Nature of change

Example: on-market trade, off-market trade, exercise of options, issue of securities under dividend reinvestment plan, participation in buy-back Shareplus is an all-employee share purchase plan. Under the plan, employees contribute monies to purchase shares (Acquired Shares), up to an annual contribution limit of US$5,000 in any Plan year. Shares are purchased on a quarterly basis using the employees contributions made each pay period over the preceding 3 months. Any Acquired Shares still held by employees at the end of a 3 year qualification period will be matched by the company on a 1:1 basis.

Were the interests in the securities or contracts detailed above traded during a closed period where prior written clearance was required?

If so, was prior written clearance provided to allow the trade to proceed during this period?

If prior written clearance was provided, on what date was this provided?

No. The Shareplus employee share plan trust purchased the shares on the Australian Securities Exchange outside of a close period. Although the shares were allocated to Mr Kloppers during a close period, no written clearance was required because the transaction was instigated by the administrators of the Shareplus scheme in accordance with the rules of that scheme and without consultation with Mr Kloppers.
