Eni: bond offering

Rome, September 7, 2009 - Eni has mandated Calyon SA Corporate and Investment Bank, Deutsche Bank AG - London Branch, Mediobanca - Banca di Credito Finanziario SpA and The Royal Bank of Scotland plc as Joint Bookrunners for its upcoming fixed rate Euro benchmark size 10-year bond offering under its existing Euro Medium Term Notes Programme.

The bond issue aims at a better balance between Eni's short and long term debt.

The transaction will be launched, subject to market conditions and the offering is restricted to institutional investors. The bond will be listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

Eni is rated Aa2 (outlook negative) by Moody's and AA- (outlook negative) by Standard & Poor's.

Eni successfully launched fixed rate Bond

Rome, September 7, 2009 - Eni successfully launched today a fixed rate bond issue for a notional amount of euro 1.5 billion. The transaction was placed in the international Eurobond market. The bond has a 10 year maturity and pays a fixed annual coupon of 4.125%. The reoffer price is 99.429%.

The transaction has been extremely successful both in Italy and abroad, in a market still characterized by high volatility.

Interest by a significant number of high quality institutional investors such as Fund Management firms and Insurances was mainly due to Eni's credit profile and its excellent reputation.

The notes were bought by institutional investors in Italy, France, Germany, UK, Spain and Netherlands.

Calyon SA Corporate and Investment Bank, Deutsche Bank AG - London Branch, Mediobanca - Banca di Credito Finanziario S.p.A. and The Royal Bank of Scotland plc had the role of Joint Lead Managers and Joint Bookrunners for the transaction.

Eni and Enel complete sale to Gazprom of 51% of SeverEnergia

San Donato Milanese, September 23, 2009 - Today, Gazprom completed the acquisition of the 51% stake in SeverEnergia from Eni and Enel, in line with what was previously established by the agreements announced in April 2007 and May 2009. SeverEnergia owns 100% of Arcticgaz, Urengoil and Neftegaztehnologia. These companies own licences for the exploration and production of hydrocarbons with overall oil and gas reserves estimated at 5 billion barrels of oil equivalent. Following the closing of the deal, Eni's shareholding decreases from 60% to 29.4%, and Enel's holding reduces from 40% to 19.6%.

Gazprom will pay approximately 1.6 billion US dollars for the 51% stake in SeverEnergia, giving Eni 940 million dollars and Enel 626.5 million dollars. Gazprom has already paid 384 million dollars (paying Eni 230.3 million and Enel 153.5 million) and will pay the second tranche by March 2010.

SeverEnergia, is now the first Russian-Italian E&P company. SeverEnergia has offices in Moscow and operations in the Yamal Nenets region (Western Siberia), which currently produces some 90% of Russian gas. As already stated in the previous agreements, the parties are committed to producing first gas by June 2011 from the Samburskoye field and reaching a production level of at least 150,000 boe per day within two years of the start of production.
