Item 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

(1) Indiana Business Corporation Law ("IBCL")

In general, Chapter 37 of the IBCL provides for mandatory director indemnification and optional director indemnification.

A. Mandatory. Unless otherwise limited by its Articles of Incorporation, an Indiana corporation is required to indemnify a director who was WHOLLY SUCCESSFUL in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because the director is or was a director of the corporation. The corporation is required to pay all reasonable expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

B. Optional. Indiana law permits indemnification of directors against liabilities and expenses incurred in proceedings if the individual ACTED IN GOOD FAITH and reasonably believed (a) in the case of conduct in his official capacity with the corporation, that his conduct was in its best interests, and (b) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests. In the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual must either have had reasonable cause to believe the conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. Any determination as to whether, and to what extent, an Indiana corporation may indemnify a director must be made (x) by a majority vote of a quorum of the directors not a party to the proceeding, (y) by special legal counsel, or (z) by the shareholders.

C. Expenses. An Indiana corporation may advance expenses to a director if it receives a statement from the director that (a) he believes the required standard of conduct for optional indemnification has been met, (b) the director undertakes unconditionally to repay the corporation for the advances if it is later determined the standard has not been met, and (c) there are no facts known which would preclude indemnification.

D. Officer Indemnification. Unless otherwise limited in an Indiana corporation's Articles of Incorporation, an officer is entitled to indemnification under the circumstances for mandatory indemnification set forth above to the same extent as a director. Additionally, an Indiana corporation may also provide further indemnification for its officers through its articles, its by-laws, resolution by its directors, or contract.

(2) Articles of Incorporation

Section 8.6 of the Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Company provides for indemnification of officers and directors against all liability and reasonable expenses incurred by such person on account of or arising out of that person's relationship to the Company, provided that the party to be indemnified satisfies the requirements of Chapter 37 of the IBCL.

(3) Indemnity Agreements

The Company has executed certain Director Indemnity Agreements with each of its directors and certain Officer Indemnity Agreements with its officers. The agreements provide that the Company shall indemnify its directors and officers if their conduct would warrant indemnification under Indiana statutory law's standard for optional indemnification set forth above. The agreements do, however, provide that the Company is not required to indemnify an officer or director for certain claims made against the individual, including claims:

(a) for which payment has already been made to the director or officer under any insurance policy or other indemnity provision;

(b) for any transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper benefit;

(c) for recovery of short-swing profits prohibited under Section 16(b) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934;

(d) if a court determines that indemnification is not lawful under applicable statute or public policy; and

(e) subject to certain exceptions, in connection with any proceeding initiated by the Director against the Corporation or its directors, officers or employees.

(4) Insurance

Officers and directors of the Company are presently covered by insurance which (with certain exceptions and certain limitations) indemnifies them against any losses or liabilities arising from any alleged 'wrongful act', including breach of duty, neglect, error, misstatement, misleading statements, omissions or other acts done or wrongfully attempted.

Item 9. UNDERTAKINGS

(a) The Company hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represents a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed or furnished by the Company pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The Company hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
