Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act requires all of Origen's directors and executive officers and all persons who own more than 10% of Origen's common stock to file with the SEC reports of ownership and changes in ownership of Origen's common stock. Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish Origen with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on its review of the copies of Forms 3 and 4 furnished to Origen, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no such forms were required to be filed by such persons, Origen believes that all its directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of more than 10% of its common stock have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them, except that each of Messrs. Klein, Geater and Galaspie and Ms. Campbell did not timely file one report with respect to one transaction. Each of these late filings related to a disposition of shares of common stock to Origen to satisfy the reporting person's tax withholding obligations upon vesting of previously granted restricted stock awards.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Origen's Board of Directors has established a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to all Origen directors, officers, and employees, including the principal executive officer, the principal financial and accounting officer and the controller of Origen (and persons performing similar functions). Among other matters, the code of business conduct is designed to deter wrongdoing and to:

promote the honest and ethical conduct of all Origen personnel and employees;

promote the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships;

promote full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in periodic reports required to be filed by Origen;

promote compliance with all applicable rules and regulations that apply to Origen and its employees; and facilitate prompt and appropriate internal reporting and accountability for violations of the code.

You may find a copy of this code under the Investors' section of Origen's website at www.origenfinancial.com. Waivers to the code for executive officers or directors may be granted only by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors. In the event any such waivers are granted, we expect to promptly announce the waiver on the investor relations section of our website and to otherwise make such disclosure as is required by law and any applicable stock exchange regulations.

Audit Committee Matters

The Board of Directors has established the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter that was approved by the Board in January 2004. The Audit Committee, among other functions, (1) oversees the accounting and financial reporting processes and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements on behalf of Origen's Board of Directors and reports the results of its activities to the Board, (2) has the sole authority to appoint, retain, terminate and determine the compensation of Origen's independent accountants, (3) reviews with Origen's independent accountants the scope and results of the audit engagement, (4) reviews the integrity, adequacy and effectiveness of Origen's internal controls and financial disclosure process, including the direct supervision of Origen's Internal Audit Department, (5) approves professional services provided by Origen's independent accountants, and (6) reviews the independence of Origen's independent accountants. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Sher (Chairman), Rogel and Halpern, all of whom are independent as that term is defined in the rules of the SEC and applicable Nasdaq Stock Market rules. Origen's Board has also determined that each of Messrs. Sher, Rogel and Halpern qualifies as an audit committee financial expert, as defined by applicable SEC regulations.

Item 11. Executive Compensation

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview of Compensation Plan

Decisions relating to the compensation of Origen's executive officers are made by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee), all the members of which are independent of management. The Committee is appointed by the Board of Directors and has the responsibility of establishing and executing a compensation program that is consistent with Origen's short-term and long-term financial and operational goals. Prior to recommending the compensation program to the Board of Directors, the Committee works closely with the CEO (who provides useful data relating to the day-to-day performance of Origen's management), as well as an independent compensation consultant. The Board of Directors then considers the Committee's recommendation and, if the Committee's compensation program is approved, the Committee implements the program.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

Origen's executive compensation objectives are as follows:

to align the interests of the employees with those of the stockholders;

to reinforce a pay-for-performance culture; and to facilitate the acquisition and retention of key employees.

The Committee believes the compensation program is properly aligned with the interests of our stockholders, and the near-term and long-term success of the company. However, the Committee often reevaluates our compensation policies applicable to the executive officers in order to (i) maintain the ability to attract and retain excellent employees in key positions, (ii) insure that compensation provided to our executive officers remains competitive relative to the compensation paid to similarly situated executives in the competitive market, and (iii) encourage continued improvement in corporate performance.

Table of Contents

As discussed in detail below, Origen's executive compensation program consists of three key elements:
base salary;

cash bonus; and

equity compensation.

Independent Compensation Consultant

During 2007, the Committee retained Watson Wyatt Worldwide ("Watson Wyatt"), a human resources consulting firm, and the Committee instructed Watson Wyatt to compile competitive compensation data and, based upon such data, to recommend ranges of annual and long-term compensation that are consistent with Origen's compensation philosophy and objectives. The Committee also asked Watson Wyatt to provide suggestions and alternatives regarding the form of various elements of executive compensation. The Committee encouraged Watson Wyatt and Origen's executive officers and their respective subordinates, to meet, exchange information and otherwise cooperate in the performance of their respective duties outside committee meetings.

Compensation Benchmarking

During 2007, the Committee consulted with Watson Wyatt for an assessment of the competitiveness of Origen executive officer compensation relative to certain benchmark companies in the REIT and mortgage origination industries that the Committee, along with Watson Wyatt, deemed to be in our peer group. While the peer group consists of companies that are similar to Origen in some respects, there are few companies that shared Origen's focus on loan origination and loan servicing operations in the manufactured housing sector. The competitiveness of Origen's executive officer compensation was also reviewed relative to broad industry data.

The Committee selected the benchmark companies as our peer group based upon (1) the likelihood that they would compete with Origen for executive talent, and (2) the availability of public information regarding their compensation practices. For 2007, Origen's peer group included the following companies:

American Home Mortgage Investment Corp.

Capital Lease Funding, Inc.

Capital Trust, Inc.

Homebanc Corp.

Luminent Mortgage Capital, Inc.

Table of Contents

Opteum, Inc.

Redwood Trust, Inc.

The broad industry data that the Committee reviewed is included in studies produced by Watson Wyatt and other sources of general and industry specific compensation reports. For benchmarking purposes, the industry data was weighted equally with the peer group data. It was the intent of the Committee that the total compensation paid to Origen executives (consisting of salary plus bonus plus equity compensation) fall within a range from the 25th to 50th percentile. The Committee selected these percentile targets because Origen's revenues are much lower than the peer group companies' revenues. In applying these targets, the Committee did not base its compensation decisions on a mathematical analysis of the available data; rather, it used its judgment after considering all available information. The bias toward incentive compensation reflected in these percentages is in keeping with the Committee's objective of aligning executive and stockholder interests.

As described below, due to changes in Origen's business and operations necessitated by the worldwide economic crisis, the focus of Origen's compensation program has shifted to recognize the changed duties, responsibilities and goals of the Company and its employees.

