As a result, the Reporting Persons acquired beneficial ownership of the Common Stock reported in Item 5 either by (i) being trustee of a trust into which the settlor transferred the Common Stock, or (ii) purchasing the Common Stock through the accounts of trust, securities and investment advisory clients with funds provided by such clients.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

In the exercise of their fiduciary duties to their clients, the Reporting Persons are considering their alternatives with respect to the holdings of Common Stock in the accounts held by them in their fiduciary capacity for their clients. Representatives of the Reporting Persons have met with the management of Standard Register and expect to maintain a dialogue with management regarding, among other things, Standard Register's operations, strategic direction, the extent to which it is achieving its current business plan, its capital structure and corporate governance and the Reporting Persons' expectation that management of Standard Register will pursue appropriate measures to enhance shareholder value. In addition, the Reporting Persons may communicate with other persons regarding Standard Register, including, without limitation, the board of directors of Standard Register, other shareholders of Standard Register and potential strategic partners.

The Reporting Persons have no present plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the foregoing actions.

In addition, the Reporting Persons intend to continue to review their holdings of Common Stock on a continuing basis in accordance with their fiduciary duties to their clients. The Reporting Persons may from time to time purchase additional shares of Common Stock, or dispose of all or a portion of the shares held by them. The factors which the Reporting Persons may consider in evaluating their investment position with respect to Standard Register include the following: (i) Standard Register's business and prospects; (ii) the business strategy and actions of the management and board of directors of Standard Register to enhance value to the shareholders; (iii) the value of the Common Stock and the availability of the Common Stock for purchase at particular price levels; (iv) the availability and nature of opportunities to dispose of the Reporting Persons' Common

The Will under which the Testamentary Trust was established provides as follows with respect to the authority of the trustee of the Testamentary Trust to take action with respect to any stocks or other securities, including shares of Standard Register, held in the Testamentary Trust:

[The Trustee(s)] shall have the following powers, duties and directions...

To consent to the reorganization, consolidation, readjustment of the financial structure, or sale of the assets, of any corporation or other organization, the stocks or securities of which are owned by the Trustees and to take any action with reference to such stocks or securities which, in the opinion of the Trustees, is necessary to obtain the benefit of any such reorganization, consolidation, readjustment or sale; ...Provided, nevertheless, that my said Trustees shall exercise the power so granted to them hereunder that any action taken by them with reference to the shares of stock of The Standard Register Company which I may own at my death, and which become a part of my Trust Estate hereunder, will not be inconsistent with any action taken in connection with similar stock of The Standard Register Company by the Trustee or Trustees of the Estate of my deceased Brother, John Q. Sherman, or opposed to the best interests of the beneficiaries of either this, my Last Will and Testament, or the beneficiaries of my deceased Brother's Last Will and Testament.
