CAUTIONARY STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SAFE HARBOR PROVISIONS

OF THE PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995:

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report and the information incorporated by reference include forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Words such as believes, estimates, plans, expects, should, may, might, outlook, and anticipates, and similar expressions, as they are used by BancGroup (including its subsidiaries or its management), are intended to identify forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements in these reports are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by the statements. In addition to factors mentioned elsewhere in this report or previously disclosed in BancGroup's SEC reports (accessible on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov or on BancGroup's website at www.colonialbank.com), the following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements and future results could differ materially from historical performance. These factors are not exclusive:

deposit attrition, customer loss, or revenue loss in the ordinary course of business;

increases in competitive pressure in the banking industry;

costs or difficulties related to the integration of the businesses of BancGroup and institutions it acquires are greater than expected;

the inability of BancGroup to realize elements of its strategic plans for 2006 and beyond; changes in the interest rate environment which expand or reduce margins or adversely affect critical estimates as applied and projected returns on investments;

economic conditions affecting real estate values and transactions in BancGroup's market and/or general economic conditions, either nationally or regionally, that are less favorable than expected;

natural disasters in BancGroup's primary market areas result in prolonged business disruption or materially impair the value of collateral securing loans;

management's assumptions and estimates underlying critical accounting policies prove to be inadequate or materially incorrect or are not borne out by subsequent events;

changes which may occur in the regulatory environment;

a significant rate of inflation (deflation); acts of terrorism or war; and changes in the securities markets.

Many of these factors are beyond BancGroup's control. The reader is cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward looking statements made by or on behalf of BancGroup. Any such statement speaks only as of the date the statement was made or as of such date that may be referenced within the statement. BancGroup does not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements.

Table of ContentsTHE COLONIAL BANCGROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES*NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*Note 1: Accounting Policies

The accounting and reporting policies of The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. and its subsidiaries (variously referred to herein as BancGroup, Colonial, or the Company) are detailed in the Company's 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K. As discussed more fully below, effective January 1, 2006 the Company changed certain of those policies as a result of the adoption of new accounting standards. These unaudited interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and footnotes included in BancGroup's 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

In the opinion of BancGroup, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring accruals) necessary to present fairly BancGroup's financial position as of June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005 and the results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods ended June 30, 2006 and 2005. All 2006 interim amounts are subject to year-end audit, and the results of operations for the interim period herein are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations to be expected for the year.

Certain reclassifications were made to prior periods in order to conform with the current period presentation.

Stock-Based Compensation

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment. Under SFAS 123(R), all stock-based payments are measured at fair value at the date of grant and expensed over their vesting or service period. The expense will be recognized using the straight-line method. Prior to January 1, 2006, the Company accounted for stock based-compensation under the intrinsic value method prescribed by Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. Under APB 25, compensation cost was only recognized for the excess, if any, of the quoted market price of the stock at the grant date or other measurement date over the amount an employee must pay to acquire the stock. As such, under APB 25 the Company generally recognized no compensation expense for stock options since the exercise prices equaled the market price of BancGroup common stock on the grant dates. The Company did, however, recognize compensation cost for restricted stock awards since such awards have no exercise price.

The Company adopted SFAS 123(R) using the modified prospective transition method under which compensation cost is recognized beginning on January 1, 2006 (a) based on the requirements of SFAS 123(R) for all awards granted on or after January 1, 2006 and (b) based on the requirements of SFAS 123 for all awards granted prior to, and that remain unvested as of, January 1, 2006. The modified prospective transition method does not require the restatement of prior periods to reflect the fair value method of expensing stock-based compensation. SFAS 123(R) does require a cumulative effect adjustment of previously recognized compensation expense in order to estimate forfeitures for awards outstanding on the adoption date. The cumulative effect adjustment was immaterial.

The adoption of SFAS 123(R) had the following effects on the Company's financial results for the six and three months ended June 30, 2006 (in thousands, except per share amounts):

| | Six months ended June 30, 2006 | Three months ended June 30, 2006 |

Total compensation cost for stock-based compensation awards (both stock options and restricted stock awards) recognized under the fair value method during the six and three months ended June 30, 2006 was $1.8 million and $1.1 million, respectively. The related income tax benefit was $363,000 and $218,000, respectively. Pro forma financial information as if compensation cost had been recognized under the fair value method for the six and three months ended June 30, 2005 is as follows:

The Company estimates the fair value of stock options using the Black-Scholes valuation model. Key input assumptions used in the model include the exercise price of the award, the expected option term, the expected volatility of the Company's stock over the option's expected term, the risk-free interest rate over the option's expected term and the Company's expected annual dividend yield. The Company believes that the valuation technique and the approach utilized to develop the underlying assumptions are appropriate in estimating the fair value of the Company's stock options granted. Estimates of fair value are not intended to predict actual future events or the value ultimately realized by the stock option recipients. As a result of implementing SFAS 123(R), the Company refined its process for estimating expected option term and expected stock price volatility.

The fair value of each option grant was estimated on the grant date using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions:

| | Six months ended June 30, 2006 | Six months ended June 30, 2005 |
|---|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Expected option term | 5.33 years | 5 years |
| Weighted average expected volatility | 23.60% | 24.90% |

For options granted during the six months ended June 30, 2006, the expected option term was determined based upon the Company's historical experience with employees' exercise and post-vesting termination behavior. The expected volatility was determined based upon historical daily prices of the Company's common stock over the most recent period equal to the expected option term, as well as implied price volatility based on the Company's exchange traded options. The indicated historical and implied volatilities were weighted 75% and 25%, respectively. Less emphasis was placed on implied volatility compared to historical volatility because the volume of exchange traded options is relatively low. The risk-free rate was determined based on the interpolated rate as of the grant date of a zero coupon treasury security with a maturity equal to the expected option term. The expected annual dividend yield was determined based on forecasted dividends for 2006 and the Company's stock price as of December 31, 2005.

For options granted during the six months ended June 30, 2005, the expected option term was determined based on consideration of the option attributes (five year graded vesting; ten year total option life) as well as the guidance of SFAS 123 which stated that when presented with a range of reasonable estimates for expected option life, if no amount within the range is a better estimate than any other amount, it is appropriate to use an estimate at the low end of the range. The expected volatility was determined based on analysis of historical monthly prices of the Company's common stock over the most recent period equal to the expected option term. The risk-free rate was determined based on the rate of a constant maturity treasury security with a maturity equal to the expected option term. The expected annual dividend yield was determined based on forecasted dividends for 2005 and the Company's stock price as of the grant date.

See Note 12 for additional information on stock based compensation.

Accounting Changes and Error Corrections

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted SFAS 154, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections, which replaced APB 20, Accounting Changes, and SFAS 3, Reporting Accounting Changes in Interim Financial Statements. SFAS 154 requires that certain changes in accounting principle be retrospectively applied. Under retrospective application, the new accounting principle is applied as of the beginning of the first period presented as if that principle has always been used. The cumulative effect of the change is reflected in the carrying value of assets and liabilities as of the first period presented, and the offsetting adjustments are recorded to opening retained earnings. Each period presented is adjusted to reflect the period-specific effects of applying the change. Only direct effects of the change will be included in the retrospective application; all indirect effects will be recognized in the period of change. SFAS 154 applies to all voluntary changes in accounting principle as well as to changes required by an accounting pronouncement that does not include specific transition provisions. The adoption of SFAS 154 did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Other-Than-Temporary Impairment of Securities

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Staff Position (FSP) 115-1, The Meaning of Other-Than-Temporary Impairment and its Application to Certain Investments. The FSP addresses the determination as to when an investment is considered impaired, whether that impairment is other-than-temporary and the measurement of an impairment loss. The FSP also includes accounting considerations subsequent to the recognition of an other-than-temporary impairment and requires certain disclosures about unrealized losses that have not been recognized as other-than-temporary impairments. Refer to Note 3 for related disclosures. The adoption of FSP 115-1 did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Note 2: Recent Accounting Standards

In February 2006, the FASB issued SFAS 155, Accounting for Certain Hybrid Instruments. This Statement amends SFAS 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, and SFAS 140, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities, and resolves issues addressed in Statement 133 Implementation Issue No. D1, Application of Statement 133 to Beneficial Interests in Securitized Financial Assets.