Compensation Composition

The compensation of each of Origen's executive officers historically is composed of salary, a cash bonus and, in past years, equity compensation. In 2008, certain executive officers also became entitled to receive one-time change-in-control payments with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan. These amounts will be paid July 1, 2009. The cash bonus and equity portion of an executive officer's compensation may also be referred to as annual incentive compensation and long-term incentive compensation, respectively. Setting the appropriate compensation composition is vital to Origen, its executives and its stockholders. Again, the Committee worked together with its compensation consultant, Watson Wyatt, and analyzed peer group data, as well as broad industry data included in studies produced by Watson Wyatt and other general and industry specific compensation reports. In doing so, the Committee observed that the compensation compositions at the peer group companies were as follows: 30%-60% salary, 30%-50% targeted bonus opportunity and equity compensation of 10%-50% of overall compensation. The Committee used these composition ranges as guidelines for its compensation program. Specifically, the Committee selected individual allocations and overall compensation targets that it believed to be consistent with the objectives of the compensation program and that properly reflect the skill and experience of the individual executives (as further described in the section immediately below, titled "Key Elements of Compensation"). The compensation compositions for (i) Ronald A. Klein, our Chief Executive Officer; (ii) W. Anderson Geater, Jr., our Chief Financial Officer; (iii) J. Peter Scherer, our President and Chief Operating Officer; (iv) Mark W. Landschulz, our Executive Vice President of Portfolio Management; and (v) Paul J. Galaspie, our Chief Information Officer (the named executive officers) are set forth directly below. The identification of such named executive officers is determined based on their total compensation for the year ended December 31, 2008, as reported in the Summary Compensation Table, exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payments accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan.

Table of Contents

Name and Principal Position (1)	Base Salary	Cash Bonus	Stock Awards (equity compensation)
Ronald A. Klein: Chief Executive Officer	65%	30%	0%
W. Anderson Geater, Jr.: Chief Financial Officer	59%	32%	0%
J. Peter Scherer: President and Chief Operating Officer	59%	32%	0%
Mark W. Landschulz: Executive Vice President of Portfolio Management	60%	32%	0%
Paul J. Galaspie: Chief Information Officer	63%	24%	0%

(1) The compensation compositions for the named executive officers do not add up to 100% of total compensation. As set forth in the Summary Compensation Table and the section entitled Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Earnings, each of these officers receives supplemental compensation on a deferred basis. This form of compensation is not tied to performance. Instead, this is used as a tool to attract and

employees.

The worldwide economic crisis that began in 2007 continued and worsened throughout 2008. Origen was dramatically impacted by events beyond its control. Operating according to a planned budget was replaced by crisis management. As discussed more fully in the accompanying Management Discussion and Analysis section, Origen, under pressure from its loan warehouse lender, and in the absence of a viable source to permanently finance or sell its loans in the securitization market or the whole loan market, found it necessary to sell its portfolio of unsecuritized loans at a large loss in March 2008 in order to pay off its loan warehouse facility, which was not renewed. Given the absence of a viable exit strategy and the unavailability of a reliable warehouse lender, Origen ceased originating loans for its own account in March 2008. In reaction to deteriorating markets conditions, Origen's management and board of directors developed an Asset Disposition and Management Plan (the "Plan") designed to maximize shareholder value given the changed business model dictated by the markets.

The Plan was submitted to Origen's shareholders for approval at its annual meeting on June 25, 2008. Following approval of the Plan, management implemented and executed various components of the Plan, including the sale of all loan servicing assets, the sale of the loan origination platform, the sale of the loan-related insurance business, de-listing of Origen's stock with the NASDAQ Global Markets, the deregistration of Origen's stock under the Securities Act of 1934, and a dramatic decrease in workforce. Following these actions, Origen's remaining business consists of managing its residual interests in its securitized loan portfolios.

In the absence of a normal approved operating plan and budget for 2008, the measurement of management's performance was based primarily on the execution of the Plan. As indicated in the section immediately below, titled

Key Elements of Compensation, the total compensation for Origen's named executive officers was significantly decreased from 2007. The average decrease was 31% for the named executive officers as a group. Further, no equity compensation was granted during 2008 by the Committee. Equity compensation is typically awarded in the form of grants of restricted stock in order to award executives for the achievement of longer-term goals. The Committee's decision to forego any grants of restricted shares for 2008 was based on the greatly reduced value of Origen's common stock as a currency for compensation and the evolving nature of the individual relationship to Origen of each named executive officer. As a result of the implementation of the Plan, the on-going needs for management expertise are very different as compared to Origen's original business model. Each of the named executive officers has been or will be impacted by the implementation of the Plan. As described below, the existing employment agreements of the named executives were recently restructured, and in some cases terminated, in order to provide Origen on-going access to those skill-sets necessary to effectively manage Origen's residual interests in its securitized loan portfolios, retire all debt obligations, provide meaningful financial data to shareholders and to comply with all REIT tax rules.

Key Elements of Compensation

Although the named executive officers' salaries are set by the terms of each named executive officer's employment agreement (discussed below under Material Information Relating to the Summary Compensation Table and Grants of Plan Based Awards—Employment Agreements), the Committee reviews the compensation program for all executive officers on an annual basis and modifies it as necessary to insure that the plan stays consistent with Origen's stated compensation objectives. During this process, the CEO makes compensation recommendations to the Committee, which the Committee considers in making compensation decisions. In addition, the CEO periodically reviews the compensation program as it relates to executive officers and recommends changes to the Committee. The Committee believes that the CEO's role in the compensation program is appropriate and critical because of the CEO's interaction and evaluation of the performance of those individuals subject to the compensation program. As stated earlier, the compensation decisions for 2008 were an anomaly, as Origen was heavily impacted by the worldwide economic crisis and suffered a drastic reduction in the value of its common stock. Accordingly, and as set forth herein, Origen's named executive officers' total compensation for 2008 consisted primarily of base salary and cash bonus awards. The Compensation Committee's compensation decisions for 2008 for each named executive officer are detailed in this section.

Base Salary. In order to attract and retain quality executives, it is vital that Origen provide its executives with a level of assured cash compensation consistent with their professional status, experience and abilities. For each of Origen's named executive officers, as illustrated above, base salary ranges from 59% to 65% of total compensation. This is higher than the peer group, where base salaries for top-level executives range from 30%-60% of total compensation. This is due to the fact that no equity compensation was awarded in 2008, which increased the weighting of the salary and bonus components.

Bonuses. Cash bonuses are historically awarded pursuant to an annual incentive plan and are based upon corporate and personal performance objectives. The primary purpose of the cash bonus element of our compensation program has historically been to reward executives for the achievement of such performance objectives on an annual basis and to align employee interests with those of the stockholders. Due to the extraordinary circumstances of 2008, financial performance was not the primary objective. The primary objective was the development and execution of an Asset Disposition and Management Plan in order to maximize value to the Company's shareholders going forward. In addition, as described below under Employment Agreements, named executive officers will be paid certain amounts relative to a change of control event, triggered by the execution of this restructuring plan which was disclosed in Origen's Proxy Statement filed on May 22, 2008 and approved by shareholders at Origen's Annual Meeting on June 25, 2008.

