Rowan Companies plc (the “Company”) has appointed Dennis S. Baldwin (age 55) as Chief Accounting Officer, effective April 4, 2016. Mr. Baldwin has over 30 years of industry experience, and joins most recently from Cameron International Corporation, where he served as Vice President, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer beginning in March 2014 until March 2016 when Cameron was acquired by Schlumberger Limited. Prior to joining Cameron, he was Senior Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer of KBR, Inc. from August 2010 to March 2014, and Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer of McDermott International from October 2007 to August 2010, and prior to that served as Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer for Integrated Electrical Services and Vice President, Corporate Controller at VERITAS, DGC. Mr. Baldwin is a Certified Public Accountant and holds an MBA from the University of Houston and a BBA in Accounting from Sam Houston State University.

Mr. Baldwin’s annual base salary will be $300,000. He will participate in the Company’s annual incentive plan and long-term incentive plan in 2016 on a pro-rated basis, with targets of 50% and 175% of base salary, respectively. Mr. Baldwin will enter into a change in control arrangement with standard terms and conditions and a severance payment of 1.5 times the sum of base salary and calculated bonus should Mr. Baldwin be terminated in connection with a change in control of the Company. The agreement will also provide for an acceleration of vesting of outstanding equity awards upon a change in control, but will not include any excise tax gross up provision. As an officer, Mr. Baldwin will also enter into the Company’s standard indemnification arrangements.

Effective March 31, 2016, Mr. Gregory M. Hatfield resigned from the Company to pursue other interests. Mr. Hatfield served the Company for 22 years in various capacities and the Company thanks him for his dedication and service.