SFAS 155 permits, but does not require, fair value accounting for any hybrid financial instrument that contains an embedded derivative that would otherwise require bifurcation in accordance with SFAS 133, and amends SFAS 140 to eliminate the prohibition on a qualifying special-purpose entity from holding a derivative financial instrument that pertains to a beneficial interest other than another derivative financial instrument. In addition, SFAS 155 establishes a requirement to evaluate interests in securitized financial assets to identify interests that are freestanding derivatives or that are hybrid financial instruments that contain an embedded derivative requiring bifurcation. This Statement also clarifies which interest-only strips and principal-only strips are not subject to the requirements of SFAS 133 and makes clear that concentrations of credit risk in the form of subordination are not embedded derivatives.

SFAS 155 is effective for all financial instruments acquired or issued after the beginning of an entity's fiscal year that begins after September 15, 2006. The fair value election provided for in this guidance may also be applied upon adoption of this Statement for hybrid financial instruments that had been bifurcated under SFAS 133 prior to the adoption of this guidance. Earlier adoption is permitted as of the beginning of an entity's fiscal year, provided the entity has not yet issued financial statements, including financial statements for any interim period for that fiscal year. The changes required by SFAS 155 are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In March 2006, the FASB issued SFAS 156, Accounting for Servicing of Financial Assets. SFAS 156 amends SFAS 140, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities. SFAS 156 requires all separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities to be initially measured at fair value, if practicable. SFAS 156 permits an entity to choose to either subsequently measure servicing rights at fair value and report changes in fair value in earnings, or amortize servicing rights in proportion to and over the estimated net servicing income or loss and assess the rights for impairment or need for an increased obligation.

This Statement is effective as of the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after September 15, 2006. Earlier adoption is permitted as of the beginning of an entity's fiscal year, provided the entity has not yet issued financial statements, including interim financial statements, for any period of that fiscal year. The requirement to recognize and initially measure servicing assets and liabilities at fair value should be applied prospectively to all transactions after the adoption of the Statement. The changes required by SFAS 156 are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In April 2006, the FASB issued FSP FIN 46(R)-6, Determining the Variability to be Considered in Applying FASB Interpretation No. 46(R). The FSP addresses how a reporting enterprise should determine the variability to be considered in applying FIN 46(R), which affects the determination of (a) whether the entity is a variable interest entity (VIE), (b) which interests are variable interests in the entity, and (c) which party, if any, is the primary beneficiary of the VIE. That variability will affect any calculation of expected losses and expected residual returns if such a calculation is necessary. The guidance in the FSP is to be applied prospectively to all entities with which the enterprise first becomes involved and to all entities previously required to be analyzed under FIN 46(R) when a reconsideration event has occurred beginning the first day of the first reporting period.

beginning after June 15, 2006. The changes required by FSP FIN 46(R)-6 are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In June 2006, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation (FIN) 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, which establishes a two-step process for recognizing and measuring tax benefits. It applies to all tax positions within the scope of SFAS 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. Under FIN 48, tax benefits can only be recognized in the financial statements if it is more likely than not that they would be sustained after full review by the relevant taxing authority. If a tax position meets the recognition threshold, the benefit to be recorded is equal to the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the taxing authority. Any difference between the full amount of the tax benefit and the amount recorded in the financial statements will be recognized as higher tax expense. Required disclosures will include a tabular rollforward of the beginning and ending aggregate unrecognized tax benefits as well as specific detail related to tax uncertainties for which it is reasonably possible the amount of unrecognized tax benefit will significantly increase or decrease within twelve months.

FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The cumulative effect of applying the provisions of FIN 48 will be reported as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of FIN 48 will have on the financial statements.

Note 3: Securities

The following table reflects gross unrealized losses and market value, aggregated by investment category and length of time that individual securities have been in a continuous unrealized loss position, at June 30, 2006.

| | Less than 12 months | | 12 months or more | | Total | |
|--|---------------------|-------------------|------------------------|-------------------|--------------|-------------------|
| | Market Value | Unrealized Losses | Market Value | Unrealized Losses | Market Value | Unrealized Losses |

| Total temporarily impaired securities | $ 1,194,804 | $ (44,989) | $ 1,483,378 | $ (94,533) | $ 2,678,182 | $ (139,522) |

As of June 30, 2006, there were 300 securities with an unrealized loss relating to the level of interest rates prevailing in the market. Because of the creditworthiness of the issuers and because the future direction of interest rates is unknown, the impairments are deemed to be temporary. The severity and duration of such impairments are determined by the level of interest rates set by the market. Additionally, BancGroup has the ability to retain these securities until maturity when full repayment would be received. There are also no known current funding needs which would require their liquidation.

Note 6: Sales and Servicing of Financial Assets

During the first quarter of 2005, the Company structured a facility in which it sold certain mortgage warehouse loans and mortgage loans held for sale to a wholly-owned special purpose entity (SPE) which then sold interests in those assets to third-party commercial paper conduits (conduits).

The SPE had $1.5 billion outstanding to the conduits at June 30, 2006. There were no incremental sales to the conduits during 2006. Based on the structure of these transactions, the Company's only retained interest is the assets retained in the SPE as a first risk of loss position. No gain or loss was recorded at the time of sale. The Company receives servicing income based on a percentage of the outstanding balance of assets sold. During the second quarter of 2006, the Company recognized approximately $5.3 million of noninterest income related to these transactions, of which approximately $3.8 million was servicing income, and received $5.5 million in cash. For the six months ended June 30, 2006, the Company recognized approximately $11.0 million of noninterest income related to these transactions of which approximately $7.5 million was servicing income, and received $11.4 million in cash.

Note 7: Guarantees

Standby letters of credit are contingent commitments issued by Colonial Bank, N.A. generally to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. A financial standby letter of credit is a commitment by Colonial Bank, N.A. to guarantee a customer's repayment of an outstanding loan or debt instrument. In a performance standby letter of credit, Colonial Bank, N.A. guarantees a customer's performance under a contractual nonfinancial obligation for which it receives a fee. These guarantees are primarily issued to support public and private borrowing arrangements, including commercial paper, bond financing and similar transactions. The Company holds various assets as collateral supporting those commitments for which collateral is deemed necessary. FIN No. 45, Guarantors Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others, requires the fair value of these commitments to be recorded on the balance sheet. The fair value of the commitment typically approximates the fee received from the customer for issuing such commitments. These fees are deferred and are recognized over the commitment period. The amount recorded for deferred fees as of June 30, 2006 was not material to the Company's consolidated balance sheet. At June 30, 2006, Colonial Bank, N.A. had standby letters of credit outstanding with maturities of generally one year or less. The maximum potential amount of future undiscounted payments the Company could be required to make under outstanding standby letters of credit was approximately $314 million.