Ronald A. Klein, Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Klein's total compensation for 2008 was $822,066 (exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payment accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan, which will be paid July 1, 2009), as compared to $1,487,028 for 2007. This included a base salary of $531,058 and a cash bonus of $250,000. The percentages allocated to each of these forms of compensation were determined as follows: (1) Salary: Mr. Klein's base salary in 2008 was contractually set at $531,058. Mr. Klein's salary was higher than that of Origen's other executive officers and reflects the skill and experience required to serve as the Company's top-ranking officer, as well as the personal accountability inherent in occupying such office. In 2008, Mr. Klein played a pivotal role in the creation and subsequent execution of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan (the Plan). For 2008, Mr. Klein's base salary of $531,058 comprised 65% of his total compensation, exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payment accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan, which will be paid July 1, 2009. (2) Cash Bonus and Stock Awards: As stated directly above, a significant percentage of Mr. Klein's compensation is not fixed. Since Mr. Klein's performance as a chief executive is, in great part, measured by the performance of the Company, the Compensation Committee believes that his compensation should be based on this same metric. Therefore, Mr. Klein's total compensation varies with the year-to-year performance of the Company. This year the Company's performance was measured, in large part, by the success of the Plan. The Compensation Committee believes that Mr. Klein's total 2008 compensation of $822,066 (exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payment) properly reflected the Company's performance in 2008. In past years, a substantial portion Mr. Klein's total compensation was composed of both cash bonus and equity awards. However, in 2008, no stock awards were granted to

Mr. Klein, or any other named executive officer. In this regard, the cash bonus component was the primary tool used to increase Mr. Klein's 2008 total compensation to the amount determined by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Klein's cash bonus of $250,000 comprised 30% of his total compensation for 2008, exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payment. Together with his base salary for 2008, the Compensation Committee determined that the appropriate level of total 2008 cash compensation for Mr. Klein was $781,058, exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payment.

The Other Named Executive Officers.

(1) Salary

Messrs. Geater, Scherer, Landschulz and Galaspie are all under employment agreements with the Company. Pursuant to their respective agreements, each of these officers received a fixed base salary for 2008.

W. Anderson Geater, Jr., Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Geater's base salary in 2008 was contractually set at $280,096. Mr. Geater's salary reflected his status as the company's second-highest ranking officer and the value he brings to the company as an experienced executive and Certified Public Accountant. Mr. Geater's 2008 base salary comprised 59% of his total 2008 compensation of $472,700, exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payment accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan, which will be paid July 1, 2009.

J. Peter Scherer, President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Scherer's base salary in 2008 was contractually set at $280,096. Mr. Scherer's salary reflected his intricate knowledge of the industry and his role as Origen's President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Scherer's base salary comprised 59% of his total 2008 compensation of $472,520, exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payment accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan, which will be paid July 1, 2009.

Mark W. Landschulz, Executive Vice President of Portfolio Management. Mr. Landschulz's 2008 base salary was contractually set at $280,096. Mr. Landschulz's salary was based on his proven track record as an executive at various mortgage companies and his keen understanding of the securitizations market. Mr. Landschulz's base salary comprised 60% of his total 2008 compensation of $470,656, exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payment accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan, which will be paid July 1, 2009.

Paul J. Galaspie, Chief Information Officer. Mr. Galaspie's 2008 base salary was contractually set at $203,379. Mr. Galaspie's salary was based on his significant experience as a programmer/analyst and his long-term affiliation with Origen. Mr. Galaspie's base salary comprised 63% of his total 2008 compensation of $323,214.

(2) Cash Bonus and Equity Awards

Cash Bonus. As set forth directly above, the contractually set salaries of Messrs. Geater, Scherer, Landschulz and Galaspie comprise only a portion of their respective total 2008 compensation. Unlike the 2008 cash bonus for Mr. Klein, which was based solely on the performance of the Company, the cash bonuses for Messrs. Geater, Scherer, Landschulz and Galaspie were tied to their respective contribution to the implementation and execution of the Plan. In addition to each named executive officer's role in the implementation and execution of the Plan, the Compensation Committee reviewed each named executive officer as follows:

W. Anderson Geater, Jr., Chief Financial Officer. The Compensation Committee reviewed Mr. Geater on the following factors: (1) management of the financial function of the Company; and (2) the updating of the Company's regulatory reporting system. Based on the Compensation Committee's review of Mr. Geater's performance, overall Company performance and market data, the Compensation Committee determined that Mr. Geater's appropriate level of cash bonus was $150,000, or 32% of his total 2008 compensation, exclusive of the contractual one-time change-in-control payment accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan, which will be paid July 1, 2009.

J. Peter Scherer, President and Chief Operating Officer. The Compensation Committee reviewed Mr. Scherer on his ability to manage the day-to-day operations of the Company. Based on the Compensation Committee's review of Mr. Scherer's performance, overall Company performance and market data, the Compensation Committee determined that Mr. Scherer's appropriate level of cash bonus was $150,000, or 32% of his total 2008 compensation, exclusive of the one-time change-in-control payment accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan, which will be paid July 1, 2009.

Mark W. Landschulz, Executive Vice President of Portfolio Management. The Compensation Committee reviewed Mr. Landschulz on the following factors: (1) management and performance of the Company's loan portfolio; and (2) the ability to execute securitizations in a challenging financial market. Based on the Compensation Committee's review of Mr. Landschulz's performance, overall Company performance and market data, the Compensation Committee determined that Mr. Landschulz's appropriate level of cash bonus was $150,000, or 32% of his total 2008 compensation, exclusive of the one-time change-in-control payment accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origen's Asset Disposition and Management Plan, which will be paid July 1, 2009.

Paul J. Galaspie, Chief Information Officer. The Compensation Committee reviewed Mr. Galaspie on his ability to manage the day-to-day informational and technology-related needs of the Company. Based on the Compensation Committee's review of Mr. Galaspie's performance, overall Company performance and market data, the Compensation Committee determined that Mr. Galaspie's appropriate level of cash bonus was $78,743, or 24% of his total 2008 compensation.

Equity Compensation. The primary form of equity compensation awarded to date has been in the form of grants of restricted stock. A modest amount of stock options were awarded coincidental with our formation in October 2003, but the Committee has chosen not to make subsequent stock option awards. Equity compensation, similar to bonuses, is intended to reward executives for the achievement of performance objectives, but such objectives are longer-term in nature. A significant purpose for equity compensation is to retain valuable executives and senior managers and provide incentives for contributing to the overall success of Origen in order to benefit individually from any improvement in the price of the stock over the long-term. Since the grants of restricted stock vest over periods ranging from three to five years, this method of compensation serves this longer-term purpose. In 2008, Origen granted its named executive officers no restricted shares of stock. The Committee determined that awards of restricted shares were not appropriate to the Company's changed circumstances during 2008. Origen does not require its executives to own a certain number of shares of Origen's stock.

Origen follows the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 revised (SFAS 123(R)), Share-Based Payment, which Origen adopted on January 1, 2006, using the modified-prospective transition method, in order to account for its equity incentive plan and stock option plan. See Note 1 Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Note 13 Share-Based Compensation Plan, included in Item 8 of Origen's Annual Report filed on Form 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 17, 2008 for more detail on how Origen accounts for equity-based awards under SFAS 123(R).

Grants of Plan-Based Awards

Origin did not grant any options, restricted stock or other plan-based awards to the named executive officers during the year ended December 31, 2008.

Material Information Relating to the Summary Compensation Table and Grants of Plan Based Awards

General

Stock awards may be granted to the named executive officers upon approval by the Committee or, in certain instances, the full Board of Directors. With the exception of the Chief Executive Officer as described above, the named executive officers do not have a role in determining the terms of the stock awards, including the amount to be awarded.

