Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Exhibit 99.1 of this Form 8-K contains the prepared remarks for IBM's Chief Financial Officer Martin Schroeter's fourth-quarter and full-year 2016 earnings presentation to investors on January 19, 2017.

Reconciliations of non-GAAP financial measures discussed in the earnings presentation to the most directly comparable financial measures calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP are included as Exhibit 99.2 of this Form 8-K. The slides used in Mr. Schroeter's fourth-quarter and full-year 2016 earnings presentation are Exhibit 99.3 to the company's Form 8-K submitted to the SEC on January 19, 2017.

The information in this Item 7.01, including the corresponding Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2, is being furnished with the Commission and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act), with the exception of the following information from Mr. Schroeter's prepared remarks and question and answer period of the earnings presentation, which has been edited for clarity, and shall be deemed filed under the Exchange Act:

- As part of the ongoing transformation of IBM, the company reorganized its client and commercial financing business as a wholly owned subsidiary, IBM Credit LLC. This will drive operational benefits by consolidating the operations of the financing business. This combined corporate structure will, over time, meet its funding requirements by issuing debt directly to the market, and the company expects that the entity will be able to access the capital markets later this year. The company will increase the financing business leverage from 7:1 to 9:1 which represents an increase of about $600M in Global Financing debt.
- For 2017, the company expects the GAAP tax rate to be approximately 3 points lower than the operating (non-GAAP) tax rate expectation. The company expects its operating (non-GAAP) tax rate for 2017 to be about 15%, plus or minus 3 points (excluding discrete items).
- The company is not relying on growth in IP income for 2017, and within guidance, it could be down year to year a bit. However, the company has a good pool of opportunities for IP income to be the same level as 2016.
- The company expects free cash flow to be basically flat year over year in 2017.
- The company expects to grow GBS signings in the first quarter of 2017.