Note 8: Variable Interest Entities

Colonial invested in five variable interest entities during the first six months of 2006, three in the first quarter and two in the second quarter. Four of the entities were formed for the purpose of developing residential real estate and one entity provides home automation products. One of the investments in a residential real estate developer was sold in the second quarter of 2006. The entities are not required to be consolidated under the guidance of FIN 46(R). The four remaining investments had total assets of $22.9 million, and the Company's maximum exposure to loss totaled $18.5 million at June 30, 2006.

There has been no material change in the Company's other variable interest entities. Refer to the Company's 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K for additional information.

Note 9: Derivatives

BancGroup maintains positions in derivative financial instruments to manage interest rate risk and facilitate asset/liability management strategies. Derivatives are recorded at fair value in other assets or other liabilities.

Interest Rate Swaps

At June 30, 2006, BancGroup had interest rate swap positions hedging long-term FHLB advances, subordinated debt and brokered CDs. The notional amounts and fair values of all interest rate swaps by category as of June 30, 2006 are shown below:

| | June 30, 2006 | |
|---|-------------------------------|--------------------|
| | Notional Amount | Fair Value |
| | (Dollars in thousands) | |
| Fair Value Hedges: | | |
| Interest rate swaps hedging long-term FHLB advances | $ 25,000 | $ (1,479) |
| Interest rate swaps hedging subordinated debt | 337,292 | (14,074) |
| Interest rate swaps hedging brokered CDs | 221,209 | (409) |
| | $ 583,501 | $ (15,962) |

Fair Value Hedges

The Company enters into fair value hedges to effectively convert the interest rates of certain instruments from fixed to floating. The Company recognized losses due to hedge ineffectiveness of approximately $54,000 for the three months ended June 30, 2006 and approximately $127,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2006. There were no hedging gains or losses resulting from hedge ineffectiveness recognized for the three or six months ended June 30, 2005.

Cash Flow Hedges

During the quarter, the Company terminated interest rate swaps which were used in cash flow hedges of loans. The hedged forecasted transactions are still considered probable of occurring, therefore the net loss will remain in accumulated other comprehensive loss and be reclassified into earnings in the same periods during which the hedged forecasted transactions affect earnings (ending in June of 2008). The estimated amount of losses to be reclassified into earnings within the next 12 months is $6.3 million. There were no cash flow hedging gains or losses resulting from hedge ineffectiveness recognized for the three or six months ended June 30, 2006 or June 30, 2005.

Commitments to Originate and Sell Mortgage Loans

BancGroup, as part of its retail mortgage loan production activities, routinely enters into short-term commitments to originate loans (interest rate locks). Many of these loans will be sold to third parties upon closing. For those loans, the Company enters into an individual forward sales commitment at the same time the commitment to originate is finalized. While the forward sales commitments function as an economic offset and effectively eliminate the Company's financial risk of rate changes during the rate lock period, both the commitment to originate mortgage loans that will be sold and the commitment to sell the mortgage loans are derivatives, the fair values of which are substantially equal and offsetting. The fair values are calculated based on changes in market interest rates after the commitment date. The notional amounts of these mortgage loan origination commitments and the related forward sales commitments were approximately $47.5 million at June 30, 2006. The fair value of the origination commitments was a loss of $218,000 at June 30, 2006, which was offset by a gain of $218,000 on the related sales commitments.

BancGroup has executed individual forward sales commitments related to short-term participations in mortgage loans and retail mortgage loans, which are all classified as loans held for sale. The forward sales commitments related to the short-term participations allow BancGroup to sell the mortgage loan participations to investor institutions for an amount equal to BancGroup's original acquisition cost. The Company has designated these commitments as fair value hedges of the short-term participations. The forward sales commitments on retail mortgage loans function as an economic offset and mitigate the Company's market risk on these loans. The notional values of the forward sales commitments on short-term participations and retail mortgage loans at June 30, 2006 were $1.8 billion and $40 million, respectively. The fair value of the forward sales commitments on the short-term participations was a gain of $6 million at June 30, 2006, which was offset by a loss of $6 million on the short-term participations. The fair value of the sales commitments related to retail mortgage loans held for sale was a loss of $106,000 at June 30, 2006.

Options

BancGroup occasionally enters into over-the-counter option contracts on bonds in its securities portfolio. SFAS 133 requires that the fair value of these option contracts be recorded in the financial statements. However, there were no option contracts outstanding at June 30, 2006.

Note 10: Long-Term Borrowings

During the second quarter of 2006, Colonial borrowed $200 million from the FHLB at an interest rate of 5.63% with a maturity of 10 years.

During the first quarter of 2006, Colonial modified $400 million in long-term FHLB advances bearing interest at a weighted average rate of 5.67% and with a weighted average remaining maturity of 4.94 years into new advances bearing interest at a weighted average rate of 4.33% and with a weighted average maturity of 15 years. In addition, a $200 million FHLB advance bearing interest at 1.84% matured at the end of the first quarter.

BancGroup and its subsidiaries are participants in a pension plan that covers most employees who have met certain age and length of service requirements. The plan provides benefits based on final average earnings, covered compensation, and years of benefit service. On December 31, 2005, BancGroup closed the pension plan to new employees and fixed the compensation amount and years of service for the future benefits calculation for participants. Actuarial computations for financial reporting purposes are based on the projected unit credit method. The measurement date is December 31. Based on current actuarial projections, BancGroup will not be required to make and does not expect to make a contribution to the plan in 2006.

Note 12: Stock-Based Compensation

The Company has a long-term incentive compensation plan which permits the granting of various types of incentive stock-based awards including stock options, restricted stock, stock appreciation rights and performance units, all of which may be issued only to key employees, officers and directors of BancGroup. A total of 10,000,000 shares of BancGroup common stock are authorized to be issued under the plan. As of June 30, 2006, 6,489,438 shares remain eligible to be granted under the plan. The terms of the plan stipulate that the exercise price of incentive stock options may not be less than the fair market value of BancGroup common stock on the date they are granted, and the exercise price of nonqualified stock options may not be less than 85% of the fair market value of BancGroup common stock on the date of grant. All options expire no more than ten years from the date of grant, or three months after an employee's termination. Options become exercisable on a pro-rata basis over a period of five years. Restricted stock awards typically vest over a five-year period unless they are subject to specific performance criteria. There have been no stock appreciation rights or performance units granted under the plan.

Prior to the long-term incentive plan that is currently in place, the Company had other incentive plans which permitted the granting of various types of stock-based awards. The awards granted under those plans may still be exercised, however no new awards may be granted. As of June 30, 2006, there were 1,319,485 stock options still outstanding from those plans.

Pursuant to various business combinations, BancGroup has assumed incentive and nonqualified stock options according to the respective exchange ratios.

| Cancelled | (7,557) | 12.45 |
| Nonvested at June 30, 2006 | 473,739 | $ 21.70 |

As of June 30, 2006, the total compensation cost related to nonvested awards not yet recognized was $10.3 million. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of four years. Windfall tax benefits realized during the six months ended June 30, 2006 related to the exercise of stock options and vesting of restricted stock were $618,000.

