All of the nominees have consented to serve as directors if elected at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Approval by Stockholders

The election of the five nominees for director requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock of the Company outstanding on the record date. Unless otherwise indicated on the proxy, the shares will be voted FOR each of the nominees listed below.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the nominees listed below.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND BOARD COMMITTEE INFORMATION

Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors held four regular meetings and one special meeting during fiscal year 2006. Board members are expected to attend Board meetings, the meetings of the committees on which they serve and the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders, except in unusual circumstances. During fiscal 2006 all incumbent Directors attended 75% or more of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and of the committees on which they served. All of the Directors attended the Company's 2005 Annual Meeting. During fiscal 2006 the Board met periodically in executive session without management Directors or other employees. Robert C. McCormack was chosen to serve as lead outside director and preside at such sessions.

Table of ContentsDirector Independence

The Board of Directors has considered whether or not each Director, and Mr. Hamburger, as a director nominee, has any material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company) and has otherwise complied with the requirements for independence under the applicable listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE).

As a result of this review, the Board of Directors affirmatively determined that all of the Company's current directors are independent of the Company and its management within the meaning of the applicable NYSE rules, with the exception of Mr. Keller and Mr. Taylor. Mr. Keller is considered an inside director because of his employment as Board Chair of the Company. Mr. Taylor is considered an inside director because of his employment as CEO of the Company. In addition, Mr. Hamburger would be considered an inside director because of his employment as President of the Company.

The Board considered the relationship between the Company and The Revere Group, which rendered consulting services to the Company, because Mr. McCormack (i) is a founding partner of what is now Trident Capital, Inc., which until November 2005 was an investor in The Revere Group and (ii) was, until November 2005, a director of The Revere Group. The Revere Group received approximately $10,000 in fees from the Company in 2006. The Board concluded that as of November 2005 Mr. McCormack no longer had a relationship with The Revere Group and that the relationship during the Company's 2006 fiscal year was not a material one for purposes of the NYSE listing standards after considering the small size of the investment in the Revere Group in relation to Trident Capital's overall portfolio, the nature of Mr. McCormack's relationships with the Revere Group and Trident Capital, and the reasonable and competitive nature of the terms on which the Revere Group rendered consulting services to the Company.

Board Committees

The Board has standing governance, audit, compensation, finance and academic committees. A current copy of the charters of each of these committees and a current copy of the Company's Corporate Governance Principles are available in print from the Secretary of the Company to any stockholder upon written request and can also be found on the Company's website, www.devryinc.com. Only Directors who meet the NYSE listing standards definition of independent are appointed to the governance and compensation committees. Only Directors who meet the NYSE listing standards and the Securities and Exchange Commission definitions of independent are appointed to the audit committee.

Governance Committee. Directors Julia A. McGee (Chair), Robert C. McCormack and Harold T. Shapiro serve as members of the Company's Governance Committee, which met once during fiscal 2006. The Board of Directors has determined that all of the members of the Governance Committee are independent, as defined in the applicable NYSE listing standards. In accordance with the Committee's Charter, the Committee's responsibilities include proposing a slate of directors for election by the stockholders at each annual meeting and proposing candidates to fill any vacancies on the Board; reviewing the committee structure; and leading the Board and Committee evaluation process. The Governance Committee will consider stockholder recommendations of candidates for Director. Such recommendations should be sent to the Secretary of the Company. Detailed procedures, including minimum qualifications and specific qualities or skills believed necessary, and the Committee's process (arising primarily out of the Company's By-Laws) for identifying and evaluating nominees, have been codified in the Company's policy on the Director Nominating Process. The full text of that policy is included in this Proxy Statement as Appendix A.

The Governance Committee evaluated Mr. Hamburger against the criteria set forth in the policy on Director Nominating Process and recommended him to the full Board of Directors for nomination, in light of the Board's previously announced intention to name him CEO of the Company following the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on November 15, 2006. The Company may also from time to time pay a fee to third parties to help identify or evaluate potential nominees and has currently retained such a consultant to help identify and evaluate potential nominees.

Table of Contents

Audit Committee. Directors Charles A. Bowsher (Chair), David S. Brown, William T. Keevan and Harold T. Shapiro serve as members of the Audit Committee, which was established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act. The Committee met eight times in fiscal 2006. The Board of Directors has determined that all of the members of the Audit Committee are independent as required by the applicable listing standards of the NYSE and by the applicable rules and regulations issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Board has also determined that the Audit Committee has at least one audit committee financial expert serving on that Committee, namely, the Committee Chair, Charles A. Bowsher, whose business background may be found on page 2 of this Proxy Statement.