The stock awards, during the years in which grants were awarded, have been generally granted on an annual basis, usually in the second quarter, but subsequent awards may be made throughout the remainder of the fiscal year as determined by the Compensation Committee or the Board of Directors. Origin did not grant any options, restricted stock or other plan-based awards in 2008.

Origin's executive compensation program, including the mix of the base salary element, the bonus element and the equity compensation element, and the proportion of each to total compensation, varies based on the individual named executive officer. In the aggregate, the salaries and bonuses earned by the named executive officers in 2008 equaled 92% of their aggregate total compensation. The following table shows each named executive officer's salary and bonus in proportion to his total compensation. For purposes of this table, the contractual one-time change-in-control payments accrued in 2008 with respect to the adoption and implementation of Origin's Asset Disposition and Management Plan, which will be paid July 1, 2009 have not been included.

Employment Agreements

Origen and Origen Financial, L.L.C. have entered into employment and/or consulting agreements with each of the named executive officers, as described below.

Ronald A. Klein, Chief Executive Officer

On July 14, 2006, Origen and Origen Financial, L.L.C entered into an employment agreement with Ronald A. Klein, Origen's Chief Executive Officer. Due to changes in Origen's business and operations, in April 2009, the 2006 employment agreement was terminated and Origen and Mr. Klein entered into a new employment agreement. The new employment agreement is described in more detail below.

2006 Klein Employment Agreement

Mr. Klein's 2006 employment agreement was for an initial three-year term ending July 14, 2009 and was automatically renewed for a one-year term ending July 14, 2010 because neither party timely terminated the agreement. The employment agreement provided for an annual base salary of $495,000 in the first year, $520,000 in the second year, $545,000 in the third year and a 5.00% annual increase to $572,250 for the initial automatic renewal year. For each successive year of automatic renewal beyond the initial three-year term, Mr. Klein's base salary would increase by 5% during each successive one-year term. In addition to his base salary, Mr. Klein would be entitled to annual incentive compensation of up to 100% of his then current base salary if he satisfies certain individual and company performance criteria established from time to time by Origen's Board of Directors.

Table of Contents

In connection with the execution of the employment agreement on July 14, 2006, Origen issued Mr. Klein 175,000 restricted shares of its common stock. The shares were to vest in five equal annual installments of 35,000 shares on each of May 15, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011, however, due to the occurrence of a change of control event in July 2008, all unvested shares were accelerated to vest on that date.

Under the employment agreement, Mr. Klein would be entitled to a severance payment equal to (a) two years salary and target bonus if the employment agreement is terminated by Origen without cause or by Mr. Klein for good reason, or if Mr. Klein dies or becomes disabled, or (b) one year's salary if Origen does not renew the term of the contract at the end of its initial term or any subsequent renewal term.

Upon a change in control of Origen, Mr. Klein would be entitled to a change in control payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of (a) his then current base salary, and (b) fifty percent of his then-current target bonus. The change in control payment would be payable if (i) Mr. Klein was still employed by Origen on the first anniversary of the change in control, (ii) during such one-year period Mr. Klein's employment was terminated without cause by Origen, Mr. Klein resigned with good reason (as defined below) or Mr. Klein dies or became disabled, or (iii) Origen terminated Mr. Klein's employment in anticipation of a change in control during a specified period before the closing of the change in control transaction. If, in addition to the change in control payment under the employment agreement, Mr. Klein was entitled to a payment from Origen upon a change in control or similar event under any other plan or agreement, Origen would be obligated to pay only the greater of the change in control payment described in the employment agreement and such other plan or agreement.

For purposes of Mr. Klein's employment agreement, a change in control included the following: (i) an event or series of events by which any person together with all affiliates and associates of such person, shall become the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the combined voting power of Origen's then outstanding securities having the right to vote in an election of the Board of Directors, other than as a result of an acquisition of securities directly from Origen, (ii) (1) any consolidation or merger of Origen in which the stockholders of Origen immediately prior to the consolidation or merger would not, immediately after the consolidation or merger, beneficially own, directly or indirectly, shares representing in the aggregate more than 50% of the voting shares of the corporation issuing cash or securities in the consolidation or merger or (2) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer to an unrelated party, in one transaction or a series of transactions contemplated or arranged by any party as a single plan, of all or substantially all of Origen's assets; (iii) the approval of Origen's stockholders of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of Origen; or (iv) where the persons who, as of the employment agreement date, constitute Origen's Board of Directors (the incumbent directors) cease for any reason, including, without limitation, as a result of a tender offer, proxy contest, merger or similar transaction, to constitute at least a majority of the Board of Directors. The change of control provision was triggered as a result of the adoption by Origen's shareholders on June 25, 2008 of the Asset Disposition and Management Plan.

Table of Contents

2009 Klein Employment Agreement

In response to the dramatic change in the Company's business model as a result of the implementation of the shareholder-approved Asset Disposition and Management Plan, Mr. Klein's employment agreement was renegotiated effective April 4, 2009 for a term of twenty-four months. Under the terms of the new agreement, Mr. Klein will serve on less than a full-time basis but he is required to devote his best efforts and sufficient time and attention to Origen's business as is necessary to adequately and professionally discharge his duties and responsibilities under the agreement. In recognition of Mr. Klein's performance as Chief Executive Officer in preserving Origen's assets during the difficult 2008 economic environment, Mr. Klein will receive a bonus of $250,000 payable on October 5, 2009. Neither the termination of the 2006 agreement nor the termination of the 2009 agreement affect the payment of the change of control payment of $2.33 million due to Mr. Klein on July 1, 2009, which the Company is obligated to pay under the terms of the 2006 agreement.

As compensation for services to be performed under the new agreement and to satisfy payments required by the 2006 agreement, the Company will pay Mr. Klein $115,833 monthly over the initial twelve months of the new agreement. For the remaining term of the new agreement, Mr. Klein will receive $25,000 monthly. The new agreement may be extended by sixty days written notice from the Company for up to three additional twelve month periods for monthly compensation of $25,000, $30,000 and $35,000, respectively.

Mr. Klein will retain the title of Chief Executive Officer and will continue to serve on the Board of Directors. The services and duties required of Mr. Klein under the new agreement, while not a regimented program without flexibility, include general oversight of all Company activities, direct oversight of the Company's Chief Financial Officer and specific functional activities relating to administration and portfolio management as detailed in appendices to the new agreement.

The new agreement may be terminated by either the Company or Mr. Klein at any time (1) for any reason whatsoever or for no reason upon not less than sixty days written notice, (2) by Company at any time for cause without prior notice, and (3) upon Mr. Klein's death or disability.