In 1987, BancGroup adopted the Restricted Stock Plan for Directors (Directors Plan) whereby directors of BancGroup and its subsidiary banks may receive common stock in lieu of cash director fees. The election to participate in the Directors Plan is made at the inception of the director's term except for BancGroup directors who make their election annually. Shares earned under the plan for regular fees are issued quarterly while supplemental fees are issued annually. All shares become vested at the expiration of the director's term. During 2005 and the six months ended June 30, 2006, respectively, 49,356 and 35,675 shares of common stock were issued under the Directors Plan, representing approximately $859,000 and $743,000 in directors' fees.

In 1994, BancGroup adopted the Employee Stock Purchase Plan which provides employees of BancGroup, who work in excess of 29 hours per week, with a convenient way to become shareholders of BancGroup. The participant authorizes a regular payroll deduction of not less than $10 and not more than 10% of salary. The participant may also contribute whole dollar amounts of not less than $100 or not more than $1,000 each month toward the purchase of the stock at market price. There are 600,000 shares authorized for issuance under this Plan. As of June 30, 2006, approximately 234,000 shares remain eligible to be issued. An additional 400,000 may be acquired from time to time on the open market for issuance under the Plan.

Note 13: Contingencies

BancGroup and its subsidiaries are, from time to time, defendants in legal actions arising from normal business activities. Management does not anticipate that the outcome of any litigation presently pending at June 30, 2006 will have a material adverse effect on BancGroup's consolidated financial statements or the results of operations.

The following table reflects a reconciliation of the numerator and denominator of the basic EPS computation to the numerator and denominator of the diluted EPS computation:

| | Six Months Ended June 30, | | | Three Months Ended June 30, | | |
|--|---------------------------|---------|---------------------|-----------------------------|---------|---------------------|
| | Net Income | Shares | Per Share Amount | Net Income | Shares | Per Share Amount |

| 2006 | | | | | | |
| Basic EPS | $ 131,538 | 154,047 | $ 0.85 | $ 66,518 | 154,126 | $ 0.43 |
| Effect of dilutive instruments: | | | | | | |
| Options and nonvested stock bonus awards | | 1,257 | | | 1,270 | |
| Diluted EPS | $ 131,538 | 155,304 | $ 0.85 | $ 66,518 | 155,396 | $ 0.43 |
| 2005 | | | | | | |
| Basic EPS | $ 110,519 | 144,263 | $ 0.76 | $ 62,331 | 149,782 | $ 0.42 |
| Effect of dilutive instruments: | | | | | | |
| Options and nonvested stock bonus awards | | 1,697 | | | 1,786 | |
| Diluted EPS | $ 110,519 | 145,960 | $ 0.75 | $ 62,331 | 151,568 | $ 0.41 |

The above calculations exclude options that could potentially dilute basic EPS in the future but were antidilutive for the periods presented. The number of such options excluded was 916,000 and 922,000 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2006, respectively, and 49,000 and 511,500 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2005. The increase in antidilutive securities in 2006 is related to the adoption of SFAS 123(R) and the mechanics of the dilution calculation. As a result of adopting SFAS 123(R), Colonial recognizes compensation expense for all stock options. The mechanics of the EPS calculations incorporate future compensation expense to be recognized as a portion of proceeds on the options which may cause the options to be antidilutive, although the options have current intrinsic value (i.e. the exercise price is less than the average market price for the period). As a result, Colonial's number of antidilutive securities increased.

Note 15: Segment Information

The Company has six reportable segments for management reporting. Each regional bank segment consists of commercial lending and full service branches in its geographic region with its own management team. The branches provide a full range of traditional banking products as well as financial planning and mortgage banking services. The mortgage warehouse segment headquartered in Orlando, Florida provides funding to mortgage origination companies that is collateralized by residential mortgage loans. The Company reports Corporate/Treasury/Other which includes the investment securities portfolio, nondeposit funding activities including long-term debt, short-term liquidity and balance sheet risk management including derivative hedging activities, the parent company's activities, intercompany eliminations and certain support activities not currently allocated to the aforementioned segments. In addition, Corporate/Treasury/Other includes income from bank-owned life insurance, income and expenses from various nonbank subsidiaries, joint ventures and equity investments, merger related expenses and the unallocated portion of the Company's financial planning business.

The results for these segments are based on our management reporting process, which assigns balance sheet and income statement items to each segment. Unlike financial reporting there is no authoritative guidance for management reporting equivalent to generally accepted accounting principles. Colonial uses an internal funding methodology to assign funding costs to assets and earning credits to liabilities as well as an internal capital allocation methodology with an offset in Corporate/Treasury/Other. For 2006, the provision for loan losses included in each banking segment is based on their actual net charge-offs experience. The provision included in the mortgage warehouse segment remained consistent with the prior year. During 2005, the provision for loan losses included in each segment was based on an allocation of the Company's loan loss reserve. Certain back office support functions are allocated to each segment on the basis most applicable to the function being allocated. The management reporting process measures the performance of the defined segments based on our management structure and is not necessarily comparable with similar information for other financial services companies. If the management structure and/or allocation process changes, allocations, transfers and assignments may change. Results for prior periods have been restated for comparability.

Note 16: Subsequent Event

On July 19, 2006 the Board of Directors authorized certain BancGroup officers to purchase the number of shares of BancGroup common stock issued under BancGroup's various equity-based compensation and incentive plans (the "Plans") during 2006, as well as the number of shares which are likely to be issued under the Plans through July 19, 2008, the termination date of the authorization. The purchases are not to exceed $50,000,000. For more information see BancGroup's Current Report on Form 8-K filed July 21, 2006.

Item 2. Management's Discussion And Analysis Of Financial Condition And Results Of Operations

Forward-Looking Statements

This discussion and analysis contains statements that are considered forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. See page 3 for additional information regarding forward-looking statements.

Critical Accounting Policies

Those accounting policies involving significant estimates and assumptions by management which have, or could have, a material impact on the reported financial results are considered critical accounting policies. BancGroup recognizes the following as critical accounting policies: Allowance for Loan Losses, Purchase Accounting and Goodwill, Income Taxes, Consolidations and Stock-Based Compensation. Information concerning the first four of these policies is included in the Critical Accounting Policies section of Management's Discussion and Analysis in BancGroup's 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K. Information concerning Stock-Based Compensation is included below.

Stock-Based Compensation

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted SFAS 123(R) which requires all stock-based payments to employees to be recognized in the income statement based on their fair values. Prior to January 1, 2006, the Company accounted for stock based-compensation under the intrinsic value method prescribed by APB 25, which only required the recognition of compensation cost for the excess, if any, of the quoted market price of the stock at the grant date or other measurement date over the amount an employee must pay to acquire the stock. As such, under APB 25 the Company generally recognized no compensation expense for stock options since the exercise prices equaled the market prices of BancGroup common stock on the grant dates. The Company did, however, recognize compensation cost for restricted stock awards since such awards have no exercise price. Also, under APB 25 the Company accounted for forfeitures as they occurred. Under SFAS 123(R), the Company will be required to estimate forfeitures for awards which are not expected to vest.

The Company adopted SFAS 123(R) using the modified prospective transition method which does not require the restatement of prior periods to reflect the fair value method of expensing stock-based compensation. SFAS 123(R) does require a cumulative effect adjustment of previously recognized compensation expense in order to estimate forfeitures for awards outstanding on the adoption date. The cumulative effect adjustment was immaterial.

The Company estimates the fair value of stock options using the Black-Scholes valuation model, which requires the input of subjective assumptions including expected option term and expected stock price volatility. Further, the Company now estimates forfeitures for awards granted which are not expected to vest. Changes in these assumptions and estimates can materially affect the calculated fair value of stock-based compensation and the related expense to be recognized. As a result of implementing SFAS 123(R), the Company refined its process for estimating option term and expected stock price volatility.