Among the principal duties of the Audit Committee are:

appointing the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, subject to ratification by the stockholders;

reviewing the scope, approach and results of the annual audits;

reviewing the annual and quarterly financial statements; and reviewing the representations of management and the findings and suggestions of the independent public accounting firm regarding internal controls, financial policies and procedures and management's response thereto. Additional detail about the Committee's activities are spelled out in the Committee's Charter, which was most recently amended and restated by the Board of Directors on May 2, 2005. The report of the Audit Committee appears on page 18 of this Proxy Statement.

Compensation Committee. Directors Frederick A. Krehbiel (Chair), Connie R. Curran and Julia A. McGee serve as members of the Compensation Committee, which held two meetings in fiscal 2006. The Board of Directors has determined that all of the members of the Compensation Committee are independent as defined in the applicable NYSE listing standards. The role of the Compensation Committee is to establish and oversee the policies that govern Company compensation and benefit practices and includes review of the salaries of the senior officers of the Company each year, evaluation of the performance of the CEO and setting his compensation level, and approval of management incentive awards and stock option grants. The report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation appears on pages 14 to 16 of this Proxy Statement.

Academic Committee. Directors Harold T. Shapiro (Chair), David S. Brown and Connie R. Curran serve as members of the Company's Academic Committee, which was established to assure that the academic perspective is heard and represented at the highest policy-setting level, and incorporated in all of the Company's activities and operations. The purpose of the Committee, which met two times in fiscal 2006, is to provide oversight of the Company's academic policy and input to the Board regarding academic activities.

Finance Committee. Directors Robert C. McCormack (Chair), David S. Brown and Fernando Ruiz serve as members of the Company's Finance Committee, which met two times during fiscal 2006. The Committee's principal duties include review and recommendation with respect to the Company's financing policies, including cash flow, capital structure and dividend policy, as well as risk management policy.

Compensation of Directors

Directors, including employee Directors, are each paid a retainer of $30,000 per annum plus $1,500 for each Board of Directors meeting attended. Non-employee committee members are also paid $1,000 per committee meeting attended. In addition, the Chair of the Audit Committee receives an annual retainer of $10,000 for such services. Also, Directors are eligible to receive options under the Company's 1999 and 2003 Stock Incentive Plans and the Company's 2005 Incentive Plan. Non-employee Directors are currently granted options for 10,500 shares upon election or re-election to the Board (pro-rated for election to less than a full three-year term). These options vest in three annual installments beginning one year from the date of election or re-election. Employee Directors are annually granted options (for Director service) for the lesser of (i) 500 shares or (ii) that number of shares equal to the largest multiple of 25 whose fair market value on the date of grant does not exceed $25,000. Directors are reimbursed for any reasonable and appropriate expenditures attendant to Board membership.

Under the DeVry Inc. Board of Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan, a Director may elect to defer all or a portion of Board compensation. Any amount so deferred is, at the Director's election, valued as if invested in the Company's Common Stock and/or the average yield on corporate bonds as determined by Mergent Bond Record (formerly Moody's), and is payable in cash in installments or as a lump-sum on or after termination of service as a Director.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

No relationships or transactions occurred between the Company and any officer, director or nominee for director, or any affiliate of or person related to any of them, since the beginning of the Company's last fiscal year of the type and amount that are required to be disclosed under applicable Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

1,000 hours of service during a Profit Sharing Retirement Plan Year (July 1 – June 30) become automatically enrolled in the Profit Sharing Retirement Plan. Eligible employees may choose to contribute to a 401(k) account from one percent to 50% (one percent to six percent in the case of highly compensated employees) of their annual eligible compensation (including salary, overtime pay and bonuses), subject to IRS annual contribution limitations. Allocations of the Company's discretionary profit sharing contribution under a formula based on compensation and seniority are made to eligible employees who have completed one year of service as of the last day of any Profit Sharing Retirement Plan Year. The matching and discretionary contributions by the Company vest ratably over five years.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS, TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE-IN-CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