If during the initial one-year term of the agreement Origen terminates Mr. Klein's employment for any reason or for no reason or if Mr. Klein dies or becomes disabled, Origen will pay Mr. Klein an amount equal to the product of $90,933 multiplied by the number of full months remaining in the initial one-year term of the agreement. If Mr. Klein terminates his employment or if Origen terminates the agreement after the initial one-year term, Mr. Klein will be entitled only to unpaid compensation earned for the period up to and including the effective date of the termination of the agreement. However, termination of the new agreement during the initial twelve months by any party for any reason or no reason at all will not excuse the company from the obligation to pay Mr. Klein remaining unpaid amounts relating to the satisfaction of the 2006 agreement, including the change of control payment and 2008 bonus. Origen will also pay Mr. Klein's COBRA premiums for health insurance benefits for a period of one year if Origen terminates his employment agreement or chooses not to renew it at the end of the initial term.

Table of Contents

If any severance payments or change in control payments to Mr. Klein under the agreement collectively constitute a parachute payment under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, thereby requiring the payment of excise taxes, then Origen would gross up such payments to cover all applicable excise taxes.

The non-competition provision of the new agreement generally would preclude Mr. Klein from engaging, directly or indirectly, in the United States or Canada in the management of manufactured housing finance assets in a manner that is competitive with and adverse to the business of Origen during the term of his employment with Origen and for a period of twelve months following the period he is employed by Origen, subject to certain conditions and exceptions. Mr. Klein would also be prohibited from soliciting the employment of any of Origen's other employees and diverting any business from Origen for a period of up to one year after termination of the employment agreement.

Success Fee Letter Agreement

On the same date that Origen and Mr. Klein entered into his new employment agreement, they entered into a letter agreement under which he and other senior employees of, or consultants to, Origen designated by Mr. Klein may be paid certain success fees upon the successful consummation of certain transactions by Origen for the purpose of preserving the value of Origen's assets. The aggregate success fee payable with respect to any qualifying transaction will be equal to 1% of the face value of that transaction, provided that success fees paid in respect of change of control transactions will be reduced by 50% of all aggregate success fees paid with respect to previous qualifying transactions, and provided further that the success fee payable with respect to any qualifying transaction will be not less than $200,000. To qualify for the payment of success fees, a transaction or series or combination of related transactions must close during the term of or within six months of the termination of Mr. Klein's 2009 employment agreement (subject to extension for items such as satisfying customary closing conditions and obtaining shareholder approval), must be approved by and designated as a qualifying transaction by Origen's board of directors and must be consequential and increase or preserve value for Origen's shareholders. All success fees earned under the agreement, other than for a change of control transaction, will be paid 50% at closing of the transaction and the remaining 50% on or before March 14 of the year following the closing of the transaction. Success fees earned in connection with a change of control transaction shall be paid at closing of the transaction. The following table describes the types of transactions that may qualify for the payment of success fees and the method for determining the value of those transactions on which the success fee is based.

Refinancing of any significant obligation of Origen secured by its assets	Amount of the loan or refinancing made available to Origen in the transaction
The management and exercise of contractual call options, and other contractual obligations and opportunities, related to Origen's securitized bonds;	The face amount of the bonds involved in the transaction
The purchase of securities or other assets	The amount of cash, notes, securities and

W. Anderson Geater, Jr., Chief Financial Officer, J. Peter Scherer, President and Chief Operating Officer and Mark Landschulz, Executive Vice President of Portfolio Management

On December 28, 2006, Origen and its primary operating subsidiary Origen Financial L.L.C. entered into employment agreements with each of W. Anderson Geater, Jr., Origen's Chief Financial Officer; J. Peter Scherer, Origen's President Chief Operating Officer; and Mark Landschulz, Origen's Executive Vice President of Portfolio Management (collectively, the Executives, individually, the Executive). The effective date of each employment agreement was October 8, 2006, which was the date the previous employment agreement of each executive expired. Due to changes in Origen's business and operations, in April 2009, the 2006 employment agreements were terminated and Origen and each of Messrs. Geater, and Landschulz entered into a new or consulting employment agreement and Mr. Scherer entered into a letter agreement regarding the termination of his employment. The new agreements are described in more detail below.

2006 Employment Agreements

Each executive's 2006 employment agreement was for an initial three-year term ending October 8, 2009 and was automatically renewable for successive one-year terms thereafter unless either party timely terminated the agreement. Mr. Geater's 2006 employment agreement provided for an annual base salary of $262,500 in the first year, $275,000 in the second year, and $300,000 in the third year. Each of Mr. Scherer's and Mr. Landschulz's 2006 employment agreement provided for an annual base salary of $250,000 in the first year, $275,000 in the second year, and $300,000 in the third year. If an Executive's employment agreement was automatically renewed beyond the initial three-year term, his base salary would increase by 5% during each successive one-year term. In addition to his base salary, each Executive was entitled to annual incentive compensation of up to 100% of his then-current base salary if he satisfied certain individual and company performance criteria established from time to time by Origin's Board of Directors.

In connection with the execution of the 2006 Employment Agreements on October 8, 2006, Origin issued Mr. Geater 30,000 restricted shares of common stock and issued each of Mr. Scherer and Mr. Landschulz 25,000 restricted shares of common stock. Each executive's shares vest in five equal annual installments of 6,000 shares (in Mr. Geater's case) or 5,000 shares (in Mr. Scherer's and Mr. Landschulz's cases) on each of October 8, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011.

Under their respective 2006 employment agreements, each of the Executives would be entitled to the following severance compensation: (A) if the employment agreement was terminated by Origin without cause or by the Executive for good reason, (i) Origin would pay the Executive an amount equal to his then-current base salary, (ii) Origin would continue to provide health care coverage and other benefits for which the executive continued to be eligible under Origin's benefits plans for the applicable severance period (as defined below), provided that Origin's obligation to provide the benefits described in this clause (ii) would terminate to the extent that a subsequent employer provided similar coverage, and (iii) the vesting of all of the executive's unvested options and shares of restricted stock would be accelerated; (B) if the executive died or became disabled, (i) Origin would pay the executive an amount equal to his then-current base salary, (ii) Origin would continue to provide health care coverage and other benefits for the same period and on the same terms as described in clause (A)(ii) above, and (iii) the vesting of all of the executive's unvested options and shares of restricted stock would be accelerated; and (C) if the executive's employment was terminated because Origin did not renew the term of the employment agreement at the end of its initial term or any subsequent renewal term, (i) Origin would pay the executive an amount equal to his then-current base salary, and (ii) the vesting of all of the executive's unvested options and shares of restricted stock would be accelerated.

The severance period meant 24 months with respect to Mr. Geater and 18 months with respect to each of Mr. Scherer and Mr. Landschulz.

If payable, the severance payment would be in addition to any non-compete payment or change of control payment to which the executive would be entitled. The non-compete payment was a specified amount of $849,615 for Mr. Geater and $560,000 each for Mr. Landschulz and Mr. Scherer. The change of control payments for each of Mr. Geater, Mr. Landschulz and Mr. Scherer were based on annual salary plus 50% of the target bonus multiplied times two.

2009 Agreements

In response to the dramatic change in the Company's business model as a result of the implementation of the shareholder-approved Asset Disposition and Management Plan, each of the 2006 employment agreements for Mr. Geater, Mr. Scherer and Mr. Landschulz have been terminated.

