Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

Allied World Assurance Company Holdings, Ltd (the Company) held two special court-ordered meetings of its shareholders on November 18, 2010, one for the holders of its voting common shares (the Voting Shareholders Meeting) and the other for the holders of its non-voting common shares (the Non-Voting Shareholders Meeting). The Company's shareholders considered the redomestication of its jurisdiction of incorporation from Bermuda to Switzerland to be effected by the Scheme of Arrangement attached as Annex A to the Company's definitive proxy statement dated October 14, 2010 and filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on such date. Under Bermuda law, the Scheme of Arrangement must be separately approved by the holders of the Company's voting and non-voting common shares.

In connection with this vote, the Company's shareholders were also asked to consider approving a motion to adjourn the Voting Shareholders Meeting and the Non-Voting Shareholders Meeting, respectively, to a later date to solicit additional proxies if there were insufficient votes at the time of such meetings to approve the Scheme of Arrangement. Adjournment of these meetings was not necessary because there were sufficient votes at the time of each meeting to approve the Scheme of Arrangement.

Voting Results Approving the Scheme of Arrangement