The Company entered into employment agreements having substantially identical terms with Dennis J. Keller and Ronald L. Taylor (each an Executive). Each agreement provides for an initial base salary, annual salary increases and annual bonuses for an initial term of employment ending on June 30, 2005, which thereafter continues until either the Executive or the Company provides the other with at least 150 days notice of termination. Each employment agreement provides that it may be terminated by the Company upon (1) the death of the Executive, (2) physical or mental disability of the Executive that prevents him from performing his duties for a continuous period of 180 days, or (3) for cause (as defined in the employment agreement). The Executive may terminate the agreement if (1) he is not accorded the authority, duties, obligations and prerogatives set forth in the agreement, (2) such authority, duties, obligations or prerogatives are materially or substantially reduced, (3) he is not paid or reimbursed amounts due him under the agreement, (4) the Company fails to observe its obligations under the agreement, or (5) a change of control (as defined in each agreement) of the Company occurs and the Executive resigns for any reason at any time during the 12-month period following the occurrence of a change of control after providing at least 30 days advance written notice of such resignation to the Company.

Following the Executive's termination of employment under the employment agreement (for any reason other than death, disability, constructive dismissal, resignation, or retirement) the Executive shall be employed pursuant to a Senior Advisor Agreement. Under the terms of the Senior Advisor Agreement, the Executive serves as senior advisor to the Company with responsibilities and duties that include focusing on the strategy of and investor relations for the Company and serving as a senior advisor to the Board. The term of the Senior Advisor Agreement begins on the Senior Advisor employment date and ends on the 15th anniversary of that date and is divided into two periods, an initial five-year period and a final ten-year period. The Executive will be provided with an appropriate office and compensated for his services at the annual rate of $420,000 during the initial period and, during the final period, at an annual rate of $50,000, subject to annual increases at the budgeted annual average percentage increase for all Company employees, plus health, welfare and pension benefits consistent with past practice, as well as other fringe benefits on the same terms and to the same extent as provided by the Company to senior management employees, excluding special CEO benefits (e.g., incentive compensation, an automobile and club dues). Subject to certain cost limitations, the Company will also maintain an insurance policy providing $1 million in death benefits payable to the Executive's designated beneficiary, and will reimburse expenses consistent with past practices of the Company and usages in effect from time to time. The Senior Advisor Agreement will terminate upon the Executive's death or permanent disability or for cause. The Executive may terminate the agreement at any time. If the Executive's termination occurs for any reason but cause, the Executive will be entitled to payment and benefits through the end of the period (either initial or final) in which the termination occurs and to continuation of medical coverage for the remainder of the lives of the Executive and his spouse. Such medical coverage is subject to a tax gross up if taxed to the Executive and to the requirement that the Executive secure Medicare coverage or whatever other medical coverage may otherwise then be available, which coverage shall, if lawful, be deemed primary.

On June 30, 2006, Mr. Keller's employment with the Company pursuant to his employment agreement terminated, and he immediately became employed by the Company as a senior advisor pursuant to his Senior Advisor Agreement. Mr. Keller remains Board Chair of the Company.

On February 23, 2006, Mr. Taylor gave notice in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement that his term of employment with the Company pursuant to his employment agreement will be terminated on November 15, 2006. Except in the case of death, disability, constructive dismissal or a resignation or retirement (as those terms are defined in the employment agreement) occurring prior to November 15, 2006, on such date Mr. Taylor shall be employed by the Company as a senior advisor pursuant to his Senior Advisor Agreement and will remain a Director of the Company.

On August 15, 2006, the Company entered into a Letter Agreement with Mr. Taylor. The Letter Agreement provides for the following: (i) during the period beginning on November 15, 2006 and ending on March 15, 2007, Mr. Taylor will make himself available for up to 40 hours to provide any advice, counsel and assistance the Board of Directors may request to facilitate the transition of CEO responsibilities; (ii) in return for such services, the Company will pay Mr. Taylor $140,000 in additional salary, and a bonus which, together with the bonus Mr. Taylor receives pursuant to his employment agreement with the Company will equal the amount he would have received as a bonus had his employment under the Employment Agreement terminated on December 31, 2006; and (iii) the compensation provided for in the Letter Agreement shall be in addition to the compensation provided for in his Senior Advisor Agreement.