Effective April 4, 2009, Mr. Geater's 2006 employment agreement was terminated and he and Origen entered into a new employment agreement under which he will continue to serve as Chief Financial Officer. The term of Mr. Geater's new employment agreement ends March 31, 2011. Mr. Geater will receive payments accrued and owing under the 2006 employment agreement (including a change of control payment of $825,000 due to him on July 1, 2009) and will be compensated for services going forward pursuant to the terms of the 2009 agreement. Mr. Geater's salary was reduced from $300,000 to $275,000 annually through the term of the new agreement. An annual incentive bonus of $235,000 will be paid in each of years 2010 and 2011. Mr. Geater is eligible for the payment of a stay bonus on March 31, 2011 of $555,000, unless he terminates the agreement without good reason (as defined below) or is terminated for cause (as defined below). In recognition of his performance in preserving Origen's assets during the difficult 2008 economic climate Mr. Geater received a bonus of $150,000 upon execution of the new agreement. If Origen terminates the agreement without cause, if Mr. Geater terminates the agreement for good reason or if Mr. Geater dies or becomes disabled during the term of the agreement, Origen shall pay Mr. Geater or his estate all remaining salary, bonus and stay bonus payments payable under the agreement when such payments become due under the terms of the agreement. In addition, Origen shall during the remainder of the term of the agreement pay Mr. Geater's COBRA life insurance premiums and continue to provide him with such other employee benefits for which he continues to qualify.

For purposes of Mr. Geater's new agreement, cause means: (i) a material breach of any provision of the employment agreement by the executive (after opportunity to cure for 20 days upon receipt of notice of breach), (ii) his failure or refusal, in any material manner, to perform all lawful services required of him pursuant to his agreement (after opportunity to cure for 20 days upon receipt of notice of breach), (iii) his commission of fraud, embezzlement or theft, or a crime constituting moral turpitude that renders his continued employment harmful to Origen, (iv) his misappropriation of company assets or property, including, without limitation, obtaining reimbursement through fraudulent vouchers or expense reports, or (v) his conviction or the entry of a plea of guilty or no contest by him with respect to any felony or other crime that adversely affects Origen's reputation or business.

For purposes of Mr. Geater's new agreement, good reason means: (i) a substantial adverse change in the nature and scope of Mr. Geater's duties and authority, (ii) a substantial involuntary reduction in Mr. Geater's base salary, or (iii) the relocation of Mr. Geater's principal place of employment further than 60 miles from his current principal place of employment. Under his new employment agreement, Mr. Geater is subject to non-competition and non-solicitation provisions on substantially the same terms as those applicable to Mr. Klein described above. In addition, if any severance payments to Mr. Geater under his new employment agreement collectively constitute a parachute payment under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, thereby requiring the payment of excise taxes, then Origen would gross up such payments to cover all applicable excise taxes.

Effective April 4, 2009, Mr. Landschulz's 2006 employment agreement was terminated and he and Origen entered into a new consulting agreement under which he will provide consulting services primarily related to the management of Origen's securitized loan portfolio. The consulting agreement is for an initial term ending March 31, 2011, and may be extended at Origen's option for three successive one-year terms. Under the terms of the consulting agreement, Mr. Landschulz will receive payments accrued and owing under the provisions of the 2006 employment agreement (including a change of control payment of $825,000 due to him on July 1, 2009) and will be compensated for services going forward. As compensation for services to be performed under the consulting agreement and to satisfy payments required by the 2006 employment agreement, Mr. Landschulz will receive $25,000 monthly over the initial one-year term of the consulting agreement. The consulting agreement may be extended by sixty days written notice from the Company for up to three additional twelve month periods for monthly compensation of $15,000, $20,000 and $25,000, respectively. Mr. Landschulz is eligible for the payment of a stay bonus on March 31, 2011 of $365,000, unless he terminates the agreement without good reason or is terminated for cause. In recognition of his performance in preserving Origen's assets during the difficult 2008 economic climate Origen will pay Mr. Landschulz a bonus of $150,000, payable on October 5, 2009.

If Origen terminates the consulting agreement with or without cause during the initial term, Origen shall pay Mr. Landschulz or his estate a monthly payment of $15,000 during the remainder of the initial term and the $365,000 stay bonus described above.

Under his new consulting agreement, Mr. Landschulz is subject to non-competition and non-solicitation provisions on substantially the same terms as those applicable to Mr. Klein described above. In addition, if any severance payments to Mr. Landschulz under his new employment agreement collectively constitute a parachute payment under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, thereby requiring the payment of excise taxes, then Origen would gross up such payments to cover all applicable excise taxes.

Effective April 4, 2009, Mr. Scherer's 2006 employment agreement was terminated and he and Origen entered into a letter agreement relating to his termination and severance. Under the terms of the letter agreement, Mr. Scherer will receive payments accrued and owing under the provisions of his 2006 employment agreement (including a change of control payment of $825,000 due to him on July 1, 2009) and Origen will pay him monthly severance payments of $25,000 through March 31, 2010 and a lump-sum severance payment of $400,000 on March 31, 2010. In addition, in recognition of his performance in preserving Origen's assets during the difficult 2008 economic climate Origen will pay Mr. Scherer a bonus of $150,000, payable on October 5, 2009.

Paul J. Galaspie, Chief Information Officer

On September 30, 2006, Mr. Galaspie completed the final year of a three-year employment agreement. Under the provisions of the agreement, the term of the agreement has been automatically extended annually to October 1, 2009. Mr. Galaspie's annual salary through September 30, 2008 was $203,962 and his annual salary for the year ending September 30, 2009 was $214,160. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Galaspie was eligible for a performance bonus of up to 50% of his base salary. Under the agreement, Mr. Galaspie was entitled to the following severance compensation: (A) if the employment agreement was terminated by Origen without cause, Origen would pay Mr. Galaspie an amount equal to his then-current base salary for 12 months; and (B) if Mr. Galaspie died or became disabled, Origen would pay him an amount equal to his then-current base salary for 12 months.

For purposes of Mr. Galaspie's employment agreement, cause was defined as: (i) a material breach of any provision of the employment agreement by the executive (after opportunity to cure for 20 days upon receipt of notice of breach), (ii) any action (or failure to act) by the executive that involves malfeasance, fraud or moral turpitude, or which, if generally known, would or might have a material adverse effect on Origen or its reputation.

The non-competition provision of Mr. Galaspie's employment agreement generally precludes him from engaging, directly or indirectly, in the United States or Canada in the manufactured housing finance business or any ancillary business of Origen during the term of his employment with Origen and for a period of 12 months following the period he is employed by Origen, subject to certain conditions and exceptions. He will also be prohibited from soliciting the employment of any of Origen's other employees and diverting any business from Origen for a period of up to 12 months after termination of the employment agreement.

