FORM OF FREQUENTLY
ASKED QUESTIONS
POSTED ON REGISTRANT'S WEBSITE

WHY DOES THE COMPANY WANT TO REINCORPORATE IN DELAWARE?

By reincorporating in Delaware, the company would be able to take advantage of Delaware's modern and flexible corporate laws, as well as the expertise of the Delaware courts in corporate matters. In addition, reincorporating in Delaware would allow RPM to more effectively align the legal structure of its various operating companies under appropriate intermediate holding companies and further streamline the management and operations of its businesses.

WILL THE COMPANY BE MOVING TO DELAWARE IF THE REINCORPORATION TAKES PLACE?

No, RPM would continue to have its headquarters in Ohio. The company remains fully committed to Northeast Ohio. The company anticipates that the proposed reincorporation would have no material impact on its employees, customers and suppliers worldwide, or any of the local communities where it has operations.

WILL MY DIVIDENDS OR HOLDINGS BE AFFECTED BY THE REINCORPORATION?

No, this proposed transaction, in and of itself, would have no effect on RPM's dividend policy. As has always been the case, future dividends will depend on the earnings, financial condition and capital requirement of RPM-Delaware and its subsidiaries. Likewise, the reincorporation would not alter the number of shares of the company you own. Each common share of RPM that you own would automatically be converted into one share of common stock of RPM-Delaware. So, if you hold 50 shares of the company prior to the reincorporation, then you would hold 50 shares of the company after the reincorporation. The conversion would be completely transparent to you - you would not even need to surrender your stock certificates.