Table of Contents

The Company has also entered into an employment agreement with Daniel Hamburger. The agreement provides for an initial base salary, annual salary increases and annual bonuses for an initial term of employment through November 10, 2005, which continues thereafter until either Mr. Hamburger or the Company provides the other with at least 180 days notice. Mr. Hamburger's employment terminates 180 days after the delivery of such notice, unless earlier terminated. The employment agreement provides that it may be terminated by the Company upon (1) the death of Mr. Hamburger, (2) his physical or mental disability that prevents him from performing his duties for a continuous period of 180 days, or (3) for cause (as defined in the employment agreement). Mr. Hamburger may terminate the agreement if (1) he is not accorded the authority, duties, obligations and prerogatives set forth in the agreement, (2) such authority, duties, obligations or prerogatives are materially or substantially reduced, (3) he is not paid or reimbursed amounts due him under the agreement, or (4) the Company otherwise fails to observe its obligations under the agreement. In the event the Company terminates the agreement or fails to continue or renew the agreement, or Mr. Hamburger terminates the agreement for any reason stated in the preceding sentence, he is entitled to severance payments equal to 12 times his monthly base salary. In the event of his termination following a change in control, as defined in the agreement, any unvested stock options will immediately vest and the severance payment will be 24 times the monthly base salary, plus prorated bonus.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

To Our Stockholders:

Compensation Philosophy

The Company applies a consistent philosophy to compensation for all employees, including senior management. This philosophy is based on the premise that the achievements of the Company result from the combined efforts of all employees working toward common objectives.

The Company seeks to achieve these objectives through teamwork that is focused on meeting the expectations of its customers (students and employers of graduates), various outside agencies (regulators and accreditors) and its stockholders. The Compensation Committee believes that the ability, skills and motivation of the Company's executive officers are critical to creating the maximum long-term return to our shareholders.

The Committee has the responsibility, with respect to the Company's executive officers, to implement that philosophy in a manner that will align executive compensation with the business objectives and performance of the Company and will also enable the Company to attract, retain and motivate executive officers to ensure its long-term success. To that end, the Committee is responsible for evaluating the performance of executive officers, reviewing with the CEO the performance of executive officers generally, and making recommendations to the Board of Directors for executive officer compensation levels in terms of salaries, stock options, bonuses and related benefits. The Committee has the further responsibility for reviewing and recommending for Board approval corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation, evaluating the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives, and, based on this evaluation, setting the CEO's compensation level.

Under the current program, there are three principal components to the compensation of senior management: salary, annual incentive compensation and long-term incentive compensation. The Compensation Committee considers the total compensation of each executive in establishing the elements of senior management compensation. The Compensation Committee also determined that the CEO and other members of senior management should be eligible to receive for executive service all three current components of compensation—salary, annual incentive compensation and long-term incentive compensation.

The salary, annual incentive compensation and long-term incentive compensation paid by the Company to the CEO and the other four named executive officers of the Company in fiscal 2006 are set forth on page 10. The Compensation Committee believes that the executive officers of the Company continue to be dedicated to serving students and increasing stockholder value and that the Committee's compensation policies contribute to this focus.

Salary

In its annual review of the salaries of senior management, the Compensation Committee considers, among other factors, the responsibilities and individual performance (both in the current year and over time) of the executive, the Company's performance and the performance of the executive's business unit. Salaries at companies of comparable size, with whom the Company must compete for talent, are also considered.

With respect to the CEO, the Committee's policy is to provide total cash compensation that represents reasonable salary plus additional compensation determined by its view of his performance and the results of the Company. The primary factor leading the Committee to recommend no increase in Mr. Taylor's salary for fiscal year 2006 from his salary for fiscal year 2005 was the Company's unfavorable financial results during fiscal 2005.

Annual Incentive Compensation

Annual incentive compensation for senior management other than the CEO consists of discretionary cash bonuses awarded annually to executives (and certain other management employees) based on the achievement of certain Company targets and personal objectives. These bonuses are the primary vehicle for recognizing and rewarding accomplishments in a given year. The specific bonus an executive receives is dependent on individual performance, level of responsibility and achievement of certain company and personal targets.

The Compensation Committee has adopted the premise that long-term growth is the single best proxy for stockholder interests. Annual incentive compensation for the CEO is set with this consideration in mind. Additionally, the Committee considers the nature, scope and level of the executive's responsibilities. For fiscal year 2006, the Committee recommended to the Board that Mr. Taylor receive a cash bonus of $810,113, an increase from $180,000 paid for fiscal 2005. Company earnings increased dramatically in fiscal 2006, and the Committee concluded that a cash bonus in this amount was appropriate to reflect Mr. Taylor's leadership, accomplishments and contributions, including the reorganization of the Company's operations and structure, the development or acquisition of new or expanded programs, and the repositioning of some of the Company's existing businesses, which are intended to position the Company for long-term growth. Although we consider compensation levels at companies most likely to compete with us for executive talent, our compensation decisions do not reflect any particular compensation level at those companies.

