Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

John L. Skolds retired from Exelon Corporation (Exelon) effective September 7, 2007. Mr. Skolds was a named executive officer of Exelon, Exelon Generation Company, LLC (Generation) and PECO Energy Company (PECO). In connection with his retirement, Mr. Skolds resigned as a director and as president and will no longer serve as principal executive officer of PECO and will resign as president and will no longer serve as the principal executive officer of Generation.

Christopher M. Crane has been appointed as the chief operating officer of Generation and has been elected as an executive vice president of Exelon, effective as of September 3, 2007. Mr. Crane also serves as Generation's president, Exelon Nuclear. He has previously served as senior vice president of Exelon and chief nuclear officer and a vice president of Generation. Mr. Crane was first elected an officer of Generation in 2000.

Denis P. O'Brien has been appointed as the chief executive officer of PECO and has been elected an executive vice president of Exelon, effective as of September 3, 2007. Mr. O'Brien also serves as president and as a director of PECO. He has previously served PECO as executive vice president, vice president of operations, director of transmission and substations, and director of the BucksMont region.

Phillip S. Barnett has been elected as senior vice president and chief financial officer of PECO, succeeding John F. Young as the chief financial officer, effective as of September 3, 2007. Mr. Barnett previously served as senior vice president, corporate financial planning, of Exelon, and vice president, finance, of Generation.

Craig L. Adams has been elected as senior vice president and chief operating officer of PECO, effective as of September 3, 2007. Mr. Adams previously served Exelon Business Services Co. as senior vice president and chief supply officer and senior vice president, EED support services.

John T. Costello resigned as executive vice president and chief operating officer of Commonwealth Edison Company (ComEd), effective as of September 3, 2007, upon being elected senior vice president, operational governance and quality assurance, of Exelon.

J. Barry Mitchell was elected as chief operating officer of ComEd effective as of September 3, 2007. Mr. Mitchell also serves as ComEd's president. Mr. Mitchell previously served as senior vice president, treasurer, and chief financial officer of Exelon, Generation, ComEd and PECO; vice president and treasurer of Exelon, and vice president, treasury and evaluation, and treasurer of PECO.

Mr. Skolds has entered into a retirement and separation agreement in which he has agreed to restrictive covenants relating to non-solicitation, non-competition, confidential information, intellectual property, non-disparagement, and a standstill and he has executed a waiver and release, in consideration of a cash payment of $1,172,500, representing his current annual base salary and target annual incentive for 2007. Such cash payment is to be paid in a lump sum no later than the second payroll date following the date that is six months after September 7, 2007.

In connection with their new positions, some of these officers received increases in base compensation, and some received restricted stock units, or both. The restricted stock units the officers received are in the form as attached to this report: Mr. Crane, 15,000, vesting after four years, and Mr. Mitchell, 5000, vesting after three years. In addition, Frank Clark, ComEd's president, chairman and CEO, was awarded 5000 restricted stock units that vested immediately. All of these restricted stock units may be settled in cash or shares of Exelon common stock in the discretion of the Exelon compensation committee. In connection with his new position, Mr. Costello was awarded the opportunity to receive a project completion bonus of $500,000 upon the completion of projects and his retirement. Robert K. McDonald, ComEd's senior vice president, chief financial officer and treasurer, was awarded a cash recognition award of $100,000.
