SHARE SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

The Company entered into the Share Subscription Agreement with CMBC on 8 June 2007, pursuant to which CMBC has conditionally agreed to issue, and the Company has conditionally agreed to subscribe for the Subscription Shares. The Subscription Shares represent approximately 4.93% of the total share capital of CMBC upon the completion of the Private Placement. The Subscription Shares will be subject to a lock-up period of 26 months and will upon completion of their issue be duly issued and fully paid-up, and shall rank pari passu with all other CMBC Shares which have been issued.

Consideration

The subscription price of each Subscription Share is RMB9.08 (or approximately RMB7.63025 per Subscription Share after adjustment on ex-rights basis). The total consideration for the Subscription Shares will be RMB5,448,000,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$5,554,139,600), which will be paid by the Company by way of cash. The price range of the subscription price was resolved in the shareholders' meeting of CMBC dated 8 August 2006, and the subscription price was determined pursuant to the price consultation process conducted by CMBC for the Private Placement. The Subscription will be financed from the Company's internal resources.

The subscription price shall be paid in the following manner:

Within 2 working days from the date of signing of the Share Subscription Agreement, the Company shall pay a sum of RMB4,903,200,000 in cash into an account designated by CMBC. The balance of consideration (ie RMB544,800,000) will be satisfied by the Guarantee Payment.

Conditions Precedent

The Share Subscription Agreement is conditional upon the granting of approvals by the relevant regulatory authorities.

Completion of the Subscription is subject to China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited confirming that all subscriptions with respect to the Private Placement are completed.

Other major terms of the Share Subscription Agreement

If the Share Subscription Agreement is not completed as a result of the Company not being eligible and/or the number of Subscription Shares not having been approved by the regulatory authorities, both parties shall not be liable for any breach. Within 2 working days after CMBC's confirmation that the Company has not been approved by the relevant regulatory authorities, CMBC shall return to the Company the Guarantee Payment (or the consideration of the Subscription Shares (if paid already)) together with corresponding interest.

If, owing to reasons relating to regulatory approval, the number of Subscription Shares eventually acquired by Company is different from the number agreed in the Share Subscription Agreement, CMBC will not be liable to issue the shortfall of the Subscription Shares to the Company. However, CMBC will, based on the actual number of Subscription Shares issued and the amount of consideration paid by the Company, return the consideration for the shortfall of the Subscription Shares to the Company together with the corresponding interest.

As the Share Subscription Agreement may or may not complete, Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the Shares.

REASONS AND BENEFIT FOR THE TRANSACTION

Through the Company's investment in CMBC, the Company strives to further improve its investment return and create greater value for the Shareholders. It is currently intended that the Subscription Shares will be held as long term investment. The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) consider the terms of the Subscription are on normal commercial terms, fair and reasonable and are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