For options granted during the six and three months ended June 30, 2006, the expected option term was determined based upon of the Company's historical experience with employees' exercise and post-vesting termination behavior. The resulting expected option term was 5.33 years. The expected volatility was determined based upon historical daily prices of the Company's common stock over the most recent period equal to the expected option term, as well as implied price volatility based on the Company's exchange traded options. The indicated historical and implied volatilities were weighted 75% and 25%, respectively. Less emphasis was placed on implied volatility compared to historical volatility because the volume of exchange traded options is relatively low. The resulting weighted average expected volatility was 23.6% and 23.7% for the six and three months ended June 30, 2006, respectively. The expected forfeiture rate was determined based on analysis of the Company's historical experience with employees' pre-vesting termination behavior.

Table of Contents

For options granted during the three months ended June 30, 2005, the expected option term was determined based on consideration of the option attributes (five year graded vesting; ten year total option life) as well as the guidance of SFAS 123 which stated that when presented with a range of reasonable estimates for expected option life, if no amount within the range is a better estimate than any other amount, it is appropriate to use an estimate at the low end of the range. The resulting expected option term was 5 years. The expected volatility was determined based on analysis of historical monthly prices of the Company's common stock over the most recent period equal to the expected option term. The resulting weighted average expected volatility was 24.90% for the six and three months ended June 30, 2005.

As of June 30, 2006, the total compensation cost related to nonvested awards not yet recognized was $10.3 million. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of four years.

Overview

The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. is a $23 billion financial services company providing diversified services including retail and commercial banking, financial planning services, mortgage banking and insurance through its branch network, private banking offices or officers, ATMs and the internet as well as other distribution channels to consumers and businesses. At June 30, 2006, BancGroup's branch network consisted of 299 offices in Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Nevada and Texas.

BancGroup is primarily a Florida bank with more of its assets in Florida than in any other state. The following chart includes the Company's approximate assets, deposits and branches by state as of June 30, 2006.

| | % of total Assets | % of total Deposits | Branches |
|-----------------|------------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------|
| Florida | 58% | 60% | 162 |
| Alabama | 17% | 23% | 92 |
| Georgia | 6% | 5% | 18 |
| Nevada | 4% | 5% | 14 |
| Texas | 6% | 4% | 13 |
| Corporate/Other | 9% | 3% | |
| Total | 100% | 100% | 299 |

Colonial reported record net income of $67 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2006, a 7% increase over the quarter ended June 30, 2005. For the six months ended June 30, 2006, the Company reported net income of $132 million, a 19% increase over the same period in 2005. The Company also earned record earnings per diluted share of $0.43 for the quarter ended June 30, 2006, a 5% increase over the quarter ended June 30, 2005. For the six months ended June 30, 2006, the Company reported earnings per diluted share of $0.85, a 13% increase over the same period in 2005.

During January 2006, BancGroup sold approximately $481 million of securities. impact on the Company's interest rate sensitivity. The average duration of the portfolio increased to 4.70 years at June 30, 2006.

As a result of a rising interest rate environment, unrealized net losses on securities available for sale increased to a pretax loss of $137.9 million at June 30, 2006 from a pretax loss of $53.1 million at December 31, 2005.

Loans

Total loans, net of unearned income and excluding mortgage warehouse loans, increased by $758.0 million, or 11% annualized, from the end of 2005. This growth was mainly attributable to increases in construction and residential real estate in the Florida segment. Mortgage warehouse loans ended the second quarter of 2006 at $372 million compared to $484 million at the end of 2005.

The following table reflects the Company's loan mix:

Management believes that its existing distribution of commercial real estate and construction loans, whether grouped geographically, by industry or by borrower, does not present significant concentration risk to BancGroup. The current distribution of commercial real estate and construction loans remains diverse in location, size and collateral function. This diversification, in addition to our emphasis on quality underwriting, serves to mitigate the risk of losses. The following charts reflect the geographic diversity and property type distribution of construction and commercial real estate loans at June 30, 2006:

Commercial real estate and construction loans combined had growth of $634 million, or 6.4%, from December 31, 2005 to June 30, 2006. Geographically, the Florida locations contributed most of the growth in these particular portfolios. Colonial focuses its commercial real estate and construction growth efforts on high quality properties owned and/or developed by experienced customers with whom we have established relationships. Substantially all construction and commercial real estate loans have personal guarantees of the principals involved.

Residential real estate loans represented approximately 20% of total loans at both June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005. These loans are primarily adjustable rate first and second mortgages on single-family, owner-occupied properties.

BancGroup's mortgage warehouse lending division provides lines of credit (collateralized by residential mortgage loans) to mortgage origination companies. Mortgage warehouse loans outstanding at June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005 were $371.8 million and $483.7 million, respectively, with unfunded commitments of $940.7 million and $633.9 million, respectively.

The Company has 53 credits with commitments (funded and unfunded) of $1.0 billion that fall within the bank regulatory definition of a Shared National Credit (generally defined as a total loan commitment in excess of $20 million that is shared by three or more lenders). The largest outstanding amount to any single borrower is $63 million (which is a mortgage warehouse lending credit). At June 30, 2006, $469 million of these commitments were funded.

Although by definition these commitments are considered Shared National Credits, BancGroup's loan officers have established long-term relationships with most of these borrowers. These commitments are comprised of the following (% is representative of BancGroup's total funded and unfunded commitments):

50% - 38 commercial real estate credit facilities to companies with significant operations within Colonial's existing markets,

Table of Contents

48% - mortgage warehouse lines to 13 institutions, and

2% - two operating facilities to a large national insurance company and a healthcare provider.

Management believes that these are sound credits that are consistent with Colonial Bank's lending philosophy and meet its conservative underwriting guidelines.

Table of ContentsNonperforming Assets

BancGroup classifies problem loans into four categories: nonaccrual, past due, renegotiated and other potential problems. When management determines that a loan no longer meets the criteria for a performing loan, the loan is placed on nonaccrual status. Loans are generally placed on nonaccrual if full collection of principal and interest becomes unlikely (even if all payments are current) or if the loan is delinquent in principal or interest payments for 90 days or more, unless the loan is well secured and in the process of collection. BancGroup's policy is also to charge off consumer installment loans 120 days past due unless they are in the process of foreclosure and are adequately collateralized. Management closely monitors all loans that are contractually 90 days past due, renegotiated or nonaccrual. These loans are summarized as follows:

| | June 30, 2006 | December 31, 2005 |
|---|------------------------|----------------------|
| | (Dollars in thousands) | |
| Nonaccrual loans | $ 21,957 | $ 25,668 |
| Renegotiated loans | 137 | 155 |
| Total nonperforming loans* | 22,094 | 25,823 |
| Other real estate owned and repossessions | 5,208 | 6,108 |
| Total nonperforming assets* | $ 27,302 | $ 31,931 |
| Allowance as a percent of nonperforming assets* | 649% | 536% |
| Aggregate loans contractually past due 90 days or more for which interest is still accruing | $ 8,608 | $ 10,283 |
| Net charge-offs quarter-to-date | $ 1,443 | $ 3,165 |
| Net charge-offs year-to-date | $ 11,204 | $ 19,211 |
| Total nonperforming assets* as a percent of net loans and other real estate | 0.18% | 0.21% |
| Allowance as a percent of net loans | 1.14% | 1.15% |
| Allowance as a percent of nonperforming loans* | 802% | 662% |

* Does not include loans contractually past due 90 days or more which are still accruing interest.