Long-term Incentive Compensation

Although other vehicles are regularly evaluated by the Committee, for fiscal 2006 stock options were used as the primary long-term incentive vehicle. Options provide executives and other key employees with an efficient and effective means by which to acquire and maintain an equity interest in the Company and to share in the appreciation in value of its Common Stock. To assure that the value of every stockholder's interest must appreciate before the option holder receives any benefit from the option, options are granted at no less than the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant. Additionally, options are generally granted annually with a 5-year graduated vesting period and a 10-year exercise period so as to encourage executives and others to take a longer-term view of their individual contributions to the Company. The Compensation Committee believes that stock options are an important tool to align the long-term interests of management and stockholders.

The CEO, the other four named executive officers, and certain other executive officers were among the 165 Company employees granted stock options based on their performance during fiscal year 2006. These awards, which were made subsequent to the end of fiscal year 2006, included options on 100,000 shares for Mr. Taylor.

Table of ContentsDeferred Compensation Plan

In August 1999, the Committee approved another component of DeVry's executive compensation program, the DeVry Inc, Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Deferred Plan"). The Deferred Plan is a voluntary, non-tax qualified, deferred compensation plan available to executive officers and certain other employees that enable such individuals to save for retirement by deferring a portion of their current compensation. Under the Deferred Plan, participants are entitled to defer compensation until termination of service with DeVry or certain other specified dates. The Company credits matching contributions to participants' accounts under the Plan to the extent their matching contributions to the Company's Profit Sharing Plan are limited by various Internal Revenue Code limitations. The Company may also credit participants' accounts with discretionary profit sharing contributions. Participants may elect to have their Plan accounts credited with earnings based on various investment choices made available by the Committee for this purpose. Also, participants' dependents are eligible to receive a pre-retirement death benefit. The purpose of this Deferred Plan is to encourage participants to remain in the service of DeVry as benefits of the Deferred Plan increase over time.

Deductibility

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation in excess of $1,000,000 per year paid to the chief executive officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers employed at year-end. Certain compensation, including performance-based compensation, may qualify for an exemption from the deduction limit if it satisfies various technical requirements under Section 162(m). The Committee views the tax deductibility of executive compensation as one factor to be considered in the context of its overall compensation philosophy. The Committee reviews each material element of compensation on a continuing basis and takes steps to assure deductibility if that can be accomplished without sacrificing flexibility and other important elements of the overall executive compensation program.

Base salary and retirement benefits do not by their nature qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m). (Amounts paid to an executive that are excludable from gross income, such as the amounts reflected in the "All Other Compensation" column in the Summary Compensation Table, are not subject to Section 162(m).) Annual incentive compensation has not previously qualified as performance-based compensation, although the DeVry Incentive Plan of 2005 adopted by the stockholders at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders contains a feature that would allow annual incentive compensation to qualify in the future under certain circumstances. Gains on the exercise of stock options in fiscal year 2006 by executive officers where the Section 162(m) limitations on deductibility were relevant were subject to those limitations, although the DeVry Incentive Plan of 2005 and some of the Company's other Stock Incentive Plans contain features that allow option awards to qualify as performance-based compensation in certain circumstances so that gains on exercise would not be subject to Section 162(m).

This Compensation Committee Report is not to be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this Report by reference, and is not otherwise to be deemed filed under such Acts.

Table of ContentsAUDIT FEES

The Audit Committee appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC) as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006. The Company's stockholders ratified the engagement at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders on November 9, 2005. In addition to engaging PwC to audit the consolidated financial statements for the Company and its subsidiaries for the year and review the interim financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Audit Committee also engaged PwC to provide various other audit and audit related services e.g., auditing of the Company's compliance with student financial aid program regulations.

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 prohibits an independent public accountant from providing certain non-audit services for an audit client. The Company engages various other professional service providers for these non-audit services as required. Other professional advisory and consulting service providers are engaged where the required technical expertise is specialized and cannot be economically provided by employee staffing. Such services include, from time to time, business and asset valuation studies, and services in the fields of law, human resources, information technology, employee benefits and tax structure and compliance.