Effective May 1, 2009, Origen terminated Mr. Galaspie's employment agreement without cause, and will therefore pay him the severance payment described above. As of that date, Origen also entered into a consulting relationship with Mr. Galaspie for a monthly fee of $2,000, with a performance potential of $12,000 annually. The term of the consulting agreement will end on March 31, 2011. Mr. Galaspie will provide information technology services and oversight on a consulting basis due to the changed nature of Origen's business as a result of the implementation of the Asset Disposition and Management Plan.

In December 2008, Origen amended its split-dollar life insurance plan pursuant to the terms set forth in the First Amendment to the Origen Financial, LLC Endorsement Split-Dollar Plan (Amended Split-Dollar Plan). Additionally, at the same time, Origen amended its non-qualified deferred compensation plan pursuant to the terms set forth in the Second Amendment to the Origen Financial, LLC Capital Accumulation Plan (Amended Accumulation Plan, and together with the Amended Split-Dollar Plan, the Amendments).

Under the split-dollar life insurance plan, Origen, through individual life insurance policies, provided death benefits to a participant's beneficiaries and coordinated with the deferred compensation plan. Origen was the sole owner of each life insurance policy and paid all premiums due under the policies. One purpose of the plan was to fund the payment of benefits under Origen's deferred compensation plan with the cash build-up in the policies. In December 2008, Origen decided to discontinue premium payments on all of these life insurance policies. Pursuant to the Amended Split-Dollar Plan, an employee's participation under the split-dollar life insurance plan terminates if Origen fails to make a required payment on that employee's life insurance policy within 60 days of the date such payment is due. Because Origen ceased making premium payments under the split-dollar life insurance plan, the Amended Split Dollar Plan effectively terminated the participation of all employees under Origen's split-dollar life insurance plan. Upon termination from the plan, participants had the right to acquire the life insurance policy from Origen for the then-current cash surrender value of the policy, but no participants elected to acquire the life insurance policy following the plan's termination. Following the termination of the policies, the cash surrender values of the policies were remitted to Origen by the insurance carrier in February 2009.

Under Origen's non-qualified deferred compensation plan, certain executive officers and highly-compensated employees are provided with supplemental income on a deferred basis. The plan was initiated by one of Origen's predecessors in year 2002, in an environment where no equity capital was available to compensate key members of management. The plan was intended to attract and maintain qualified individuals in key positions. The plan is not performance-based and the investments are not directed by either the employee or Origen. The vesting amounts, vesting schedule and employee payment schedules were all fixed upon the employee's entrance into the plan. This deferred income vests over a ten-year period, with the first 30% vesting on the third anniversary of the employee's participation in the plan, and the remainder vesting at a rate of 10% per year, until the tenth anniversary of the employee's participation in the plan. The deferred compensation is paid to the employees in a lump sum, following the tenth anniversary of the participant's enrollment in the plan. Origen's deferred compensation plan obligations were informally funded solely by the cash build-up in the life insurance policies maintained by Origen pursuant to the Amended Split-Dollar Plan. As of December 2008, the cash value of the life insurance policies no longer funds Origen's obligations under the Amended Accumulation Plan, but Origen still has such obligations, which will be paid from Origen's general assets. Pursuant to the Amended Accumulation Plan, when the life insurance policy obtained to insure an employee participant under the split-dollar life insurance plan lapses, the employee's maximum benefit under Origen's deferred compensation plan is equal to the then vested portion of his or her deferred compensation benefit. Following the December 2008 amendments, no further contributions will be made to the plan by Origen on behalf of the participants.

The following table lists Origen's named executive officers who participate in the Amended Accumulation Plan and each such officer's benefits thereunder that had vested as of December 31, 2008:

Name and Principal Position	Vested Benefits
Ronald A. Klein: CEO	$280,000
W. Anderson Geater, Jr.: CFO	$280,000
J. Peter Scherer: COO	$280,000
Mark W. Landschulz : EVP of Portfolio Management	$280,000
Paul J. Galaspie: CIO	$280,000

DISCLOSURE REGARDING TERMINATION PROVISIONS

The following table describes and quantifies potential payments to the named executive officers in the event of termination of employment pursuant to the employment and consulting agreements entered into in April 2009. With respect to Messrs. Klein and Landschulz, the severance amounts will be payable if Origen terminates their employment during the initial term of their respective agreements, regardless of the reason for termination of employment. With respect to Mr. Geater, the severance amounts will be payable only if Origen terminates his employment agreement without cause, if Mr. Geater terminates the agreement for good reason or if Mr. Geater dies or becomes disabled during the term of the agreement. See Employment Agreements 2009 Agreements above for a description of what constitutes cause and good reason under Mr. Geater's employment agreement.

Payment of severance is conditioned upon each recipient's complying with the non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality provisions set forth in his employment or consulting agreement with Origen, as described above under Employment Agreements .

For illustrative purposes, a triggering event is assumed to have occurred on December 31, 2008. The named executive officers entered into employment or consulting agreements with Origen effective as of April 4, 2009. Therefore, the severance amounts below include 100% of the salary and annual bonus amounts payable over the terms of the agreements.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Origen Servicing, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Origen Financial L.L.C., serviced approximately $32.3 million, $30.6 million, and $20.7 million in manufactured housing loans for Sun Home, Inc. ("Sun Home"), an affiliate of Sun Communities, Inc. as of June 30, 2008, December 31, 2007 and 2006, respectively. Servicing fees paid by Sun Home to Origen Servicing, Inc. were approximately $0.2 million, $0.4 million and $0.3 million during the years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006, respectively. Gary A. Shiffman, one of Origen's directors is the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President of Sun Communities. Sun Communities owns approximately 19% of Origen's outstanding stock. Mr. Shiffman beneficially owns approximately 19% of Origen's outstanding stock which amount includes his deemed beneficial ownership of the stock owned by Sun Communities. Mr. Shiffman and his affiliates beneficially own approximately 11% of the outstanding common stock of Sun Communities.

With the sale of Origen's servicing platform assets, Sun Communities engaged a different entity to continue the servicing of the loans. In order to transfer the loan servicing contract to a different servicer, Sun Communities paid Origen a fee of approximately $0.3 million during the year ended December 31, 2008.

On July 31, 2008, Origen completed the sale of certain of its third party origination and insurance platform assets for $1.0 million to Origen Financial Services, LLC ("OFS, LLC"), a newly formed venture, the managing member of which is a wholly owned affiliate of ManageAmerica, a nationally recognized provider of services to the manufactured housing industry. A subsidiary of Sun Communities owns 25% of the equity interests of OFS, LLC. Sun Communities appointed Mr. Shiffman, as its voting representative of the management team assigned to OFS, LLC.