Fluctuations from year to year in the balances of nonperforming assets are attributable to several factors including changing economic conditions in various markets, nonperforming assets obtained in various acquisitions and the disproportionate impact of larger (over $5,000,000) individual credits.

In addition to the loans reported as nonperforming loans above, management, through its loan officers, internal credit review staff and external examinations by regulatory agencies, has identified approximately $109.1 million of loans, which have been placed on a classified loan list excluding nonaccrual, other real estate, repossessions and loans that are contractually 90 days past due. The status of all material classified loans is reviewed at least monthly by loan officers, quarterly by BancGroup's centralized credit administration function and annually by regulatory agencies. In connection with such reviews, collateral values are updated where considered necessary as loans are deemed impaired. If collateral values are judged insufficient or other sources of repayment are deemed inadequate, the amount of reserve held is increased or the loan is reduced to estimated recoverable amounts. As of June 30, 2006, substantially all of these classified loans are current with their existing repayment terms. Management believes that classification of such loans well in advance of their reaching a delinquent status allows the Company the greatest flexibility in correcting problems and providing adequate reserves. Given the reserves and the demonstrated ability of the borrowers to comply with the existing repayment terms, management believes any exposure from these loans has been adequately addressed at the present time.

The above nonperforming loans represent all material credits for which management has significant doubts as to the ability of the borrowers to comply with the loan repayment terms. Management also expects that the resolution of these problem credits as well as other performing loans will not materially impact future operating results, liquidity or capital resources.

Table of Contents

A loan is considered impaired, based on current information and events, if it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect the scheduled payments of principal or interest when due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. As mentioned previously, Colonial's credit risk management area performs detailed verification and testing to ensure appropriate identification of impaired loans and that proper reserves are held on these loans. The recorded investment in impaired loans at June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005 was $18.4 million and $22.1 million, respectively, and these loans had a corresponding valuation allowance of $5.8 million and $3.5 million, respectively.

Loans Held for Sale

Loans held for sale is made up of three components: short-term participations in mortgage loans, retail mortgages and non-mortgage loans held for sale (there were no non-mortgage loans held for sale outstanding at either June 30, 2006 or December 31, 2005). Total loans held for sale increased $775 million from December 31, 2005 primarily due to growth in short-term participations. The purpose of this component of loans held for sale is to accommodate the funding needs of mortgage company customers; therefore these balances, as well as the retail mortgage balances, fluctuate as demand for residential mortgages changes.

Asset/Liability Management

Asset/liability management involves the evaluation, monitoring and management of interest rate risk, liquidity and funding. The Board of Directors has overall responsibility for Colonial's asset/liability management policies. To ensure adherence to these policies, the Asset and Liability Committee (ALCO) establishes and monitors guidelines to control the sensitivity of earnings to changes in interest rates. The guidelines apply to both on and off-balance sheet positions. The goal of the ALCO process is to maximize earnings while carefully controlling interest rate risk.

Interest Rate Sensitivity

Interest rate risk, and its potential effects on earnings, is inherent in the operations of a financial institution. We are subject to interest rate risk because:

Assets and liabilities may mature or re-price at different times (for example, if assets re-price faster than liabilities and interest rates are generally falling, earnings will initially decline);

Assets and liabilities may re-price at the same time but by different amounts (for example, when the general level of interest rates is falling, we may reduce rates paid on checking and savings deposit accounts by an amount that is less than the general decline in market interest rates);

Short-term and long-term market interest rates may change by different amounts (for example, the shape of the yield curve may affect new loan yields and funding costs differently); or

The remaining maturity of various assets or liabilities may shorten or lengthen as interest rates change (for example, if long-term mortgage interest rates decline sharply, mortgage-backed securities held in the securities portfolio may prepay significantly earlier than anticipated which could reduce portfolio income). In addition, interest rates may have an indirect impact on loan demand, credit losses, mortgage origination volume, the value of the pension liability and other sources of earnings.

Asset/liability management activities include lending, accepting and placing deposits, investing in securities, issuing debt and mitigating interest rate risk. Sensitivity of earnings to interest rate changes arises when yields on assets change in a different time period or in a different amount from that of interest cost on liabilities. To mitigate interest rate risk, the structure of the balance sheet is managed so that movements of interest rates on assets and liabilities are highly correlated in a manner intended to allow Colonial's interest bearing assets and liabilities to contribute to earnings even in periods of volatile interest rates.

Colonial employs the following measurement techniques in the management of interest rate risk: simulation of earnings and simulation of the economic value of equity. These techniques are complementary and are used in concert to provide a comprehensive interest rate risk management capability.

Simulation of earnings is the primary tool used to measure the sensitivity of earnings to interest rate changes. Using computer modeling techniques, Colonial is able to measure the potential impact of different interest rate assumptions on pre-tax earnings. All on-balance sheet positions, including derivative financial instruments, are included in the model simulation.

The following table represents the output from the Company's simulation model based on the balance sheet at June 30, 2006, with comparable information for December 31, 2005. The table measures, consistently for both periods, the impact on net interest income of an immediate and sustained change in all market interest rates in 100 basis point increments for the twelve calendar months following the date of the change. This twelve-month projection of net interest income under these scenarios is compared to the twelve-month net interest income projection with rates unchanged.

As shown in the following table, the Company's balance sheet became less asset sensitive from December 31, 2005. On the asset side, a slight decrease in the proportion of variable rate loans from 76% of total loans in December 2005 to 75% in June 2006 decreased asset sensitivity. During the first quarter, the Company restructured approximately $481 million of the securities portfolio which provided additional protection from declining rates, decreasing the asset sensitivity. Liabilities have become more sensitive to changes in rates as customers appear to be more interest rate sensitive and the duration of new and renewed certificates of deposit have shortened. There has also been a shift to more wholesale funding as a percentage of total assets due to current growth being funded with short term liabilities making the bank less asset sensitive. During the quarter, $807 million in receive fixed swaps were terminated to help preserve the asset-sensitivity position of the balance sheet.

| -200 | 3.25 | 2.25 | (2.8)% | (3.5)% |

(1) The computation of prospective effects of hypothetical interest rate changes are based on numerous assumptions, including relative levels of market interest rates, estimates of rates on loans and deposits given these rate changes, the ability to maintain interest rate floors on loans as market rates decline, deposit decay rates and loan/investment prepayments. Further, the computations do not take into account changes to the slope of the yield curve, changes in the relative relationship of various market rates, changes in the volume or mix of assets and liabilities on the balance sheet nor do they contemplate any actions BancGroup could undertake in response to changes in interest rates.

Liquidity and Funding

Liquidity is the ability of an organization to meet its financial commitments and obligations on a timely basis. These commitments and obligations include credit needs of customers, withdrawals by depositors, repayment of debt when due and payment of operating expenses and dividends. Management of liquidity also includes management of funding sources and their utilization based on current, future and contingency needs. Maintaining and managing adequate liquidity and funding are other prominent focuses of ALCO.