The aggregate amounts included in the Company's financial statements for fiscal 2006 and 2005 for fees billed or to be billed by PwC for audit and other professional services, respectively, were as follows:

	Fiscal 2006	Fiscal 2005
Audit Fees	$ 1,582,100	$ 1,641,821
Audit Related Fees
Tax Fees	138,708	179,082
All Other Fees
Total	$ 1,720,808	$ 1,820,903

In addition, this category includes fees for services in connection with the Company's statutory and regulatory filings, consents and review of filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission such as the annual report on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. Also included are services rendered in connection with the required annual audits of the Company's compliance with the rules and procedures promulgated for the administration of federal and state student financial aid programs.

Audit Related Fees Includes all assurance and related services such as for employee benefit plan audits and due diligence related to acquisitions.

Tax Fees Includes all services related to tax compliance, tax planning, tax advice, assistance with tax audits and responding to requests from the Company's tax department regarding technical interpretations, applicable laws and regulations, and tax accounting. The Company's Audit Committee has considered the nature of these services and concluded that these services may be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm without impairing their independence.

All Other Fees None.

For fiscal year 2006, none of the services provided by PwC were provided pursuant to the de minimis exception to the pre-approval requirements contained in the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Audit Committee, at each of its regularly scheduled meetings, and on an interim basis as required, reviews all engagements of PwC for audit and all other services. This review includes a description of the services to be performed and the estimated fees for such services. Following such review, each proposed service is approved, modified or denied as appropriate. A record of all such approvals is maintained in the files of the Audit Committee for future reference. All services provided by PwC during the past year were approved by the Audit Committee prior to their undertaking.

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy for approving all permitted audit, audit-related, tax and non-audit services to be provided by PwC in advance of the commencement of such services, except for those considered to be de minimis by law for non-audit services. Information regarding services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm under this de minimis exception is presented to the Audit Committee for information purposes at each of its meetings. There is no blanket pre-approval provision within this policy. Prior to the Audit Committee's consideration for approval, management provides the Audit Committee with a description of the reason for and nature of the services to be provided along with an estimate of the time required and approximate cost. Audit Committee consideration and approval generally occurs at a regularly scheduled Audit Committee meeting. For projects that require an expedited decision because they should begin prior to the next regularly scheduled meeting, requests for approval may be circulated to the Audit Committee by mail, telephonically or by other means for its consideration and approval. When deemed necessary, the Audit Committee has delegated pre-approval authority to its Chair. Any engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm under this delegation will be presented for informational purposes to the full Audit Committee at their next meeting.

Director Nominating Process

(Adopted by the Board of Directors on August 10, 2004)

The Governance Committee (Committee) of the Board of Directors (Board) is responsible for making recommendations of nominees for directors to the Board. Nominees are selected on the basis of, among other things, knowledge, experience, skills, expertise, diversity, personal and professional integrity, business judgment, time availability in light of other commitments, absence of conflicts of interest and such other relevant factors that the Committee considers appropriate in the context of the needs of the Board. When considering nominees the Committee seeks to ensure that the Board as a whole possesses, and individual members possess at least one of the following competencies:

accounting and finance,

business judgment,

management,

industry knowledge,

leadership, and

strategy/vision.

In screening director nominees, the Committee will review potential conflicts of interest, including interlocking directorships and substantial business, civic, and social relationships with other members of the Board that could impair the prospective nominee's ability to act independently.

The Committee will not only consider nominees that it identifies, but will consider nominees submitted by shareholders in accordance with the process for shareholder nominees identified in our By-laws. All shareholder nominees are to be submitted in writing to the Corporate Secretary, DeVry Inc., One Tower Lane, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181-4624, not less than 60 days prior to the anniversary of the immediately preceding annual meeting. Such shareholder's notice shall be signed by the shareholder of record who intends to make the nomination (or his duly authorized proxy):

g. the written consent of each nominee to be named in a proxy statement and to serve as a director if so elected; and

h. in the case of any other business that such shareholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting and, if such business includes a proposal to amend the By-laws, the language of the proposed amendment, such shareholder s and beneficial owner s or owners reasons for conducting such business at the meeting, and any material interest in such business of such shareholder and beneficial owner or owners.

In identifying potential nominees and determining which nominees to recommend to the Board, the Committee may retain the services of a professional search firm or other third party advisor. In connection with each vacancy, the Committee will develop a specific set of ideal characteristics for the vacant director position. The Committee will look at nominees it identifies and any identified by shareholders on an equal basis using these characteristics and the general criteria identified above.