Prior to the sale of certain of Origen's third party origination and insurance platform assets, Origen had agreed to fund loans that met Sun Home's underwriting guidelines and then transfer those loans to Sun Home pursuant to a commitment fee arrangement. Origen recognized no gain or loss on the transfer of these loans. Origen funded approximately $12.4 million, $13.2 million and $8.0 million in loans and transferred approximately $12.4 million, $13.3 million and $7.9 million in loans under this agreement during the three years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006, respectively. Origen recognized fee income under this agreement of approximately $230,000, $182,000 and $160,000 for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Prior to the sale of Origen's servicing platform assets to Green Tree Servicing LLC on July 1, 2008, Sun Home had purchased certain repossessed houses owned by Origen and located in manufactured housing communities owned by Sun Communities, subject to Sun Home's prior approval. Under this agreement, Origen sold to Sun Home approximately $0.6 million, $1.1 million and $1.2 million of repossessed houses during years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006, respectively. This program allowed Origen to further enhance recoveries on repossessed houses and allowed Sun Home to retain houses for resale in its communities.

In September 2007, Origen, through its primary operating subsidiary Origen Financial L.L.C., previously had a $15 million secured financing arrangement (the $15 Million Loan) with the William M. Davidson Trust u/a/d 12/13/04 (the Lender), an affiliate of William M. Davidson. Mr. Davidson passed away on March 13, 2009. Prior to July 11, 2008, Mr. Davidson was the sole member of Woodward Holding, LLC. Both prior to and after July 11, 2008, Paul A. Halpern, the Chairman of Origen's Board of Directors, was and is the sole manager of Woodward Holding, LLC and was and is employed by Guardian Industries Corp. and its affiliates, of which Mr. Davidson was the principal owner. On July 11, 2008, Mr. Davidson sold 60% of the membership interests of Woodward Holding, LLC to Mr. Halpern and the remaining 40% of the membership interests to Jonathan S. Aaron. Mr. Aaron is the spouse of the step-daughter of Mr. Davidson and is employed by Guardian Industries Corp. On November 13, 2008, Mr. Aaron was appointed to fill a newly-created position on Origen's board of directors for a term of office expiring at the annual meeting of Origen's stockholders to be held in 2009. Upon Mr. Davidson's passing, Mr. Aaron became a co-trustee of the Lender.

The $15 Million Loan included a $10 million senior secured promissory note (the Note) and a $5 million senior secured convertible promissory note (the Convertible Note). The Note and the Convertible Note were each one-year secured notes bearing interest at 8% per year and were secured by a portion of Origen's rights to receive servicing fees on its loan servicing portfolio. The Note, which had an original principal amount of $10 million, and the Convertible Note, which had an original principal amount of $5 million, were each due on September 11, 2008. The term of the Note and the Convertible Note could be extended up to 120 days with the payment of additional fees. The Convertible Note could be converted at the option of the Lender into shares of Origen's common stock at a conversion price of $6.237 per share. In connection with the $15 Million Loan, Origen issued a stock purchase warrant to the Lender. The stock purchase warrant was a five-year warrant to purchase 500,000 shares of Origen's common stock at an exercise price of $6.16 per share. Each of the Note and the Convertible Note were paid in full on July 1, 2008.

On April 8, 2008, the $15 Million Loan was amended and Origen entered into a $46 million secured financing arrangement (the $46 Million Loan) with the Lender. The $46 Million Loan is evidenced by a three-year secured note bearing interest at 14.5% per year. The $46 Million Loan is due on April 8, 2011, but at Origen's option, its maturity may be extended for one year if Origen pays an extension fee equal to 2% of the then-outstanding principal balance. The $46 Million Loan is pre-payable, provided that if it is paid off entirely in connection with a refinancing of the entire remaining principal owing under the note, Origen must pay a prepayment fee equal to 1.5% of the then-outstanding principal balance. Origen also issued a five-year stock purchase warrant (the Warrant) to purchase 2,600,000 shares of Origen's common stock at an exercise price of $1.22 per share, which was the closing consolidated bid price for Origen common stock on April 7, 2008. Origen has granted the Lender certain registration rights with respect to the common stock issuable upon the exercise of the Warrant and other unregistered shares that may be owned by the Lender and its affiliates. The amendment to the $15 Million Loan also terminated the previous conversion rights on the Convertible Note and terminated the 500,000 warrants to purchase Origen's common stock. The $46 million Note had an aggregate outstanding balance of $27 million at March 31, 2009, net of the unamortized discount related to the fair value of the stock purchase warrant.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, Origen paid interest in the aggregate amount of $4.4 million on the $15 Million Loan and the $46 Million Loan.

Origen leases its executive offices in Southfield, Michigan from an entity in which Mr. Shiffman and certain of his affiliates beneficially own approximately a 21% interest. Ronald A. Klein, a director and the Chief Executive Officer of Origen, owns less than a 1% interest in the landlord entity. Mr. Davidson's estate beneficially owns an approximate 14% interest in the landlord entity. Origen recorded rental expense for these offices of approximately $577,000, $567,000 and $465,000 for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

In November 2008, Origen entered into an agreement with Viva Beverages LLC (Viva) to sublease approximately 5,200 square feet of Origen's executive office space in Southfield, Michigan. Mr. Shiffman owns approximately 46.7% of Viva's equity interests and one of his children owns approximately 6.7% of Viva's interests. The term of the sublease runs through August 2011 and the sublease payments total approximately $48,000 in 2009, $52,000 in 2010 and $35,000 in 2011. The sublease payments are equal to Origen's lease payments under the prime lease with respect to the space that has been subleased. There were no lease payments in 2008.

Policies and Procedures for Approval of Related Party Transactions

Under Origen's written Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, none of its directors, officers or employees may enter into any transaction or arrangement with Origen that creates a conflict of interest without prior disclosure to and review by Origen's Compliance Committee (which consists of the Chairman of the Audit Committee, the Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee and a representative of Origen's outside legal counsel). The Compliance Committee must attempt to find ways to reduce or eliminate the conflict and monitor conflicts to ensure that Origen's interests are protected. In practice, the Compliance Committee typically refers such matters to the Board for its consideration and approval. In determining whether to approve such a transaction or arrangement, the Board takes into account, among other factors, whether the transaction was on terms no less favorable to Origen than terms generally available to third parties and the extent of the director's, officer's or employee's involvement in such transaction or arrangement.

The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics was adopted and approved in January 2004. All related party transactions entered into that are disclosed above were approved by the Board, except for the sublease with Viva. The terms of the sublease were disclosed to the Board before its execution and the Board determined that the sublease was on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable arms-length transactions with unrelated parties.

Table of Contents

Item 14. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

Aggregate fees for professional services rendered by Grant Thornton LLP, Origen's independent auditors, for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 were as follows:

Category	Fiscal Year Ended December 31,
	2008	2007
Audit Fees: For professional services rendered for the audit of our financial statements, the audit of internal controls relating to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, the reviews of the quarterly financial statements and consents	$379,235	$546,673
Audit-Related Fees: For professional services rendered for accounting assistance with new accounting standards, securitizations and other SEC related matters	$ 53,836	$ 46,083
Tax Fees: For professional services rendered in connection with tax compliance and preparation of tax returns	$126,932	$130,884
All Other Fees	$ 0	$ 0

The Audit Committee has a policy that requires that all services provided by the independent auditor to Origen, including audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services, be pre-approved by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee approved all audit and non-audit related services provided to Origen by Grant Thornton LLP during the 2008 and 2007 fiscal years.