Table of Contents

Retail deposit growth is a primary focus of BancGroup's funding and liquidity strategy. Colonial's average non-time deposits grew by $651 million, or 8%, over the second quarter of 2005. Total average deposits for the second quarter of 2006 increased $2.2 billion, or 17%, over the second quarter of 2005. These increases improved the percentage of total average deposits to total average assets to 71% for the second quarter of 2006 compared to 66% for the second quarter of 2005. With branches in three of the top four population growth states, retail deposits are a major component of BancGroup's funding growth. BancGroup finished the quarter with 13% growth in average non-time deposits in Florida, 19% in Nevada and 14% in Texas compared to the second quarter of 2005. At June 30, 2006, approximately 76% of the Company's non-time deposits were in Florida, Nevada and Texas.

As part of its planning for future funding needs, BancGroup continues to focus on optimizing the use of available wholesale funding sources and growing deposits. Wholesale funding sources include availability from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta, repurchase agreements, borrowings collateralized by securities and loans, federal funds purchased and brokered CDs.

Operational Risk Management

In providing banking services, Colonial processes cash, checks, wires and ACH transactions which expose Colonial to operational risk. Controls over such processing activities are closely monitored to safeguard the assets of Colonial and its customers. However, from time to time, Colonial has incurred losses related to these processes and there can be no assurance that such losses will not occur in the future.

Operational risk is the risk of losses attributable to human error, systems failures, fraud, or inadequate internal controls and procedures. This risk is mitigated through a system of internal controls that are designed to keep operational risk at levels appropriate to Colonial's corporate standards in view of the risks inherent in the markets and business units in which Colonial operates. The system of internal controls includes policies and procedures that require the proper authorization, approval, documentation and monitoring of transactions. Each business unit is responsible for complying with corporate policies and procedures to do so. Colonial's management monitors, and internal auditors validate, the overall effectiveness of the system of internal controls on an ongoing basis.

Colonial generally does not engage in business processes that are outside of its primary areas of expertise but rather outsources non-core processing functions to limit operational risk associated with non-core business.

Operational losses are monitored closely. Operational losses have historically been immaterial to earnings and capital.

Capital Adequacy and Resources

Management is committed to maintaining capital at a level sufficient to protect shareholders and depositors, provide for reasonable growth and fully comply with all regulatory requirements. Management's strategy to achieve these goals is to retain sufficient earnings while providing a reasonable return to shareholders in the form of dividends and return on equity. The Company's dividend payout ratio target range is 35-45% of net income. Dividend rates are determined by the Board of Directors in consideration of several factors including current and projected capital ratios, liquidity and income levels and other bank dividend yields and payment ratios.

The amount of a cash dividend, if any, rests with the discretion of the Board of Directors of BancGroup as well as upon applicable statutory constraints such as the Delaware law requirement that dividends may be paid only out of capital surplus and net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and the preceding fiscal year.

BancGroup also has access to equity capital markets through both public and private issuances. Management considers these sources and related return in addition to internally generated capital in evaluating future expansion or acquisition opportunities.

Table of Contents

The Federal Reserve Board has issued guidelines identifying minimum Tier I leverage ratios relative to total assets and minimum capital ratios relative to risk-adjusted assets. The minimum leverage ratio is 3% for bank holding companies that meet certain specified criteria, including that they have the highest regulatory rating. A minimum leverage ratio of 4% is required for all bank holding companies not meeting these criteria. Higher capital ratios may be required for any bank holding company if warranted by its particular circumstance or risk profile. The minimum risk adjusted capital ratios established by the Federal Reserve are 4% for Tier I and 8% for total capital. BancGroup's actual capital ratios and the components of capital and risk adjusted asset information (subject to regulatory review) as of June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005 are stated below:

Net Interest Income

Net interest income represents the difference, or spread, between interest and fee income generated from earning assets and the interest expense paid on deposits and borrowed funds. Interest rate volatility, which impacts the volume and mix of earning assets and interest bearing liabilities as well as their rates, can significantly impact net interest income. The net interest margin is net interest income expressed as a percentage of average earning assets for the period being measured. The net interest margin is presented on a fully taxable equivalent basis to consistently reflect income from taxable and tax-exempt loans and securities.

Net interest income on a tax equivalent basis increased $17.6 million, or 10.1%, to $192.4 million for the second quarter of 2006 and $42.7 million, or 12.6%, to $380.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. The net interest margin increased 9 basis points to 3.81% for the second quarter of 2006 and 16 basis points to 3.84% for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005.

The Average Volume and Rates and Analysis of Interest Increases (Decreases) tables present the individual components of net interest income and the net interest margin. Discussion of the changes in these components is provided following the tables.

(1) Increases (decreases) are attributed to volume changes and rate changes on the following basis: Volume Change = change in volume times old rate. Rate Change = change in rate times old volume. The Rate/Volume Change = change in volume times change in rate, and is allocated to Volume Change. The increase in net interest income for the second quarter and six months ended June 30, 2006, compared to the same periods in 2005, is mainly attributable to growth in average earning assets and the increase in net interest margin. The growth in average earning assets was primarily in loans and mortgage warehouse assets. For the second quarter of 2006, as compared to the same period in 2005, average loans, excluding mortgage warehouse, increased $1.7 billion, or 13.0%. For the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same period in 2005, average loans, excluding mortgage warehouse, increased $2.0 billion, or 16.0%. The yield on loans, excluding mortgage warehouse, increased 112 basis points for the second quarter of 2006 and 113 basis points for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. Approximately 75% of the Company's loan portfolio is variable or adjustable rate and increases in rate when market rates rise. Mortgage warehouse assets consist of loans, loans held for sale and securities purchased under agreements to resell. Average mortgage warehouse assets increased $509.5 million, or 31.1%, in the second quarter of 2006 and $350.0 million, or 19.6%, for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. The yield on mortgage warehouse assets increased 187 basis points for the second quarter of 2006 and 160 basis points for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. Throughout 2005, the Company sold interests in mortgage warehouse loans and loans held for sale to third-party commercial paper conduits. The average balance of interests sold in mortgage warehouse loans and loans held for sale was $1.5 billion for the second quarter and six months ended June, 30 2006, respectively, compared to $829.7 million for the second quarter of 2005 and $454.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005.

The growth in loans and mortgage warehouse assets was partially offset by a reduction in securities. Average securities in the second quarter of 2006 decreased $828.0 million, or 21.9%, and $882.9 million, or 23.2%, for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. The reduction in the securities portfolio was the result of the Company's continued efforts to move lower yielding assets off the balance sheet and pay down higher rate borrowings. The yield on the securities portfolio increased 46 basis points for the second quarter of 2006 and 45 basis points for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. The increase in yield is attributed to the execution of several transactions to reposition the securities portfolio. In prior quarters, Colonial sold securities that had lower performance characteristics than our average portfolio in a declining rate environment. Securities comprised 14.6% of average earning assets in the second quarter of 2006 and 14.7% for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to 20.1% and 20.6% in the second quarter and the six months ended June 30, 2005, respectively. The yield on earning assets increased 118 basis points for the second quarter of 2006 and 119 basis points for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005.

Another driver of the increase in net interest income was strong average deposit growth. Average deposits increased $2.2 billion, or 16.5%, in the second quarter of 2006 and $2.7 billion, or 21.0%, for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. The strong growth in deposits funded the growth in earning assets and enabled the Company to reduce average wholesale borrowings by $1.0 billion in the second quarter of 2006 and $1.4 billion for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. During both the second quarter of 2006 and six months ended June 30, 2006 average deposits funded 78% of average earning assets, compared to 72% for the second quarter of 2005 and 70% for the six months ended June 30, 2005.

