Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 19, 2017, The Western Union Company (the "Company") announced that it, or its subsidiary Western Union Financial Services, Inc., as specified below, had entered into (1) a Deferred Prosecution Agreement (the "DPA") with the United States Department of Justice ("DOJ"), and the United States Attorney's Offices for the Eastern and Middle Districts of Pennsylvania, the Central District of California, and the Southern District of Florida (collectively, the "USAOs"), (2) a Stipulated Order for Permanent Injunction and Final Judgment (the "Consent Order") with the United States Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"), and (3) a Consent to the Assessment of Civil Money Penalty with the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network ("FinCEN") of the United States Department of Treasury (the "FinCEN Agreement"), to resolve the respective investigations of those agencies. As previously disclosed in the Company's filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, the investigations by the DOJ and FTC focused primarily on the Company's oversight of certain agents and whether its anti-fraud program, as well as its anti-money laundering controls, adequately prevented misconduct by those agents and third parties. FinCEN provided notice to the Company dated December 16, 2016 of its investigation regarding possible violations of the United States Bank Secrecy Act. The DPA, Consent Order, and FinCEN Agreement are collectively referred to herein as the "Agreements."

Under the Agreements, the Company will, among other things, (1) pay an aggregate amount of $586 million to the DOJ to be used to reimburse consumers who were the victims of third-party fraud conducted through the Company's money transfer services (the "Compensation Payment"), and (2) retain an independent compliance auditor for three years to review and assess actions taken by the Company under the Agreements to further enhance its oversight of agents and protection of consumers. The FinCEN Agreement also sets forth a civil penalty of $184 million, the full amount of which will be deemed satisfied by the Compensation Payment, without any additional payment or non-monetary obligations. No separate payment to the FTC is required under the Agreements. If the Company fails to comply with the Agreements, it could face criminal prosecution, civil litigation, significant fines, damage awards or regulatory consequences which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

The foregoing summary of the Agreements does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the full text of the Agreements, which are filed as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, and 10.3 to this current report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01. The Company's press release announcing its entry into the Agreements is attached as Exhibit 99.1.
