Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 8, 2018, United Community Banks, Inc. (the “Company”), the holding company for United Community Bank, Blairsville, Georgia (the “Bank”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among the Company, the Bank, Symph Acquisition Corp. (“Merger Subsidiary”), NLFC Holdings Corp. (“NLFC”) and Shareholder Representative Services LLC, under which Merger Subsidiary will merge with and into NLFC, with NLFC surviving the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Bank (the “Merger”). NLFC’s wholly-owned subsidiary Navitas Credit Corp. (“Navitas”) is a premier specialty lending company providing equipment finance credit services to small and medium-sized businesses nationwide.

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”) NLFC stockholders will receive in the aggregate $130,000,000, $84,500,000 of which will be payable in cash and $45,500,000 of which will be payable in shares of the Company’s common stock. The Merger Agreement also includes provisions that address the treatment of the outstanding equity awards of NLFC in the Merger. The parties anticipate closing the Merger during the first quarter of 2018.

The Merger Agreement has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of each of the Company and NLFC. The closing of the Merger is subject to the required approval of NLFC’s stockholders, the expiration or termination of the waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1975, as amended, and other customary closing conditions.

The Merger Agreement contains usual and customary representations and warranties that the Company and NLFC made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between the Company and NLFC, and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to shareholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used to allocate risk between the Company and NLFC rather than establishing matters as facts.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference. The related press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Participants in the Solicitation.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information.

This Current Report contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that include projections, predictions, expectations, or beliefs about future events or results or otherwise and are not statements of historical fact. Such statements are often characterized by the use of qualified words (and their derivatives) such as “may,” “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “will,” “should,” “plan,” “estimate,” “predict,” “continue” and “potential” or the negative of these terms or words of similar meaning or other statements concerning opinions or judgments of United and its management about future events. Although United believes that its expectations with respect to forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions within the bounds of its existing knowledge of its business and operations, there can be no assurance that actual results, performance, or achievements of United will not differ materially from any future results, performance, or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements; such statements are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties that change over time and could cause actual results or financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements. Actual future results and trends may differ materially from historical results and or those anticipated depending on a variety of factors, including, but not limited to the factors and risk influences contained in the cautionary language included under the headings “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and “Risk Factors” in United’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and other periodic reports subsequently filed by United with the SEC, available on the SEC website, www.sec.gov. In addition, we may (i) be unable to successfully integrate Navitas’ operations and retain its key employees and (ii) not complete the Merger. United does not intend to or assume any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements that may be made from time to time by or on behalf of United. For any forward-looking statements made in this presentation, United claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.