In conjunction with the rise in benchmark rates, BancGroup's cost of funding also increased during the period. The Company's cost of deposits, including the impact of noninterest bearing demand deposits, increased 107 basis points for the second quarter of 2006 and 106 basis points for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005, while the cost of short-term borrowings increased 198 basis points for the second quarter of 2006 and 192 basis points for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. The cost of long-term debt also increased 153 basis points for the second quarter of 2006 and 128 basis points for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. The spread between the cost of wholesale borrowings and the cost of average interest bearing deposits widened to 191 and 182 basis points in the second quarter and six months ended June 30, 2006, respectively, compared to 125 and 124 basis points in the second quarter and six months ended June 30, 2005, respectively. As a result of an improved funding mix and deposit cost containment, the Company's cost of funding, including the impact of noninterest bearing demand deposits, increased 113 basis points for the second quarter of 2006 and 107 basis points for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005.

Loan Loss Provision

The provision for loan losses for the three months ended June 30, 2006 was $5.0 million compared to $9.0 million for the same period in 2005. Year to date loan loss provision for 2006 was $17.3 million compared to $14.9 million in 2005. Net charge-offs were $1.4 million and $11.2 million, or 0.04% annualized and 0.15% annualized as a percent of average net loans, for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2006, respectively, compared to $5.3 million and $12.3 million, or 0.15% annualized and 0.18% annualized as a percent of average net loans, for the same periods in 2005.

BancGroup had an allowance for loan losses of 1.14% of period end net loans at both June 30, 2006 and 2005. The allowance covered nonperforming assets by 649% at June 30, 2006 compared to 563% at June 30, 2005.

Table of ContentsNoninterest Income

Core noninterest income increased $682 thousand, or 0.8%, for the six months ended June 30, 2006 and decreased $1.6 million, or 3.4%, for the three months ended June 30, 2006, over the same periods in 2005. Total noninterest income increased $1.1 million, or 1.2%, for the six months ended June 30, 2006 and decreased $15.7 million, or 25.9%, for the three months ended June 30, 2006, over the same periods in 2005.

Service charges on deposit accounts is comprised of service charges on consumer and commercial deposit accounts and insufficient funds fees. The increase in service charges on deposit accounts was driven by growth in the number of customer deposit accounts. Insufficient funds fees is the largest component of the increase for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005.

Financial planning services include discount brokerage, investment sales, asset management, trust services and insurance sales including term, universal, whole life and long-term care. The increase in financial planning services for the second quarter of 2006 was primarily due to an increase in the volume of fixed annuities and securities sales, partially offset by a decline in trust income and volume of insurance products sold. The decrease in financial planning services for the six months ended June 30, 2006 was primarily due to a decline in trust income and the volume of insurance products sold, partially offset by an increase in the volume of securities sales.

Electronic banking includes Colonial's ATM network, business and personal check card services and internet banking. Noninterest income from electronic banking services increased primarily as the result of growth in the number of customer deposit accounts and increased check card usage, partially offset by a decrease in ATM network fees for both the three and six months ended June 30, 2006.

Mortgage banking income is generated from loans originated and subsequently sold in the secondary market. The Company does not retain any servicing rights related to these loans. Mortgage banking income increased as a result of the Company's focus on the business unit by adding mortgage loan originators and support personnel primarily in Florida. This increase in personnel helped drive total secondary market production volume up $99 million and $172 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, respectively, as compared to the same periods in 2005.

The Company has sold certain mortgage warehouse loans and mortgage loans held for sale to a wholly-owned special purpose entity which then sold interests in those assets to third-party commercial paper conduits. The third-party conduits pay the Company servicing and other fees based on a percentage of the outstanding balance of the assets sold. The average balances of these assets sold increased from $830 million in the second quarter of 2005 to $1.5 billion in the second quarter of 2006, and from $454 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005 to $1.5 billion for the six months ended June 30, 2006. As a result, mortgage warehouse fees increased $2.1 million and $7.6 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, respectively, as compared to the same periods in 2005. Mortgage warehouse fees also include fees received to provide mortgage document custodial services.

Income from bank-owned life insurance for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005, increased primarily due to proceeds from death benefits.

Goldleaf income for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 decreased from the same periods in 2005 because the Company sold its investment in Goldleaf during January 2006.

The net cash settlement of swap derivatives recorded during the three and six months ended June 30, 2005 were related to swaps not designated as hedging instruments.

The decrease in other income is primarily due to non-recurring gains on the sale of certain other assets in 2005.

In the first quarter of 2006, the Company recognized gains from the sale of securities of $1.7 million. The Company also had a gain of $2.5 million related to trading derivatives with total notional value of $155 million. The trading derivatives were terminated during the first quarter of 2006. The Company recorded no securities or derivatives gains or losses for the three months ended June 30, 2006. This compares to net losses on the sale of securities of $3.5 million and $4.6 million, for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005, respectively.

The Company recognized a gain from the change in fair value of swap derivatives of $8.0 million for the three months ended June 30, 2005, and $1.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005. These swaps were not designated as hedging instruments.

During the first quarter of 2006, the Company sold its investment in Goldleaf, recognizing a gain of $2.8 million on the sale.

BancGroup sold seven branches during the second quarter of 2005, four in Alabama and three in Tennessee. Approximately $18 million in loans and $139 million in deposits were included in the sale. Colonial recognized a $9.6 million gain on the sale of these branches.

Table of ContentsNoninterest Expense

Noninterest expense decreased $756,000, or 0.6%, for the three months ended June 30, 2006 and increased $8.3 million, or 3.3%, for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. Annualized noninterest expense, excluding net losses on the early extinguishment of debt, to average assets was 2.39% for the three months ended June 30, 2006 and 2.36% for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to 2.46% and 2.40% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005, respectively.

BancGroup made two acquisitions during 2005 that are significant contributors to the Company's year over year increases in noninterest expense. Union Bank of Florida (Union) was acquired on February 10, 2005, and FFLC Bancorp, Inc. (FFLC) was acquired on May 18, 2005.

Salaries and benefits increased for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, over the same periods in 2005, primarily due to increased salaries associated with acquisitions and de novo branches, normal salary increases, increased stock based compensation and increased commissions and incentive plans compensation. The Company's average full-time equivalent number of employees increased 100 and 179 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005. As of June 30, 2006, the Company had 4,667 full-time equivalent employees.

The increases in occupancy and equipment expense for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 were primarily due to the impact of acquisitions, as well as de novo branches.

Advertising increased for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005, as a result of the Company's increased newspaper, radio and direct marketing efforts to increase customer accounts.

Merger related expenses in 2005 related to the acquisitions of Union and FFLC. BancGroup did not have any acquisitions during the first six months of 2006.

Table of Contents

The net losses related to the early extinguishment of debt for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005, were a result of the early payoff of FHLB advances in the amount of $605 million and $805 million, respectively.

Goldleaf expenses decreased due to the sale of Goldleaf during January 2006.

The increases in other expense for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, over the same periods in 2005, were primarily the result of small increases in a number of expense categories as a result of the increased size of BancGroup's operations.

Provision For Income Taxes

BancGroup's provision for income taxes is based on an approximate 34.0% and 33.4% estimated annual effective tax rate for the years 2006 and 2005, respectively. The provisions for income taxes for the three months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 were $34.3 million and $31.7 million respectively. The year to date provisions for income taxes ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 were $67.8 million and $55.5 million, respectively.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

The information required by this item is included in Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

The Company's management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on this evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective. There were no significant changes in internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended June 30, 2006 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. See the certifications by the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer filed as Exhibits 31.1 and 31.2 to this Report.
